trousters and also a pair or two; a yearling filly by Mark Sirius, owned by J. B. Chatterton, can be seen daily taking its work on the track, and the way the little one wiggles gives the knowing ones the impression that Mark will be the sire of one pacer at least that will be of considerable note.

Harvey Sargent is now riding some pretty speedy miles. Guido and others of the Sargent string will soon be out for the money. B. H. Beach has a good horse sure in the black Derby candidate Portioness. Trainer Kenyon, who has the lately arrived stable of E. A. Gibbs, of St. James, has done but little speedy work yet, as his horses have just arrived. They are a promising, good looking, high bred lot and act like they had the speed.

Lou Tatno and his horses are going along steady and the money they don't get in their classes will be divided after first has been taken out. Fred Ayer and his string are in good shape. Mr. Ayer has a good lot of young horses and they show more speed than some horses that have been trained for years.

Everything is on the boom at the track. The club horses at fast nearing completion, and it will be a great addition to the attractiveness of the grounds. Painting and general improving of stables, stands, walks and fences keeps an army of men at work, and by the time the bell calls up the trotters for the July meet, no better equipped course for the trotters will be in existence.

MURRAY VS. CAVANAUGH.

The Coming Big Event at the Twin City Club.

Speculation is rife as to the outcome of the twenty-round boxing contest between Tom Murray and Tom Cavanaugh at the Twin City Athletic Club of Minneapolis next Tuesday evening. The contestants have a host of admirers in Minneapolis, and a unusual interest is taken in the coming event.

Murray has lived in Minneapolis many years, and his career as a boxer is well known to patrons of athletic entertainments. During the past year he entered the ring with seven crack boxers, and was victorious in all but one.

When he was bested in the plink of contest, Murray is in training for ten days. He has been in the ring with seven crack boxers, and was victorious in all but one.

He has met many of the best boxers in the country. He had a four-round draw with Jack McAuliffe, champion lightweight of the world, and he bested Prof. Curtis in ten rounds. Curtis is the boxer that made things very lively for "Shadow" Mober, the Assiniboian, on the 10th inst. at West Superior, Wis. Cavanaugh also knocked out "Dutch Nell," of St. Louis, in eight rounds.

Many People Going to Europe.

NEW YORK, June 17.—The departures for Europe today by the large fleet of transatlantic steamers are fully as large as those of the previous Saturday, and will exceed 2,000. The eastward traffic seems to be in excess of the west, and so far the expected world's fair rush has failed to materialize.

FAMOUS WOMEN TO MEET.

Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Davis Exchange Their First Greetings.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Mrs. Ulysses S. Grant and Mrs. Jefferson Davis are to meet. The wives of the two great leaders will exchange their first greetings at Cranston-on-the-Hudson, which is the site of the West Point military academy. The place has many associations dear to the hearts of both, as their husbands were graduates of the academy. Mrs. Grant is now a guest at Cranston, and Mrs. Davis will stop at the same place. The two ladies will thus meet every day. Mrs. Grant, in speaking of Mrs. Davis' visit, said that she hoped she would not disappoint her as she did last year. She is very anxious to become acquainted with her. Mrs. Davis and her daughter are at the hotel

Marlborough, and will remain there until early next week, when they will go to Cranston. Mrs. Davis has expressed a wish to meet Mrs. Grant on ground which is of such historic interest to both. She feels greatly pleased with the kind expressions of interest Mrs. Grant has manifested in the coming visit.

FALL RIVER, Mass., June 17.—Joseph Jefferson is yet confined to his room here, and is kept utterly quiet, though his sons say his condition is not alarming.
