point.

THE DAILY GLOBE

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY ILBLISHED EVERY DAY AT THE GLOBE BUILDING, CORNER FOURTH AND CEDAR STREETS.

ST. PAUL GLOBE SUBSCRIPTION RATE Daily (Not Including Sunday.)

I yr in advance.$8.00 | 3 m in advance.$2.00 | 4 m in advance. 4 00 | 6 weeks in adv. 1 00 One month......70c.

I yr in advance. $10 00 | 3 mos. in adv...$2 50 to in advance. 5 00 | 5 weeks in adv. 1 00 One month......>5c.

SUNDAY ALONE. Jyr in advance.. $2 00 | 3 mos. in adv....500 m. in advance.. 1 00 | 1 m. in advance.200 TEI-WEEKLY— (Daily— Monday, Wednesday and Friday.)

Trin advance...$4 00 | 6 mos. in adv...$2 00 5 months in advance....$1 00.

WEEKLY ST. PAUL GLOBE. Che year $1 | Six mo., 65c | Three mo., 35c Rejected communications cannot be pre-perved. Address all letters and telegrams to THE GLOBE, St. Paul, Minn.

Eastern Advertising Office- Room 76, Tribune Building, New York.

Complete files of the Globealways kept on hand for reference. Patrons and friends are cordially invited to visit and availthemselves of the facilities of our Eastern Office while in New York.

TODAY'S WEATHER. WASHINGTON, Dec. 20,—For Minnesota and the Dakotas: Generally fair; variable winds, mostly north; slightly colder in the Dakotas. For Wisconsin: Generally fair; variable winds; slightly warmer. For 10wa: Light local snows; variable winds, mostly north-east. For Montana: Snow; north to east

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS. UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULT UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULT-FIRE, WEATHER BUREAU, WASHINGTON, Dec. 19, 6:48 p. m. Local Time, 5 p. m. 7:th Merid-ian Time,—Observations taken at the same moment of time at all stations.

Pince of Observation.	Barometer	Exposed Ther- mometer	Place of Observation.	Height of Barometer	Exposed Ther- mometer
Duiutin La Crosse	30.22 30.16 30.26 30.18	6	Havre Miles City Helens Calgary	30,20 30,08 30,24 30,51	10 8 -4
Pierre Moorhead Bismarck	30.20 30.20 30.14 30.10	14	Med'e Hat		$-\frac{2}{6}$ -10

-Below zero.
P. F. Lyons, Local Forecast Official.

THE CRISIS IN FRANCE.

The crisis in France is assuming an importance which at first was hardly expected. The overthrow of a ministry Is an event of too frequent occurrence in France to excite any apprehension of serious difficulties for the republic, but in this case the downfall of the ministry appears to have been but an incident in the crisis instead of its conclusion. The situation assumes a graver aspect daily, and the resignation of President CARNOT is one of the least serious of the consequences that threaten. If CARNOT resigns, M. Constans will unquestionably be chosen his successor; but It is exceedingly doubtful if Mr. Con-STANS could succeed any better than can CARNOT in calling to his aid a min-Istry which would command the support of the chamber of deputies and the confidence of the country. The Panama scandal has so besmirched the leaders of the Republican faction in France that a popular revulsion against the existing form of government is imminent. Con-STANS is an honest man, but he does not possess the magnetic qualities which are essential to ascendency over the heroworshiping French populace. If Bou-LANGER were alive, he would have his opportunity today. But Bou-LANGER lies, in a suicide's grave, longs to the field of moral suasion and and there is none to take his place. In The republican leaders are discredited and despised, but there is no popular idol to take advantage of the popular discontent. If among the Bourbons, the Orleanists or BONAPARTES there were one man capable of inspiring the mercurial French temperament with enthusiasm in his own behalf, the republie would probably succumb to the demand for a new order of things. But there is no such man, so far as is at present discernible; and unless one is developed out of the situation, the French republic will emerge from its present difficulties a trifle disfigured, but still alive and vigorous.

LOOSEN THE PURSE STRINGS. This is the time of the year when we hear more or less about "Christmas extravagance." Officious moralists take it upon themselves to lecture a weak and misguided world on the sinfulness | the bill by the recent vote of that state, of excessive generosity. "Don't be led it finds that the unit of representation away by the temptation of the hour." they say. "Be just before you are gen- vote being 873,000. Dividing HARRIerous. Don't fill the children's stockings until the month's rent is paid and the coal bill is settled.'

A truce to such rigid and frigid moralizing. We recognize its justice, but we deny its humanity. The "Therefore," the Tribune concludes landlord and the coal baron have rights which we are bound to Illinois had cast 12 votes for CLEVErespect, but so have the little ones at LAND, 11 for HARRISON and 1 for home. Bills should be paid, but by WEAVER." some hook or crook Christmas should be made a happy day for our loved ones. There is no form of extravagance so justifiable as a little loosening of the purse-strings on Christmas. Many a man who thinks he cannot afthe cost of a merry Christmas for his family will squander twice the amount in a Christmas eve celebration with "the boys." That is the only form of Christmas extravagance which the GLOBE is inclined to censure; but, in such a case, our censure is strong enough to recognize the merits of a coat of tar and feathers.

