

THE DAILY GLOBE

PUBLISHED EVERY DAY AT THE GLOBE BUILDING, CORNER FOURTH AND CEDAR STREETS BY LEWIS BAKER.

ST. PAUL GLOBE SUBSCRIPTION RATES: Daily (Not Including Sunday) 1 yr. in advance $8.00 3 m. in advance $2.00 6 m. in advance $4.00 6 weeks in adv. 1.00 One month .75c

WEEKLY: Daily (Not Including Sunday) 1 yr. in advance $10.00 3 m. in adv. $2.50 6 m. in adv. $5.00 6 weeks in adv. 1.50 One month .75c

RECEIVED COMMUNICATIONS cannot be returned unless accompanied by return address. Advertisers and telegrams to THE GLOBE, St. Paul, Minn.

TODAY'S WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Minnesota, North Dakota and Montana: Fair, variable winds; slowly rising temperature. For Iowa: Fair, variable winds; slowly rising temperature. For Wisconsin: Fair, northerly winds; slowly rising temperature. For Illinois: Fair, shifting to south-easterly winds; warmer in western portions.

Table with 3 columns: Place of Observation, Barometer (at sea level), and Temperature (at 7 a.m., 9 a.m., 11 a.m., 1 p.m., 3 p.m., 5 p.m., 7 p.m., 9 p.m., and Maximum/Minimum). Rows include St. Paul, Duluth, Superior, and other locations.

R. C. THOMPSON, Observer Weather Bureau.

Judge Flandran reads the Globe. And Sunday the world enjoy the globe's account of the inauguration of President Cleveland and the many illustrations. So will over one hundred thousand readers of the Globe throughout the Northwest.

The Saturday Globe will contain a large picture of President Cleveland. A large picture of Vice President Stevenson. Perfect likenesses of Mrs. Cleveland and Mrs. Stevenson.

Many other pictures of the scenes and incidents, together with a complete description of the great event. The Sunday Globe will be full of other good, spicy and interesting features.

Don't fail to read your favorite Sunday Globe. KAINTEK is getting an undue preponderance in the cabinet. Mrs. GRESHAM was born in that state.

NORTH CAROLINA repeals its anti-seceder bill just when Minnesota is rushing one through. But then, North Carolina is a free state.

TALMAGE threatens to resign unless his congregation give him more freely. What is the matter with another job lot of syndicated sermons?

EFFORT to prevent any legislation that the elevators or railroads want enacted at this session is as futile as is the attempt to raise Cotton on the Boggs of Duluth.

IF the newspaper cuts are even approximately correct pictures of the new attorney general, we do not blame him for his reticence on photographs. He is handsomer than BREWSTER, anyway.

ANNUAL sessions, sixty-day limit and a thousand-dollar salary is Senator SANBORN'S conception of what would be about the right thing for the Solons. He seems to have overlooked "the forgotten man," the people.

IT is said that Chicago has prohibited any of its firms from attending the inauguration at Washington. It is not put on the CHICAGOER'S slipper. If that is true, CHICAGOER'S will be scarce at the national capital.

A PENNSYLVANIA clerk gets the g. b. for incautiously admitting to a congressman that pensions are being granted for baldness. It has been known that they have been obtained on baldheaded falsehoods; why not on baldheaded men?

the premises and the therefore, Mr. CLEVELAND is a man; he is not controlled by a pack of politicians. Therefore a man, not a pack of politicians. This is not a pack of politicians with that favorite bit of reasoning in the NEDRINGHAUS school which premises that the country is prosperous. We have a protective tariff. Therefore a protective tariff is the cause of the prosperity. We are inclined, however, to think that the real trouble with Mr. NEDRINGHAUS is that he is one of the class of Americans whom ANDREW CARNEGIE characterized as "economic fools."

