THE GLOBE'S ORBIT

Is limited to no one or two classes of society. It reaches them all, because

The Globe's Circulation Circulates.

The POPULAR PAPER

Is the one that carries the largest number of Small Wants. The one that carries the largest number is the popular paper.

You See It Works Both Ways.

coming themselves. Chairman Mc-Carthy, of the Sixth ward, read the re-port of the committee, showing the following-named gentlemen to be en-titled to seats in the convention:

Democratic Delegates.

NO. 113.

VOL XIV.

SAINT PAUL MINN., FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 22, 1892.

Col. Wright, the Prohibition Candidate for Mayor, Is Indorsed by the Republicans, in Spite of the Protests of the Workers.

A Vigorous and Very Indignant Wail of Disgust by the Many Chiefs,

But the Prohibition Whip Cracks and Brings Kickers Quickly Into

The friends of Col. Wright were bil-grous at this, but the "kids" were in nowise disconcerted, Mr. Reese

A Republican Attack on the City

Administration.

The document runs:

The report of the committee on resoutions was read by Darius F. Reese.

We, the Republican electors of St. Paul, in name of free institutions we appeal to the good people of St. Paul to bring to an end by their ballots on election day the existing carnival of scandal and crime carried on from day to day with a steadily increasing disre-

PROTEST IN VAIN.

Wright's Selection for Mayor.

The whole of the committees having

There was a pause. Each faction

Are there any hominations for

The question raised a laugh, and C.
W. Hackett rose, He could not understand the hesitancy about nominating a candidate for mayor, and he felt com-mayor?" inquired the chairman.

gard of law and decency.

The Voice of the Common People Stifled by the Silk-Stockinged, Kid-Gloved Aristocrats of the Summit Avenue District.

THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.
For mayorF. P. WRIGHT
For comptroller J. J. M'CARDY
For treasurer CONRAD MILLER
ASSEMBLYMEN.
East of Wabasha-
JOHN SANDELL,
C. W. HORR,
TIMOTHY REARDON,
J. H. WOLTERSTORFF.
West of Wabasha—
M.J. DALY.

W. H. LIGHTNER,

W. R. JOHNSON, F. A. PIKE. F. B. DORAN. WARD ALDERMEN

DERMEN.

...JOHN COPELAND

...E. O. ZIMMERMAN

...GEORGE MOORE

GEORGE SCHRAM

GEORGE SCHRAM

GEORGE SCHRAM

GEORGE SCHRAM Second ward. E. O. ZIMMERMAN
Third ward. GEORGE MOORE
Fourth ward. GEORGE SCHRAM
Fifth ward. ROBERT SENG
Sixth ward. HARRY FRANKLIN
Seventh ward. HARRY FRANKLIN
Seventh ward. HARRY FRANKLIN
Seventh ward. HARRY FRANKLIN
Tenth ward. HARRY FRANKLIN
Tenth ward. HANS P. JENSON
Tenth ward. A. C. HICKMAN
JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.
East of Wabusha. T. F. CONROY
West of Wabusha. E. OLSON
Sixth ward. ENOCH JOHNSON
Tenth and Eleventh wards.
The committee on credentials reported the list of delegates—114—as given in yesterday's Globe. The committee on credentials reported the list of delegates—114—as given in yesterday's Globe. The committee on credentials reported that the temporary organization be made permanent organization reported that the temporary organization be made permanent, and it was so agreed.

The "kids" were badly beaten in the Republican city convention held yesterday in Turner hall. They outwardly Water Holcombe was selected temporary of the substitute of the old city committee.