VESTED RIGHTS. It is a familiar principle of our common law that when rights have become vested the beneficiaries shall not be divested without their consent. The constitutional inhibition of laws impairing the obligations of contracts folows this principle. Properly applied, the rule is a just one and a necessary one, if we are to have commercial stability. That it has been improperly applied, and that courts and legislatures have been trying to avoid the prece dents established, every lawyer knows. Even its proper application is made to shelter fraud and corruption. A corporation buys franchises from a council or legislature involving a surrender of public rights or property, and when a remedy by repeal is sought, it finds safety behind the plea of vested rights or that of the inviolability of contracts. But it is left for the discomfited paternalists to reduce the rule to an absurdity by claiming that they have vested rights in the legislation of the protectionists. A bounty is voted a steamship line, and the proposal to repeal the act is met with the claim that the bounty was a contract. It is gravely argued that the various industries bene fited by the McKINLEY act, having adjusted their business to it, are entitled to its continuance on the principle of vested rights. With equal audacity one OXNARD, who has gone into the beet sugarmaking in Nebraska, insists that the federal government must continue found that the headway is too great, paying him two cents for eace pound of and it will run resistlessly to the last sugar he makes because a congress promised it, and he has embarked in the siness upon the strength of it. Reasoning the same way, and with equal if not greater plausibility, officers have objected to a reduction of their salaries during the term for which they were elected because they had a vested right to the salary during their term. But courts have made short work of that plea, and there is no doubt that they will make as summary disposal of the claim of the bounty-fed industries, should they sue for their stipend after the next congress shall have sent the acts giving them bounty to the museum for the preservation of the relics of the reign of

EXIT MR. FEIG.

The state canvassing board yesterday canvassed the votes of the Seventh con gressional district and directed a certificate to issue to H. E. BOEN, the Populist candidate. Mr. FEIG was present at the canvass with his attorney, and objected to the votes of Marshall county being counted for Mr. BOEN, on the ground that on the ballots used in that county his name was H. E. BOEN while in all the other counties it was HALDOR E. BOEN. Mr. FEIG evidently relied on the partisan relations of the major part of the board to give him the certificate on this threadbare technicality, and must have been deeply grieved at the contemptuous manner in which their honors brushed aside his cobwebs. Mr. Feig did not, of course, expect to hold the seat thus obtained. He knew, if he is capable of knowing so much, that the house of representatives would make very short work of his case. But Mr. FEIG had heard somewhere. possibly had read somewhere, of men who had received certificates which the house had refused to recognize, and that the ousted member had been allowed a liberal sum for his expenses, beside the salary he might draw pending the decision. To Mr. FEIG, who, we believe, when he is not in pursuit of political place, makes his livelihood by cultivating a small farm up in Kandiyohi county, this prospect was very alluring, and was no doubt the controlling motive in this attempt to get Mr. Boen's seat or the flimsiest of pretexts. Mr. Feig can now retire to the county with the musical name and muse on the utility of tricks in the game of politics; unless, indeed, he should think his services to the party demanded recognition in some position in the legislature-say doorkeeper to a cloak room, for instance,

PROBIBITION BY DETAIL.

The Prohibitionists, having failed of uccess by direct assault, are sapping and mining. They are now busily engaged in gathering their forces for the first line of approach, and will present and try to force through a bill extending local option to the counties. Two years ago they were foiled in their efforts in this direction by the Democrats of the house, but they evidently regard the presence of a Republican majority as favoring them. They do not build without reason. Wherever prohibition has obtained a footing it was through that party. And very properly. There is no difference, save in degree, between the spirit which wouldsmake men sober by legislation and that which would make wealth by the same means. Prohibition is only the sentimental side of protection, and paternalism is their common mother.

It is not probable that their effort will be crowned with success. The Democrats will oppose it on principle. Not that they oppose sobriety, nor that they favor drunkenness, but because they do not believe it a proper function of government; because they believe it an unwarranted interference with the freedom of the citizen; because it bebecause coercion is useless and futile. fight shy of it. They will see in it but a step towards state prohibition, and the result in those states where their party has committed itself to that cause s not such as to commend it as a strengthening plaster for its weakening back. The Populists will be divided, but there are not enough of them to make it of much importance what they will or will not do. So the GLOBE believes, as it hopes, that county option will be but an iridescent dream.

THE SPRINGER BILL.

The Chicago Tribune comments favorably on the bill of Mr. Springer for electoral representation of the minority parties in a state, but it differs materially from the GLOBE in its concep tion of the use to be made of the fractions, minor or major, over the electora quota. Illustrating the operation of in the electoral vote is 36,400, the total son's vote by the unit would give him 10 electoral votes, with a remainder of 35.288. CLEVELAND would get 11 votes with a remainder of 25,841. WEAVER's vote was 25,870, and BIDWELL's 22,247. "the board would have certified that

Just on what principle the Tribune figures that WEAVER with 25,000 votes and CLEVELAND with a similar remainder get one electoral vote each, while BID-WELL with 22,000 gets none, is hard to perceive. On that of the use of major fractions all candidates would get one each, which would bring the total above the state's quota. BIDWELL's major fraction is just as much entitled to rep resentation as is either of the others, if resulting from the division of his remainder by the electoral unit. Mr. WEAVER would have .7 of a vote and Mr. BIDWELL .6. Thus each candidate would receive exactly the part of the electoral vote of the state to which he was entitled, and the minorities would all have their proper representa-

PLAIN WORDS, BUT TRUE. The Chicago Herald has scant regard for the Eastern Democrats, or for any of them anywhere, who yet tremble and shiver at the thought of free trade. It says, with the pointedness of a cam-bric needle, "if avowed protection is a fraud and a cheat, then incidental protection is an incidental fraud and cheat." Minnesota Democrats have been talking that way for a number of years, but it will fall harshly on the ears of those Eastern doughfaces who want just a trifle less protection than the Republicans do. The fact is that Democratic arguments have educated the mass of the party to think just as the Herald does. The result of our arguments against protection parallel that of the Republicans' against slavery. Just as these latter ran on logical lines to the abolition of slavery, so ours run to the abolition of tariffs. When the time comes to put on the brakes and slow the movement of the party down to a stop at the tariff station, it will be station. The people have been taught that any tariff is a tax on what men eat and wear, and that wealth escapes, and we will find that they have learned too much to stop short of the logical end.