LAW AND ORDER PEOPLE. Mayor WRIGHT is between the devil and the deep sea. He was nominated first by the Citizens' committee, the law and order element; then he was endorsed by the Republicans. The law and order people were distinctly opposed to the so-called wide-open policy of the then existing administration. Whether they selected Col. WRIGHT because they thought he inclined to their views, or chose him as being the one most likely to win and trusted that he would execute their policy because of their patronage, is an open question.

However this cause be, it turns out that the mayor is a disappointment to them. The only difference between Mayor WRIGHT'S and Mayor SMITH'S administration is that the present incumbent has leaned quite strongly to the Republican policy, and it compels all saloons to close at midnight, with one or two exceptions. The law and order people, headed by ex-Senator McMILLAN, THOMAS COCHRAN, and other noted men of the persuasion, are holding a session with the executive, in which they are making an apparently futile effort to bring him to a realization of what they think are his obligations to them. He attempts to save them off with the statement that he has no objection, but it is far from being satisfactory to them. At a recent meeting McMILLAN replied that what they wanted was that he (the mayor) should issue an order to the effect that he would resign.

PRIZE RING PRECEDENT. The defeat of JOE GODDARD last night illustrates clearly that a pugilist's record is not a certain thing to be upon. SMITH has been defeated twice in the ring, and GODDARD had never been defeated. The latter had succeeded with so many noted pugilists that the feeling was prevalent among sporting men that he was invincible, and scores of betters were ready to back him against CONNETT or anybody who might venture a match with him. But GODDARD may now as well name himself to his Australian home and reflect upon what he might have been. This proves that in the coming contest between CONNETT and MIRRELL, it is quite as safe to bet on one as the other. MIRRELL, who has been worsted in several battles, might turn out to be the champion of the world. Prize fighting is not only unrepugnant, but proves to be a very unexciting game of chance.

It is time to have an end to this barbarous specimen of sport, and possibly the time is near at hand when the sporting fraternity may consider it too hazardous to encourage.

THEY are marked increase in the quantity of mail going East within the last few days is erroneously attributed to applications of Democrats for appointments. We learn from a source supposed to be authentic that it is due solely to the flood of resignations sent by Republican officeholders who do not wish to compromise their standing in the party or make themselves subject to receiving aid and comfort and salaries from the enemy.

SENATOR STEVENS puts that reputation he has as a lawyer at risk, of loss when he insists that the bill making the office of railroad commissioner elective, instead of appointive, is unconstitutional. That office is not a constitutional office—one created by the constitution. The legislature, which has the power to change it, abolish it, make it elective or appointive—in fact, work out on it its own sweet will—and the constitution will not be wrenched a little bit.

THE esteemed Journal flouts its ignorance as jauntily as does a militia colonel his fuff and feathers and gilt on parade. It says of the opposition to the governor's bill by the Democrats and Populists that these opponents have been for some time having the extension of state weighing, grading and inspection to all elevators of the state. The Journal will search in vain for one such howl.

STATE PRESS NOTES. The Warren Sheet takes the following ditz at the Polk county people: The Polk county farmer is not entitled to a wind wheel. Judging from the vote Donnelly received in said county, there will be no lack of wind to run it.

THE Rod Wink Republican administrators of the following roast: If the Minnesota commissioners of the board of railroad commissioners do most of their interest in the state they would not seek to induce the legislature to give four or five days to a jolly visit to Chicago to "recharge" the state's budget. What if the building should be "dedicated"? What if it should only be finished, completed and used? What if business were to be done without formality, parade and mutual admiration by both legislature and fair commission? Try it, gentlemen.

THE Taylor's Falls Journal says: There is a disposition in the present legislature to abolish the office of coroners and justices. Numerous other coroners might share the same fate, to the benefit of the state.

DISPROVED. I am not made of dust, I know. Just think of what a middle JINGLE. There was an old man Lived in the West, Who died on cold burn, And was laid to rest.

And if he'd a guest Who'd liked no such fair One as I, I'd have him. That he sup on fresh air.

There was an old man Lived in the West, Who died on cold burn, And was laid to rest.

