

AMONG OLD FRIENDS.

President - Elect Cleveland Given a Royal Reception in New York.

He Was the Honored Guest of the Brilliant Manhattan Club.

Very Few Were There Who Were Not Personally Known to Him.

Mr. Cleveland Calls to Mind a Former Reception by the Club.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—President-elect Cleveland was given a reception by the Manhattan club tonight. It was a most memorable affair, the magnificent club rooms being finely decorated. Soon after 7 o'clock the guests began to arrive and the halls were well thronged with people when Mr. Cleveland, accompanied by members of the club, arrived. Mr. Cleveland stood on a dais in front of the central window, which was draped with silken American flags. Very few of the guests had to be formally presented. Mr. Cleveland recognized nearly every one, and had a hearty grasp and smile for all.

It was a most brilliant and influential assemblage. Invitations had been sent to all the governors and senators of the Democratic states, the judges of the supreme court of the United States and of the court of appeals of New York, members of the national Democratic and New York state committees, and all who could possibly do so responded. In the main dining room Mr. Cleveland had the seat of honor, under an oil-painting of himself. The walls were draped with flags.

Discussed the Cabinet.

Mr. Cleveland Informally Talks to Democrats.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—President-elect Cleveland has discussed informally the cabinet situation with several Democrats during the past few days. Mr. Cleveland has practically asked Mr. Harrity to accept a cabinet portfolio. He has also lent an ear to the complimentary suggestions of other prominent politicians of Democracy, late leaders in the presidential campaign.

Badgers Hatify.

Milwaukee Given over to Happy Democrats.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 19.—This was Democracy's night to celebrate, and it celebrated. The city was a big discord, in which yell, tin horns, brass bands and everything else in the shape of noise had a part. The cheering and shouting of Democrats celebrated their victory was reviewed from the Pabst hotel balcony by Gov. Peck, Fond du Lac Congressman J. J. Dodge, Racine, W. H. Cannon, Merrill, L. A. Lane, Fond du Lac, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, J. J. Fitzgerald, Cedarburg, George Draper, Grand Haven, J. J. Gray, Green Bay, J. W. Watson, Fond du Lac, Theodore Knappstein, New London, and other lesser lights.

Peace is Close.

Oregon Will Probably Give One Vote to Weaver.

PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 19.—It will take the official count to determine whether Oregon shall cast three or four votes in the electoral college for Harrison. On the face of the returns at hand Pierce, the Populist elector, who was endorsed by the Democrats, has less than 200 votes to overcome. Democrats and Populists believe the county tie to bear more than necessary to election. Whichever way the official count results, there will be a contest.

Gluck's Ambition.

He Would Like to Be Secretary of Agriculture.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 19.—Ex-Gov. Gluck, who defeated St. John years ago, and was Kansas' first and only Democratic executive, hopes to get a seat in the cabinet. He is in conference with his friends today on the subject of the secretaryship of agriculture. He has a strong following. It is said, in the western states, Congressman Gluck's recent election he said he did not think 2,000 Democrats in the state voted the Republican ticket. Before the election the ex-governor was a strong advocate of fusion.

Faulty Material.

Used in the Construction of the Miantonomah.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—A recent investigation of the machinery of the United States steamship Miantonomah developed the fact that there is much faulty material in the heavier parts, and that the engines are likely to collapse any day.

Will Vote With the Democrats.

CAMDEN, Ark., Nov. 19.—Senator James J. Jones, of Arkansas, today in an interview gave it as his opinion that in the next session he would vote with the Democrats. McKimley's bill would be repealed, and a free silver bill passed. Senator Jones says the senators from the silver states and the North will vote with the Democrats on all economic questions.

Indorsed Quay.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 19.—The Republican city members of the lower house of the legislature met this afternoon and indorsed Hon. M. S. Quay as candidate for re-election to the United States senate.

Financial Burden Laid Down.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—E. Mommer & Co., importers of ladies' dress and trimmings, laces and buttons, assigned liabilities, $100,000; assets nominally large.

THE EX-PAYMASTER'S DIVORCE.

Set Aside by a North Dakota Judge.

This Leaves the Countess De Zichlinski in a Peculiar Plight.

She Is Duly Married to Mr. Yorke, but Cannot Live With Him.

A Philadelphia Story Regarding the Parties to the Strange Case.

FARGO, N. D., Nov. 19.—Judge McConnell yesterday heard arguments on the motion of Attorney Rose to set aside the divorce granted Oct. 15, 1891, in the case of Yorke vs. Yorke, on the ground of fraud, because due legal notice had not been given to the defendant, Mrs. Yorke, who was unable to appear and defend the suit. A divorce was granted on the petition of the husband, who was formerly paymaster of the United States navy, charging his wife with desertion and adultery. The husband's attorney was M. A. Hildreth, of this city. The first time Mrs. Yorke knew of the divorce being granted was through a dispatch from Fargo. Mr. Yorke married again about a week after the divorce was granted. Mrs. Yorke at once took steps to have the divorce set aside. Judge McConnell granted the petition to set aside the divorce. The lady Mrs. Yorke married after the divorce and who is now declared to be

His Legal Wife.