COL. SHEPARD, of the Mail and Express. rises to ask "when will New York city shake off the incubus of 10,000 gin mills?" It has recently transpired that a Single gin mill occasionally gives the pious colonel more of a incubus than he can conveniently carry. So we fully understand his solicitude for Gotham staggering under its 10,000-mills load.

THE Republican convention of '88 de clared in good, round terms that, rather than abate one jot or tittle of their protective sys-tem, they would abolish the whole internal revenue system. The movement of the Democrats to consérve and increase the internal tax on spirits while abolishing protection is the logical antithesis.

THE momentous question now up for dis cussion is whether Miss Helen Gould on Miss Garrett, of Baltimore, is the richest unmarried woman in this country. It's enough to make Jay turn over in his grave to hear those brash Baltimoreans talk up their

The senatorial situation in North Dakota is getting in a very demoralized condition. It was bad, has been getting worse for some time, and now looks as it it were going from worse to Worst. WHEN the enterprising actress isn't acting, She loves to pose for statues nowadays; Taking one consideration with another,

Stage advertising has its wily ways. By the time the women who didn't pose for it get through with their criticisms of that Montana statue it will wish it had never been cast. WITH the approach of the holidays the air hole in the pond prepares to get in its work on the American small boy and his first pair

Ir Briggs had been a heretic two hundred years ago his case would not have dragged so. It would have had a red-hot finish in short

Mr. Davis will start for home Thursday evening. He knows better than to tempt fate by starting on his senatorial cruise on Friday. As THE Panama canal scandal continues to expand we wonder more than ever how Mars manages to worry along with all its canals, TALK is usually cheap, but the market is being still further beared by Republican ex planations of what hit them.

SLEEPYTOWN ITEMS.

New York Herald. Passenger--Will you wake me up in Philadelphia, porter? Porter-Not allowed to wake anybody there, sir.

He Might Have Known. Detroit Free Press.

"I've seen slow messengers boys before," said Bunting, angrily, to the little fellow who had taken an hour to go two squares, "but you are the slow-est of the slow. Where on earth were 'In Philadelphia, sir," replied the

A Killing Item.

Good News. New York Boy-Bet you ain't got anything in Philadephia we haven't got. Philadelphia Boy-Bet we have, too. New York Boy-What? Philadelphia Boy-Suicide clubs.

Regular Record-Breakers. New York Weekly.

Miss Gotham—That talk about Philadelphia being so very, very slow is merely a newspaper joke, isn't it? Visiting Minister-Certainly You just ought to see a Philadelphia congregation leaving church.

JOCULAR JINGLES. Sneeze, sneeze, sneeze, There is no way to help it, you see, In the home of the brave and the free.

-Chicago Inter Ocean.

Knocked Out at Last. Stop, traveler! beneath this mound There lies a fistic star; He had the best of ever, round, Except those at the bar.
-New York Sun.

The Coming of Christmas. Behold the man with the wrinkled brow!
Such circumstances try him,
Himself he stinteth nobly now
That he will pay, he hath a vow,
For gifts his wife shall buy him, —Washington Star.

It's Here Again. Now, mournful feelings to provoke Against all human nature, We resurrect the ancient joke Upon the legislature. And ere the members take their seats, Or at their desks can turn, The editor that cry repeats: "Oh, when will they adjourn?" —Atlanta Constitution.

A Maiden's Way. In summer she refused the roses To send her flowers, she takes them now From him with unruffled brow, cause they cost him, she supposes,

Today, a dollar apiece. -New York Press. A ROYAL GRANDMAMA'S GIFT

The Sweet Little Pony Is a Beloved Playmate for the Little Battenbergs.

Liftle Princess Victoria, one of the queen of England's favorite grandchildren, has a "dear little pony," which I know every one of you would just "love to have." The queen, for whom this little granddaughter is named, is a most loving and indulgent grandma, it seems, and loves to give the little ones jolly surprises every once and a while. some years the children of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught (the duke is one resentation as is either of the others, it justice is the purpose of the bill, and just as much as Weaver is entitled to one.

The plan suggested by the Globe is more equitable. By it each would get that fractional part of an electoral vote that are the part of the daughter of the daughter of the daughter. as they are the children of the daughter who has scarcely been parted from the queen throughout life.

Her majesty delights in giving children's parties, and her latest gift to the juvenile Battenbergs has been a pretty cream colored pony. The children were driving in Windsor one day recently when they met Messrs, Sangers' circus passing through the town. Charmed with the show, they gave an animated description to the queen, who imme-diately requested the circus to parade in the royal grounds for the little folks'

One of the animals in the collection so pleased the children that she purchased the cream-colored pony, which the little princess always delighted to ride. The creature is a great pet, and when the royal party was at Osborne one of the children rode the pony every

AN ENGAGEMENT.

She does not wear my little ring Upon her hand,
1 wonder why?
It is because it tells something, The simple band, And she is shy?

Yet one could see a ribbon peep About the lace—
(If one should try)
About her throat; but let it keep
It's hiding place
From every eye.

The secret is too new, too dear,
No one must know,
No one must spy;
It is so sweet to be so near, Sne wants it so:
And I, and I.

-Exchange.

The State Canvassing Board Partially Announces Official Results.