And if he'd a guest Who'd liked no such fair One as I, I'd have him. That he sup on fresh air.

that the government shall decree how many grains of silver are the equivalent in value of 25 cents of gold, and give free coinage to all the silver bullion its owners care to have coined at that ratio. This is what the Democratic national convention meant when it demanded that "the dollar unit of coinage of both metals shall be of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value."

The common sense of the matter is expressed in the universal demand for an "honest dollar"; that is, a dollar for "the equal power of which dollar at all times in the market and in the payment of debts." The practical difficulty in the way of this is that the value of silver is still out of equilibrium, and until it settles to a comparatively stable position, the ratio would need frequent changing, involving re-coinage. But this is not an insuperable difficulty.

A government can only recognize and declare values; it cannot make or create them. Our government has been trying since 1870 to raise the value of silver, and has failed. If it could create value by simple enactment it might make everybody wealthy and happy by decreeing the value of his product. If it can and should make silver worth $1.23, it can and should make wheat worth $2 a bushel, or oranges $3 a day. If this simple, solid fact were grasped and fully sensed, it would sweep away all these cobweb notions of money which confuse the minds of so many men. It is the common sense of the coinage question.

not doing anything for the city, and as he (McCarthy) was a Democrat, it was deemed advisable that the change be made. McCarthy asked for a day or so to think the matter over, which request was granted, the limitation for the day being the expiration of the ordinance by the acting mayor at three days. After a consultation with Judges Twombly and Cory, a letter signed by both judges and McCarthy, and signed by the acting mayor ordering McCarthy to report to Chief Garvin for duty and detailing J. W. Tully janitor at the central station in his stead.

Acting on the advice of the judges of the court, who by the charter have to approve the person detailed as janitor, the council yesterday afternoon continued his duties. There was a lull in the proceedings, it being agreed that McCarthy should remain in his position until he arrived home. Mayor Wright arrived home a week ago, and as nothing was heard from him since, the council yesterday afternoon allowed to remain in his position. In the meantime, Tully, the janitor, held down a chair.

In the office of the clerk of the court, I believe it is as clear as day that the council yesterday afternoon continued his duties. There was a lull in the proceedings, it being agreed that McCarthy should remain in his position until he arrived home. Mayor Wright arrived home a week ago, and as nothing was heard from him since, the council yesterday afternoon allowed to remain in his position. In the meantime, Tully, the janitor, held down a chair.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

PLACE FOR PLUGGERS

Must Be Made by Letting Out Officials of Democratic Leanings. Balliff McCarthy, of the Municipal Court, Summarily Discharged. This Action Will Create a Tension Between Judges and Mayor. Republican City Fathers to Caucus on the City Attorneyship.

Mayor Wright last evening issued an order discharging John C. McCarthy from the police force for disobedience of orders. The action of the mayor was something of a surprise, as the facts leading up to the discharge were not generally known. McCarthy was appointed on the force about three years ago and detailed as balliff in the municipal court, where he has since been in good standing and has given good satisfaction and is highly spoken of by officers of the court and attorneys with whom he, in his official position, comes in contact with.

About ten days ago Ald. Ingvoss, who handles the reform rates in the case of Mayor Wright, sent for McCarthy, and in his capacity as acting mayor, demanded McCarthy's resignation. As soon as he could recover his breath, McCarthy inquired what such action was taken. The acting mayor said there was no particular reason except that there was a large number of citizens who were not doing anything for the city, and as he (McCarthy) was a Democrat, it was deemed advisable that the change be made.

McCarthy asked for a day or so to think the matter over, which request was granted, the limitation for the day being the expiration of the ordinance by the acting mayor at three days. After a consultation with Judges Twombly and Cory, a letter signed by both judges and McCarthy, and signed by the acting mayor ordering McCarthy to report to Chief Garvin for duty and detailing J. W. Tully janitor at the central station in his stead.