Committees were appointed in short of kill Col. Wright's candidacy. Bemiddenty. This, in Mr. Johns' judgment, was sufficient to kill Col. Wright's candidacy. Besides, if elected, woold he "clean out the gang?" A lso, he did not like the way in Mr. Johns' judgment, was sufficient to kill Col. Wright's candidacy. Besides, if elected, woold he "clean out the gang?" A lso, he did not like the way in Mr. Johns' judgment, was sufficient to kill Col. Wright's candidacy. Besides, if elected, woold he "clean out the gang?" A lso, he did not like the way in Mr. Johns' judgment, was sufficient to kill Col. Wright's candidacy. Besides, if elected, woold he "clean out the gang?" A lso, he did not like the way in Mr. Johns' judgment, was sufficient to kill Col. Wright's candidacy. The look of the last of kill Col. Wright's candidacy. The look of the last of kill Col. Wright have not call the way in Mr. Johns' judgment, was sufficient to kill Col. Wright he last of kill Col. Wright he paid and the way in Mr. Johns' judgment, was sufficien Second ward.

Republican city convention held yesterday in Turner hall. They outwardly took their medicine with good grace but inwardly chafed considerably under the lash of defeat. It was an uphill fight they fought, and they left nothing underdone in the interest of their candidate. It was an unfortunate thing for them that their old leader. Col. Kiefer, retired from the race. He was compelled to do so under heavy domestic afflictions, and the second choice of the "kids" was that of a man who does not create much personal enthusiasm. It is true he has long be a resident of the city, that he is a man of property, that he was a member of the last legislature, but few people outside of the circle in which he moves know anything of him. With another man as their candidate, the "kids" may not have met so inglorlous a defeat. It was made pretty evident that Col. Wright was far from the unanimous choice of the delegates, and the emphatic, dignified protest of that able and loyal Republican, Hon. Samuel Lowenstein, cannot be passed over unheeded But all protests went for conventional as an obstacle in the path of the city's progress. candidate. It was an unfortunate heeded But all protests went for naught with the delegates who represented "our best citizens." The classes decreed that Wright should be the cannesses the controller of the city according to the report of the former controller, the debt of the city according to the resent controller's report amounted in all to $5.58.361.37. On Jan. 1, 1892, the debt of the city, according to the resent controller's report amounted to decreed that Wright should be the candidate, and, in the face of the reiterated protests of the representatives of the masses, it was so agreed. The German delegates, privately, were quite outspoken in denouncing the action of a majority of the convention. The speaking was somewhat medicore, and the repeated references to the gang forcibly illustrated the story of the lawyer who, when he had no case, made up in abuse of his opponents. There was not a single declaration of principle by any speaker; the sole stock-in-trade of the speakers was abuse of the municipal authorities, or, as they preferred to call these officials, "the city hall gang." A man could not speak two consecutive sentences without reference to "the gang," and, as Mr. Munn remarked, "it was either gangwise or otherwise." The proceedings of the convention were harmonious in all nominations exceptive that of prover the selection of the second of the city hall gang." A man could not speak two consecutive sentences without reference to "the gang," and, as Mr. Munn remarked, "it was either gangwise or otherwise." The proceedings of the convention were harmonious in all nominations exceptions of the city according to the present controller's report, amounted to $10,748,655.01—(you will observe the accuracy, even to a single cent!)—an addition in four years of $5.161.291 to our debt. The taxpayer saks in vain where the $5,000,000 went to. It was not expended in the conduct of municipal seven by fully $500,000. Crimes of violence are committed in our midst day by day, their perpetrators being vour criminal authorities.

The law governing the scity in the aggregate exceeded its expenditures by fully $500,000. Crimes of violence are committed in our midst day by day, their perpetrators being the city in the aggregate exceeded its expenditures by fully $500,000.

The gang in the interval the recipts of the city in the aggregate exceeded its expenditures by fully $500,000.

The law governing the sale of liquor at retail is contemptuously ignored, while pol sentences without reference to the gang," and, as Mr. Munn remarked, "it was either gangwise or otherwise." The proceedings of the convention were harmonious in all nominations excepting that of mayor. The delegates were in session from 10:30 until 3:30 o'clock, with an hour interval for luuch.

AT THE OUTSET.

The "Kids" Fail in the Skirmish for Chairman.

