

FORTUNES FOR A FEW

Options Secured by Those on the Inside of the Situation.

All Property at the Harvester Works Already Gobbled Up.

The Odd Fellows, as Predicted, Will Erect a Structure.

District Lines of the State for Benefit of the Politicians.

There was quite a little excitement in real estate circles yesterday over the outgrowth of the location of the harvester works. Whether from native shrewdness or because they were let in on the ground floor matters not now, but a number of speculators have been busy at work during the past few weeks buying up options on all the available land in the vicinity of Beaver lake. The result is that a corner has been worked up, and the present owners have the situation completely at their mercy. There was a great deal of gossip yesterday of the fabulous fortunes already made out of the deal. One young man realized very handsomely by a piece of rare good luck. Several years ago he bought about 400 acres in that locality, and has since been a dead weight on his hands. When the talk of this vicinity for the harvester works first began he "stood pat," as the saying is, and is now ready to reap his reward. He paid $75,000 cash for the piece, and yesterday refused $300,000 for a twenty-acre piece. Another young man in the wholesale dry goods business sees a fortune in sight, although he is already in affluent circumstances. Within the past ten days he has secured options upon some of the best of the property in the vicinity of which he yesterday disposed of at a handsome profit. The gossip was that in all some twenty men were in the deal and would divide the loot. Now that the first ray mist of resentment has blown aside, there is far less criticism of the selection than might have been expected. The location was chosen there was certain to be the disappointed kicks of the proponents of other locations, and all that is left to do is to make the best of the situation. The selection has stimulated every interest in such a case, and all that is expected at once. It is the intention of the company to lose no time in getting down to work and erecting the necessary structures. Exclusive styles in Neckwear. The Boston.

A THREE LINK BUILDING. Odd Follows Preparing for Their New Home.

Some time since the GLOBE announced that the Odd Fellows would build a handsome building for lodge and business purposes. The fact that the organization has a fund of several hundred thousand dollars in its general treasury renders it possible to erect a structure of the type desired to the architectural features of the city. It was supposed that such a block would be erected on the site between the present headquarters of the organization named, The St. Paul I. O. O. F. temple has been actively engaged in the immediate past in the erection of a new practically assured that the construction of a temple by the order will be soon begun; however, the location will not be at the corner of Fifth and Fifth streets. A prominent architect of this city has in course of preparation plans for a three link building, a structure, four story structure, that will not only be commodious enough for the accommodation of this order, but afford room for a great number of secret societies. It will also have an extensive ground plan for business purposes. The building committee met Monday evening at the Odd Fellows hall, and the advisability of building in place of releasing was unanimously decided in favor of building. A committee was appointed from each lodge and encampment that will furnish funds to canvass the matter. This committee will meet tonight in joint session with the present building committee for conference over plans and to report just what lodges will participate financially in the venture. The members of the committee said to be enthusiastic for the building. Guyot's Suspenders, 50c. The Boston.

WANT A BUILDING. Labor Unions Take the Initial Steps for Permanent Quarters.

At the monthly meeting of the co-operative hall board at labor hall last night the question of building a labor temple was discussed favorably. The labor organizations find the present quarters cramped for their needs. It is much desired to secure accommodations for the meeting of the two-score or more labor organizations in one roof. Then the need of a large hall for general meetings and dances, and which a number are under the auspices of organized labor, accentuates the necessity of having better accommodations than are afforded in the present quarters. Beside all this, the present lease of the hall expires next January. After a full discussion of the varied phases of it was determined that there is an urgent need of prompt action in securing new apartments. The fact that the labor organizations have the financial resources and that there is considerable co-operation among laborers, as well as a cheapness of building materials, argued the advisability of selecting a site and erecting a commodious building to be controlled by the co-operative board. A committee was named to investigate the matter fully call the attention of the several organizations to the subject, etc.

The rate for the round-trip is $28.75. This is the only line giving you choice of routes via either Chicago or St. Louis. For tickets and information apply to C. Thompson, City Ticket Agent, 164 East Third Street, St. Paul; J. F. McElroy, City Ticket Agent, Minneapolis, or upon tickets in both cities.