Electors and Supreme Court Judges.

No Change in Official Majorities From Figures Already Given.

lows:

Attorney General

W. Childs, R. 198, 785

Congressional Vote.

The totals for congress are as follows:
First District—
DavidMorgan, Pr 3, 189
J. A. Tawney, R. 18, 146
W. H. Harries, D. 14, 905
J. A. Vermileva, P. 2, 342
P. H. Harsh, Pro. 1, 554
J. W. Lawrence, Dis. 905
S. C. Lon, P. C. 268
J. T. McCleary, R. 18, 497
W. S. Hamn'd, D. 11, 290
S. C. Lon, P. C. 268
S. H. Bronson, Pr. 1, 833
M. S. Searle, R. 16, 944
M. R. Baldwin, D. 17, 317
McCleary's plu 6, 908
A. Parsons, P. 3, 134
D. Heatwole, R. 14, 727
O. M. Hail, D. 15, 899
F. Borchert, P. 3, 3, 485
W. F. Kelso, D. 7, 523
Hall's plu ... 1, 165
H. E. Boen, P. 1, 2, 244
J. N. Castle, D. 13, 425
J. N. Castle, D. 13, 425
J. N. Castle, D. 13, 425
J. G. Dougherty, P. 2, 213
Vote for District Judges.

Vote for District Judges.

First Judicial Districti, D. (no opposition)... 10,463 Willis' majority, 356.
Third District—
Charles M. Start, R. (no opposition) ... 8, 411 Fifth District as S. Bucknam, R..... 7,547 Buckham's plurality, 5,495. M. J. Severance D. (no opposition).. 8,010 Seventh District— L. Baxter, D. (no opposition)...... 16,902 Francis Cadwell, D. (no opposition).. 9,448 | J. Partridge, the well-known elocutionist, Whytock's majority, 5,464. Eleventh District— amuel H. Moer, R. (no opposition)... 8,515

Thirteenth District—
2. C. Brown. R. (no opposition) 6,113
Fourteenth District— Ira B. Mills, R.... Ives majority, 1,528. BOEN DECLARED ELECTED.

Order.

The only portion of the proceedings of the meeting of the state canvassing board possessed of the slightest interest was the disposal of the claims of Hon. Henry Feig for the certificate of election as a member of congress for the Seventh district. The fact that Mr. Feig would attempt to secure the cer-tificate and thus throw Mr. Boen to the expense of a contest, had been widely advertseid, and many people expected that the attempt would amount to something. In this they were disappointed, as the GLOBE all-along predicted they would be. Mr. Feig had no case and the can-ago, the sole point made by Mr. Feig's attorney. Henry Johns, of this city, was that the state canvassing board had not the power to add together the votes cast for H. E. Boen and Haldor E. Boen, although knowing that these two names belonged to one and the same person.

In two counties of the district,
Marshall and Wilken, the county auditor placed Mr. Boen on the official ballot as H. E. Boen instead of Haldor E. Boen as it appeared in the nomination papers sent to them. in the nomination papers sent to them. In the case of the Marshall county of-In the case of the Marshall county of-ficial it seems that he had prepared the "copy" for the printer before Mr. Boen filed his certificate, and knowing him well as H. E. Boen, so wrote the name. When the certificate arrived he noticed the difference, but thinking it a matter of no moment made no change. Mr. Lange, the auditor of Marshall county,

When Judge Collins announced that and Haldor E. Boen are one and the same person, but claim that the rulings of the courts of all the states under statutes similar to ours give a cauvassing board no power to settle such a question. The duties of this board are simply to add up the returns sent in from the various counties and declare the result accordingly."

Everything Complete but

Boen Knocks Out Feig's Claims and Gets His Certificate.

The votes cast in Minnesota on Nov. were yesterday canvassed by the state canvassing board, all of the footings having been completed last night, save those of the votes cast for presidential electors and judges of the supreme court. The board is composed of two supreme court and two district judges and Secretary of State Brown. The supreme court judges are Gilfillan and Collins, and the district Kelly, of St. Paul, and Lochren, of Minneapolis. The clerks are Matt Jensen, assistant state treasurer; A. H. Bertram, secretary of the state dairy commission: D. C. Light-bourn, deputy state insurance commis-sioner; E. Moody, assistant state land commissioner; G. G. Cowie, clerk for the secretary of the state board of corrections and charities, and Joseph A. Bolton, governor's stenographer.

Judge Gilfillan has charge of the canvass of the vote on presidential electors, Judge Collins has charge of the canvass of the vote for state officials and district or the vote for state officials and district judges, and Judges Kelly and Lochren have charge of the vote for congressmen and supreme court judges.

The vote for presidential electors is tabulated, but not footed. The latter work will be completed today. The vote for environme gourt judges is tabulated. vote for supreme court judges is tabulated, but not footed. The vote for state officials is tabulated and partly footed. The vote for congressman is tabulated and footed. The vote for judges of the district court is tabulated and footed. The remainder of the work

State Officials. The totals of the vote for state offi-cials, so far as ascertained, are as follows:

For Governor—
K. Nelson, R. 109,220
D.W. Lawler, D. 91,690
Ig. Donnelly, P. 30,863
W. J. Dean, Pro. 12,239
M. Clongh, R. 1,94,446
H. Hawkins, D. 99,992
Secretary of State—
F. P. Brown, R. 103,010
Peter Nelson, D. 96,755
Brown's plur. 8,25
Attorney General—
H. W. Childs, R. 108,785

Congressional Vote.

The vote on district judges was as

It is now Congressman-Elect Boen, of the Seventh district, and he has the permission of the state canvassing board vassing board dismissed his claims with scant courtesy.