F. C. Stevens, as chairman of the city Republican committee, called the convention to order. He would not "inflict a speech on his fellow Republicans," but "simply emphasize the circumstances" that surrounded them. These were "that never before had the Republican party of St. Paul an easier victory" before them. The only thing requisite was for them to show "wisdom, harmony and concerted action." Then the "city hall gang, with its twenty years of misrule," would become a thing of the past. Their nominee for mayor should be a man pledged to honest Republicanism, who, if elected, would "clean out the gang from top to bottom" and give the city "a fair, free administration and a strict enforcement of its law."

Darius F. Reese secured the floor when Mr. Stevens sat down. He nominated Greer M. Orr for temporary chair-marked from the temporary chair-marked from the temporary chair-marked. The conditions are provided in the unme of a non-existent party.

On behalf of the moral as well as the mayor election day the existing can be register our conscientions protest against this state of finings. For the preservation of the moral well-being of our children and the good people of St. Paul to bring to an end by their pall to the past. Their nominee for mayor should be a man pledged to honest Republicanism, who, if elected, would "clean out the gang from top to the past. Their nominee for mayor should be a man pledged to honest Republicanism, who, if elected, would "clean out the gang from top to the past. Their nominee for mayor should be a man pledged to honest Republicanism, who, if elected, would "clean out the gang from top to the past. Their nominee for mayor shou when Mr. Stevens sat down, He nominated Greer M. Orr for temporary chairman, and did so in behalf "of the friends of that gallant fighter and leader, Andrew R. Kiefer." He asked every friend of Col. Kiefer to vote for J. H. Harris, "in behalf of the Republican party," placed in nomination Leon | The Kids Kick Vigorously Against quently a test of strength of the Kiefer and anti-Kiefer factions. The former claimed eighty delegates on the conven-tion, but the result of the vote showed reported, the chairman announced that nominations for mayor were in order. eyed and waited for the other.

Chamberlain, Orr. 7 pelled to break the spell. He proposed to nominate "a standard bearer who will command the respect of all our best citizens." He named Col. Fred P.

Wright.
The mention of Col. Wright's name

The mention of Col. Wright's name raised loud applause from all the delegates, excepting, of course, the "Kid" element. They looked on sullenly, and Darius Reese tugged savagely at his wiry mu-tache.

Mr. Hackett proceeded to draw out the great qualifications and special fitness of Col. Wright for the nomination and office, if he was elected, of which, in his opinion, there could be no doubt.

C. B. Brunson, the standing delegate from the First ward seconded the nomination. rom the First ward, seconded the nomi

Judge Howard wanted Col. Wright to be nominated with acclamation. "No, no," said Mr. Reese, as he gathered up his ungainly figure and appropriated the front part of the platform. "I," with emphasizes on the "I," "have got something to say," and he proceeded to say it. He trotted out the great services of Col. Kiefer to the Republican party; how domestic affliction compelled him to withdraw his name from the convention and how he had presented himself to his faithful "kid" supporters and said: "There is a man who will advocate the policy that I advocate; there is a man who believes as I do in regard to the manner in which municipal affairs should be administered—a man whom I know and love as a brother, a man with Judge Howard wanted Col. Wright to should be administered—a man whom I know and love as a brother, a man with whom I have been associated in business for years—nominate that man and you will make no mistake. Ask my friends to vote for that man and they will make no mistake." Mr. Reese asked Col. Kiefer who "that man" was, and he replied "William L. Ames." So Mr. Reese nominated Mr. Ames as their candidate. He was "a pure, ciean, noble man, of great executive ability, large property holder and a good Kepublican who scratches no man." Chris Brant, of the Second ward, seconded.

in nowise disconcerted, Mr. Reese promptly moving to make the selection of Mr. Chamberlain unanimous.

