Inaugural Day of Spring Meetings Brings Out Good Fields.

Phil Dwyer Wins the Two Thousand at Nashville in Handy Style.

The Favorite for Distillers' Stake at Lexington Got the Place.

At St. Louis Heltzer Skelter Landed the Prize Event of the Day.

NASHVILLE, April 30.—The opening day of the spring meeting of the West Side Jockey club was attended by a large crowd, a good track and pleasant weather. The first race, a two-year-old stakes race, for which J. M. Brown & Co.'s Tom Elliott and Little Billy, Ed Corrigan's Phil Dwyer and Lew Weir, and Isaac Wolf's Lord Willoughby faced the starter. The Corriean entry was the favorite throughout at 1 to 2, and won handily. The race was a very pretty one, the horses bunching on the back stretch and racing to the stretch, when Phil Dwyer came with a rush and won easily by three lengths. Little Billy secured third in the home run, and probably interfered with Tom Elliott's chances by bumping against him. Five of the six favorites won. Summaries: First race, six furlongs—Brown won, Geo. second, America last. Time, 1:45. Second race, four furlongs—The Heaver won, Queen last, second, Berwin third. Time, 1:34. Third race, mile and a half—Red Light won, Marietta second, Anna Brown third. Time, 1:45. Fourth race, two thousand stake, for two-year-olds, mile and a half—Phil Dwyer won, Tom Elliott second, Little Billy third. Time, 2:34. Fifth race, four and a half furlongs—Interior won, Koko second, Leon S third. Time, 1:58. Sixth race, mile—Miss Tatten won, Henry Heltzer second, Joe Wootman third. Time, 1:45.

RACING IN "SAINTUCK." Lexington's Principal Event Won by Wadsworth.

LINGTON, April 30.—The spring meeting of the recently organized Kentucky association opened in a blaze of glory. It was an ideal spring day, and the attendance was the largest known in years. Five excellent races were on the programme, the principal one being the Distillers' stake for colts, mile and a sixteenth. Bermynd was scratched, leaving Ethel, J. A. Wadsworth and Newton as starters. Eighteen bookmakers were in line, and the racing was the heaviest known in this section.

The opening race was a spin of three-quarter mile for three-year-olds and upwards. Sable McCreath and Bull Blackburn were the favorites, but the latter was out of the race at the start, and Sable McCreath won by a margin of two lengths in front of Sable McCreath. Time, 1:24. The second race had no starter, and was won by the field. Time, 1:24. The third race, the Distillers' stake, $2,000 added—Ethel, J. A. Wadsworth, and Newton, mile and a sixteenth—Ethel won, Newton second, Wadsworth third. Time, 1:50. The fourth race, a half mile dash for two-year-olds, mile and a sixteenth—Ethel won, Newton second, Wadsworth third. Time, 1:29. The fifth race, a half mile dash for two-year-olds, mile and a sixteenth—Ethel won, Newton second, Wadsworth third. Time, 1:29.

GEN. WELLS DEAD.

HEART DISEASE Suddenly Kills a Noted Vermont.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Gen. William Wells, one of the best known citizens of Vermont, who was prominently spoken of last year as likely to be the successor of Secretary of War Proctor in President Harrison's cabinet, died suddenly yesterday in a William Street hotel in New York city. He was born in Waterbury, Vt., Dec. 18, 1837. He enlisted as a volunteer at the outbreak of the rebellion, and followed with distinction throughout the war. He was brevetted brigadier general of volunteers Feb. 22, 1865, and on March 30 of the same year was brevetted major general.

NEW HAMPSHIRE'S DELEGATION.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 30.—The Republican state convention will meet at Hartford on Tuesday. The delegates at large will probably be Gov. Buckley, of Hartford; James P. Platt, of Meriden; Thomas Lake, of Windsor; and ex-Lieut. Gov. L. M. Cole, of Brooklyn. The sentiment of the party leaders is one of opposition to sending an instructed delegation to Minneapolis.

