HONORED THE TIGERS.

St. Paul Admirers of the Orange and Black Turn Out Largely.

Rollieking College Songs and Vimful Music Applauded to the Echo.

The Jefferson Reception After the Concert an Enjoyable Affair.

Mrs. Oppenheim's Tea Earlier in the Day Worthy of the Guests.

The event of the holiday season was the concert at the People's church last night by the Princeton Glee, Banjo and Mandolin club.

Although every number was well received, the song, "Orange and the Black," created the greatest enthusiasm.

Mrs. R. C. Jefferson gave a charming reception for the club, immediately after the concert, at her beautiful home on Summit.

CHARGED TO WEIGHT.

The Mayor is Alleged to Be Thus Early Planning for a Renomination.

Chief Jackson's Position in the Balance, Says One Who Knows.

Outline of the Scheme as It May Develop at an Early Day.

Chief of Police Garvin is Credited with a Desire for Vindication.

It is stated that what purports to be good authority that Eugene Stillwell, Mayor Wright's business partner, will succeed Robert Warner as fire commissioner, and this means the displacement of John Jackson as chief engineer and the substitution of Paul Martin, present fire commissioner, to succeed him.

Black fight, Jackson is no politician, and always attended to his business, and while he has been chief never permitted politics to permeate the ranks of the fire department.

This scheme is a preliminary to Mayor Wright's aspirations for reelection, and it is said his appointments in the future will be made with that end in view.