Mr. Chamberlain is a young attorney, residing in the Sixth ward, and proved a very able chairman. He let the convention off with a short speech. He "did not oppose that honorable, true Republican, that able man, Col. Kiefer," but stood there as the representative of the whole party. He metaphorically cleaned out "the unholy gang" and called up the next business. Walter Holcombe was selected temthat grandest economic measure of modern times, the McKinley bill." This ferred to Col. Wright as the candidate of the jobbers' union; that he would receive the general support of the wholesale men of the city. Besides, he significantly added, if the Republican party wanted to conciliate the Independents they must nominate Col. Wright. With Col. Wright at the head of their ticket "the Republican party and other discordant elements would

E. H. Ozmun, having prepared a E. H. Oznun, having prepared a speech, was not to be deterred from getting rid of it in some way. There had been repeated calls for the "question," but regardless of these Attoricy Oznun relled off a fifteen minutes' oration. man rolled off a fitteen minutes' oration. He modestly introduced immself as "representing the best interests of the Republican party in the city of St. Paul." A very respectable element of the city had expressed their preference for a certain gentleman as a candidate for mayor. He was an enthusiastic supporter of the gentleman who had been named, and as he could vouch for his staunch Republicanism, he thought the present a great opportunity for the present a great opportunity for the Republicans to select him as their candidate, and with him at the head ride on to victory. Mr. Ozmun introduced a little lecture on "opportunity," and took occasion to roll off Ingalls' short poenf thereon, which, by the way, has been hackneyed by the Mitwaukee road as an advertisement for that line. It was a very fine legal point, Mr. Ames' having voted for the Bell charter, which

Major Epsy wanted to take an adjournment of an hour to quietly discuss the merits of the two candidates pro-

The proposition raised a great howl, and was quickly voted down.

G. A. Nash seconded the Wright nomination, and insisted that a vote be taken thereon without any further de-

Samuel Lowenstein here rose. There were cries of "question" and some in-terruption, and it looked as if the great Republican states man was going to be shut off. The chairman came to his aid, shut off. The chairman came to his aid, and Mr. Lowenstein improved the interval by removing his coat. He commenced: "The gentleman from the Fifth ward (Mr. Ozman) has made the grandest effort of his life. That was an elegant speech and poetry." Mr. Lowenstein here stopped short, smiled, and the delegates laughed. Having recovered his hypath he respired. recovered his breath, he resumed: "Now, gentlemen of this convention, I want to ask you one question: Are you going to allow this committee of fifty-five, composed of disgrantled politicians and officeseekers—'' Mr. Lowenstein was here choked off, and the chairman appealed with: "I hope this convention will treat the gentleman with respect."

tleman with respect."

Mr. Lowenstein was not disconcerted by the opposition he had raised, and when order was restored, opened thus:
"Gentlemen, I repeat, this committee is composed of disgruntled politicians and office-seekers, and I want to know if you are going to allow them to dictate who shall be the candidate of the Republican party for mayor? I think it is who shall be the candidate of the Republican party for mayor? I think it is an outrage that the delegates to this convention should be called upon to consider the claims of a man who has been nominated by this committee in secret chamber and endorsed by the Prohibitionists. I know a great many electors who will not support a man foisted on the Republican party. I am a good Republican," continued Mr. Lowenstein, "and I defy anybody doubt my Republicanism. I believe I have a right to express my judgment whether anybody likes it or not. A gentieman threatened that if I opposed Mr. Wright he would not support me as a delegate to the national convention. Gentiemen, I want it to be understood Gentlemen. I want it to be understood that I would scorn my manhood if allowed myself to be dictated to by the friends of Mr. Wright. I thank every one for the opposition that may be raised against me because of my action today. I say my Republicanism will always be as it has been," Mr. Lowenstein placed himself inside his capacious overcoat and subsided into obscurity amid applause and some W. W. Braden called for a ballot, and it was so ordered. The first ballot was

Continued on Fourth Page.

The Prohibitionists Greet Col. Wright, Their Chosen Chieftain.

Stop the Sunday Play

the Faithful at the Bethel Mission.

Cold Water Advocates Hail the Coming of the Millenium.

Other Candidates Do Not Fare So Well and Get Cold Greeting.

The Full Ticket Placed in the Field by the Blue Ribbons.

..... J. J. M'CARDY W. W. NICHOLAS

TIMOTHY REARDON.
West of Wabasha—
F. A. PIKE, OMAR C. WRIGHT, M. J. DALY. W. H. LIGHTNER.

Sixth Ward— F. B. DORAN.