DEAF FROM CATARRH. I was the victim of the worst case of Catarrh that I ever heard of. I was entirely deaf in one ear, and all the inside of my nose, including part of the bone sloughed off. No sort of treatment benefited me, and physicians said, "I would never be any better." As a last resort I took Swift's Specific, and it entirely cured me and restored my hearing. I have been well for years, and no sign of return of the disease.—Mrs. JOSEPHINE POLMILL, DuWess, S. C.

THE SEVEN DISTRICTS.

Map Showing the Congressional Districts as They Stand.

The Craig apportionment bill increased the number of congressional districts into which Minnesota is divided from five to seven and in a manner changed the politics of the state. In some of the old districts the factional lines created in the past ten years have been wiped out and the battles of this year will have to be fought on new ground in all save the First, Second and Third districts, where the changes were not very great. The only change in the first was the addition of Waseca county, which was lopped off from the Second. This district also donated Le Sueur and Sibley to the Third, receiving in return Chippewa with its 10,000 population and 609 Alliance plurality. The Third district contributes Swift and Kaniyohi to the Seventh, the balance of the western part of the old Fifth district. The eastern part of the old "Bloody Fifth," together with the counties of Wadena, Sherburne, Anoka and Pine parts of the old Fourth, becomes the Sixth district. Hennepin county had exactly the population required, and was added to the Fifth district. Ramsey, Washington, Chisago, Kanabec and St. Louis remain their old number, and are still in the Fourth district. This is a political year, and great interest is being taken in politics, especially in the Dubs Men Beaten. The Bowman-Esher Convention Was Legal. CLEVELAND, O., April 1.—Decision was given in the Evangelical association case, in the Cuyahoga county circuit court, this morning. Judge Esher held that the Buffalo conference acted in accordance with the church discipline, when it left the appointment of the place for holding the next general conference in the hands of the board of publication. The board of publication, under Indianapolis, and the conference held there by adherents of Bishop Bowman and Esher was the true general conference and its acts binding. This was a sad blow to Bishop Dubs and his following. They took exceptions and asked the court for a special finding of facts.

Appellate Court Stands by the Lower Tribunals. Four decisions were filed by the supreme court yesterday, as follows: Mathias Rehae, respondent, vs. W. Q. Spencer, appellant. Order affirmed. VANDEBERG, J. Gillilan, C. J., did not sit.

Lewis P. Richardson et al., appellants, vs. John Farnell, respondent. Judgment affirmed. VANDEBERG, J. Evidence held sufficient to sustain a finding of fact by the trial court that the notice was duly published for the requisite time.

A notice of sale incorrectly described by government subdivisions land belonging to the ward, and published in the county where the land so described is situated, is not void for uncertainty, though such description fail to name the county and state.

Other errors noted in the opinion held not to render the sale open to collateral attack or sufficient to make it void under the statutory rule. General statutes, chapter 57, section 31.

GOT PLENTY OF CATS,

But Had to Close Up His Establishment. Special to the Globe. CHICAGO, April 1.—It is seldom that an April fool joke compels a man to close his store and go home, but there was one of that kind here today. The following "ad" appeared this morning in a local paper:

LIVE CATS wanted at 50 cents apiece. Apply to William Ellis, 100 South Water street. A reporter called at the Water street address and asked for Mr. Ellis. "What is it, another cat for sale?" shouted a man from the back of the store, and the reporter, reassured, Mr. Ellis came forward. He laughed uneasily and explained thus: "It's only a joke played on me by one of my neighbors. I had no cats, and 'Have you had many cats offered you?' 'Well, I should say so. When I arrived at the store this morning there was a string of men and boys, each with several cats, waiting for me. I tried to explain to them that I did not want any cats, but they would not accept my explanation. They insisted on my buying their cats whether I wanted or not. I managed to move them away from the door, but as soon as I got inside the store the crowd followed me, and I had to leave my cats to them. They were very kind to leave me. Every five minutes some one else comes in with a lot, and they have made my life miserable all day.' Just at this time an Italian walked in and notified Mr. Ellis that he had a wagon load of cats which he had gathered up during the morning, and he would like to sell them at the store. Mr. Ellis tried to explain that today, being April 1, some one had inserted a notice in the paper, offering for sale a wagon load of cats. The Italian, who could not understand English very well, insisted on his accepting the cats and paying him, so he could go and get more. The matter was finally explained to the now excited foreigner, and he drove off, taking his cats with him. At noon the store was full of men with cats to sell, and Mr. Ellis had to drive them out, lock up and go home."
