SAUK CENTER'S LOSS.

The City Visited by a Conflagration Which Does Great Damage.

Mad Flames Sweep Away Buildings Valued at at Least $60,000.

Reports From Central Minnesota Indicate a Rather Light Crop.

Two Killed in the Gettysburg Hurricane -- General Northwest.

Special to the Globe.

SAUK CENTER, Minn., July 21.—A great fire swept this city this evening, doing damage to the extent of $60,000. The fire originated from a hot journal in the third story of the Davidson mill, and spread with such surprising rapidity that the town was soon beside itself with excitement. Connections were made with the water works, but they were soon abandoned, and the firemen directed all messages were sent to St. Cloud and Little Falls, and those cities responded by starting their fire departments to the scene. The great mill in a short time was a seething mass of flames and beyond saving. A bucket brigade was formed and other buildings drenched. The Davidson mill, which had just been purchased for $50,000, is a total loss, as is also the electric light works across the street. The water works building was crushed in just as the fire was fiercest and the whole city seemed doomed. The flames were creeping into the Northern Pacific depot when the wind suddenly changed to the north and gave the sweltering bucket brigade a chance to check the flames. At midnight everything is comparatively safe with a total loss of about $60,000. Everything is confusion and there is no opportunity tonight to find out anything about insurance. The flames could be seen for twenty miles around. The watchman at the mill barely escaped with his life, and the bookkeeper was struck on the head by a flying timber and severely hurt. A large force of men is at work trying to save the dam, which was badly weakened by the fire next to the mill.

THE OUTLOOK DUBIOUS.

A Discouraging Story About Central Minnesota Crops.

SAUK CENTER, Minn., July 21.—The outlook for the crop through central Minnesota is far from encouraging in spite of early reports. From reliable sources it is learned that many fields are headed out with heads barely one-half as long as last year while the straw is not over six to eight inches in length and very thin, while many fields are stalked with rust and long to the farmer says that his wheat on the clay land is passably fair while that on the sandy land is worthless. Many fields are at least one-third headed over six to eight bushels to the acre and we have yet to see the farmer who has had a bumper crop of wheat within a radius of twenty-five miles who reports any fields equal to last year. The same facts, according to reports of farmers from this vicinity who have recently returned from their holdings good throughout the Red River valley and out into Dakota. Some small sections may have fair fields but the majority of the crop in these sections will be far below a poor average. What will be the result of the crop later than last year and under the most favorable weather and conditions, our best farmers here estimate an over 60 per cent of last year's average.

CHOOKSTON, July 21.—The crop outlook for this county the coming season is most promising for a good crop unless hail or other unforeseen changes are experienced. For the past ten days Pook county has had frequent rains, and these have been followed by bright, warm days which have improved the crops fully 50 per cent, and have made the farmers feel jubilant. The northern portion of the county has had more rain and these have been followed by bright, warm days which have improved the crops fully 50 per cent, and have made the farmers feel jubilant. TWO MEN KILLED.

And Several Buildings Were Badly Wrecked.

HURON, S. D., July 21.—Telegrams from Forest City and Gettysburg this evening indicate that a heavy rain storm was less severe than first reported. At Gettysburg two school houses, the Methodist and Baptist churches, the residences of John Clements, James Bryson and D. Teets and W. A. Herron were destroyed. Mr. Herron and daughter were killed, and another daughter injured. Several others received slight injuries. At Forest City the round-house of the Forest City & Sioux City railway was destroyed, and several buildings wrecked. At Gettysburg the Catholic church, two other buildings and three school houses were unroofed. There was only slight damage to stock and crops.

SHELDON FOR GOVERNOR.

The Work of the South Dakota Republicans.

Special to the Globe.

MADISON, S. D., July 21.—The Republicans of South Dakota went at the business of slate-making with a vengeance today. They first nominated H. Sheldon, of Hand county, for governor, when the bosses had arranged to head the ticket with Kingsrud. Down through the ranks they went, and the wreck they made of political hopes was worse than the wrecks of nature's force by an Iowa cyclone. Congressman Jolly went on the ticket, and Mr. Foraker was Congressman Washburn. Prickler, however, landed on his feet with a nomination in his right hand. The delegates had arranged to begin operations at 9 o'clock this morning, but owing to a misunderstanding with the Cook and delegates stood around a round table discussing the theory of insurrection. It was 11 o'clock before Chairman Gamble rapped for order. The credentials of the county centers were read, and the delegates were divided into the Rice and Davis factions. The Rice faction was to adopt the report. Melville, of Huron, moved as an amendment that the Rice faction be adopted. He charged the Davis men with having secured possession of the credentials and the report. The Rice men, he said, were to insert different names therein. The Rice men, he said, would rather have the report of the Rice faction than to be waived out of 150 delegates in the county convention. W. B. Sterling spoke for the Davis faction. He claimed that after the caucus Davis had a majority of seven to one. The matter was referred to the county center committee. The Rice men, he said, were to insert different names therein. The Rice men, he said, would rather have the report of the Rice faction than to be waived out of 150 delegates in the county convention.