Ninth ward... Eleventh ward. JUSTICES OF THE PEACE,
East of Wabasha. J. A. FREECE West of Wabasha. .E. M. FRENCH

enforced if we do our duty in the coming election; that the saloons will be closed on Sunday, and that the theaters will not be run with full houses on Sunday evening while the churches are empty. It is our duty to vote for the man we nominated last Monday night, who has promised to do all this if 'ie is elected. We have done a great thing tonight, and by standing by our declaration we are certain to accomplish more who has promised to do all this if he is tion we are certain to accomplish more than we have ever done before. We on our ticket." can go home assured of the fact that if we do our duty as we have planned, the laws of St. Paul will be enforced here-all the Republican candidates for ward aldermen were indorsed and really nominated as straight Prohibitionists, but Messrs. Wright and McCardy were not treated the same way. It seems that Col. Wright is satisfied with his indorsement of last Tuesday evening, and so last night those Prohibitionists who desired to go through the form of varieties. We Wright were told that sity of making a formal and public acceptance. The following resolutions that were adopted show this fact:

Whereas, We approve of the action of the citizens' committee in their efforts to separate municipal affairs from party politics, and that committee has made and will file certificates of nominations for mayor and comptroller and nine members of the assembly.

He did not charge that it had been stolen verbatinget literatim, because he was glad the Republicans had experienced a change of heart. The proceedings of the Bethel convention in detail are interesting. A careful report follows:

ings of the Bethel convention in detain are interesting. A careful report follows:

Done in Detail.

The prohibition convention was slow in getting together at the Bethel last evening, but when it was called to order by Chairman Drew the delegates were all present. Previous to this there were some heated debates over Col. Wright's status on the prohibition question. Several of the delegates insisted that he had declared that he was with them on the liquor question; that he was opposed to the saloon, and would see that the Sunday theaters were closed. With this understanding the majority of the delegates at once agreed that the indorsement given Col. Wright last Monday evening should not be resended.

The prohibition convention was slow in getting together at the Bethel last ward, "I was at the Republican," remarked J.

E. Lackey.

"Now gentle sen," said C. N. Woodward, "I was at the Republican convention today, and I heard a great many criticisms of Mr. Jensen and I am satisfied be is not the kind of a man we want to dorse."

"I know Mr. Jensen," said J. M. Dahilby, "and he is just as good as any other Republican," remarked J.

E. Lackey.

"Now gentle sen," said C. N. Woodward, "I was at the Republican convention today, and I heard a great many criticisms of Mr. Jensen and I am satisfied be is not the kind of a man we want to dorse."

"I know Mr. Jensen," said J. M. Dahilby, "and he is just as good as any other Republican," remarked J.

E. Lackey.

"Now gentle sen," said C. N. Woodward, "I was at the Republican, or many criticisms of Mr. Jensen and I am satisfied be is not the kind of a man we want to dorse."

"I know Mr. Jensen," said J. M. Dahilby, "and he is just as good as any other Republican," remarked J.

E. Lackey.

"Now gentle sen," said C. N. Woodward, "I was at the Republican convention today, and I heard a great many criticisms of Mr. Jensen as the final convention today, and I heard a great many criticisms of Mr. Jensen as the final convention today.

"We come," he said, "with a zeal and unanimity that has not hitherto characterized our efforts. May we seek the good of all and not one personal and party aggrandizements." The role was called and delegates substituted for those not present. A motion was then adopted authorizing the appointment of accommittee consistent of one form a committee consisting of one from each ward to suggest names for a city follows:

He Will Close the Saloons and Houses.

An Enthusiastic Meeting of

THE PROHIBITION TICKET.

Treasurer. East of Wabasha-OSCAR WOLF, JOHN E. WOLTERSTORFF, B. G. BRADY,

WARD ALDERMEN.

JOHN COPELAND

E. O. ZIMMERMAN Second ward.

"We can go home tonight with the

Thus spoke Oscar Wolf, the Prohibition nominee for assemblyman, the only one not on the citizens' ticket, last evening, just before the adjournment of the convention held in the Bethel mission at the foot of Silpey street. His speech was londly applauded, and to the question, "What is the matter with Wolt?" the answer came back that shook the boat:
"Wolf's all right."