As stated in the Globe several weeks was present yesterday morning to explain this mistake if necessary. The auditor of Wilkin county did not appear, but the mistake there probably arose in the same manner. Had the canvassing board taken the view that Mr. Feig's attorney demanded, of course the certificate would have been given the c to Mr, Feig, absurd though the claim When Judge Collins announced that the board was ready to hear the attorneys in the matter, Hon. John W. Mason, Mr. Boen's attorney, stepped forward and eleverly threw the burden of contestant upon Mr. Feig. He said it would be proper for the board to decide the order in which counsel would be heard, adding that as Mr. Feig appeared as a contestant it would be proper to hear his representative first. This was agreed upon, and the fairhaired Henry Johns stepped forward.

"Weadmit." he said, "that H. E. Boen." "We admit," he said, "that H. E. Boen far as La Junta.

Mr. Johns read from a Massachusetts case, and also referred to the McKnley - Wallace contest of some years ago in Ohio. In the latter the canivassing board declined to count ballots for Maj. Wallace because of mistakes in spelling and errors in the name, although the intention of the voter was plain. The house of representatives at Washington promptly undid this wrong, as Mr. Johns intimated they would in the case in hand.

The weakness of Mr. Johns' argument impressed his hearers, but under the keen and merciless logic of Mr. Mason it shortly became absurd. In opening the case Mr. Mason said:

"It seems to me that the counsel has given away his case aliendy. He has admitted that H. E. Boen is the same person as Haldor E. Boen, and this concession leaves him no ground upon which to staid."

Here Mr. Mason read from the elec-Mr. Johns read from a Massachusetts

Here Mr. Mason read from the election law of the state, in which the state-ment is plainly made that "persons," and not names are to be voted for by the people. The Massachusetts case was taken up, and declared not in

"But," said Mr. Mason, "in this Massachusetts ease is a reference that is in point."

In the New York case the canvassing board had refused to count votes cast for M. M. Clark for Moses Clark, and the court in deciding the case declared that the canvassing board should have counted votes cast for M. M. Clark for Moses Clark, and on this decision de-cided Moses Clark entitled to the office. Mr. Mason is a keen, incisive and polished speaker, and, while his argument was not lengthy, every point was carefully covered, and when he closed the chief justice leaned over and whispered something to Judges, Collins, Kelly and Lochren and Secretary of State Brown, and then, with a wave of his hand, settled the Feig contest.

"The votes cast for Mr. Boen will be so counted," he said.

DAMAGES AND DIVORCES Figure Largely in Yesterday's

Court Events. Maria Moracy began an action yesterday against the St. Paul City Railway company for $10,600. She suffered an atrophy of the muscles of the left shoulder and lost thereby the use of her arm from falling off a cable car at Nina avenue on April 13 last. It is claimed that the car started white she was Walter Holcomb has commenced an action against A. J. Hard and others, with a view of recovering shares of the common stock in the American Indemnity company. Mr. Holcomb says that by a clerical error in distributing the common stock when the company was organized several persons were given more shares than they were entitled to. Hard received 2.93 shares more than his share. The others allowed the error to be corrected, and turned over the excessive shares, but Hard refuses to do so, hence the suit against him. The par value of the shares is $50.

Swan P. Person, also known as Swan P. Walter Holcomb has commenced an action shares is $50.

Swan P. Person, also known as Swan P. Ekstrom, asks for a decree of divorce from Stina Person. They were married November 24, 1870, at Knaved, Sweden. They have two children. The husband came to America in 1886, and has since sent money to his wife and asked her to come over to him, but she declines to leave her Sweden home for a home in Minnesota with her husband, hence the suit for divorce on the grounds of desertion.

Judge Brill will hold a term of the criminal

Waiter Q. Chapin has garnished the effects Thomas Keogh and Damel Donnelly in the hands of the Union bank, to satisfy a note for $150. omas C. Connor asks judgment sgainst F. G. Brady in the sum of $5,60 for an assault and battery on May 16 hast.

John C. Collins asks for judgment against
C. G. Lewis for a balance of $135 due for Daniel H. Hickey has sued James Anderson on a promissory note for $200. The next entertainment in the People's course will take place next Tuesday evening Dec. 27, at Market hall. Hon. H. S. Fairchild will delivery the lecture on "Sights in Europe," illustrated by stereopticon views. L.

will recite several pieces and a fine programme of music will be given. BLOW AT THE WHISKY TRUST. It Is Beaten in a Suit Which Involves $15,000,000. CHICAGO, Dec. 20.-William Newburger this afternoon obtained judgment against the Distillers' and Cattle Feeders' company, commonly known as the whisky trust, for $109 and interest. The Claims of Feig Upset in Short If this is sustained the precedent will, it is said, deprive the trust of some $15,000,000 of consumers' money.—The whisky trust has a regulation by which its goods are sold mission of the state canvassing board to write a name "Haldor E. Boen" or "H. E. Joen," as may be most pleasing to him.

The only portion of the proceedings

The only portion of the proceedings the trust. The vouchers on which the present case is brought were held by Newburger, having been assigned to him by a firm which had not bought all its goods from the whisky trust. The trust, therefore, refused to honor the rebate vouchers. As a result of today's decision other suits will be begun in the higher courts for amounts varying from $5 to $10,000. The effort is not only being made for the purpose of obtaining the money, but is also intended to bring about an open market, it being supposed that other distillers opposed to the trust will start up in opposition and that lower prices will pre-

SPRUNG A GOOD THING.

