

SAINT PAUL.

WING SHOTS.

The joint committee on jail site failed of a quorum yesterday.

A public masquerade ball will be given by the Swedish Society Vega at Market hall, Saturday evening.

The Philomathean society will give the fourth of its series of dancing parties at Lutz hall this evening.

The Ladies Home Mission Society of the city will give a reception to Miss Emery in the church parlors tomorrow afternoon.

Following "McCarthy's Mishaps" at the Grand, the funny farce-comedy "The Fat Men's Club," will begin a week's engagement Sunday night.

City Treasurer Rees yesterday redeemed city bonds and certificates of indebtedness aggregating $1,000.

August Christ, of 379 Lucy street, was locked up yesterday afternoon on a warrant sworn out by his wife, charging him with assault and battery.

The annual meeting of the Memorial English Evangelical Lutheran congregation will be held this evening at the church on Eighth street, near Exchange.

John Bauman, driver of the White Earth and Froston stage, was brought in yesterday by Deputy Marshal Beahm on a charge of selling liquor to him.

"The Creoles," at Hillen New Play House, drew a good house last evening. They captured the audience by storm.

Resolutions of thanks have been passed by the Bethel Sunday school to George C. Cochrane as an acknowledgment of his faithful services as superintendent.

William McCormick took out a building permit yesterday for a two-story frame structure to be used for cold storage on Chicago avenue, near Stanley.

Members of the Acker Post No. 1, A. E. H., will meet at the corner of St. Peter and Exchange streets tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock to attend the funeral of Comrade M. Miller.

"Herrmann," who is now playing at the Metropolitan opera house, entertained a large and fashionable audience last evening. He will give his last two performances today, matinee and evening.

A fire in the cellar of Dampier's undertaking establishment on Third street broke out yesterday afternoon at 10:30 o'clock.

The health of the celebrated gladiator horse killed yesterday. The suffering animal was discovered in a stable at the corner of Goff and August streets.

The little three-year-old boy who was kept at the West side station all Monday and Monday night proved to be George O'Neil, whose parents reside at the corner of Second, Robert street and Chicago avenue, and who called for him at the station yesterday morning.

A telegram from Lewiston, Idaho, was received at police headquarters yesterday afternoon asking that Ray L. Hatchins be returned and notified of his father's death in that city on the 19th inst.

The county commissioners of Polk county have appointed a committee of their number, who, with Secretary Hart, will pay a visit to the jails of Rochester, Red Wing and other cities, with a view to selecting plans for a new $25,000 jail, recently provided for by the county. The party will leave for Rochester today.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Waterbury Manufacturing company, of 257 East Seventh street, was held yesterday afternoon and the following directors were elected: J. H. Waterbury, J. J. McCarthy, S. C. Haskell, William H. Knutson, J. W. De Jong, J. H. Waterbury, president; J. T. W. De Jong, vice president; S. C. Haskell, secretary and treasurer.

Big, Generous, Health-Saving Ulsters, 21st Red Figure Sale, Plymouth

IN FEDERAL COURTS.

William Botting was acquitted of selling liquor to Indians. Samuel Lewis was tried on a similar offense.

In the United States circuit court yesterday Judge Anderson was given a verdict of $2,500 against the Milwaukee road.

The action of E. Erickson against trial before Judge Edgerton and a jury.

Jerome A. Olin was found guilty of issuing postal orders without first having obtained the cash, while postmaster at Arlington, was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary at Stillwater.

The case of J. Martin against the Northern Pacific road is on trial before Judge Noyes and a jury. Martin was a switchman who was crushed between two freight cars on Brainerd Dec. 16, 1889. He received $500 damages, and asserts that the draw bars were defective, allowing the cars to bump together.

In the United States district court yesterday Judge Washburn was given a verdict of $100,000 against the Milwaukee road.

To Hot Springs, Arkansas. The Chicago, St. Paul & Kansas City railway have reduced rates, City Ticket Office, 195 East Third street.

DISTRICT COURT CHIPS.

Theodore Hamm has attached the effects of E. H. Stahlman, a trustee, a pro se action for $250.

Judge Kerr and a jury are engaged in the trial of the action of E. Bond against J. J. Romer against Fiedwell & Sickle and John B. Center et al.

Marks Michael will be put on trial today in Judge Conlin's court on an indictment for breach of the peace. The New Brighton Street Kelly that the plaintiff has a lien for $800.44, and has ordered a sale of defendant's real estate to satisfy the lien.

