John D. McPherson, the champion all-around Caledonian athlete, will teach wrestling, shot-putting, jumping, vaulting and other field sports to the various men's classes in the Phoenix Athletic club gymnasium during the winter. He is well known on both sides of the Atlantic and has carried off numerous trophies in the United States and Canada. He is a native of Prince Edward's Island, is of Scotch parentage and is thirty-seven years of age.

His first professional appearance was at Lucknow, Ont., where he won the shot-putting tournament in a match with K. Kerr. In the year he was visited in Scotland, where he won all of the contests in which he entered. He is a magnificent specimen of physique, his good, standing five feet eleven inches in his stockings. He will enter for the Caledonian games at the world's fair.

During the week many new members have been added to the Phoenix club, and the classes have been thoroughly organized and the work has been systematically started. The manner in which the club has been taken up by the citizens of St. Paul is gratifying, and the work is probably being held during the holidays at Market hall, and eight teams will participate. CAMPED IN MEXICO. The So-Called Revolutionists Have Not Left Mexican Soil.

Diaz's Soldiers Driven Into Texas, and They Are Afraid to Return. They Believe They Will Be Put to Death as Deserters. Mexico insists that the United States Shall Corral the Bandits.

MONTEREY, Mexico, Dec. 17.—The Mexican government has ordered, through President Diaz, the federal authorities of the state of Tamaulipas to make investigation into the horrible outrage committed opposite San Ygnacio by the band of so-called revolutionists. According to official dispatches received here last night from Guerrero, a town located fifteen miles from Mier, the revolutionists to the number of about 200 are still in Mexico. From reliable private sources it is also learned that the camp of bandits had been situated on Mexican soil, and within a few miles of the Mexican army garrison, which was attacked. The revolutionists, after completing the massacre, drove the remnants of the garrison across the Rio Grande river. The surviving soldiers sought refuge in San Ygnacio, Tex., where they still remain, fearing to return to Mexico, believing they will be tried as deserters and shot. Mexican troops are now on the trail of the revolutionary bandits. He claims that he was informed of their operations a few weeks before the invasion occurred, and that he warned the United States military authorities that the Mexicans were entering for the purpose, but no attempt had been made by the United States army to prevent the bandits from crossing the border.

STOP THE MARAUDING. Mexico Asks Uncle Sam to Catch the Bandits. WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—The Mexican government, through Don Romero, charges officials of the Mexican legation, has officially called the attention of the United States government to the recent raid into Mexico of citizens of Mexico at San Ygnacio, who formed on the American side. Secretary Foster, of the State department, has been communicated with the war department and asked that additional information be furnished regarding the bandits, so that additional United States troops be stationed on the Mexican border to prevent these excursions.

POOL ROOM PROFITS.

They Are Shown to Be Enormous by Their Books. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 17.—The Examiner devotes a page today to the business of the pool rooms in this city and Oakland. When they are allowed to operate at Oakland they made a pile of their books and private accounts, to which they are now turning. Some of the books were saved, however, and the daily blotters are in possession of the Examiner.