Pool Rooms Hit Hard by Backers of Glee Boy. CHICAGO, Dec. 20 .- Glee Boy won the third race at Gloucester today, at odds from 10 to 15 to 1 against him, and a "killing" was made throughout the country. Joe Ullmau, at Hawthorne, lost $7,600 and the Roby bookmakers $6,000 on the good thing. The race was who was a sundoubtedly well fixed, for reports by wire tonight showed that Glee Boy was heavily backed in all pool rooms. At Covington $10,000 was won, W. R. Bannon, of Polk Badge fame, taking down $3,000 there. Columbus, Louisville, St. Louis and St. Paul also suffered heavily.

Probably Drowned.

Special to the Globe WINONA, Minn., Dec. 20 .- Three Bohemian men, Alex Taski, Albert Kinkorch and John Lorbitski, who have been cutting wood across the river from the city, have mysteriously disappeared They were paid Saturday and started across the river on the ice. As no trace can be found of them, and the river being full of air holes, it is thought they have been drowned.

Going to California. WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.-Gen. Roseerans, register of the treasury, will eave here tomorrow afternoon for Los Angeles, Cal, in the hope of recovering his health. His daughter will accom-pany him, and Gov. Toole, his son-in-law, will join them at Chicago and go as LAID TO POISON.

Mysterious Deaths of Arkansas Convict Laborers. HELENA, Ark., Dec. 20.-There is great excitement here over the sudden and unexplained death of four convicts and the probably fatal sickness of a dozen more, all in the camp of S. M. Apperson, a contractor, who is doing work here for the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern railway. About 110 convicts were brought here last Monday. The men, under the escort of a dozen armed guards, have been at work all the week throwing up the roadbed for the new tracks of the railroad. There are a large number of unem-ployed laborers in and around this city, and they protested very strongly against the introduction of convicts to do this work when they were all idle, and a numerously signed petition was presented to one of the county officers, but, of course, he could do nothing. The matter was thought to have about died out, when no less than eighteen of the convicts were enddedly strikken wester. convicts were suddenly stricken vesterday morning with an illness which is said to present strong evidence of ar-senical poisoning. Four of them are now dead and three others will be dead be-fore morning. Doctors were summoned and ministered to the wants of the sick men, but without avail.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 20.—It has developed that the cause of the sudden death among the convicts at Helena, Ark., was arsenical poisoning, though how it was administered and by whom it was administered and by whom is yet a matter of conjecture. A chemist today examined the stomach of Robert Lane, one of the first convicts who died, and whose stomach was selected by the physicians for the experiment, and found large quantities of ar-senic. This established without a doubt the poisoning theory. About 2 o'clock this morning ten more of the convicts were taken suddenly ill and convicts were taken suddenly ill and the physicians summoned. One more man died last night and another this morning, making six deaths in all. The camp was broken up this morning and the convicts taken away. The whole state is in excitement. The poisoning was not confined to convicts. Among those dangerously ill are Capt. Dunlap and one of the guards. Dunlap is ex-warden of the penitentiary.

AIDED BY LAX OFFICIALS.

How Young Foerstel Covered Up His Peculations.

St. Louis, Dec. 20.-In the city treasury scandal today's developments imply added confirmation to what became known yesterday. The shortage has remained at the figures given, but a new examination and check ing of accounts, this one dating back to the last official cancellation of redeemed bonds and coupons in July last, is in progress and when completed the exact condition of the city's finances will be known. Lax official conduct is becoming involved in the situation. As already developed the comptroller's department has in its frequent checkings taken the treas-ury's statement of the contents of coupon packages, etc., and therein it is now known the crime was concealed. In addition, the ways and means committee of the council is empowered by the charter to cancel alll city bonds and coupons as often as there is any necessity, not less often than every thirty days, but it seems to have been quite difficult to gather this trio of $25-a-month statesmen together with any regularity, and this fact made it possible for young Foerstel to hide his doings to a certain extent. Last Saturday, however, he was notified by Assistant Comptroller Gabel that his accounts would be looked into by the convented. would be looked into by the committee Monday. He realized that he was in desperate straits, and knew that his failure to produce the required bonds would disgrace him for life. Unable to face the impending calamity, he select ed suicide as the easiest method of escape. The inquest today over the remains of the suicide was a formal affair. and the natural verdict rendered.

FIVE LEFT DEAD. Bloody Battle Between Horse Thieves and Deputy Marshals. CHEYENNE, Wis., Dec. 20.-A letter received in this city this morning from Hiattville, Johnson county, Wyo., dated the 17th, gives the particulars of a bloody fight between Deputy United States Marshals James Huff and W. J. Stiebr and a hand of horse and cattle hieves on No Water river, six miles below Hiattville. The officers succeeded in bringing down three of the outlaws, and they both were killed. The thieves fied, leaving their dead and the bodies of the dead marshals on the ground. Among the thieves killed was Ira Walker, of Hiattville, who was tried at the last term of court in Buffalo for murder. Another was Ace Schuck, a well known and dangerous horse and cattle thief. A strong posse has started out after the thieves. ARRESTED THE COOKS.

Two More of the Alleged Homestead Poisoners in Custody. PITTSBURG, Dec. 20.-Patrick Gallagher, the cook who confessed to baving been implicated in the Homestead poisoning, was arrested this afternoon. He was taken to Ald. McMasters' office, and, after waiving a hearing, was committed to jail. At 2 o'clock this afternoon J. M. Davidson, another of the self-confessed poisoners, was arrested, and gave bail in $3,000. Another death was reported to the coroner today from the South Side hospital as a result of the poisoning sensa-tion. Camus Geneski died Aug. 23. He was working at Homestead when taken On Aug. 15 he was taken to the South Side hospital and received treat-ment for chronic diarrochea. His symptoms were the same as in all the cases in which poisoning has been charged. The coroner will confer with the district attorney before acting.