Last evening's convention of the Prohibitionists was a curious affair, but in several ways carefully planned. Nearly all the Republican candidates for ward nominating Mr. Wright were told that it had been done. The action of the convention last evening on the head of the ticket is an indorsement in return for certain pledges made by Col. Wright without placing him under the neces-comptroller and nine members of the assembly.

Resolved, That we make no further nominations for said offices.

A motion to compliment the Republiccans for their platform was made, but withdrawn on the ground such action might damage the Republican ticket.
One of the brethren claimed that the Turner hall platform is the same as the Prohibition platform of two years ago.
He did not charge that it had been day evening should not be reseinded.

The proceedings were opened with prayer as usual, Rev. Dr. Gulette being called upon to pray. He asked the Divine Power to help them in their efforts to overturn the liquor power.

"We come," he said, "with a zeal and upon in the has not hitharto charticket. The mover of this resoluti was, of course, that celebrated reformer Dan W. Doty. The committee selected

follows:
First ward, C. A. Fowble; Second, Osenwolf; Third, O. A. Firehammer; Fourth,
W. A. Powers; Fifth, G. D. Spicer; Sixth, J.
E. Lackey; Seventh, W. A. McManigalEighth, J. M. Dainby; Ninth, W. A. Fosoi;
Tenth, D. Morgan; Eleventh, D. W. Dotys
''i move that a vote of commendation lent platform they acopted today," said Prof. Innis, of Hamtine, enthusiastic-

"That's right," cried George R. Whit-comb, of St. Anthony Park. "It is ju t as good as our platform of two years

"Why, it is the same platform," remarked C. N. Woodward, "and good enough for any Prohibitionist."

This was amended by Rev. George F. Wells to call the attention of the people to the prominent part the Prohibition party had in inducing the Republicans to adopt such a platform.

"If this is intended to help the Republican party I doubt the wisdom of doing this," said Rev. J. B. Freeman. "If it goes out that we, a convention of tranks, have indorsed the Republicans, it may hurt them with some people."

Not Very Ringing.

This was the overwhelming sense of the meeting, but a committee of three on resolutions was named to whom it was referred. The committee was named by the chair, and Messrs. G. S. Innis, G. A. Frees and A. C. Lackey are the men. The report of this committee follows:

mittee follows:

Resolved, That we the Prohibitionists of St. Paul, in convention assembled, congratulate the members of the party on its solid growth and the increasing favor with which its principles are received. The influence it exerted in bringing about the present prospects for a reformed city government should be a special source of pleasure. We condemn the present city government for its extrayagance, corruption and non-enforcement of the laws, particularly those relating to the saloons, gambing belis and brothels. We demand the enforcement of the laws and ordinances upon the statute books, and an economical administration of the city government. For these reasons we appeal to the voters of St. Paul to susfain by their ballots candidates who are pledged to reform, economy and good government.

omy and good government "The committee did not think it best to insert any indorsement of the Repub-licans," said Chairman Innis, "but we think they ought to be complimented anyhow."

The nomination's committee came in The nomination's committee came in and the report was read by Dan W. Doty. This report was signed by eight of the eleven members, Messrs. Wolf, Dahiby and Lockey refusing to sign. The report, carefully fixed by Col. Wright's friends, follows:

Whereas, We approve of the action of the citizens' committee in their efforts to separate municipal affairs from party politics, and that committee have made and will file certificates of nominations for mayor and comptroller and nine members of the assembly;

Resolved. That we make no further nom-inations for said offices. Third ward.

This report presented the name of W. W. Nicholas for city treasurer and J. A. Freeca, J. W. Doty and E. French for city justices for east and FRED G. INGERSOLL
C. H. MELBY
HANS P. JENSEN
THOS. MONTGOMERY
A. C. HICKMAN
OF THE PEACE.
J. A. FREECE
J. A. FREECE
Tripiciple:

J. A. FREECE
J. A. FREECE

Tor city justices for east and west of Wabasha and the Sixth ward respectively.

