

MINNEAPOLIS.

JUST LIKE MINERVA.

BRING OR SEND THE NEWS.

The GLOBE has enlarged its Minneapolis force, desiring to conduct a Minneapolis local editorial department, as well as news reports. All parties having news worthy of publication will confer a favor by calling or telephoning to the GLOBE office, in the Minneapolis Globe building. The office will be open until after midnight every night in the week. Telephone call, 947-2.

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBULES.

The Hermean Literary society gave a reception to students at the university last night. A committee of Tenth ward citizens called on the mayor yesterday to secure better fire protection for their district. The president of the Norwegian congress will deliver a political lecture in his native language this evening at Century hall. Officer Wold yesterday arrested Chris Meyer on complaint of Frithjof Hild, who claimed Meyer had lured him out of $200 in a Washington street saloon. The Chatterton mill, which was destroyed by fire in the big blaze of several weeks ago, will be opened for operations at the beginning of next season. Two hundred men were engaged in Minneapolis yesterday and were taken to Chicago and Cincinnati to fill the places of the men who are threatening to strike on the Big Four railroad. The divorce case of Clara H. Hellen against Ben H. Hellen will be tried next Friday. The charge of adultery will be withdrawn and the matter proceed to trial on the grounds of cohabitation and maintenance.

Thirty entries were made in the initial handicap tennis tournament yesterday afternoon at Minneapolis Tennis club grounds. Games will continue all the week. Arthur Mattson and Allan Jackson, from St. Paul, will attend. Sylvester B. Conrad, of 2439 Portland avenue, yesterday filed information of insanity against George B. Bush, the real estate and insurance agent. The same thing was done a short time ago, at which time it was determined that he was not mentally affected. The next regular meeting of the Minneapolis Homeopathic Medical society will be held in the library assembly rooms this evening at 8 o'clock. Dr. A. P. Williams will read a paper on "The Emotions as Affecting the Will." An injustice was done Detective Hoy in connection with the sentencing of Charles Johnson, Monday. It was stated that Mr. Hoy had taken certain valuables from the prisoner when he arrested him, when as a matter of fact he was not arrested by Hoy and the latter had nothing to do with the matter. It is understood also that when the jury gets through with the social evil it will devote its attention to the pool rooms and the "skin" poker games, which infest the business portion of the city just now. There are a score of these running in full blast, and before the jury is through there is likely to be the music by the full band.

The case of the Armore Packing company against the assigned George E. Burt will prove of interest when it comes to trial. It involves half a carload of lard, which the packing company claim was not packed under Burt's solvency, and is the shipper's property. Burt was charged with secreting part of the cash assets. He is out on bail. Irving's characterization in "The Belis" was a masterpiece of acting, and it had all the weight and almost uncanny effect for which it has become famous. At the conclusion of the play he was called before the curtain, and, in response to repeated demands, he thanked the audience on behalf of himself and Miss Terry in a neat speech.

The primary teachers' union, which meets Saturdays at Plymouth church for the study of the Sunday school lesson, will hold a reception in the reception room next Saturday afternoon immediately following the lesson which will be given at 2:30 o'clock by Miss Turabull. There will be a short programme of music, vocal and instrumental, and some recitations by Mrs. Stemen, of the Congregational church, Miss Fay, of Chicago, who has come to Minneapolis to reside, will sing two solos. All primary and intermediate teachers, kindergarten teachers and interested in the training of young children are cordially invited to attend.

The Pythian Pen, at one dollar a year, should be read by every K. of P. in the Northwest. Subscribe for it and keep posted. Address 63 East Fifth street, St. Paul, Minn.

PINCHED A SWINDLER.

Fritz Weed Done Up by a Bunco Steerer. Chris Myre was the name given by a man arrested yesterday noon by Officer Wold, of the East side station. The prisoner was charged by one Frithjof Weed with having swindled him out of $16 in a game of cards last Friday in the rear of Ole Anderson's saloon, corner Washington and Hennepin streets. It is said that three others were implicated in the swindle with Myre. Myre was arraigned in the afternoon on a charge of swindling, with a fine of $50 or sixty days in the workhouse.

FOUND IN THE RIVER.

