An Iowa Jury's Unique and Original Way of Arriving at a Verdict.

Bookkeepers Prove Crooked and Get Away With Lots of Wealth.

LEADVILLE, Col., Feb. 6.—Lottie Arbor and Lizzie Cullom, two variety actresses, engaged in bloody affray at an early hour this morning at their room. A UNIQUE JURY.

'Guilty' Drawn From a Hat, but the Judge Interferes.

OTTUMWA, Ia., Feb. 6.—A sensation was created here today by the discovery that the jury in the case of Ed Fitzsimons, charged with burglary, had arrived at a verdict of guilty by casting lots. The judge learning of this questioned the jury, and receiving affirmative answers, immediately set aside the verdict and ordered a new trial. The jury had placed six slips of paper marked "guilty" and six marked "innocent" in a hat, and drawn by a juror whose back was turned.

FREE-HANDED ROBBERY.

H. Clay Bascom's Bookkeeper Played False.

TROY, N. Y., Feb. 6.—Charles H. Benedict, for several years confidential bookkeeper for H. Clay Bascom, the executive of the Prohibition nominees for president, has disappeared under a cloud. When last heard from he was in Atlanta, Ga. He was a prominent member of the Methodist church, which appointed a committee to investigate the matter, as Mr. Bascom refused to give any reason for the young man's disappearance to outsiders. He desired the church committee, however, the desired information. It was to the effect that Benedict for years had been using a system of false entries. He also refused to write Mr. Bascom's name on notes and neglected to pay insurance premiums, and that in the short space of time he had made a fortune of many thousands of dollars. Benedict left his wife here, and she had no intimation of what he had done.

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 6.—A sensation was caused yesterday when Capt. J. W. Moore, one of the best known and wealthiest vessel owners on the great lakes, began suit for divorce against his wife, Mrs. Laura A. Moore. NIAGARA SHIP CANAL.

New York Grangers Enthusiastic in its Favor.

New York, Feb. 6.—The nineteenth annual convention of the New York State grange, that has been in session here since Tuesday, has adjourned. The big map showing the proposed deep-water routes from Duluth to the Atlantic and which has done service in Detroit and Washington, was given a conspicuous place in the convention hall and attracted a great deal of attention. The grangers are enthusiastic over the idea of a government ship canal around Niagara falls. The following was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That we, the members of the state grange of the state of New York, do respectfully request our representatives in congress to use their influence and votes in support of any measure favoring a ship canal around the Falls of Niagara, and as well to support the further construction of a deep waterway from Lakes Ontario to the Hudson river for the accommodation of the commerce of our state and country.

St. Paul-Chicago Roads on the Point of Abrogating the Agreement.

The Canadian Pacific Likely to Favor Abolition of the Present Rates.

Finley Decides on Commissions for Coast Immigrant Traffic.

Particulars of the Packing Deal at Chicago—Bonus for Electricians.

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—A meeting was held today by the general passenger agents of the lines running between Chicago and St. Paul to consider the proposed abrogation of the pro-rating arrangement now existing between them and the Canadian roads. Representatives of the interested lines east of Chicago were present at the conference, by invitation. The difficulty which they sought to remedy was the out in the emigrant rates from Montreal to Northwestern points, inaugurated by the Canadian Pacific and met by the Grand Trunk by way of Chicago. These rates have been squeezed down to so low a figure from Liverpool to points in the Northwest that they are about $4 lower via Montreal than via New York, whereas the agreed differential is only $1.50. By its pro-rating arrangement with the Chicago-St. Paul line, the Grand Trunk was enabled to meet the competition of the Canadian Pacific lines. The Chicago lines were opposed to the reduction, and when the New York lines protested against the discrimination they decided to put an end to it. At the meeting today the proposition was made to continue the present arrangement, but the Canadian Pacific insisted only on condition that the latter restore the immigrant tariff to the agreed basis, taking effect not later than Feb. 15. If this condition is not complied with, there will be no further pro-rating with either of the foreign roads on passenger business by way of Chicago. It is probable that the Canadian Pacific will allow the agreement to be dissolved, as its competitor, the Grand Trunk, would be the principal sufferer from such a proceeding.

CAUGHT BY SHARPEERS.

An Omaha Pawnbroker Cleverly Enchanted.

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 6.—The police were notified today that Sam Snyder, a pawnbroker, had been robbed of $2,100 by a gang who had represented themselves to Snyder as trainers, who desired him to act as the receiver of their stolen property. Snyder agreed to meet them and talk over the matter. He went to a room to which he was escorted by two men, and made a prisoner. He was told that he did not pay his captors $2,100, and would be killed. After retaining a prisoner all night Snyder went to the bank, accompanied by two men, and drew the money. The men then disappeared with the cash. An excise detective is implicated in the robbery.

A Father and Daughter Try to Kill a Cur.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 6.—Three days ago Allen Hines assaulted Rosa Egan, the daughter of Frank Egan, and ran away.