Acting on the advice of the judges of the court, who by the charter have to approve the person detailed as janitor, the council yesterday afternoon continued his duties. There was a lull in the proceedings, it being agreed that McCarthy should remain in his position until he arrived home. Mayor Wright arrived home a week ago, and as nothing was heard from him since, the council yesterday afternoon allowed to remain in his position. In the meantime, Tully, the janitor, held down a chair.

In the office of the clerk of the court, I believe it is as clear as day that the council yesterday afternoon continued his duties. There was a lull in the proceedings, it being agreed that McCarthy should remain in his position until he arrived home. Mayor Wright arrived home a week ago, and as nothing was heard from him since, the council yesterday afternoon allowed to remain in his position. In the meantime, Tully, the janitor, held down a chair.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

HANCOCK SCHOOL OPENING

It Will Occur Monday - No Further Danger. Next Monday will witness the reopening of the Hancock school, after a close of several weeks because of the fear of scarlet fever. A number of cases threatened the pupils in the school, and the superintendent considered it advisable to close the building temporarily. The following letter, which is in itself explanatory, was received at the office of Superintendent yesterday.

C. B. Gilbert, Secretary of the Board of Education—Dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of two cases of scarlet fever have been reported in the Hamline district since Feb. 21, and they are very mild cases in families near the school. The Hancock school has been as thoroughly disinfected as was possible with the means at our command, and the school will be opened on Monday. The school should not be opened again from this date. Yours, etc.

H. F. Hoyt, M. D., Commissioner of Health. The teachers who have been assigned to substitute duty since the closing of the school will be required to report to their duties and assist the pupils in recovering the ground lost by the closing of the building.

COUNCIL ERRED.

Such is the General Expression Touching Rejection of the Lowry Ordinance. Business Men Who Would Talk Regret the Action of Thursday Night. The business men of St. Paul are very indignant at the action of the city council Thursday night in rejecting the ordinance proposed by Thomas Lowry. They are not familiar with the technicalities in the matter, and a great many of them, although expressing their disgust, refused to be quoted by a reporter for the purpose of getting expressions of opinion from them. They would say that, while they considered it a shame, they did not understand the ordinance for the reason that they were not familiar with the subject. But few men who were called upon to express their views were in favor of the action of the council. The voting down of the ordinance was almost invariably condemned.

The general sentiment seemed to be that the council had erred in rejecting the ordinance. I believe it is as clear as day that the council yesterday afternoon continued his duties. There was a lull in the proceedings, it being agreed that McCarthy should remain in his position until he arrived home. Mayor Wright arrived home a week ago, and as nothing was heard from him since, the council yesterday afternoon allowed to remain in his position. In the meantime, Tully, the janitor, held down a chair.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

Force the Judges. To accept such policemen as he may appoint to act as constables. Friends of McCarthy say he could not have been discharged from his position as janitor for duty as ordered by Acting Mayor Ingvoss. When this is mentioned to the council, it is denied, and the council simply saying: "Not on your life, says Dolan," and then calls attention to the fact that it is too cold to walk a beat.

ROBBED HIS OWN WIFE.

A Bad Citizen of Duluth Finds the Town Too Warm. Special to the Globe. DULUTH, Minn., March 3.—Frank L. Breeze, merchant tailor, has suddenly disappeared, and a large number of creditors would receive with pleasure any information of his whereabouts. Breeze had sold his business to M. L. Parker, formerly his head cutter. After Breeze sold his business he went around to the banks, and it is said he raised considerable money. Though great efforts have been made to cover up the misdeeds of Breeze, it is believed that he has fled to some amount to several thousand dollars. The $5,000 which his wife gave him to start in business are all gone, and besides, he has a large amount of money. He has a large amount of money. He has a large amount of money.