1RON HALLERS IN DEMAND. Requisitions to Be Issued for a Number of the Officers.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 20.-Gov. Chase was asked today by State's Attorney Holtzman for requisitions on the governors of Pennsylvania, Michigan and Maryland, for the arrest of F. D. Somerby, Amos H. Hosmer, Joseph Gladding, J. Henry Hayes, E. W. Rouse, Gladding, J. Henry Hayes, E. W. Rouse, C. H. Baker and J. A. Reckersly, of the Iron Hall, against whom an indictment was returned by the grand jury for the embezzlement of $170,000. Mark C. Davis, of this city, was arrested when the indictment was found, and was placed under bond of $20,000. When arrested, the bond of Somerby et al. will probably be fixed at the same amount.

He Killed a Diaz.

OAXIC, Mex., Dec. 20. - Nicholas Fernandez, a wealthy young Spaniard of this city, who killed Aurelio Diaz, a nephew of President Diaz, in a duel here last Wednesday, has been arrested, and will be tried on a charge of murder. The seconds of Fernandez have also been arrested. The fatal affair of honor was the outcome of trouble which the two young men recently had over a young lady to whom both were paying Indian Lives in the Balance. MADISON, Wis., Dec. 20 .- Judge Bunn charged the jury in the case of the Indian murderers, Monney Penny and Kozini, this morning, telling the jury to Kozini, this morning, terring the jury to consider an Indian with exactly as much right to justice as any white person. The jury retired after noon and after 10 o'clock this evening the judge left the court room without receiving the ver-cict, so the jury will stay until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning at the earliest.

While the agent of the Canadian Pacific Express at Sarula, Ont., was at dinner yesterday, $7,000 was stolen from the safe.

WYOMING DEMOCRATS

Gain a Pronounced Victory Before The Supreme Court. CHEYENNE, Wyo., Dec. 20.-Another pronounced victory was gained by the Democrats in the supreme court here today. The Republicans had called upon the court to include the governor in the mandamus proceedings. This was done to complicate the case in the hope of disconcerting the Democrats by forcing them to recognize Barforcing them to recognize Barber or make a fight for Osborne, the rightful governor. The court decided that the governor need not be a party to a suit against the state canvassing board. It would be presumed in the absence of allegations to the contrary that sence of allegations to the contrary that the count was legally conducted. It was announced from the bench that the supreme court would refuse to go into the matter of the count of Hanna precinct in Carbon county. It would confine itself entirely to the state canvass and to questions of the prima facie legal returns before the board. The Republicans will tomorrow offer a demurrer, claiming that the mandamus petitioners are not entitled to the relief petitioners are not entitled to the relief which they asked. It is believed that this is the last of the filibustering, and that the case will be heard on Thursday its merits. It will then be decided whether a county canvassing board consists of three members or one.

DOWN IN ALABAMA.

at Anniston. Anniston, Ala., Dec. 20.—The visit of Gen. Adlai E. Stevenson to Alabama developed unbounded enthusiasm, but a few Otter Muffs, should the no significent speechmaking on the part supply give out, we will allow of the honored guest. The vice presi- price of Muff off sale price dent-elect and party arrived at Anniston at noon on a special train and will remain in the city until s well worth taking advantage of, and is made to stimulate for Atlanta. The city was for Atlanta. The city was gaily decorated. Excursion trains brought in large crowds. After luncheon an informal reception was held at the opera house, which was crowded to its full capacity, hundreds being turned away. Col. McElrey introduced Gen. Stevenson, who made a brief address, thanking the people of Anniston and of Alabama for the cordial welcome. Following this was the hand shaking. The lowing this was the hand shaking. The party is composed of A. E. Stevenson, wife and three daughters; Mrs. Scott and two daughters, J. S. Stevenson, T. Lillilard and wife, Col. Burnett and W.

T. Ewing.

Heavy snow tell in Northern Texas yester-There is a grain blockade in St. Louis, the low stage of the river being partly responsi-

TELEGRAPHIC TICKS.

ow stage of the river being party responsible.

Dr. Lempe began the argument for the prosecution in the Briggs case yesterday. He will finish it today.

Hon. Patrick Egan sailed from New York yesterday for Aspinwall on his way back to his post in Chili.

The French government has sent telegraphic orders to Gen. Dodds to raise the blockade on the coast of Dahomey.

John Stokes, a Kansas City (Kan.) contractor, was thrown from a buggy over his horse's head by the animal slipping, breaking his neck and killing him instantly.

It is said that several Brooklyn aidermen will be indicted for misappropriating funds appropriated for the celebration of Columbus day.

Another body has been taken out of the

Another body has been taken out of the debris of the fire at Albany, N. Y., but has not yet been identified. This makes five victims.

The Rothschilds are the leaders in a gigan-tic beer trust, with proposed by The Rothschilds are the leaders in a gigantic beer trust, with proposed headquarters in New York, and branch offices in the leading cities of the country.
The rumors of Dr. Emin's death are erroneous. Dr. Emin is now following Stanley's route through the Congo state, and but for an affection of the eyes, is in exceptionally good health.
The Louisiana supreme court vesterday de-The Louisiana supreme court yesterday declared constitutional the law passed two years ago, and known as the "Jim Crow" law, making it compulsory on railroads to provide separate cars for negroes. Orlando Metcait, a prominent capitalist of Colorado Springs, Col., has assigned for the benefit of his creditors. It is stated that Mr. Metcaif's assets are worth $500,000, and his liabilities are $100,000.