Excursions South and West. The Chicago, St. Paul & Kansas City railway are selling Winter Tourist Tickets to California, Mexico, Texas, Florida and all principal points South and West at greatly reduced rates. City Ticket Office, 195 East Third street.

Eighth Warders Will Hustle. At an informal meeting of the business men on University avenue in the Eighth ward and others it was unanimously decided to organize a citizens' union, and to sign a petition to the city, going on in forwarding the manufacturing interests of the city. A call was issued for the eighth ward meeting at 8 o'clock. The call is signed by George A. Umland, F. B. Whittier, F. W. Morgan, C. Schmitt, W. S. Esmond, A. A. Barringer, Conrad Bros., Depp, Bros., K. Garrett, E. L. Maben, E. H. Wood and several other prominent citizens of the ward.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY, BEECHER'S PILLS For Bilious and Nervous Disorders.

Top 25 Cents. With a Glass Be Sold.

ALL DRUGGISTS.

TO PAY THE PENALTY

Earle Found Guilty of the Ingham Jewelry Robbery.

His Self-Conducted Defense a Drawback to His Case.

Wants to Be Tried on Other Charges Leveled Against Him.

The Jolly Elks Furnish a Pleasant Evening for Their Friends.

William Earle, alias W. E. Grattan, the man who defended his own case on an indictment charging him with breaking the window of Ingham's jewelry store and snatching a tray of diamonds, has afforded the legal fraternity an illustration of the maxim, "He who pleads his own case has foot for a lawyer."

The jury retired shortly before noon yesterday and returned shortly after 5 last evening with a verdict of guilty. Earle showed some surprise at the verdict, but looked rather peeved, but did not lose his presence of mind. After the reading of the verdict he asked that the jury be polled. Each juror answered that the verdict is his true verdict.

County Attorney O'Brien stated that he would be willing to let the other indictments go without trial. This statement brought out the response from Earle that he would insist on a trial on all the other indictments hanging over him, and that he would be able to prove his innocence of stealing the several articles which were seized by instruments. Judge Cornish stated that the question of other trials could be disposed of in the future. Earle was then remanded to jail to await sentence at a future day.

Earle delivered a long address in his own behalf to the jury yesterday morning. He read from manuscript, written with a pencil, in a low and rapid, but not in the least, excited, tone. He was a claimer of innocence and reviewed the evidence with comments as to the improbability of his having committed the offense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense. He declared he had never had fair treatment by the police officers and others in securing evidence of his defense.

A BREEZY SESSION.

The Assemblers Enliven Their Dry Routine Work.

By Spicy and Good-Humored Sallies at Each Other.

Floater Discovered Under the Kansas City Railway Bridge.

There is No Clue as to the Identity of the Man.

It would have proved a mighty dull and uninteresting meeting of the august assembly had it not been for a fortuitous circumstance had not spiced it with the wit that emanated from a spirited tilt between the president and Assemblyman McCaffery. These occurrences are unique, and they invest dry routine with an agreeable flavor.

The gentlemen to these periodical conflicts are warm personal friends in the true spirit of active opponents of the phases of the legal profession, they each have an innate delight for heated debate.

President Murray unceremoniously referred the matter to the committee on streets, "if there is no objection."

It was disposed of, in fact, with such rapidity that Mr. McCaffery hardly realized what had been done, and when suddenly dawning upon him he leaped over to his conferees on his right and whispered:

"Move a reconsideration of the vote by which the committee on streets was called during a melee, and he discovered Mr. Walsh prostrate on the floor and his husband laboring over a murderous bludgeon. The woman's wailing cry was broken, and she was dangerously bruised and wounded.

Walsh was arraigned in the municipal court yesterday morning on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. The examination was continued until this morning.

Secretary J. H. Walsh, of Grand Forks, spent yesterday visiting the various railway offices of the city in company with Andrew Slotten of Wabaton, and J. Edgerly, of Bismarck.

Messrs. Walsh and Slotten are members of the board of railway commissioners of North Dakota, and Mr. Edgerly is the secretary of the board. Their visit to St. Paul is in the interest of the new official railway map they are preparing for North Dakota.

THE MEAT MARKET Possesses, just now, an added attraction in the form of the altogether finest Oysters that have gotten to these parts. They're large as your hand, meaty, firm, of delicious flavor, make a nonpareil fry, serve excellently on the plate and furnish a queenly stew. Per quart, 50 cents. Unobtainable elsewhere for love or money.