Body of Lou Beaudette, the Girl Suicide, Recovered. Lou Beaudette, the young girl whose disappearance from her home at 27 Third avenue southeast, was mentioned yesterday by the GLOBE, made no idle threat when she declared that she should commit suicide. After her disappearance, information of her declaration to make way with herself came to the ears of her parents, and a searching party was organized which kept her searchers until 2 o'clock yesterday morning without achieving success. About 10 o'clock yesterday morning the little girl's dead body was found in the river, near the East Side pumping station. No very definite cause for the girl's rash act is known. The report that the girl was ill-treated is denied by Mr. Beaudette, and it is said that she had a great aversion to going to school. On the other hand, it is stated that she cried all day in school Monday, and that when she left home she said it would be her last day.

WHAT CAUSED DEATH.

Result of the Autopsy Upon W. A. Hankins. W. A. Hankins, who died while undergoing the amputation of his foot Monday afternoon, was buried from the family residence, 63 1/2 West street, yesterday. An autopsy was held by Dr. Spring, the coroner, the result of which showed that the deceased came to his death primarily from Bright's disease of the kidneys, although it is thought by many that the injury he sustained at the time his foot was recently crushed by the electric car near Eighteenth street, and the surgical operation followed, may have done much to hasten his demise. Mr. Hankins was born in New Jersey, and emigrated to Minnesota in 1826. He served in the War of the Rebellion, and was prominent in Grand Army matters, and took much interest in the subject, which will be held at the morgue.

Water Board Doings.

The water board held a meeting yesterday afternoon and allowed the payroll for September, amounting to $19,479.30. The Minneapolis Mill company presented a check for $2,308.70 for excess of water used during the month. The bill of A. E. Allen for $80 for services as water inspector was allowed. The report of W. A. Stevens and French Scheller, appointed to inspect the water gauges, was submitted. It referred to necessary repairs having been made, and verified them as being in good condition. The same committee verified the condition of the shut-off sprinkling hydrants. The engineer was instructed to ascertain the condition of old water mains.

THE MINNESOTA LOAN & TRUST CO.

Allow five per cent interest on six months' deposits. REUNITED IN THE COURT. A Truant Husband Plays Enoch Arden.

Two years ago Ludwig Johnson broke the ties that bound him to his heartstone at Twenty-fifth and One-half-avenue southeast, and meandered forth into the cold and cheerless world, leaving his wife and her babe. Yesterday afternoon his enforced appearance was made before Judge Maloney in the municipal court. His wife was there also. Ludwig stated that his mother-in-law had ordered him from home. The court gave the parties a writ of kindly counsel, which resulted in a reunion being effected by the couple venting away in a most happy frame of mind.

IN DURANCE VILE.

Sheriff Ege Lucks Streeter Up in Jail. As W. Streeter was unable to procure his bail bond for $500.00 "with good and sufficient sureties," yesterday morning he was given a cell in the county jail, having heretofore slept under his own vine and fig tree, under the eyes of Sheriff Ege's deputies.

JAUNTING HIBERNIANS.

On Thursday evening at 6:30, over the Chicago Great Western, a train will pull out of Minneapolis having on board $1,000 and on the Minnesota stone one can bound for Chicago, where they will be present on "Irish day" at the world's fair on Sept. 30. The Minneapolis contingent will be accompanied by the Hibernian Rifle Company of Minneapolis, marshaling about forty-five men. At St. Paul, it is said, another delegation of about 400 Irish-Americans will join. Large delegations also from Stillwater and Duluth will accompany the party. It is anticipated that a most enjoyable time will be had.

A MEMORABLE EVENT.

The opening of the Irving-Terry engagement at the Grand last night was an event that will be long remembered in Minneapolis. The Grand was completely filled in every section, and has never in its history contained a more thoroughly representative audience. The bill last night was "The Belis" and "Nance Oldfield," and never has a local audience enjoyed the pleasure of witnessing anything that even approached the magnificent representations of last evening. At the matinee today, which will commence at 2 o'clock, they will present "The Merchant of Venice," and tonight "Louis IX." Cleveland's ministrals open Thursday, and will remain the balance of the week.

NEW SWEDISH PAPER.

The "Vart Item" Publishing company, with $10,000 capital stock, has incorporated, and will publish a Swedish paper in Minneapolis in future. Heretofore it has been published at North Grand by E. G. Wahlund, who will still continue its editor. The incorporators of the new company are: Herman Stockstrom, assistant secretary of state, and K. Wallin, of St. Paul; Dr. Rignell, N. P. Peterson, J. M. Nelson and J. E. Hornberg, of this city; H. E. Brauch, and Rev. G. Wahlund.