"I refused to sign that report," said J. E. Lackey, "for the reason that I gave before. I am opposed to it on principle." Eleventh ward.

principle."
George F. Wells moved to amend and indorse the candidates for mayor and comptroller of the Citizens'-Republican "We can go home tonight with the ticket, but this was pointed out as unhope that the laws of St. Paul will be necessary by several of the members on the ground that it had been done Mon-

"What is the use of repeating our selves?" said Rev. D. Morgan. "We in-dorsed that ticket Monday evening, and there is no sense in wasting that much on the ground that the committee, or eight of the eleven members of it, had agreed on it. The amendment was defeated by a vote of 43 to 20, and the report was adopted. The nominations of W. W. Nicholas, for treasurer; J. A. Freece, D. W. Doty and E. M. French, for justices, and Oscar Wolf for the assembly, were indorsed or ratified by the convention, and then the ward addresses were taken up and the Repub.

dermen were taken up and the Repub-licans indorsed in nearly every case, as follows: Fifth—No nomination.
Sixth—J. W. MeHose
Seventh—F. G. Ingersoll.
Eighth—C. H. Melby.
Ninth—Haus P. Jensen.
Tenth—Thomas Montgomery.
Eleventh—A. C. Hickman.

But there was trouble over this mat-But there was trouble over this matter. Hardly any of the nominations were made without opposition and hints of a trade. The Ninth ward was passed first, but later the chairman said:
"If not too late we wish to present the name of Hans P. Jensen for aldertion, was brief, although his effort was a few minutes raised $45.

"I rise to a question of privilege,"said a delegate. "Is this money to go to the Republican campaign fund?"

"It will not," replied Secretary Woodresentatives of the solid and harmoni-ous Democracy of St. Paul, he was af-fected. The delegates cheered and ex-"Then I give a dollar," was the anfected. The delegates cheered and expressed their enthusiasm and admiration in every known way until the mayor hardly felt like making a speech. The speech of Mr. Willis was complimentary, but it was not like the plaudits of several thousand people. The speech of the mayor was confined in the main to an expression of thanks; but it was so appropriate, and meant so much, that at its conclusion the delegation grain hubbled over with enthus-After two speeches on the necessity of standing by the ticket the convention

Latest Flying Machine. Special to the Globe.

OWATONNA, Minn., April 21.-The latest inventor of a flying machine, Mr. MaMahon, of Dundas, is in this city Eighth, J. M. Dahiby; Ninth, W. A. Fosol; Tenth. D. Morgan; Eleventh. D. W. Boty and to the commendation be given the Republicans for the excel-

THE FIRST STEP TOWARD VICTORY.

The Triumphant Democracy, in a Harmonious Convention, Nominates a Ticket That Will Sweep the City Like Wild-Fire.

Acceptable Candidates Submitted to the People for Their Choice.

ASSEMBLYMEN.

East of Wabasha—
W. A. VAN SLYKE,
JOSEPH EHRMANTRAUT,
L. E. REED,

L. N. DION, R. S. MCNAMEE, ANSEL OPPENHEIM.

ROBERT HARE.

Second ward.

Eighth ward

WARD ALDERMEN.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.
East of Wabasha P. R. McDONNELL

West of Wabasha....E. H. WOOD Sixth ward.....ARCHIBALD MCARTHUR Tenth and Eleventh wards...W. E. SURGON

CONSTABLES.

took a prominent part in framing the work of the convention, but they were assisted at every point, and ably, too, by the older leaders. Of course the convention was barmonious from start to finish, as a Democratic convention should be, and the result was the nomination of a ticket composed of strong,

able and popular men from Mayor

It was not a speech-making body, even the eloquent Willis, in making the speech placing Mayor Smith in nomina gation again bubbled over with enthusa great day's work for the Democracy of St. Paul.

Work of the Convention.

It was a great convention, and it did

The Democratic city convention was

Smith on down the list.