D. B. HILL'S STRENGTH.

Belmont Says It Is Owing to Unjust Vilification.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Before sailing for Europe today ex-Congressman Perry Belmont was asked in regard to his preference among the candidates named for the nomination at Chicago. Mr. Belmont promptly answered that his first choice is Senator Hill, not only because the New York Democracy had so decidedly pronounced for him, but because he believed Senator Hill to be in every way the best and safest candidate. "Do you really think Senator Hill will be nominated?" he was asked. "Mr. Belmont said that he did, and for the reason that he is confident the delegates from the West and the South will give Hill their support after forming their opinions from the facts presented. "It will be the character of those facts and opinions."

"Chiefly the record of Mr. Cleveland's inability when a candidate to enlist the full Democratic organization in New York," said Mr. Belmont.

"Nobody, at least no Democrat, doubts the competency and experience of Mr. Cleveland. It is his record as a candidate which will win any New York delegate at Chicago question the fitness of Gorman, or Carlisle, or Gray, or any one else. It is not a question of fitness for Cleveland, Gorman, Carlisle, or Palmer for what is fit and competent to be president—but the real question is, what Democrat can most surely carry New York and with New York carry New Jersey and Connecticut. There will not be at Chicago any occasion for bad temper or ill-feeling. Democratic politicians in the South and West know what a Democratic organization in New York state means, and they will respect the meaning. What the Chicago convention has to do is to nominate a candidate who can preserve Democratic control over the Southern states by a reasonable attitude toward the Farmers' Alliance, and can carry the four Northern states of New York, Indiana, New Jersey and Connecticut. That is the problem. Indiana will speak for itself, and New York, having a full and complete record of the country, and nearly a tenth of all the presidential electors, will answer for itself."

"But," was asked, "don't you really believe that Cleveland can carry New York in November?"

"You must find the answer in the record of Mr. Cleveland's campaigns in New York," replied Mr. Belmont. "I cannot discover anything to justify me as a delegate to call any man as good as Mr. Cleveland will be even as strong in New York in November, 1892, as he was in 1888. I may regret it, and do regret it, but facts are not to be ignored, and the responsibility of each delegate required him to consider them. It is not of much avail to go into the details of Cleveland's falling off in New York, even since 1888, but it may be said, and it will be said, that the unjust and unmeasured condemnation by Mr. Cleveland's partisans of Senator Hill and Tammany hall, the New York legislature, and the Democratic organization, explains much of it."

"Every Democratic politician knows how the Democratic rank and file receive abuse from the press, and are denounced as members of the semi-criminal classes, they naturally resent it, and even Mr. Croker cannot overlook the fact that the population of New York is so much against the attacks are made. In my opinion one powerful reason why Gov. Hill has been so popular at the ballot boxes since 1882 is that he has been so unjustly vilified by Republican and Mugwump newspapers."

WHITNEY'S CHANCE.

Cleveland and Hill Out of It, He May Step In.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—There was a rumor abroad yesterday to the effect that ex-Congressman McAdoo, of New Jersey, who is here, could be a missionary from the Cleveland managers in New York to propose that both Hill and Cleveland be withdrawn from the presidential race in favor of William C. Whitney. It is said that Whitney, if Mr. Cleveland are at last beginning to realize that he cannot be elected without the New York vote, and that Whitney as Senator Hill has the seventy-two delegates pledged to him there is sure to be a bitter and perhaps fatal factional fight in the Empire state.

FIRE SURVEY OF RENOVATION.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 30.—Gov. Fier's friends were jubilant today over the outlook for the coming Republican state convention. It is said that one newspaper there is no longer a particle of doubt that "Private Joe" will be named to make the race against Judge Alford, the Democratic nominee for governor.

TIPPENCANE CONVENTION.

CHICAGO, April 30.—The old Tippecanoe club met today and adopted resolutions urging the renomination of President Harrison, and made preliminary arrangements for a national convention of all the Tippecanoe clubs in the United States.

