COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 9.—The indications at 10 o'clock tonight are that Ohio has gone Democratic for the first time in a presidential year, though it may require the official count to determine the result.

Chairman Farley, of the Democratic state committee, went home early this morning firm in the belief that the Republicans had a substantial plurality in the state, but his secretary and W. A. Taylor, candidate for secretary of state, returned at headquarters, and at 10 o'clock tonight they had received unofficial returns from all but three counties in the state, on which they claim a plurality for the candidates on the Democratic ticket of 800, and that the Cleveland electors have been chosen by a possibly a slightly reduced majority.

The two committees changed figures at the above hour, and there were startling variations in the returns received. At the Republican headquarters, with Chairman Dick and Candidate S. M. Taylor for secretary of state, present, they had received unofficial returns from all but four counties. The returns to both committees are in response to telegrams sent by county chairmen. They claim a plurality of 16 at the Republican headquarters, and concede it will require the official count to determine the matter. Mr. Taylor, Republican, states that he noted in the returns received that he ran about even with the Harrison electors, hence it is concluded, if the Republican state ticket is defeated, that the Cleveland electors will be chosen.

Gov. McKinley was seen tonight by an Associated Press reporter and asked his views on the situation. He declined at that time to say anything.

At midnight the Democrats claim the state for the Cleveland electors by a plurality ranging from 1,000 to 1,200. Republicans concede it is very close, and will require the official count to decide. Both headquarters have closed for tonight.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 9.—The Commercial Gazette's figures on the situation at 11:40 p. m. includes official reports from fifty-one of the eighty-eight counties. It shows 14,902 Democratic gain, which leaves but 6,699 of McKinley's 21,511 to be extinguished by the remaining thirty-seven counties. The average gain for Cleveland is nearly 300 per county.

Latest returns show the election of the following congressmen in Ohio:

First district, Hellany Storer, Rep.; Second, John A. Caldwell, Rep.; Third, George W. Honk, Dem.; Fourth, F. C. Layton, Dem.; Fifth, D. D. Donovan, Dem.; Sixth, George W. Hulick, Rep.; Seventh, George W. Wilson, Rep.; Eighth, Luther M. Strong, Rep.; Ninth, Ritchie, Dem.; Tenth, W. H. Enoch, Rep.; Eleventh, Charles H. Grosvenor, Rep.; Twelfth, J. H. Outwater, Dem.; Thirteenth, P. D. Hare, Dem.; Fourteenth, M. D. Harter, Dem.; Fifteenth, H. C. Van Voorhis, Rep.; Sixteenth, George W. H. Pook, Rep.; Seventeenth, James Richards, Dem.; Eighteenth, George P. Ikerd, Dem.; Nineteenth, S. A. Northrup, Rep.; Twentieth, W. J. White, Rep.; Twenty-first, Tom L. Johnson, Dem.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 9.—A special from Bellevue says that Col. C. L. Poorman, Rep., is defeated for congress in the Sixteenth district by 100 plurality. This gives the Democrats ten congressmen, the Republicans ten, and leaves one district, the Ninth, in doubt.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 9.—1:15 a. m.—The Commercial Gazette, on the basis of complete returns from fifty-four counties and estimates on the remaining thirty-four counties, estimates that the Democrats elect Grover Cleveland, 335 plurality and that S. M. Taylor, Republican candidate for secretary of state, has been elected. It also figures complete returns from eleven Democratic congressmen elected.

1:35 a. m.—The Equizer, Dem., with four counties to hear from, three of them in the districts still in doubt, estimates Cleveland's plurality in the state at 700. Republicans still claim Ohio by 118 plurality.

ILLINOIS.