..J. P. PETERSON

O. O. CULLEN

C. J. DORNIDEN JAMES MELADYJ. C. WALL .CARY I. WARKEN

J. J. RYAN, West of Wabasha-MARK COSTELLO,

an Account of their Stewardship and Ask

Approval of Their Course.

THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET. | called to order shortly after ten o'clock

Men of the People Who Will Serve the People in Offices of Trust.

First Ward-M. Mullane, D. Aberle, James Forrestal, E. Magnusser, C. Oscar Maimstrom, George Boden, Wilman Johnson. Second-E. X. Amoss, F. C. Starkey, Joseph Spiel, Ed Camen, Pat Kelly Jr., Henry O'Connot, A. Suess, Adolp h Brewer.
Third-James P. Healey, August Nisson, John Heber, E. J. Darragb, Edward Schur-

WIR BANHOLZER.

Fourth—P. T. Kavanagh, Anton Melsen, J. G. Donnelly, William Christian, J. E. Flan-nigan, George C. Lambert, J. E. Hearn, James O'Brieu, John Endres, M. E. Foley, R. T. Servants of a Well-Governed Municipality Render

CRATIC TICKET.

Called to order shortly after ten o'clock yesterday morning, in Market Hall by Chairman William Hamm, of the city Chairman William Hamm, of the city committee. The delegates were on hand even before ten o'clock, but they

J.P. PETERSON betrayed a liking for the back part of the hall where they spent nearly a half hour in taking over the situation. When the body was called to order Chairman Hamm read the call and the largest and most antivaciatic after the call and the largest and most antivaciatic after the call and the largest and most antivaciatic after the largest largest and most antivaciatic after the largest larg The city committee presented the name of Hon. D. W. Lawler, for temporary chairman and his election was made by acclamation. Mr. Lawler stepped upon the platform amid applause and said:

"Gentlemen. L. Washington and said:

"Gentlemen. L. Washington business. J. Gleason, George M. Kulner, N. W. Jones.

The committee's report was adorted.

the platform amid applicate and said:

"Gentlemen. I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me, and I promise to perform the duties with fairness and impartiality."

The committee's report was adopted, and Judge McCafferty, from the committee on permanent organization, presented a report fayoring making the temporary organization.

Sixth ward......JOSEPH SMITH
East of Wabasha and Rice..JAS. FARRELL

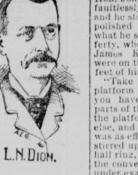

ROBERT HARE.

ANSEL OPPENHEIM

L.N.DION.

Were there along with the veterans who have served the party long and faithfully, and it was hard to decide which element was the more enthusiastic and confident. Such stalwarts of the new generation of leaders as Hon. Dan W. Lawler, Hon. C. H. Benedict, Hon. John W. Willis and Hon. John H. Ives took a prominent part in framing the were many without on product of an analysis of the special placing Mayor Smith in anomination, was brief, attnough his effort was present the name of Hans P. Jensen for alderman in the Ninth ward.

"If not too late we wish to present the name of Hans P. Jensen for alderman in the Ninth ward."

"that we have nominated a number of the men nominated by the Republicans today. Now I move that we reconsider the vote in that report. The other evening we overwhelmingly inforest the vote in that report. The other evening we overwhelmingly inforest the vote in that report. The other evening we overwhelmingly inforest the vote in the present of the present of the vote in the present of the present of the vote in the present of the vote in the present of the present of the vote in the present of the present of the vote in the present of the vote in the present of the present of the present of the vote in the present of the vote in the present of the pr

eier, Joseph Ehrmantraut, Patrick O'Brien

faultiessly attired, as usual, to his feet, and he started in upon one of his most polished periods. But no one heard what he said, not even Judge McCafferty, who sat on one side the aisle, or James King or Paul Lavailee, who were on the other side and within three were on the other side and within three feet of him.

"Take the platform!" "Take the platform and give us the bost speech you have!" were the cries from all parts of the hall. And Mr. Willis took the platform; he could not do anything else, and he gave them a speech that was as effective as it was polished. It stirred up the boys, and made the old hall ring, bringing back memories of

DEFECTIVE PAGE