Points About the Devil.

Beware of the devil when he is well dressed. Drive the devil out of the family and he will have no home anywhere.

PISCATORIAL MONSTROSITY.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—It is a very curious thing, to vary the monotony of referring to a boiled owl, or a lord, or a goat as an example of complete imbecility, to say a man drinks like a fish; yet in the square in front of the National Bank of Washington, near the post-office, is drinking fountain and monument to temperance, adorned with a gigantic and particularly wild-looking fish.

THE DEVIL UNDER THE DEVIL.

As sure as you undertake to fight the devil with fire you will get the worst of it. It is as bad to say that the devil may stay in our hearts as it is to tell Christ to stay out.

THE DEVIL UNDER THE DEVIL.

When the devil can't get into the church in any other way, he foists the sexton and gets in as poisoned air. The devil never throws any stones at the preacher who is trying to prove that salvation begins and ends with the head.