Cleveland's Majority Growing Larger Every Minute.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—The later returns do not abate in any way from the decisive Democratic victory in Illinois, both on national and state tickets. Conservative men of all parties now generally agree that the Democratic plurality in the state will be approximately 10,000, and the Democrats will have received the majority for the least thirteen of the twenty-two congressmen, with a probability of one or two more in the districts still in doubt. Incomplete official returns from thirty out of thirty-four wards in the city of Chicago give Cleveland 36,054 and Harrison 42,332. Partial returns from the country towns indicate that the vote in Cook county outside of the city of Chicago will be almost a stand-off, so that Cleveland's plurality in Chicago and Cook county may be approximated at 19,000.

Sixty hundred and thirty-two out of 637 precincts in the state outside Cook county give Cleveland 112,406 and Harrison 123,254. This is a plurality for Cleveland of 11,848. The net gain for Cleveland's net plurality in the whole state approximately 10,000. The official returns are not likely to show any marked variation from these figures. The vote on Altgeld, Democratic nominee for governor, will show some increase over these figures, while the remainder of the Democratic state ticket will receive the same vote as the Cleveland and Stevenson electors. The Democrats have also elected their entire county ticket in Cook county.

In the state senate the Democrats will have about seven majority, and the indications also are that they will

CUT THE SAGE.

Donnelly's Vote is a Peculiar Factor in the Returns.

In Some Places the People's Party Men Went to Nelson.

And in Others They Knifed the Sage for Lawler.

With the Result That Weaver Leads the Dakota Statesman.

Returns Too Meager to Decide Anything as to the Result.

Lawler Is Still in the Lead in the State at Large.

The result of the election of last Tuesday in this state is still in doubt as far as the governorship is concerned. The Democratic candidate has carried Ramsey county by about 4,000, while the Republican nominee has been given over 3,000 in Hennepin. Owing to the new system of voting, the count has been delayed and held back longer than in the days when there were neither railroads nor telegraph lines between the various portions of the state. Scattered precincts and estimates from thirty counties have been received; but these are of such a character as to give no reliable basis for figuring. A few facts have been settled so far, and the most striking of these is the strange action of the Alliance voters of the two years ago. In Southwestern Minnesota the new party that swept the boards clean two years ago seems to have almost completely collapsed Tuesday, with the result that in some counties it is the vote for the Alliance that went to Nelson, while in others Gov. Lawler received it. In Cotonwood, for example, Mr. Nelson was the beneficiary, while in Lincoln it went to Lawler and gave him an erstwhile Republican stronghold. Again, in other sections of Southern Minnesota, the voters cast their ballots for Weaver, but cut Donnelly in a surprising manner.

Two years ago, it will be remembered, the Republicans voted the ticket nominated "straight."

In the Red river valley, north of Grant county, Gov. Lawler seems to have been the beneficiary of the Alliance slump. He increased Judge Wilson's lead in that county in 1890 to a figure that will give him a majority of 1,000. The vote given to Lawler in Marshall county will increase over 300 to the old figure of 700, and in the Democratic vote, the increase in the Democratic vote is smaller than Owen's by just the number of the increase in the Democratic vote.

From all sections of the state, showing Minneapolis, come reports showing that the Republicans in the state given Judge Wilson two years ago, when he was beaten by only 2,300. Every Democratic county still in doubt in the state legislature, Republican districts have stood still or fallen behind. St. Louis county, where the Democrats are only about 1,000, a clear loss of 200.

On the figures so far in, there is no ground for either party to claim the state with great certainty.

NOT FOR DAVIS.

The Republicans Will Not Control the Legislature.

