

SAIN PAUL.

BOILED TO BREVIETY.

James Sydman conducted the service last evening at St. Paul's...

Rev. Thomas McClary, of Bates Avenue M. E. church, will deliver the Fourth of July address at Windsor today.

Mrs. J. M. Truesworthy, the mother of Mrs. Albert Schumann, died yesterday morning at the residence of her daughter, 709 Selby avenue.

Marriage and Union Parks will have a fine display of fireworks this evening. About $700 worth of the finest pieces made have been purchased and will be sent up from Terrace park, at the end of Selby avenue...

The regular monthly meeting of the West Seventh Street district union will be held on Tuesday evening this month, instead of the 10th, as the meeting will be held at the same hour and place, and the principal business will be the holding of a picnic.

A nine-year-old lad named Tony Schultz has been missing from his home, 697 Charles street, since last Thursday.

The annual expansion of the Ramsey County Junior Pioneers will take place on Thursday, the 1st of July, at Lindstrom. All arrangements for the picnic will be completed by the time of the meeting...

The St. Paul Turners took an outing yesterday afternoon at Butterfield Grove, on the banks of the Mississippi, near Fort Snelling. The society and their friends turned out in large numbers and had a very pleasant afternoon. Exhibition turning was indulged in by all classes, some of them showing excellent proficiency in the different lines of athletics. The outing proved so successful and pleasant that the Germans Turnverein decided to entertain again today at the same place.

NORTHWESTERNERS EAST. Special to the Globe. Mrs. J. M. Truesworthy, of Anderson, of Minneapolis, and J. Lusk, of St. Paul, arrived early the first of the week in Paris, and registered at the Normandy.

Miss H. A. Arlitz, of St. Paul, was a guest of the Anderson, Boston, the early part of the week.

Miss Bessie S. Hoops, of Duluth, was a guest during the week of the Haddon Hall, Lake Minnetonka.

Mrs. G. M. Morris and daughter, of St. Paul, are guests for the summer of her mother, Mrs. J. M. Truesworthy, at Monticello, Me.

Mrs. and Miss Elizabeth, of Minneapolis, are presently located at the park, Asbury Park, N. J.

Miss H. A. Arlitz, of St. Paul, was a guest a few days of the week of the Colonnade, Philadelphia.

Thomas Lewis, of Minnesota, paid the fifth Avenue, New York, a short visit this week.

Last week at the Church of Disciples, Boston, occurred the marriage of Miss Alice Lillian Ames to Gerald Walter, of Boston. Rev. Charles G. Ames, father of the bride, officiated.

Hon. J. C. Woolley, of Rest Island, Minn., was a guest a few days of the week at the Fredonia, Washington.

Greenland Clark, of St. Paul, S. C. Nichols, of Boston, and J. M. Truesworthy, of Duluth, were guests of the week at the Grand Hotel, New York.

PRETTY PICNICOLE. In which the Winston Company Scores a Hit.

Offenbach's breezy and tuneful opera, "La Perichole" (The Street Singer), is the best effort yet essayed by the Winston opera company, and a medium audience heard its initial performance at the Metropolitan last evening.

While the music may not be as catchy and contagious as that of Strauss, which has been so popular here, it is nevertheless brighter and more interesting and there is more to the play, "La Perichole" than a good plot and a few songs. The sacrifice to the music, so that the strictly non-musical portion of the audience could show for its money. The part of Fiquillo is played by Miss Winnie, as acceptably as usual taken by Jeannie Winston, and that of La Perichole is sung well by Miss Johnson.

Blow Off His Arm. Joseph Botke, proprietor of the saloon at 170 West Third street, had his right hand and part of his arm amputated at 1 o'clock this morning by Drs. Ancker and Shilmoeck. Just before midnight, some one threw a canon firecracker into the saloon door. Botke, who was standing at the end of the bar, picked up the cracker and started to throw it in the street. As he reached the door it went off with a great breaking, mutilating his hand and breaking the large front glass window.

The doctors were called and decided that amputation was the only way. The person who threw the firecracker in the door ran away, and his identity is not known.

Spend the Fourth at Minnetonka Beach. Hotel Lafayette has a fine program of amusements.

But Both Were Arrested. On East Eighth street yesterday afternoon James Broderick was asked by an individual slightly intoxicated to change a $1 piece. Broderick, who works in Leary's packing house, 507 South St. Paul, said he had no change. The man, a low strick Broderick in the face and the man grappled each other. A large crowd gathered and the man, who was happening along arrested both men. At the station Broderick put up $25 for his appearance, and his associate, who gave his name as Wm. Tierman, was let him up.