Countess de Zichlinski, and is very wealthy. They have been living near Bismarck. The grounds on which the divorce was granted are as follows: Attorney Mahken, of Fargo, first commenced an action for a divorce on the part of Mr. Yorke two years ago against Judge Rose at Jamestown, alleging desertion, and Mrs. Yorke's attorney, Sprague, of Philadelphia, filed an answer denying the allegations. This action never came to trial, and Mr. Yorke's attorney Sprague that he would be notified by Judge Rose of the divorce granted in June, 1890. Attorney Hildreth filed an order at Jamestown naming himself as Mr. Yorke's attorney in Mahken's name, and on the same day filed papers dismissing the suit. He then at once commenced another action before Judge McConnell.

Attorney Adultery.

As well as desertion. In the former suit Mrs. Yorke's residence had been given as Bryn Mawr, Pa., and Sea View, N. J., and the name of the attorney, Sprague, of Philadelphia. Notwithstanding these facts Hildreth filed an affidavit, alleging that the principal residence of the defendant, which was taken up of a hundred hundred circulation. Great care was taken to prevent the newspapers getting the name of the defendant, and the affidavits being removed from the court files by Hildreth. When the case came on for hearing the divorce was granted on the ground of desertion on behalf of Mrs. Yorke. A few days after Mr. Yorke married again, and then papers in the case were refiled by Judge Rose. It is believed to be the first case in the state where a divorce has been set aside after the parties have been married. It is not known whether any action will be taken against Attorney Hildreth.

They Were All Gay.

Story Regarding Some of the Parties to the Case.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 19.—In 1874, Assistant Paymaster in the U. S. Army, was stationed at Philadelphia, awaiting orders. He resided at the Commodore hotel, and was a conspicuous figure in the social life of the city. He was married to the daughter of a prominent family, and they had a family of eight children.

He Got a Free Lunch With It.

LEVERING, Minn., Nov. 19.—The Democrats of this section held a grand ratification meeting here tonight at Nelson opera house. There was an immense turnout for the occasion, and the speakers were heard to the accompaniment of a grand band. A tremendous audience assembled in the hall to listen to a splendid address by Judge John W. Willis, of St. Paul. Senator Jay Ladd presided. A free supper was served at the rink to all comers.

Pioneer Seriously Injured.

ALBERT LEA, Minn., Nov. 19.—Richard Fitzgerald, an esteemed pioneer settler of Bath township, Democratic representative in the legislature in 1870, was thrown from his buggy by a team running away last evening about a mile north of this city. His skull was fractured, and he is in a precarious condition, and his physicians say he can not survive. His age is sixty-four. He leaves a family of eight children.

An Orchestra Disbands.

EAT CLAIRE, Wis., Nov. 19.—The well-known Brooks Typical American orchestra, of St. Paul, failed to appear here tonight for the first time since the organization having disbanded between here and La Crosse for lack of funds. The company was to play a series of ten concerts, one each night, in eight different cities.

Tie for a Judgeship.

RAYO CITY, S. D., Nov. 19.—A remarkable tie in Pennington county is disclosed by the official canvass. The count was completed today, without material change in the Republican majority. It is announced that Mitchell, Republican, and Bangs, fusion, are tied for county judge at 912, and a resort to lots will be necessary, as provided by the statutes.

Will Go to an Asylum.

WABASHA, Minn., Nov. 19.—The case of Dana Bush, indicted for murdering Marshal Rogers, of Lake City, came up in the district court today on a hearing to determine the present sanity of the prisoner. The jury found him sane and unable to make a defense. He will go to the asylum until such time as he is sufficiently recovered to be placed on trial.

Jefferson Acquitted.

BOONE, Mo., Nov. 19.—The jury in the case of George Jefferson, on trial for the murder of John Burgess last June, brought in a verdict of acquittal this morning. Jefferson killed Burgess at Angus on June 11 in protecting his mother from an assault from Burgess.

Stamboul Falls.

STOCKTON, Cal., Nov. 19.—Stamboul was started against his stallion record of 2:28 this afternoon and made 2:09 1/2. The pacing stallion Silkwood went against his 2:08 1/2 record and made 1:50 in 2:07 1/2. His quarters were 3:12, 1:50, 1:35, 2:07 1/2. The wind was light.

ST. PAUL'S SOLIDITY.

The Commercial Club Honors Men Who Have Established It.

Notable Gathering of Builders and Pillars of Industrial Success.

Sage Counsel and Sound Advice by Citizens Who Weigh Words.

Loyalty and Confidence in the City's Destiny Inspiring All.

A very successful, though somewhat long-drawn-out affair, was the dinner given last night by the Commercial club at its rooms to the executive committee of the Business Men's Union. At the six tables set out in the banquet hall were seated a large number of the solid men and hustlers of St. Paul. At the elbows of the capitalists proper sat the trained handlers of money, money and machinery that make capital productive for the community. And in every chair almost sat men who have made their mark in the wholesale or retail, the commercial or industrial fields of effort.