The next United States senator from Minnesota will not be Cushman K. Davis. The lower house of the legislature elected Tuesday will be composed of forty-eight Democrats and twenty-four Republicans and eighteen People's party men and fusionists. The Republicans have gained three seats in Fillmore, but lost one in Houston, one in Steele, one in Ramsey, one in Le Sueur, one in Stearns, one in Washington, two in the Forty-ninth district, one in the Forty-eighth district, one in the Forty-seventh district, one in the Forty-sixth district, one in the Forty-fifth district, one in the Forty-fourth district, one in the Forty-third district, one in the Forty-second district, one in the Forty-first district, one in the Fortieth district, one in the Thirty-ninth district, one in the Thirty-eighth district, one in the Thirty-seventh district, one in the Thirty-sixth district, one in the Thirty-fifth district, one in the Thirty-fourth district, one in the Thirty-third district, one in the Thirty-second district, one in the Thirty-first district, one in the Thirtieth district, one in the Twenty-ninth district, one in the Twenty-eighth district, one in the Twenty-seventh district, one in the Twenty-sixth district, one in the Twenty-fifth district, one in the Twenty-fourth district, one in the Twenty-third district, one in the Twenty-second district, one in the Twenty-first district, one in the Twentieth district, one in the Nineteenth district, one in the Eighteenth district, one in the Seventeenth district, one in the Sixteenth district, one in the Fifteenth district, one in the Fourteenth district, one in the Thirteenth district, one in the Twelfth district, one in the Eleventh district, one in the Tenth district, one in the Ninth district, one in the Eighth district, one in the Seventh district, one in the Sixth district, one in the Fifth district, one in the Fourth district, one in the Third district, one in the Second district, one in the First district.

WISCONSIN.

The Victory of Democracy in the Badger State Complete.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 9.—The victory of Democracy in Wisconsin is complete. Ed. C. Wall tonight claims the state with 13,000 majority for the Democrats. Complete reports from all over the state give the Democrats twelve state senators, which together with fifteen hold-over senators, gives them twenty-seven out of the thirty-three votes in the senate, with the chance of raising this number to twenty-nine. Sixty-six Democrats have been elected to the state assembly, and a great number of Democratic strongholds have not yet been broken. This assures the election of a Democratic United States senator to succeed Senator Philetus Sawyer.

Chairman Thom, of the Republican state committee, said tonight:

"If the Democrats gains continue in the same ratio in districts not yet heard from or incomplete as we have in some of those we have heard from, Peck is elected."

"To what do you attribute the result in the state?"

"I think the causes which have

Controlled the result in the state are the same as those which have controlled the result in the state of Ohio. The Democrats have a substantial plurality in the state, but their secretary and W. A. Taylor, candidate for secretary of state, returned at headquarters, and at 10 o'clock tonight they had received unofficial returns from all but three counties in the state, on which they claim a plurality for the candidates on the Democratic ticket of 800, and that the Cleveland electors have been chosen by a possibly a slightly reduced majority.

ALL BUT MISEN

Entire Democratic County Ticket Elected in Ramsey County.

About 3,600 Is the Plurality His Home Gives the Gallant Lawler.

Castle Is Badly Snowed Under and Defeated by 3,000 Majority.

Willis Makes a Notable Run and Cornish Is Not in It.

Butler Leads the County Ticket and Is 2,500 to the Good.

Burns Comes Last, but Goes in With a Snug Majority.

The returns from Ramsey county come in with provoking slowness, and it will be dark tonight before the last precinct returns. Enough is known, however, to tell the fate of every candidate on any ticket.

Lawler leads off with a plurality of 3,600 in Ramsey, and Donnelly gets a total of nearly 4,000, nine-tenths of which came from Lawler. The entire Democratic county ticket, with the exception of Misen for sheriff, is elected by majorities ranging from 800 up to 2,500. The absence of several precincts prevents the publication of complete figures, but the statements herein made may be relied upon as accurate. Butler, for attorney, will lead the county ticket, and Burns, for auditor, will be at the foot, though with a safe plurality. The independent candidates proved too much for Misen and he went down before the adverse circumstances.

Castle is beaten out of sight for congress. He has lost this county by something like 2,600 majority, and his lead in the district will be about double that figure.

A most notable run was made by John W. Willis, and his friends were wild with joy over the distance he placed between himself and Cornish. Dr. Whitcomb easily laid out both of his opponents and will probably have a majority over both.

Ives, Haas and Burns come in as victors, with majorities ranging from 1,400 to 800. Lawler leads the county commissioners, all of whom had hollow victories.

It will probably be impossible to tabulate and foot the entire county tonight, and the following table will show the vote for governor in Ramsey county:
