LOUISVILLE, July 12.—Louisville defeated Brooklyn today in a very well-played game. Hemming held the heavy hitters down when they needed hits, but the Colonels hit Levitt at the right time. Brooklyn had three men on the bases twice, with no outs, and could not score. The features of the game were the hitting of Weaver, the second-base playing of Daly and the outfield work of Stratton. Weather fair. Attendance, 2,500. Score:

LOUISVILLE, July 12.—Pittsburg took the final game from New York today in a close and exciting contest. It was a pitcher's battle, in which Killen proved to be more fortunate than Fiske, as the latter was caught napping in the first two innings and was hit hard enough to give Pittsburg a victory. After that the local people could not touch him. Killen weakened perceptibly in the ninth and New York finished strong with two runs in the tenth. Levitt on third. It was a brilliant fielding game in which Ward, Fuller and Bierbauer excelled. Attendance 1,000. Score:

ST. LOUIS, July 12.—The Phillies deserved today's game for their magnificent playing. It was thus by Umpire McQuaid. His decisions gave them two scores in the second inning. The Browns made a splendid rally in the ninth and tied the score. They would have made two more runs, but for the foolish base running by Dowd and Quinn. Philadelphia made the winning run on a single by Cross and Kelly's two bagger. Score:

A SUMMER HANDICAP.

ALLOWANCES ARRANGED FOR THE FOLEY BILLIARD HANDICAP.

TOMMY DIXON TURNS UP SICK.

The Fight With the Omaha Kid Declared Off-Phoenix Club Programme Last Night—Match Arranged Between Dick Moore and George Kessler.

The Foley summer handicap sweepstakes billiard tournament for amateurs will start next Monday evening at Foley's billiard room. This promises to be the most exciting event in billiards that has occurred in St. Paul. The handicap committee appointed by Mr. Foley has been studying the speed of those who have entered, and they handed in their report yesterday. Two of the players, it will be noticed, who have been playing in the past tournaments, are given allowances. This is done to make the outcome closer, and the one who can pick the winner can make plenty of money. There is not one of the entry that is not in it at the odds allowed. The stakes are for $50 that Mr. Foley hangs up and the entrance money of $5 each deposited by the players. This will be divided into four prizes of 40, 30, 20 and 10 per cent.

Budd Is Caustic. DETROIT, Mich., July 12.—Budd Doble arrived at the Detroit Driving Park yesterday to take charge of his horses, which are entered in the coming Blue Ribbon race, an event which he has several caustic comments on Robert Bonner. He was asked if there were any entries for the Cleveland purse to go against his own horse with a high sulky. Mr. Doble said that there was no entries, and that it was improbable that there would be any. "There is no money in it," added Mr. Doble. "For instance, I would be a fool to send Nancy Hanks there for a paltry $2,000, when I can have exhibitions I get from $5,000 to $5,000."

Turfmen in Custody. ST. LOUIS, July 12.—Jacob and George Cochrane and William Turner, well-known turfmen, have been arrested on bench warrants issued in New Jersey. The charge is breaking into the stable of Zachary Hunter at Gloucester, N. J., and taking away the horses Swamp Fox and Argenta, which George Cochrane had loaned to Hunter as security for a loan of $500. The arrested men claim that the mortgage was illegal, and therefore they were right in taking the property wherever they could find it.

Virginians Are Out of It. CHICAGO, July 12.—The University of Wisconsin defeated the University of Virginia in the intercollegiate baseball contest by a score of 8 to 2. This puts Virginia out of the contest. Yale and Amherst will compete for honors tomorrow.

Scraps of Sport. CHARLEY MOH, the champion Greco-Roman wrestler, has been engaged by Bill O'Leary as superintendent of the stables and grounds for the world's fair show at the world's fair. Moh will leave in a few days for Chicago to enter upon his new duties.

George Turpin, the South St. Paul "Cyclone," has just returned from "Cyclone City," where he defeated Billy Jackson in three rounds. The cyclone's terrific uppercuts and crosscutters did the business, and now "Cyclone" challenges the best of the city. He has the record of defeating George La Blanche, the Marine, who once defeated Jack Kessler. He has the record of defeating George La Blanche, the Marine, who once defeated Jack Kessler. No Need to Worry. CHICAGO TRIBUNE. Fredon, Manma—I do not wish to unduly to influence you. Aramata, but in a matter so momentous as the choice of a husband there are many things to be taken into consideration, and I am not entirely satisfied that between you and young Mr. Horace Bizzley there is that harmony of disposition, that spirit of mutual forbearance and joy of self-sacrifice that must subsist as the foundation of a truly happy union. Pardon me if I seem anxious, but—

Miss Aramata (young self-possessed)—You needn't worry about me and Hod Bizzley, mamma. I turned down your week ago. He can't wait for shucks.

It Would Be Preposterous. Truth.—"That poor fellow was simply driven to his grave."

"Well, why not? You wouldn't count a dead man to walk there, would you?"

A Heavenly Application. Truth.—St. Peter—Come along in, if you want to.

Musician—Beg pardon, but what make harp do you use here.

St. Peter—We furnish you a beautiful golden harp.

Musician—Never heard of him; besides, I'm under contract to play nothing but String & Chord's instrument.

Her Point of View. New York Herald. Miss Upton, of New York—One does not mind running across to Europe now a bit.

Miss Hill, of Brooklyn (a few minutes later)—When are you coming over to see me, dear?

Miss Upton—Oh, dear; I don't know. You live so far away.