We're generously supplied with a nice offering of Smelts, that are fresh, good-sized, nice, at 12¢ cents per pound.

Comes in increasing numbers, for its Teas and Coffees to Yerxa's. Not strange, prices being 15¢, 20¢, 25¢, and 100 varieties (in sight) to select from.

Our country friends may buy through the mails or they may buy in person. If prices are right, one way of buying is as good for you as the other. We keep the prices right. Favor us with your address, that we may mail to you our Price List.

YERXA BROS. & CO., Right-Priced Grocers, Seventh and Cedar Sts.

A Gentle Hint to Canada. If Miss Canada desires to propose to Uncle Sam this is the year to do it.

Prevent the Grip. Dr. Cyrus Edson, of the New York Board of Health, says to prevent the grip you should avoid exposure in inclement weather and keep your system in good condition.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. Hood's Pills are the best family cathartic and liver medicine. Harmless, reliable, sure.

Occured the Nuptials of Mrs. James and G. H. Crane. The New York Times of Jan. 20 contained among its marriage notices the following:

CHAS. GILBERT—On Wednesday, Jan. 20, 1892, at high noon, at First Presbyterian church, Hot Springs, Ark., by Rev. Wm. Metcalf, Katherine James Gilbey, of St. Paul, Minn., to George H. Crane, of London, N. D.

Mr. Crane (English) papers please copy. Katherine James Gilbey is none other than Mrs. K. James, the maniere, whose services have been welcome to St. Paul society ladies for several years.

She is a woman of unusual beauty and intelligence, and is well connected. Last summer she went to England, and was immediately on her return to St. Paul left for Hot Springs, where Mr. Crane was sojourning, seeking relief from rheumatism. The wedding was hastily arranged, and "Teddy" O'Brien, chief house Mr. James and Mr. Crane are said to have first met in a man of wealth, has important property interests.

FAVORS RICE PARK. A Citizen's Views on the Convention Hall Site. To the Editor of the Globe.

I see in today's issue of your esteemed paper that the market house for the auditorium is still being agitated. According to my understanding of the situation we must have a building suitable for the legislature to build, in should this body order the building of a new state house. We all hope the next legislature will order a new capitol to be built; but they certainly not have the present building torn down until after the session. If they obtain permission from the legislature to sell the market house property, then why not let the present market remain where it is until this permission is obtained, meanwhile using that $120,000 of the tax levy to excavate the site in Rice park and build foundation walls, which would be a good start, and we could put up the building proper within a year from the time that the present market house property, should the auditorium alone cost $200,000, and we had sold the market property, for say $350,000, we would have a cool $150,000 left with which to build a new market house or buy a park site. Not only this, but we would also have a building of which we could justly be proud, and which would be doubly magnificent being on the site of our new postoffice. Should the present plan be carried out, the city would have on its hands a lawsuit, possibly followed by others, on account of blocking the alley running from Ninth street to the market house. The building itself as now planned would be little better than a barn, and be very rarely used, as we cannot expect to get every convention after we have a hall. The Rice park plan on the contrary, would have in connection with public library, art gallery, etc., and would be a lasting benefit to every citizen, even without national conventions. HENRY VON DER WEYDE.

LABRADOR AND SHELDON FABRICS. Ulsters, Red Figure Sale, "Plymouth."

DEAL OF SICKNESS. Reported Daily to Members of Board of Control.

A great deal of sickness is reported to the board of control by poor people who are compelled to seek relief from the city. This, added to the distress caused by the lack of employment, gives the board plenty to do and to think about. It is becoming a serious problem, although, happily, the sickness does not appear to be of a fatal or dangerous type, as the reports at the health office do not indicate an unusual mortality.

Fine Plush Caps, Red Figure Prices "Plymouth" red figure mark sale.

A SCHUBERT MATINEE

Attended by Many Ladies at the Aberdeen Parlors.

The regular monthly matinee of the Schubert club was held in the parlors of the Aberdeen yesterday afternoon. More than one hundred ladies were present. A Chopin "Nocturne," exquisitely played by Miss Clara Mott, began the programme.

Miss Aenes Stahlberg ends, who is rapidly becoming recognized as one of the leading sopranos of the Northwest, followed with the aria, "I Will Exult There," from "Elis," by Costa. Mrs. Hall's voice has never seemed more lute-like in quality.

