

SAINT PAUL.

CITY DRIFT.

Norman Storr is in Chicago for a few days. The board of county commissioners will meet in regular session tomorrow.

Secretary Beebe reports 229 inmates at the soldiers' home, sixty-six absent on leave, five new admissions and two discharged.

The Ohio Building, Savings and Loan Association of Duluth has filed its articles of incorporation with the secretary of state.

Anton Kober has sued the St. Paul City Railway company to recover $350 for the killing of a horse by an interurban car on Oct. 11 when being driven along Wabasha street.

The board of public works opened bids yesterday for a small job of grading at Lincoln Place and Osceola avenue. P. H. Thurston bid $707, while James McDonald bid $708 and took the contract.

Henry E. Southwell has entered suit against the Hecla Fire Insurance company and the St. Paul German Insurance company to recover $1,000 insurance on machinery in a building at Lockport, Ill.

Misses Dora and Edith Jett, after a long sojourn with their relatives in Virginia, have returned to St. Paul and will make their future residence at Highland, the home of their father, Judge J. B. Jett.

The following Minnesota pensions have been granted for the week ending Nov. 5: David R. Hughes, Kansas City, $8; T. L. Merrick, Mo., $5; Harrison Lyons, Verdala, $10; Fernando A. Blossom, Detroit, $6.

John W. Good and Sophia Dan, as executors and trustees under the will of Warren H. Dean, deceased, have begun an action against Edward R. Page and Albert Scheffer to recover $1,000 insurance on a promissory note.

Gen. Wesley Merritt Garrison No. 58, Regular Army and Navy union, will hold its regular meeting Monday evening, Nov. 7, at 7:30 o'clock in the hall, corner Fifth and Wabasha streets. All members of the garrison are requested to attend.

The United States circuit court of appeals has sent down its mandate to the United States circuit court for the district of Minnesota affirming a judgment in favor of Lyman P. Hodges and Samuel Y. Hyde against Michael Scudano and G. Wall for $2,881.47.

Otto Breiden, who had a hushing peg in his pocket that bore evidence of having been used considerably, when Officer Murrane arrested him as a vagrant, was discharged in the police court yesterday, it being clear that he is a hard-working man.

The London & Northwest American Mortgage company has begun an action against Frank F. Lomis and others to foreclose a mortgage for $2,500 upon lots 20 to 37 inclusive of a rearrangement of the south half of block 6, in Butterfield syndicate addition No. 1.

G. B. Parker, a machinist, had $74.40, a gun, watch and knife in his pockets last night, and a jag distributed all over his face. The jag was so heavy that he could not lay on the bank in a central station cell, and he fell off, cutting his scalp so that the blood flowed freely. The cut was fixed up, and then he slept more quietly.

The November term of the district court will open tomorrow. The calendar will be called and cases set. The petit jurors are summoned to appear on Tuesday, but nothing will be done in the way of trying cases on that day, because of the general election. The grand jury will convene again this month.

In a case tried in Minneapolis this week, a typographical man was introduced, showing a bird's-eye view of the Minneapolis & St. Louis railway tracks and the surrounding country at Jordan, Minn., executed by Charles A. Forbes, of St. Paul. It was so meritorious and artistic a piece of work that Mr. Clark, counsel for the Minneapolis & St.

Louis railroad, called the attention of the jury to it in glowing terms and said it was really the finest exhibit of the kind he had ever seen in court and he would use it in preference to their own map.

Peter Stuart, Matthew Taylor and Andrew B. Merriman have begun an action in the United States circuit court against the city of St. Paul and Theodore J. Morgan, who is calling as the St. Paul Stone company, to enjoin them from infringing on a patent for a paving stone, and to recover damages for the past alleged infringement.

Charles Peterson, whose right name is something else, and who plays the mouth organ, was in the water closet of a certain saloon when it was locked up for the night at Friday midnight. Towards morning he came out and pounded on the front door to be let out of the saloon. Officer Fraser released him only to lock him up at the station as a drunk, but he was discharged in the police court.

Mary Collins, charged with keeping a house of ill-fame, and Nettie Clark and Cora Morgan, charged with resorting to a house of ill-fame, were ordered committed to the workhouse in default of fines. Application was made in their cases yesterday for writs of habeas corpus, respecting against Thomas McMahon, turnkey at the police court. It is claimed that there is irregularity in the form of the writs and that the matter will be heard in the district court tomorrow.

The council committee to investigate Health Officer Hoyt did not investigate yesterday, as expected, for a meeting of a quorum. The stock was called for 4:30, at which hour only Dr. Hoyt and two reporters were present. Messrs. Moran, Hickman and Pike, of the committee, soon came in and waited until after 5:15 o'clock, but neither Daly, Warren nor Franklin showed up, and an adjournment was taken to 9 a. m. Thursday next.