Short Treasurer Brought Back. Deputy Sheriff Reichow returned from Chicago yesterday, having in charge C. B. Granger, who is charged with embezzlement. Granger held the position of treasurer in the Bakers union and, according to the charge, skipped to Chicago with $15 belonging to the organization. He was arrested by the police there, and a requisition in the hands of the deputy sheriff caused his return. Granger was held in jail this morning and does not seem at all disconcerted.

Concerts this afternoon and fireworks this evening at Hotel Lafayette.

At Hotel Metropolitan—E. C. Hezen, Denver; A. Hughes, St. Louis; W. S. Brodbeck, Mather, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clarke, Chicago; W. M. Smith, New York; Mrs. E. W. Lyman, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Mery, St. Paul; E. C. Smith, Milwaukee; Dr. R. V. Lewis, Eau Claire.

THE REFORM SUNDAY.

Mayor Wright Enjoys the Wide Open Administration of the Day.

Chicago Detectives Put to Work on the Scent of Rail-way Thieves.

Lake Park Opened for the Summer With a Well Attended Dance.

Varied List of Attractions Offered for Today's Holiday Sport.

It was a fine day yesterday, and his honor Mayor Wright, accompanied by Secretary Johnstone, went out for a walk through the city.

Not the slightest effort had been made to close them, and they were running on the most approved wide-open plan. The side doors and family entrances were not patronized, as the front doors were swinging freely open, and the tide of humanity passed in and out just as though no pledge had been given "to the best people" that they would be closed.

Mayor Wright and Secretary Johnstone enjoyed the day very much, and the day was especially fine and enjoyable for the persistent rains, and this populace was to get all the benefits of the nature and the city seemed in their brightest moods, and Mayor Wright wore a smile which seemed to say: "Laugh and enjoy all this happiness to me."

St. Paul knows how to enjoy itself on a Sunday, and on Sunday the reform police force had a holiday. It was always so in St. Paul on a Sunday.

Never was there less of a reform of any kind, and Mayor Wright will make no change. A young brewer who was conspicuous for his chaparrone of a beard, and who had been drinking the week: "No one can force Mayor Wright to close the saloons on Sunday, there is no use of the preacher trying it."

The remark was entirely useless. No one supposed for a moment that the mayor would close them, no one supposed so unless he was a simpleton—even when the pledge was made in the campaign. There's a man's a sip 'twixt the campaign pledge and its redemption.

WANT A COLORED COP. Wright's Chance to Recognize the Colored Brother.

Michael J. Schorn, recently appointed to the police force by Mayor Wright, has resigned. The resignation was the result of a letter sent the mayor or chief by some "good friend," as Schorn puts it.

The letter stated Schorn was deaf and for that reason was unfit for his position. Schorn had passed examination at the time of his appointment, but he was ordered to the doctor's again, and with the tip given by the letter to the doctor, he was found to be not fit for the position. Consequently there is a vacancy, and, as yet, no applicant has been made. A delegation from the Colored Citizens' union will wait on the mayor early Tuesday morning, and at the same time demand be given one of these people.

REWARD FOR THE ROBBERS. Chicago Detectives Put on Scent of the Omaha Highwaymen.

The following circular was issued yesterday and distributed by mail and by agents of the express and railroad companies:

$1,000 REWARD. The above reward will be paid for information leading to the arrest and conviction of parties who, on the night of July 1, 1910, stopped the passenger train of the C. & N. W. R. Co. at Omaha, Neb., and stole a style and on a scale never before seen in this city. The company itself was the loser of the high-class character of the performance, but this was being considered by the effectiveness of the stage settings. Louis James was the driver of the train, and the only one to be expected, gave a masterly interpretation of it. But the greatest loss was undoubtedly the loss of Miss Marion Elmore, who, as a character actress, possesses ability of an exceptionally high standard. Miss Julia Arthur as Elsie, Miss Ruth Carpenter as Cassie and Mrs. Selden Irwin as Miss Ophelia were also very effective. The part of Eva is taken by Charles F. Taylor, Edith Wright, a bright, pretty and lovable child. Frank Lose and the other members of this able company are all ready to advance. The negro songsters introduced are clever, the singing being an especial feature. "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will assuredly draw a large crowd this week at the Grand, and, as there is merit in the representation, it richly deserves to have full houses.