"Tondoliera," by Liszt, was played in a dreamy fashion, and wild, clear and liquid touch, by Miss Margaret Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Colville sang the sentimental duet, "The Song of the Lark," from "Faust," sung in his best style, by D. F. Colville. As an encore a delightful little serenade was given, "The Neighborhood of the Walnut," "Saterneberg Sandag," by Ole Bull, and "Det Var Da," by Kjalrui. As an encore she gave two of the quaint Swedish folk songs she sings so exquisitely.

A BRUTAL ASSAULT

Committed by M. J. Walsh on His Wife.

M. J. Walsh, of 161 South Robert street, is a brutal wife beater, if the testimony of several eye-witnesses to an assault committed Monday are not in error. The neighborhood of the Walnut avenue has often been a foment to be cause of the periodical assaults upon the wife. Monday Officer Griffin was called during a melee, and he discovered Mrs. Walsh prostrate on the floor and her husband laboring over a murderous bludgeon.

The woman's wailing cry was broken, and she was dangerously bruised and wounded. Walsh was arraigned in the municipal court yesterday morning on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. The examination was continued until this morning.

Secretary J. H. Walsh, of Grand Forks, spent yesterday visiting the various railway offices of the city in company with Andrew Slotten of Wabaton, and J. Edgerly, of Bismarck.

Messrs. Walsh and Slotten are members of the board of railway commissioners of North Dakota, and Mr. Edgerly is the secretary of the board. Their visit to St. Paul is in the interest of the new official railway map they are preparing for North Dakota.

THE MEAT MARKET Possesses, just now, an added attraction in the form of the altogether finest Oysters that have gotten to these parts. They're large as your hand, meaty, firm, of delicious flavor, make a nonpareil fry, serve excellently on the plate and furnish a queenly stew. Per quart, 50 cents. Unobtainable elsewhere for love or money.

We're generously supplied with a nice offering of Smelts, that are fresh, good-sized, nice, at 12¢ cents per pound.

Comes in increasing numbers, for its Teas and Coffees to Yerxa's. Not strange, prices being 15¢, 20¢, 25¢, and 100 varieties (in sight) to select from.

Our country friends may buy through the mails or they may buy in person. If prices are right, one way of buying is as good for you as the other. We keep the prices right. Favor us with your address, that we may mail to you our Price List.

YERXA BROS. & CO., Right-Priced Grocers, Seventh and Cedar Sts.

A Gentle Hint to Canada. If Miss Canada desires to propose to Uncle Sam this is the year to do it.

Prevent the Grip. Dr. Cyrus Edson, of the New York Board of Health, says to prevent the grip you should avoid exposure in inclement weather and keep your system in good condition.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. Hood's Pills are the best family cathartic and liver medicine. Harmless, reliable, sure.

Occured the Nuptials of Mrs. James and G. H. Crane. The New York Times of Jan. 20 contained among its marriage notices the following:

CHAS. GILBERT—On Wednesday, Jan. 20, 1892, at high noon, at First Presbyterian church, Hot Springs, Ark., by Rev. Wm. Metcalf, Katherine James Gilbey, of St. Paul, Minn., to George H. Crane, of London, N. D.

Mr. Crane (English) papers please copy. Katherine James Gilbey is none other than Mrs. K. James, the maniere, whose services have been welcome to St. Paul society ladies for several years.

She is a woman of unusual beauty and intelligence, and is well connected. Last summer she went to England, and was immediately on her return to St. Paul left for Hot Springs, where Mr. Crane was sojourning, seeking relief from rheumatism. The wedding was hastily arranged, and "Teddy" O'Brien, chief house Mr. James and Mr. Crane are said to have first met in a man of wealth, has important property interests.

FAVORS RICE PARK. A Citizen's Views on the Convention Hall Site. To the Editor of the Globe.

I see in today's issue of your esteemed paper that the market house for the auditorium is still being agitated. According to my understanding of the situation we must have a building suitable for the legislature to build, in should this body order the building of a new state house. We all hope the next legislature will order a new capitol to be built; but they certainly not have the present building torn down until after the session. If they obtain permission from the legislature to sell the market house property, then why not let the present market remain where it is until this permission is obtained, meanwhile using that $120,000 of the tax levy to excavate the site in Rice park and build foundation walls, which would be a good start, and we could put up the building proper within a year from the time that the present market house property, should the auditorium alone cost $200,000, and we had sold the market property, for say $350,000, we would have a cool $150,000 left with which to build a new market house or buy a park site. Not only this, but we would also have a building of which we could justly be proud, and which would be doubly magnificent being on the site of our new postoffice. Should the present plan be carried out, the city would have on its hands a lawsuit, possibly followed by others, on account of blocking the alley running from Ninth street to the market house. The building itself as now planned would be little better than a barn, and be very rarely used, as we cannot expect to get every convention after we have a hall. The Rice park plan on the contrary, would have in connection with public library, art gallery, etc., and would be a lasting benefit to every citizen, even without national conventions. HENRY VON DER WEYDE.