SPLENDID PROSPECTS

For the Work of the St. Paul Real Estate Exchange.

The St. Paul Real Estate exchange is now completely organized. The prospects of the committee, soon came in and waited until after 5:15 o'clock, but neither Daly, Warren nor Franklin showed up, and an adjournment was taken to 9 a. m. Thursday next.

The following committees were elected by the exchange: Committee on Membership—W. P. Snow, S. Lee Davis, C. W. Horr, W. N. Armstrong, Victor Gunn.

Committee on Valuation—Thomas Middleton, R. B. Wheeler, W. W. Thomas, S. B. Walsh, O. L. Taylor.

Injured in a Runaway.

While out driving at Sacred Heart last week, Mrs. Charles H. Weber, of College avenue, this city, was seriously injured by her team running away. Mrs. Weber has been an invalid for years, and her injuries are therefore the more serious. A program recited last night stated her life was jeopardized. Her daughter and her brother, John M. Guenther, are at her bedside.

ELOQUENT DONNELLY

Talks to an Immense Audience That Filled Market Hall.

Nelson Scored and the Crowd Treated to a Racy Discourse.

Ignatius Donnelly never had a larger or more enthusiastic audience than that which listened to his address at Market hall last night. The audience was thickly sprinkled with women, and was wedged into every foot of the auditorium, stage, gallery, including the aisles. Not a person left the hall during the two hours of his address on all conceivable subjects.

Possible Thieves. Detective J. Merrick ran in two last evening who are probably justly suspected of being quite a few young sneak thieves. One is H. Wells, colored, and the other is a white boy, fourteen years old, giving his name as Ernest Coleman.

CAMPAIGN CLATTER

Water Cook has about as much chance of being elected to the legislature as Deau being elected governor. His old friends in the Fifth ward have begun to stir up the people in the upper end of the ward, who are in the habit of voting for the Democrats.

FACTS AND FANCIES.

Old Methods Must Give Way to the New. "But times have changed, and out of prosaic St. Paul—all hail his name—comes, in the guise of terror, an angel of light telling us that the time has come to change our old-fashioned ways."

A Wise Man. Will fill his coal bin before cold weather comes. He will not want to feel the bite of the Pioneer Fuel company.

THE ENTIRE BENCH

Sitting on Legal Problems at Special Term. The business transacted in special term of the district court yesterday was as follows:

Before Judge Brill—Wesley Pickens vs. John Tuttle, submitted on application for judgment against the garnishee. John P. Hamilton vs. David Townsend et al., submitted on an order for final decree. Dawson & Sweeney vs. Michael Griffin et al., referred to the clerk to take disclosure of garnishee. David J. Heuness vs. City of St. Paul et al., submitted on an application for judgment by default. Horace A. Taylor vs. North Star Mutual Insurance company, order made allowing third account of receiver.

Before Judge Egan—James S. Johnson vs. David A. Cory et al., submitted on an application to set aside a former judgment and to retry the cause. Fair E. Blair vs. Northern Pacific Railway company, submitted on demurrer to answer.

Before Judge Cornish—James S. Howe vs. George R. Reppell et al., judgment ordered.

Before Judge Otis—Charles E. Miller vs. John M. Mueser et al., decree ordering the title to land to be quieted. Helen M. Johnson vs. Alexander E. Johnson, heard on an application for alimony.

Before Judge Kerr—James B. J. vs. W. F. Carroll et al., former judgment modified. In reassignment of A. N. Spauld, partly heard on application for a new trial. Daily and Stevenson vs. Thomas J. Pierce, leave given to amend answer.

ALL THE FADS OF CLOTHING

BEYOND CRITICISM!

'TIS WITH SATISFACTION

UP-TO-DATE OVERCOATS!

These are the kind we sell. Elegant in every respect. Newest Patterns, Latest Styles—that's what they all say, of course. But will you please notice the difference? Look at the construction, style and finish. Some Overcoats, you observe, hang—some fit. Ours are made to order—made. Only difference between ours and the best tailor-made is in the price. Ours don't cost you one-half as much, and you pay no more for our "Up-to-Date" Overcoats than others ask for their "Out-of-Date" Overcoats. Which do you want?

A GRAND SUCCESS IS THE POPULAR VERDICT.

Irresistible Styles and Unapproachable Prices accomplished the work last week in our special offering of new and elegant suits at $15.00!

"Twas a great triumph—drawing, conqueering and making hundreds of new patrons, making the clothing of High-Grade Clothing and Low Prices still more complete. We'll continue this great Suit Boom another week. Single and Double-Breasted Sack and Cutaways, to fit perfectly.