Notice to Christian Endeavorers. The Burlington special train for New York will leave Minneapolis Tuesday morning, July 5, at 8:20, and St. Paul at 9:30, promptly on time.

Mason Breaks the Ice. Chief of Detectives J. H. Mason made his first "pinch" last night. Early in the evening Patrolmen Gove saw two lads carry an armful of stuff into a shed at the corner of Fourth and Olive streets. The detectives were notified, and the officer, together with Detective Daily and Mason waited for the "plant" to be raised. Shortly after 11 o'clock Frank La Telle and Edward Butterfield came to the shed and attempted to carry off the plunder. They were arrested and locked up. It had not been learned where the stolen articles, consisting of two caddies of chewing and the fittings to a package of smoking tobacco, came from. Both boys gave their ages as nineteen years, and claim to live at the corner of Sixth and Olive streets.

Disastrous Display. An exceedingly patriotic youth, name unknown, threw a lighted firecracker on the fireworks stand in front of the store at 450 Jackson street at 12:15 this morning. The result was the discharge of $200 worth of explosives. The display was broken up by a large crowd, and the services of the fire department was needed to extinguish the fire. The building is a one-story structure, was occupied by E. Rabenowitz as a confectionery and fruit store. The loss is estimated at $1,500. Insurance, $800.

The National. Minnie's congress meet at Helena on July 12th. From July 6th to 10th inclusive.

Northern Pacific. Railroad will sell tickets to this meeting at one fare for the round trip, $40.00. Call at 10 Nicollet street, Minneapolis, Chicago, and 162 East Third street, St. Paul.

A Charming Saturday Night at Lake Minnetonka.

Saturday night was almost the only party of the season, and the charming hotel at Lake Park, Minnetonka, had a formal opening successful

Rev. Thomas McClary Outlines the Campaign of the Churches.

The Ideal of the Christian in His Warfare Against Sin.

How the Regeneration of Man Can Be Accomplished.

The Platform Upon Which Workers for Christ Must Stand.

FOR THE FOURTH.

Varied Programme of Attractions for the Holiday.

This recital will show St. Paulites where they may spend Independence day very pleasantly. The attractions are sufficiently varied to suit all shades of taste:

Regatta of Minnesota Boat club, Raspberry island, 10 a. m.

Twenty-five mile bicycle road race, from the city to the lake, 10 a. m.

Trotting and pacing races, Minnehaha Park, 3 p. m.

Good Templars of Twin Cities, Minnesota Fraternity, 7 p. m.

Picnic, St. Mark's church, Groveland Park, 2 p. m.

Picnic, St. Michael's church, West end high bridge.

Picnic, St. John's church, corner Franklin and Forest streets.

Picnic, Twin City Y. M. C. A.'s, Bald Eagle lake. Base ball, games, etc.

Picnic, Turner's park, Inver Grove. Balloon ascension, dancing, etc.

Picnic, Burlington Heights.

Picnic, Lake of the Isles, Inver Lake, North St. Paul. Fireworks in evening. Races, at Lily park, Stillwater.

Cricket, at Kinnelon, 7 p. m.

Yachting regatta, White Bear Lake, 2 p. m. Fireworks in evening. Fireworks in evening, corner Stato and Concord streets, West side.

FEAST ON THE FOURTH. Employees Rewarded for Their Faithful Services.

While the majority of people around the corner of Fourth and Wabasha were celebrating last evening with a more substantial kind, and one which will leave behind it memories that although they may not live as long in history as the natal day we celebrate, will be remembered by those who participated in it as a spontaneous outburst of a heart that knows nothing but kindness for those who may not be able to enjoy it.

do the more fortunate of young America's population. James P. Porter, of the editorial and editorial route of the DAILY GLOBE, took upon himself, aided by several of his carriers, to give the carrier boy who delivers the morning paper, so promptly at your door each morning, an opportunity to enjoy a Fourth of July, and at the same time lead for his morning run well provided as regards the inner man. Shortly before opening the mail room doors, preparatory to their morning delivery, the boys were astonished to have a slight delay, something that had never happened before, but when the mail doors were opened they were amply repaid for their short wait, for before them spread a feast that would make the mouth of a King water with anticipation. Everything that a boy's heart could desire in the way of edibles was spread before him, and to say they did it ample justice is not in it. "They simply did not do a thing to it." Jim also showed his patriotism by having the room elegantly decorated with the national colors, and every boy in that room left with his papers determined that there should not be a complaint entered against him again for another year.