Second Game of the Contesting Shuttlecock Experts. Roney Reber gained eighteen points in the game which was played last evening, for the championship of the city, over the challenger, J. J. Ahern in the rooms of the Shuttlecock club, over the Reber cafe. The game commenced at 8:15, and both contestants were in good form. There was a large audience on hand, and the playing numerous bursts of applause were to be heard. It was the second game in the series, and, as it was the final one, the evening was out to make seven frames, Reber made his 105 by the time that Ahern had made his 100. This leaves the series standing 102 to 181 in favor of Ahern.

The game was one of the most exciting ever seen in the rooms of the club, and the members of the audience were rebuked a number of times for their tumultuous applause at the conclusion of some of the brilliant plays. The highest run made during the evening was 7, made by Reber, Ahern following with 6. At one time, in the third inning, Ahern, in his effort to hit the ball, Reber made a brilliant shot which knocked them out and placed himself for a ship, counting 3. In the fourth inning, Ahern made a similar play, but he could not catch up with his opponent. At one time Reber was ahead of the game, but luck and skill playing against the latter to gain on him again. The playing for the evening lasted for about an hour, and the contest was a very interesting one. The series will be played Tuesday evening in the rooms of the Phoenix Athletic club. The game will be called at 8 o'clock. The referee will be William McKivett, and the scorer William McKivett.

Johnston in Luck. Special to the Globe. WASHINGTON, March 3.—Under resolutions adopted by the senate today, Johnston will be while in St. Paul, Minn., on his way to the state capital at the next session. It is understood among the Minnesota men that Col. Johnston will give his place to Mr. Johnston, the present chief clerk of the Minnesota house, and the secretary of his campaign committee last fall. Col. Johnston will give over a great deal to Mr. Johnston, and was delighted to learn that he will have something to offer him.

English's Excuses. ABERDEEN, S. D., March 3.—George S. English considers himself misrepresented in the newspaper reports of his family troubles. His wife's brother, he says, has endeavored to stir up a harsh feeling against him, and began the insanity proceedings against him in order to get his wife and child out of the way. He declares that he did not desert his wife, but sent her money from time to time while in St. Paul. Also that she would now be reconciled to him but for her brothers.

Wants $50,000 Damages. ST. CLOUD, S. D., March 3.—William Anderson, of Norway, has begun a suit in the United States court here against Samuel E. Donahue, of Codington county, for $50,000. The complaint is a railroad contractor, who is well known in the state. Anderson claims to have been injured by a blast.

Threaten to Resign. MILWAUKEE, March 3.—Members of Wisconsin's world's fair commission announce their determination to resign, because of the action of the commission on retrocession and reform in cutting down their estimates of the amount of money required to make a complete exhibit. The commission wanted $150,000, and the committee cut the figures down to $65,000.

Crookston's New Columbia. Special to the Globe. CROOKSTON, Minn., March 3.—The most notable social event in the history of Crookston was the opening of the Columbia club last night. A large number of guests were present from out of town, all in full dress. A banquet and ball were given. The new club has six rooms, and is complete in all its arrangements.

Shortage in Hawley Postoffice. BEDFORD, Ia., March 3.—Inspector Metzer has, after examining the books of the office, removed Postmaster H. C. Webb. The amount of the discrepancy causing his removal is not known, but it is said to be up in the thousands.

Died From Injuries. Special to the Globe. MAXKATO, Minn., March 3.—John J. Hazzard, having an extensive milling business at Eagle Lake, and an old resident of this county, died today from injuries received on the train at Eagle Grove, Ia., last fall.

Wed at Elk River. Special to the Globe. ELK RIVER, Minn., March 3.—James McHenry, of St. Cloud, and Miss Cora Gilder, of West Superior, met here yesterday evening and were married in the parlors of the Sherburne house by Rev. Henderson.

Crushed by Bumpers. Special to the Globe. WEST ST. PETERSBURG, Wis., March 3.—Peter E. Wicker, a laborer at the Philadelphia & Reading coal dock, who was caught between the bumpers of two cars yesterday, died this morning at the hospital.