The catalogue of Yale university for '92-'93, the 193d issue, has appeared, and exhibits marked growth in general in the university. There are 1,949 students this year, as compared with 1.784 in 1841 A LESSON FOR HUSBANDS.

Wife's Love. You may consider you rself a very independent young person with the ability to take care of yourself, a strong, goahead business sense, and a self-reliance that makes you lose all fear of everything. Yet you are a woman notwithstanding all that, and, according to the Philadelphia Times, your nature is just the same, eyen though you are perhaps a little stronger than your sisters. There will be a time when the day has been hard, the burden heavy and things all at sixes and sevens generally, when you will lay down your air of independence and be glad to be petted and fussed over as much as the weakest member of your sex. It is born in us—this desire to be loved and cared for. The folding of a wrap around shoulders that begin to be chilly when limbs are too tired to go after a shawl conveys more meaning than the mere action shows to the onlooker. It gives the weary mortal a sense of protecting, watenful care that is more sooth-ing than words when heart and brain are too exhausted for active demonstrations. A gentle touch, a caress at an unlooked-for moment, the thousand and one little attentions that a woman revels in are so much more valuable to her than to the giver that, valuable to her time to the giver that, if her heart could be read, surely there would be more of this kind of gentle care shown after the time for such demonstrations is supposed to have gone by. Married men forget that the wife's heart yearns for those little attentions lavished upon her as a lover, but thought unnecessary when settled down to the matter-of-fact business of everyday married life. Such little touches are the glimpses of sunshine amid the trials and storm. They keep the heart young and the spirit buoyant, and the older a woman gets the more she longs for the pro-gets the more she longs for the pro-tecting love shown in the little quiet attentions that prove to her she is an object of care and unremitting thought.

These Are Traveling. Special to the Globe.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—At New York Hotels: NEW 10RK, Dec. 29.—At New 10rk Holeis:
Minneapolis—J. B. Williams, Union Square:
C. Guilford, F. W. Trione, Grand Union; E.
J. Lee, Marlborough; W. H. Vanderburgh,
Gilsey; G. Harrison, Savoy; Miss H. Goodrich, Miss N. Lowry, Fifth Avenue. St. Paul
—C. E. Ellis, Imperial; S. Fisner, Gedney;
C. D. Heans, Metropolitan; C. Hamlin, H.
Haupt, St. Denis; J. C. Meyers, Sinclair.

THE GOLDEN SIDE. There is many a rest on the road of lite, If we only would stop to take it; And many a tone from the better land, If the querulous heart would wake it.

To the sunny soul that is full of hope.
And whose beautiful trust ne'er faileth,
The grass is green and the flowers are bright,
Though the wintry storm prevaileth. Better to hope, though the clouds hang low, And to keep the eyes still lifted; For the sweet blue sky will soon peep through, When the ominous clouds are drifted.

There was never a night without a day,
Nor an evening without a morning;
And in the darkest hour, the proverb goes,
Is the hour before the dawning. There is many a gem in the path of life, Which we pass in our idle pleasure. That is richer far than the jeweled crown, Or the miser's hoarded treasure. Or a mother's prayer to heaven,
Or a mother's prayer to heaven,
Or only a beggar's grateful thanks
For a cup of water given.

Better to weave in the web of life
A bright and golden filling.
And to do God's work with a ready heart,
And hands that are swift and willing,
Than to snap the delicate sliver threads
Of our curious lives asunder,
And then heaven blame for the tangled And sit to grieve and wonder.

RANSOM & HORTON, 99 and 101 E. Thi-d St.

Monday morning, and for the balance of the week till Xmas Eve, we will give FUR MUFFS FREE—that is, to the purchaser of a Seal Garment (and our prices on these goods are the lowest of any reliable house in the country) will give the choice of a Seal, Mink or Marten Muff free with garment; value, $12 to $18. We will give a Muff to match also with every Mink, Astra-Gen. Stevenson Given an Ovation khan or other fur garment for ladies, excepting, only, Otter Garments, and, as we have but of garment. This is an offer trains garment trade for this week and encourage the buying of Fur Garments for Christmas Gifts—than which none could

We will give A SEAL CAP FREE with each Fur-Lined Mink, Otter or Beaver Coat sold. With any other kind of Fur Coat we will give your choice of either Beaver, Otter or Natural Seal Gauntlet Gloves. Our Men's Coats are fine and marked close. January, February and March are the months here When one needs a heavy coat, and the above offer ought to be inducement enough to keep us very busy in this department. It means fully a 10 per cent reduction from a line of goods of first-class qualities already marked at our close prices.

Discount on

Fur Wuffs They Should Continue to Be Loyers if They Wish to Retain a And Boas.

We offer our whole stock of elegant Fur Muffs and Boas at above discount for this week, which will enable you to get from us first-class, well-made articles, properly made, at less prices than the trashy stuff you will find in this line in dry goods stores, which goods are cheap in name only, as they are, with few exceptions, goods that no furrier would buy or sell at any price. We have the finest lot of Choice Bear and Black Marten Sets we ever showed, and taking advantage of this offer you can get elegant Xmas presents at very low prices.

SLEIGH AT COST.

We offer our whole stock of Goat, Dog, Bear, Coon and other fine Robes at EXACT COST. We have no room to properly display this fine stock, and you can own one as cheap as we bought made by the dozen Any one wanting a Robe can find good ones with us from $7.00 to $75.00. This is a bona fide offer, and a chance not often had.

RANSOM