Easton Scores the First Victory in the Championship Series.

Duffy's Long Hits, Assisted by Errors, the Winning Factors.

Cleveland Came Very Near Tying the Score in the Ninth.

Corbett Will Meet Jackson if Mitchell Will Not Make a Match.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 18.—Two errors to be made by two of the Cleveland players and Duffy's long hits were the cause for Boston, Cleveland battled better than Boston, although it secured no more hits. The local team were very unlucky in sending the ball time and again directly into the fielders' hands. Clarkson was hit hard in two innings, only and pitched splendid ball. He made one of the greatest stops seen on any ball field, but Vintie let the ball get away from him on Clarkson's throw, and subsequently the manager got the benefit of the error brought his run in. The game in no way demonstrated the superiority of either team over the other. If it did anything at all, it confirmed the impression that the clubs are two of the most evenly matched that ever came together. The attendance was 7,500, and the day perfect for ball playing.

First Run for Boston. Boston got its first run in the first inning on singles by Ed Collins, Fred Corby and Duffy's long fly to McElear. In the third inning Long hit to first on Vintie's muff and threw a ball, and reached home on Duffy's three-base hit. Zimmerman's single, Clarkson's double and Barrett's fly to Lowe gave Cleveland its first run. In the next inning the local team scored again on McKean's single, Vintie's sacrifice and a hot hit to left field by McElear. The score was now a tie, but in the fifth Boston forced again on Tebeau's fumble of McElear's hot ground hit and a two-base hit by Duffy that fouled up against the left-field fence. One more run was added to the Boston score in the eighth inning on a three-base hit to right field by Duffy and Nash's line single in the same direction. In the ninth it looked as if one time as though Cleveland would surely tie the score. The first play was

A Sensational Catch by Duffy of Vintie's line hit. Then Duffy muffed Vintie's fly and threw the matter out at second on a close decision. O'Connor hit safely over second base, and Zimmerman followed with a tremendous drive to left field for three bases that scored O'Connor. Staley fumbled Clarkson's hit, but Long got the ball and threw the batter out. Score:

Table with columns: Player, AB, R, H, E. Rows include Cleveland and Boston players like Cleveland, Boston, Duffy, Kelly, etc.

Two World's Records Broken by the Three-Year-Old Directum.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 18.—Again sensation racing was in order at Cumberland Park, and another world's record was lowered two seconds. This one is the stake race for three-year-olds. Directum, 2:13 1/2, and Kentucky Union, 2:14 1/2. The betting was heavy, Directum being the favorite. At the word both rushed away head and head, the pace to the quarter being 32 1/2, and the half was reached in 1:04 1/2. This clip was too fast for the field, and she broke badly. Directum, waiting in a jog, took the lead at 3/4 mile, and in a jog took the lead at 1:15. The second and third heats were battles royal, but Directum won the third heat in 2:14, thus reducing the race record for his age two seconds.

Belle Archer was on her good legs and won the postponed second heat, easily reducing her record to 2:12 1/2. Her owner backed her heavily, and it is a large winner.

Directum, easily defeated Guy in the mile dash, pacing in 2:04 1/2, thus lowering his own record. Many outside wagers.

Made It Faster. Mascol, the famous pacer that was matched against Hal Pointer, is suffering from influenza, but is recovering. He will be shipped home to Buffalo as soon as he recovers sufficiently. The attendance was large, and the weather perfect. The events for tomorrow will include an effort by Nancy Hanis (2:30) to beat her own record, and the 2:19 mile dash, which Martha, the favorite, will race.

JACKSON SECOND CHOICE. Corbett Will Meet Jackson if Mitchell Cannot Be Found to Fight. CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—The London Sportsman telegraphed an offer for a match between Corbett and Jackson. The offer was for $20,000 for a match between the men, and guaranteed Jackson all the betting and backing that Corbett would receive.

My theatrical engagements prevent me from fighting for a year. When I am ready I will fight Mitchell. Jackson is the club that offers the largest purse, and as much money over $10,000 as he wants on the side, providing I will fight for me in the meantime. I will fight Mitchell to fight. I am of the opinion that I can get more money from the Athletic club of New Orleans than I can from any other man in the world.

NO MONEY LEFT. A report recently published by the American friendly societies in England shows the condition of those societies as a whole to be in a bad way. Many of them are considerably behind in their payments and the outlook is anything but encouraging. These friendly societies are largely, if not almost exclusively, composed of those who are dependent upon their day's wages for their income. They are the only method which many of them have for making provision for times of sickness and for burial expenses in case of death. By the payment of a small sum weekly the members are entitled to receive aid from the society in case of sickness and death. Any general collapse of the societies would probably be attended with much suffering and distress to the members.

WHERE GOWNS ARE WORN. Two Decisions Filed and Many Cases Argued. The United States circuit court of appeals in its session yesterday with Judges Caldwell, Shiras and Sanborn on the bench. In the two following cases the decisions of the lower court were affirmed. In the first case, a mortgage was foreclosed on a lot, block 6 of Landis subdivision, No. 4, belonging to the Chicago & North Western Railway Company. It is claimed that C. A. B. Weide, who is the owner of the lot, is not entitled to the property, representing that it was not included except as to certain specifications. The case was argued by the Chicago & North Western Railway Company, plaintiff in error, vs. Elisha Weide, defendant in error, circuit court, St. Paul Railway Company, plaintiff in error, vs. John P. Coffman; error to United States circuit court, district of South Dakota.

Orders were entered in the three following cases denying the motions of appeal. The only line running Reeling Chair Cars on both morning and evening trains without extra charge to passengers. QUANTRELL'S TREASURE. KANSAS CITY, Oct. 18.—There is a vast amount of excitement across the state in Wyandotte just now over a search that is being made for a $300,000 treasure of gold and jewels that was hidden by the famous Quantrell gang years ago. The search is continuing night and day, and several towns in McAlpine's addition to Kansas City, Kan., have been dug over. Years before the war a gang of desperadoes infested Eastern Kansas, and every traveler stood a chance of being robbed. It was the earnings of this gang that were used to buy the treasure. The search for the treasure was a failure, and the gang was eventually captured. The treasure was buried, and a search for it has been going on ever since.

MEANS STRIFE. A Canadian Paper Says Annexation of the Canadian Bloodshed. TORONTO, Oct. 18.—The World, one of the strongest supporters of the Dominion government, in an editorial says: Annexation cannot ever be without strife. A great majority of Canadians are of the opinion that the United States, not that they prefer to be Canadian, but that they are drifting into the United States. The government of the United States goes into the land twinning the United States, and the United States conspires to deliver Ireland from England. He, therefore, who is a Canadian and argues for annexation is arguing for civil war; he is stirring up strife, and just as sure as annexation is effected a strife will come. When the United States annexes Canada, it will break out in unprovoked and unprovoked places, but it will come. Let these men then understand that if they are drifting into the United States, they will cease their complaining and they will seek a place of rest under the flag they much love.
