Orangemen celebrate this day, not because of a personal victory of William of Orange over James II. in the battle of Boyne, but because of the principles that were there victorious, liberty of speech, liberty of the press, liberty of worship according to the dictates of one's own conscience.

When a Woman Proposes to wash clothes without Pearlina, her husband or her employer ought to interfere. She is not only wearing out her own health and strength with useless rubbing and scrubbing, but she is wearing out the clothes with it, too.

This rub, rub, rub isn't needed. Put Pearlina into the water, and you'll find half the work done by the time you are ready to begin. It's Pearlina that loosens the dirt and does the work—not you with your washboard. Just a little rinsing, and it's all over.

Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "this is as good as" or "the same as" Pearlina. IT'S FALSE—Pearlina is never peddled, if your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest—send it back, 330 JAMES FYLE, N.Y.

World's Fair Officials to Push the Prosecution. CHICAGO, July 14.—There seems to be no truth in the report that the Chicago ticket brokers have secured immunity from further prosecution by entering into an agreement with certain railroad companies. The world's fair officials are behind the prosecution, and they have no intention of abandoning it. Edwin Walker, chairman of the legislative committee of the fair, says the suits against the brokers will probably not be reached before August, and the strongest efforts will be made to secure convictions in several courts. The committee, he says, is determined to have the indictments brought to trial, and the prosecution will be continued until grand juries refuse to indict or the courts refuse to convict.

An 18-Carat-Fine Story. BUTTE (Mont.), Mining Journal. J. A. McConville, who lives on Montana street, killed one of his chickens for dinner, and on cleaning it was surprised to find a quantity of gold nuggets in the crop and gizzard. Having about thirty more chickens on hand, he began killing and examining them. In each of them he found a pro rata of nuggets, the total amount gathered from the thirty-one hens being $87.25 at an average of $2.80 a head. The gold was sent to the State National bank and pronounced to be of the highest quality. Mr. McConville immediately bought fifty more chickens and turned them out on the gold fields in the vicinity of the hencoop. As an experiment, one of them was killed, and $2.50 in gold taken from its inside organs, the result of a four-day run. Mr. McConville has a virtual hoard of nuggets, and expects to be a millionaire before spring if the chickens hold out.