LABRADOR AND SHELDON FABRICS. Ulsters, Red Figure Sale, "Plymouth."

DEAL OF SICKNESS. Reported Daily to Members of Board of Control.

A great deal of sickness is reported to the board of control by poor people who are compelled to seek relief from the city. This, added to the distress caused by the lack of employment, gives the board plenty to do and to think about. It is becoming a serious problem, although, happily, the sickness does not appear to be of a fatal or dangerous type, as the reports at the health office do not indicate an unusual mortality.

Fine Plush Caps, Red Figure Prices "Plymouth" red figure mark sale.

TO require them to convey the title to lot 9, block 5, Nininger's addition, to her.

It is alleged that the plaintiff in 1887 conveyed the lot to Ludden in trust for Eugene Finch, who has since died, and H. M. Banks was named as executor of the will of Eugene Finch. It is asserted also that St. Paul Lodge No. 32 A. C. M. claim same title to the lot. The court is asked to declare that none of the defendants have any interest in the lot.

A SCHUBERT MATINEE

Attended by Many Ladies at the Aberdeen Parlors.

The regular monthly matinee of the Schubert club was held in the parlors of the Aberdeen yesterday afternoon. More than one hundred ladies were present. A Chopin "Nocturne," exquisitely played by Miss Clara Mott, began the programme.

Miss Aenes Stahlberg ends, who is rapidly becoming recognized as one of the leading sopranos of the Northwest, followed with the aria, "I Will Exult There," from "Elis," by Costa. Mrs. Hall's voice has never seemed more lute-like in quality.

"Tondoliera," by Liszt, was played in a dreamy fashion, and wild, clear and liquid touch, by Miss Margaret Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Colville sang the sentimental duet, "The Song of the Lark," from "Faust," sung in his best style, by D. F. Colville. As an encore a delightful little serenade was given, "The Neighborhood of the Walnut," "Saterneberg Sandag," by Ole Bull, and "Det Var Da," by Kjalrui. As an encore she gave two of the quaint Swedish folk songs she sings so exquisitely.

A BRUTAL ASSAULT

Committed by M. J. Walsh on His Wife.

M. J. Walsh, of 161 South Robert street, is a brutal wife beater, if the testimony of several eye-witnesses to an assault committed Monday are not in error. The neighborhood of the Walnut avenue has often been a foment to be cause of the periodical assaults upon the wife. Monday Officer Griffin was called during a melee, and he discovered Mrs. Walsh prostrate on the floor and her husband laboring over a murderous bludgeon.

The woman's wailing cry was broken, and she was dangerously bruised and wounded. Walsh was arraigned in the municipal court yesterday morning on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. The examination was continued until this morning.

Secretary J. H. Walsh, of Grand Forks, spent yesterday visiting the various railway offices of the city in company with Andrew Slotten of Wabaton, and J. Edgerly, of Bismarck.

Messrs. Walsh and Slotten are members of the board of railway commissioners of North Dakota, and Mr. Edgerly is the secretary of the board. Their visit to St. Paul is in the interest of the new official railway map they are preparing for North Dakota.

THE MEAT MARKET Possesses, just now, an added attraction in the form of the altogether finest Oysters that have gotten to these parts. They're large as your hand, meaty, firm, of delicious flavor, make a nonpareil fry, serve excellently on the plate and furnish a queenly stew. Per quart, 50 cents. Unobtainable elsewhere for love or money.

We're generously supplied with a nice offering of Smelts, that are fresh, good-sized, nice, at 12¢ cents per pound.

Comes in increasing numbers, for its Teas and Coffees to Yerxa's. Not strange, prices being 15¢, 20¢, 25¢, and 100 varieties (in sight) to select from.

Our country friends may buy through the mails or they may buy in person. If prices are right, one way of buying is as good for you as the other. We keep the prices right. Favor us with your address, that we may mail to you our Price List.

YERXA BROS. & CO., Right-Priced Grocers, Seventh and Cedar Sts.