Residence Burned. Special to the Globe. WISCONSIN, Minn., March 3.—The two-story residence owned by John Kendall and occupied by J. W. Booth burned at 6:30 p. m. yesterday, together with the contents. Loss, $4,000; insurance, $2,500.

His Head Crushed. Special to the Globe. GRAND RAPIDS, Minn., March 3.—Benjamin Brown, while leading logs at Torrey Lake, was instantly killed yesterday by a tree falling on him, crushing his head.

Burned to Death. FERGUS FALLS, March 3.—Mrs. Campbell, of Cornorant township, aged seventy-five years, was burned to death while kindling a fire. Her clothes caught fire.

The One Left. OLYMPIA, Wash., March 3.—The ballot for United States senator today was unchanged. The legislature will adjourn next Thursday.

IERN'S INDEPENDENCE.

Irish Nationalists Denounce the Home Rule Bill of Gladstone. Ireland Must Be Established as a Free and Independent Republic. New York, March 3.—The Irish Nationalists of New York met this evening at Cooper union to celebrate the 15th anniversary of the birth of Robert Emmet. The hall was crowded, Judge E. M. Shannon, of New Rochelle, New York, presided, and an address was delivered by E. M. Shannon, eulogizing the great Irishman. A resolution was adopted in which the Irish Nationalists renewed their faith in the Irish cause and denouncing the Home Rule bill. The resolution further went on to urge the allied states to send a declaration of independence to the Irish people in America in which the members of the Irish parliament were denounced as perjurers and traitors. Gladstone's home rule measure would carry Ireland back to the year 1801, and place it under the control of the British government. Sir Edward Poyning and known as "Poyning's Act." Ireland can never be happy or prosperous until all connection between her and the British government has been established as a free and independent republic. "We therefore ask you to send a declaration of independence to the Irish people in America in which the members of the Irish parliament were denounced as perjurers and traitors. Gladstone's home rule measure would carry Ireland back to the year 1801, and place it under the control of the British government. Sir Edward Poyning and known as "Poyning's Act." Ireland can never be happy or prosperous until all connection between her and the British government has been established as a free and independent republic. "We therefore ask you to send a declaration of independence to the Irish people in America in which the members of the Irish parliament were denounced as perjurers and traitors. Gladstone's home rule measure would carry Ireland back to the year 1801, and place it under the control of the British government. Sir Edward Poyning and known as "Poyning's Act." Ireland can never be happy or prosperous until all connection between her and the British government has been established as a free and independent republic. "We therefore ask you to send a declaration of independence to the Irish people in America in which the members of the Irish parliament were denounced as perjurers and traitors. Gladstone's home rule measure would carry Ireland back to the year 1801, and place it under the control of the British government. Sir Edward Poyning and known as "Poyning's Act." Ireland can never be happy or prosperous until all connection between her and the British government has been established as a free and independent republic. "We therefore ask you to send a declaration of independence to the Irish people in America in which the members of the Irish parliament were denounced as perjurers and traitors. Gladstone's home rule measure would carry Ireland back to the year 1801, and place it under the control of the British government. Sir Edward Poyning and known as "Poyning's Act." Ireland can never be happy or prosperous until all connection between her and the British government has been established as a free and independent republic. "We therefore ask you to send a declaration of independence to the Irish people in America in which the members of the Irish parliament were denounced as perjurers and traitors. Gladstone's home rule measure would carry Ireland back to the year 1801, and place it under the control of the British government. Sir Edward Poyning and known as "Poyning's Act." Ireland can never be happy or prosperous until all connection between her and the British government has been established as a free and independent republic. "We therefore ask you to send a declaration of independence to the Irish people in America in which the members of the Irish parliament were denounced as perjurers and traitors. Gladstone's home rule measure would carry Ireland back to the year 1801, and place it under the control of the British government. Sir Edward Poyning and known as "Poyning's Act." Ireland can never be happy or prosperous until all connection between her and the British government has been established as a free and independent republic. "We therefore ask you to send a declaration of independence to the Irish people in America in which