AFTER BIG MONEY.

The case of Adeline Price vs. Receiver Trustad, of the Minneapolis & St. Louis road, was concluded in the United States court yesterday, and went to the jury at noon sharp. A small case was then taken up, being that of Noble Sampson, of Duluth, against George B. Kirkbride, George B. Sheppard and N. E. Griswold. Plaintiff lost an arm in defendants' building and claims it was due to its non-equipment with elevators or stairways, and he was compelled to go from one story to another by rope. He wants $20,000.

DISCUSSED THE TAX LEVY.

Several of the city fathers held an informal session at the city hall yesterday; the tax levy being the subject of discussion. The opinion was expressed that the city will gain but little good by any great reduction in this year's assessment, as experience goes to show that the levy would be all the heavier next year. The 20-mill limit is considered advisable, but no greater economy should be practiced, as it would only be a detriment instead of a benefit to the city.

SENTENCED BY CANTY.

Charles Fay, who tore up the water pipe in a house lying in the outskirts of the city, and which he acknowledged to have sold "to raise the wind," was sentenced by Judge Canty yesterday morning to a term of eleven months in the county jail. Thomas Murray, who was accused by one of the demerol men of assault, and who was suspected at the time of complicity in the Harris murder, was given a month's vacation in the county jail.

THE FOOTBALL SEASON.

The old base ball grounds have been secured by the University football team for the coming season. The grounds are centrally located and admirably adapted for the purpose. Games will be arranged between Wisconsin and Iowa "U" teams, and the Chicago Athletic association, the latter to be played Oct. 16.

A RUNAWAY HORSE.

About 5:30 p.m. yesterday a horse attached to a buggy, containing Mrs. Childs, became frightened and ran away on Bridge square, throwing the occupant out in the mud directly in front of the city hall. Fortunately the lady was not hurt, although her attire was badly besmirched with mud.

FUNERAL OF JOSEPH HOY.

Fully 3,000 people attended the funeral of Joseph Hoy, the victim of Richard Kennedy's revolver, which occurred yesterday from the Church of St. Anthony of Padua. The Kennedy family attended the services, with the exception of Richard and his mother, who was too ill to leave her home. She has been prostrated since the night of the murder.

USED A HORSEWHIP.

Tillie Dooms and Peter Hanson, the driver of a wood cart, had a row in the alley in the rear of the Junco saloon at 4 p.m. yesterday. Tillie used a whip on her, and she used a belt of wood on him. Both were speedily arraigned, and she was discharged, and Peter put up an "X" for his jag.

NEW BANK WILL NOT RESUME.

The Bank of New England will not reopen. This was decided at a meeting of the directors. One of the main objects of the directors is the fact that about 40 per cent of the stockholders have failed to pay their assessments.

KNOWS THEM NO MORE.

The Consolidating Milling company has taken the old offices of the Guaranty Loan company. This disappears the last vestige of that concern, whose affairs are now being aired by the grand jury.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

About 300 women from all parts of the state were in attendance at the annual meeting of the Minnesota branch of the Women's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church when it was called to order at St. Mark's yesterday. Bishop

WHIPPLE AND BISHOP HARE, OF SOUTH DAKOTA, CONDUCTED SERVICES AND MADE LENGTHY ADDRESSES ON MISSIONARY WORK.

In the afternoon Miss Sibley Carter, of the White Earth reservation, gave an interesting account of her work among the Indian women. The reports of the officers showed the auxiliary to be in a flourishing condition.

SINGLE TAX LEAGUE.

Officers Elected and Other Business Disposed Of. The Minneapolis Single Tax league met at the league's rooms in the New York Life building last evening, and elected the following officers: Edwin B. Barber, president. The following six vice presidents were also elected: Rev. S. W. Sample, C. J. Buell, Rev. August Delinger, John Sheets, E. G. Erickson, Prof. William Iverson. S. A. Buell was elected secretary-treasurer. An executive committee was also chosen, comprising O. T. Erickson, A. M. Goodrich, C. A. Stockwell, Alfred Porter, Henry Mead, Dr. N. P. Finnegan, James McDaniel, Mrs. C. J. Buell, Mrs. L. E. Weitzel and Mrs. J. Robinson.

