AMUSEMENTS.
The Andrews Opera company seems to be keeping best things for the last of the engagement. They put on "Iolanthe" at the Lyceum last night, and gave the best rendition of the opera. There is always something to a Gilbert and Sullivan opera besides a lot of ring rings. "Iolanthe" is one of the brightest operas they ever wrote. The music is as beautiful as any light opera music ever written. No matter how any thing for bright things can fail to appreciate the humor and keen satire of the lines. A new song in the cast in the person of W. H. Wesley, said to be the finest singer in the company. His voice, well trained and well handled. He sang the part of Lord Mount Ararat with spirit, and his impersonation of a professionalist about it. Jay Taylor made an excellent Earl Tolleray. George Andrews' performance was heard to excellent advantage in the part of Stewton. C. A. Parker made a good character. W. E. Hulburt sang the part of the sentry capably. Nannie Wikstrom and Miss Frick, as Iolanthe and Pylis respectively, were good both in voice and in action. Miss J. Grace Hall and Florence Joy looked pretty and well in the part of the opera. It is the best thing the company has done.

"Aunt Bridget's Baby" drew a large audience at the Bijou last evening. The melodrama chorus by the entire company received a triple encore. The ladies' chorus of children's matinee will be given tomorrow at 2:30. The sale of seats opens at 10 o'clock. The engagement the coming week of "A Fool in the Ground."

Lotus Club Programme.
The members of the Lotus club, who have already entertained their visitors this season by one of the most successful "socials" ever held in the city are evening made a new departure by giving what they term a "smoking social." This is the class of entertainment which has been for some time quite rare in all the large towns in England, and from a glimpse at the following programme a rare time seems assured for those who have had the good fortune to be invited.

Will Hatley, the phenomenal billiardist, will play with Julie Mayer at 9 o'clock sharp. Mr. Hatley will also give an exhibition of fancy billiards. The musical programme will be given by the following artists: John H. Cumpson and company, of the Grand Opera House; Andrews Opera company, of the Lyceum theater; George Monroe and company, of the Bijou theater, including the Quaker City quartet.

Prof. A. W. Porter, George Ferguson, Thomas Taylor Drill, G. C. Farley, Herr Schuchler, H. M. Madison, Prof. Walter Phillips, of the "Lied" Franz company; William West, F. G. Hunt, Prof. Charles Shibley, Ed Morse and others.

James Gray will act as the first chairman of the social, assisted by W. L. Carroll.

A Pleasant Social.
The People's Meeting society gave an enjoyable and well attended social at Century hall last evening. The dancing programme of ten numbers was interspersed with vocal and instrumental music and readings, as follows: S. E. Gilbert, organ selection; H. McClelland, vocal solo, "Love's Sorrow"; Rev. S. W. Sample and J. Kutsche, readings; Miss Hamilton, contralto solo; Mrs. E. H. Miss Louise Robinson, reading. There was an attendance of about 250, which included the elder members of the congregation as well as the young folks.

PLEASED THEM NOT.

Crisp's Election Saved Castle From a Reprimand From Minneapolis.

Soldiers Found the Commercial Bank's Money and Then Spent It.

Goodnow's Idea for the Appointment of Convention Committees.

Park Board Meeting--Ministers at Stillwater and Fairbault Schools.

The intelligence that Crisp was selected by the Democratic caucus as the candidate for speaker of the national house of representatives did not bring any great quantity of joy to the hearts of Minneapolis Democrats last night. Mills was unquestionably the candidate of the majority of the Democrats in Minneapolis. While Congressman Castle has undoubtedly made himself solid with the Democratic majority in the house by his attitude in the speakership, he has not pleased all his Minneapolis constituents. There was a movement on foot last night, headed by the prominent members of the Jefferson club to send Mr. Castle a telegram relative to the speakership fight. It was expected that the telegram would be signed by at least 100 prominent Democrats. It would have told Mr. Castle plainly that he was not pleasing the people up here by voting for Crisp. The intelligence of the settlement of the fight came too soon. The telegram was not sent.

THEY LIVED HIGH.
The Commercial Bank Roll Found by Two Regular Soldiers.

The police have at last succeeded in ascertaining what became of the $1,300 recently lost by the messenger of the commercial bank, although the bank will not recover much by the discovery, as much of the money has already been squandered. It has been learned that the money was picked up on the street by two young fellows who called themselves Harry Wallace and Frank Cray, and who recently enlisted at Minneapolis in the regular army as privates. As soon as they got possession of the money they proceeded to have a good time with it, and for several days were to be seen about town "blowing themselves."

A fellow recruit in some way learned of their find and was given $200 to roll to keep his mouth shut; but the balance Wallace and Cray divided between themselves. The police were informed of the facts as related above by another recruit who was let into the secret, and a search was at once made for the festive young men, but to late, as they had already deserted and taken their departure for parts unknown. As the United States authorities are also after the idea is to be kept secret, their chances of escape are slim.

The police have information which, it is thought, will lead to the recovery of a suit of clothing belonging to Wallace and Cray which they had spent nearly all of it.

HERE'S AN IDEA.
Local State Representatives to Look After Their Own People.

John Goodnow, as a member of the executive committee that will have general supervision of the arrangements for the convention, has come out in favor of the idea of the circulating of the convention visitors that has the merit of novelty and seems to be a possible good thing. Mr. Goodnow does not say whether the idea is his own. It probably is. Anyhow, he favors it.

"We have in this city," said Mr. Goodnow yesterday, "people from almost every State in the Union. We have a large number from every Eastern state, and that is the good thing. Why would it not be a good idea to let these people do the same, and so on down the whole line of states. Each of these states has a representative on the general committee, and it is not a bad idea to have a subcommittee to look after the visitors to Minneapolis from New York. The Massachusetts people can do the same, and so on down the whole line of states.