Great Northern trains for Hotel Lafayette, July 4, will leave St. Paul at 8:55 and 9:30 a. m., and 1:30, 2:00, 4:30, 5:30 and 6:30 p. m. Great Northern during the day and fireworks at night.

Equal to Pompeii or Vera Cruz, the fireworks at Hotel Lafayette.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the Grand. "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was greeted by a large crowd at the Grand last evening, when the play was presented. CROWDS AT RED ROCK.

But the Exercises Lack a Bright Particular Star.

Red Rock was in her glory yesterday. The crowds began to flock in early on train and boat, and it only needed Sam Jones or the "Boy Preacher" on the stand to make the occasion one of the good old days of the past.

The first service was held at 9 o'clock, and led by the noted Rev. E. R. Drake, from the famous Moody school, of Northfield, Mass. Mr. Drake said to the school: "This school is an immense concern, about which many people are anxious to know. It is a school of two departments; the ladies, which is situated on one side of the river, and the boys, which is on the other. The object is to give those young people education who could not procure one otherwise. The training of its students is not only very thorough, but it is giving exercise giving diplomas, as any other school does. The applicants to the school are so numerous that only one-quarter can be taken in and the others are carefully selected by examination of credentials and photographs. A long list of names is on file, and the applicants, and a long process gone through with before he is admitted. Many applicants are as long as two years before they find a chance to enter. All teachers in the institution are themselves college graduates, and the standard of education is high. The average of the students, ranking with that of Harvard and Yale. There are about 300 young ladies and about 100 young men in the institution at present, and about fifty graduate each year. It is the hope of Mr. Drake that many of the students will study and become an honor and a blessing to their country, but they are entirely free to choose a business course or any other that they wish to pursue. The students are not only given a thorough education, but they are also given a practical training in the use of the pen, and the cost of all being about $100.00. Crossley hall, named after its donor, alone cost $100,000, and Marquand hall, built by Frederick Marquand of New York city, cost $80,000.

The expenses of the institution are met by donations from the friends of the place and Mr. Moody, and it is said to have a comfortable fund for the maintenance of the school.

At 10:30 Rev. Dr. McKinley, presiding elder of St. Paul, preached the morning service. He expounded the text, "The Kingdom of God is within you." His sermon was eloquent and convincing to a great extent, and his large audience was over an hour.

At 2:30 a large choir gave a half-hour song service, followed by the afternoon service by Rev. N. McKinley, of Minneapolis. At the close of his sermon, his daughter, Miss Grace McKel, sang an appropriate hymn, and the choir sang a hymn in honor of the occasion.

The young people attending for this year was made a special service of prayer, and the chapel was filled with prayer and praise.

Today at 6 a. m. a patriotic prayer meeting will be held, and will be led by R. H. Hasty, an old soldier, and at 9 a. m. a meeting of the ladies will be held, and will be presided over by Mrs. M. E. Chace. Dr. McKinley's address will be at 6 o'clock.

SEIVANT OF MEN. Rev. Agnew's Strong Presentation.

Rev. Dr. Agnew of Philadelphia, delivered the sermon at the House of Hope church last evening. In introducing the eloquent divine, Dr. Christie, the pastor of the church, remarked, in the course of his address, that the thought of independence day without thinking of Philadelphia is like a man without a head.

The sermon was semi-patriotic, and was a very timely one. It was a sermon of the highest order, and it was a sermon that will be remembered for a long time.

STRIKERS ON GUARD.

Their Organization Very Perfect at Homestead.

PITTSBURG, July 3.—The iron and steel strike situation presented no new features today. Quiet retired supreme at Homestead and nothing occurred here to disturb the usual Sunday serenity.

The strikers' organization at Homestead is the most thorough ever known here. They have divided the waters into three reliefs of eight hours each, and their guards so completely surround the big steel plant that it would be impossible for any one to get into the situation is expected for several days.

ALLEMOS FORTIFIED. It Will Take a Big Force to Dislodge Him.

WAGON MOUND, N. M., July 3.—The posse which left here in pursuit of Jose M. Allemos, who killed J. J. Schmitt, a storekeeper, have sent a messenger to this place for aid. They started out with bloodhounds to track Allemos down, and came upon him yesterday afternoon. He, with a party of Mexicans who have fortified themselves in a strongly fortified position, and it will take a large force of men to dislodge them. Besides this, it is reported that the Mexicans from the surrounding country are hurrying to the aid of their countrymen, and serious trouble is anticipated. The Mexicans propose to allow the Americans to capture the murderer.