A communication from the national league, Lewis Post, was received, fixing Feb. 16, 1894, as the date of its lecture in Minneapolis. Another was also received from Robert L. Baker, of the national committee, stating that committee would raise $7,000 for the propaganda purposes, of which Minnesota's quota is $150. Congressman Tom L. Johnson, of Ohio, is chairman of this committee. Thomas G. Sherman, of New York, is also an active member. Mr. Baker requested the appointment of a worker in each congressional district to look after the organization of propaganda work. C. J. Buell has been appointed for the Fourth congressional district and S. A. Stockwell for the Fifth. The workers will be appointed as soon as the national committee can place himself in communication with the single taxers in the various districts. A banquet will be held in the near future in Minneapolis, to be addressed by C. S. Darrow, assistant corporation counsel of Chicago.

The league is making extensive preparations to push its work in various parts of the state. The league will meet every Tuesday night at the New York Life building until further notice, at room 226.

CHANCE FOR A SEALSKIN.

This Is Ladies' Day at the Exposition. Yesterday at the Minneapolis Exposition was called poultry day on account of the completion and virtual opening of the great poultry exhibit. It was found when all the fowls were in that there were very near 1,000 in the building. This is nearly twice as many as have ever been exhibited in any poultry exhibit in Minnesota.

The concerts yesterday afternoon went off in a magnificent manner. Brooks' great band and Miss Alice Raymond are receiving the most complimentary applause. Miss Raymond is a delightful cornet player, and will attract the most general attention during the next two weeks. Two delightful exhibitions were given by Prof. Morris and his troupe of fifty intelligent dogs. These animals perform the most wonderful tricks, keeping the audience in a condition of surprise and merriment from beginning to end.

COL. BOONE'S LIONS HELD FIVE RECEPTIONS YESTERDAY.

Col. Boone's lions held five receptions during the day, and received the general attention and applause. Today is ladies' day at the exposition, and the management has arranged to present some of the best of its seal-skin sagae. Each lady buying a twenty-five-cent admission ticket will receive one of the numbers thus held will draw the sagae.

THE SOCIAL EVIL.

To Receive an Overhauling by the Jury. In addition to other matters, the grand jury will probably handle the matter of the loose treatment of the social evil in the Flour City. Under Judge Canty's instructions the grand jury will try to keep this matter within certain districts. A meeting was held at the office of the county attorney yesterday morning, at which a number of people were present, and the reality of evidence they could present covering this question of indictments will follow against the keepers of these questionable places. The so-called high-toned assignment houses, it is understood, will be subjected to a searching investigation at the hands of the jury. Minneapolis has become notorious for having within its precincts a great number of the most resorts of this kind in the United States, and the evil accomplished by these houses is incalculable. One house in particular is noted for its elegant and alluring appointments, and on this account, and for the character of its patronage, it has induced for its tenants that of the places that wantonly stain their shame. In this connection some startling revelations may be looked for.

MORE INDICTMENTS.

Looked For in the Guaranty Loan Investigation. The grand jury had a busy session yesterday. John H. Burke, who has figured so prominently in the Guaranty Loan company investigation, as well as several other persons connected with Minneapolis, testified. It is confidently expected that the grand jury will grind several more indictments against the Guaranty Loan company matter by this evening. Still more interesting developments are expected in this cause.

AMONG THE WITNESSES EXAMINED YESTERDAY, IN ADDITION TO JOHN H. BURKE, WERE MRS. MILDEN, EDWIN NOYES, FRANK DIBBLE AND THOMAS INTRUDER.

Much interest was manifested in the presence of Frank Percival, one of the employees of the company, who was seen sitting about in close proximity to the grand jury room.

BROKE HIS ANKLE.

Arthur Arquist, residing at 2910 Lyndale avenue, while en route for home last night on his bicycle, met with a painful accident. He left his place of business at 6 o'clock and had reached his home at 7 o'clock. He was riding on a bicycle, and he was struck by a horse and buggy. He was knocked from his bicycle and sustained a fracture of the right ankle. He was removed to his home in a patrol wagon. The driver of the big motor car which was reckless driving, it is said, was the cause of the accident. The bicycle was a complete ruin.