THOSE PARK LEASES.

Mr. Walters, of Montana, Tells Part of His Story.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The question of the Yellowstone Park leases was investigated by the house public lands committee this morning. E. C. Walters, of Montana, for four years manager of the Yellowstone Park association, testifying. A letter was presented and read to the committee by him which was addressed to F. F. Oakes, of St. Louis, and was in substance as follows:

"The party to whom the $5,000 worth of Yellowstone Park association stock is to go, when paid for in dividends, is R. C. Kerens, of St. Louis. Will you please have Mr. Gibson, or my lawyer, notify him of the amount, namely, that the amount is held by order of the directors. My friend will probably explain to him as fully as he desires."

RETAILERIAL CANAL TOLLS.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The president has prepared a message to congress, calling attention to the tolls imposed by the Canadian government on American vessels using the Welland and St. Lawrence canals, and suggesting the propriety of legislation imposing similar tolls on Canadian vessels using the Saint Ste. Marie canal. The message will probably be transmitted next week.

NATIONAL CASH BALANCE.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The public debt statement to be issued Monday will show a cash balance of $129,000,000, a decrease of nearly $4,000,000 since April 1. The increase in the expenditures was principally on account of pensions and interest on bonds.

ICEMAN O'SULLIVAN DYING.

JOLIET, Ill., April 30.—Patrick O'Sullivan, the iceman, who is serving a life sentence in the Illinois penitentiary for the murder of Dr. Cronin, is not expected to live. He has been requested to make his last will and testament. The nature of the disease is consumption, and it is thought his companions are well. No confession has been made.

LITTLE TO LIVE FOR.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Mr. Homer R. Baldwin, who was so frightfully injured in the wreck on the New York Central railroad near Hastings Christmas evening, is recovering from her ent to carry away her husband's soiled clothing. The boy presented himself in due time, and was wearing a very cumbersome bundle. He succeeded in passing one turnkey, though questioned as to what it contained, and was on the verge of walking from the outer gate when he was

The Mission to Denmark Excites a Warm Discussion as to Abolition.

As a Result of Good Work It Will Remain Intact as at Present.

National Park Investigation Developing Interesting Testimony.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—By clever tactics the Democrats from the Northwest today succeeded in restoring to Denmark her separate mission. The amendment was proposed by a Republican, Mr. Post, of Illinois, and was warmly advocated by him, but its importance came from the fact that Democrats, Mr. Butler, of Iowa (who had prepared a similar amendment), led the fight, and so many other Democrats followed his lead that Mr. Blount thought it politic to yield gracefully and surrendered without a voting struggle.

Then the New Orleans Italy intelligible presented itself through the diplomatic emergency appropriation. The president was subjected to much adverse criticism for his action in paying the Italian indemnity out of the emergency fund. But, as the emergency fund is in the nature of a secret service appropriation, it cannot be definitely stated how it is expended. An amendment made by Mr. Chipman, of Michigan, prohibiting the use of money in settlement of claims of foreign citizens, was passed over.

Injust Discrimination.

On the amendment concerning the Danish mission, Mr. Hall, of Minnesota, said: "If the proposition embraced in the pending bill was to radically reform our diplomatic service by wholesale and wholesale wiping out of the whole system of high-titled functionaries and placing the foreign business of the nation upon a business basis, I would cheerfully support it. But that is not the proposition. The bill proposes to retain the present high-titled functionaries, I think, except to the Scandinavian countries of northern Europe. It cuts off, or rather consolidates, these countries for the sake of economy, we are told. It says to these nations: We cannot afford to give you the whole of a minister's salary and pay you an extraordinary, and therefore we will give you the half of one. [Laughter.] It does this, as it is said, because our trade, our commercial relations with these countries are small. That is true, but I want to call your attention to the fact that our social relations with them are great. The people whom Sweden, Norway and Denmark have sent to us among the most industrious, best educated, law-abiding, moral and christianized people who have come to us from any part of the old world."

So long as you maintain these envoys extraordinary and—I have forgotten the rest of the title, [laughter] everywhere else, and maintain them as you do, wholly as a matter of courtesy, I insist that as a matter of courtesy, not merely to the people of those countries, but to those with whom we are with us and a part of us; that you shall maintain with the court of their fatherland, these envoys extraordinary and ministers plenipotentiary in all the pomp, pride and circumstance of an ancient and antiquated diplomacy. [Applause.]

CASTLE'S PROTEST.

Mr. Castle, of Minnesota, also spoke briefly on the bill. He said: "I represent a large number of the yellow-race of the North as a majority of these nations represent citizens of all other nationalities, and I certainly could not support a measure of this kind, which would pass without entering my protest against it. It is a discrimination against a race, and it is a measure of this kind, which would pass without entering my protest against it. It is a discrimination against a race, and it is a measure of this kind, which would pass without entering my protest against it."

Mr. Castle dwelt at length upon the historical greatness of the Norsemen, and continued: "This bill proposes to reduce to the level of the population of the land of their birth and the homes of their fathers. But show me the man of the same ancient race has imbued our proud Anglo-Saxons with about all of worth or honor as they are. I will show you one who will always be a credit to his own land and that of his country. The Scandinavian portion of our country represent a portion more nearly homogeneous with our own than any other race of men. They are in full sympathy with our institutions. They come here filled with the spirit of republicanism, and assimilate with the laws and the moral institutions of our commonwealth as though to the man born. In my own state, 2,000,000 of the population are Scandinavians. Three-fourths of the old first Minnesota, the first regiment offered the United States at the outbreak of the war, were Scandinavians, and in concluding protested against the bill. So thorough was the protest that the bill was not passed. It has been made of the house that all Western men united with the Minnesota men."

SENTENCED TO DIE.

A Chicago Man Charges the Police With Malice.

CHICAGO, April 30.—George Painter was today sentenced to be hung June 24, for the murder of his mistress, Alice Martin. It is the first case in Chicago since the execution of the anarchists, in which the death penalty has been given. Painter caused a sensation in court by demanding a private interview with the judge, saying he was afraid to speak publicly. His communication was in regard to the police, and amounted to an accusation that the evidence against him had been manufactured.

CHICAGO, April 30.—The state officials expressed the belief that they have discovered a new and sensational piece of evidence in connection with the charge against Dr. Henry Martyn Scudder of murdering his mother-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth W. Parker Dunton. Large blood spots, it is said, have been discovered in one of the overcoat pockets of the accused, a fact upon which the prosecution proposes to build the theory that it contained the weapon with which the murder was committed.

RETALIATED BY BLOOD.

Today Mrs. Dr. Scudder made an unsuccessful attempt to take the coat from the county jail, where the accused is confined. She went to the jail and sought the usual interview, which was granted. Then she told jailer Morris that her little boy would soon be present to carry away her husband's soiled clothing. The boy presented himself in due time, and was wearing a very cumbersome bundle. He succeeded in passing one turnkey, though questioned as to what it contained, and was on the verge of walking from the outer gate when he was by the guard, who was about to allow him to pass. Noticing the character of the bundle, however, the latter declared he would have to examine it. The mother, who had in the meantime been holding a conversation with her husband, then appeared on the scene. She first threatened, then begged and pleaded, but without avail. She stuck to the bundle, however, till it was forcibly removed by two men from her possession.

[Applause.]

Water broke down when shown the letter to Oakes, and was unable to speak for some time. It seems that Oakes and Charles Gibson decided not to hand over the stock, and that that Waters broke through. Complaint was made that Wadsworth was using his stage hands as a political weapon against Carter, now general land commissioner, but at that time a candidate for congress, and Secretary Elihu, and it will be remembered that his name appeared in connection with the star route frauds. It is hinted that General Land Commissioner Carter will be drawn into the investigation before the matter is settled, and still more interesting developments are looked for.
