King, appellant, vs. John S. Pillsbury et al., respondent; cause eutered upon present term calendar, and submitted on paper, book and briefs; taken under advisement; further City Railroad con.pany to recover $1,000 for injuries received by the sudden jerking of a car on Wabasha street. He for injuries received by the sudden jerking of a car on Wabasha street. He was thrown off and his arm strained and body cut and bruised.

Earl Tucker and Stephen Barlow, two woodsmen and traders of Mille Lacs county, were before United States Commissioner William A. Spencer yesterday, charged by D. H. Robbins, the postmaster at Vineland, with robbing his office and carrying away postal notes and money to the amount of $123. After a hearing the men were discharged, as it appeared that there was no evidence against them. They are "joshing" fellows and claim that Robbins was satisfied that they did not rob his office and store, but has a spite against them and had them arrested for their teasing him about the robbery.

At a hearing on the writ of habeas corpus yesterday, Judge Kerr refused to give Alice Vandeslius the custody of her five-year-old boy Leroy, but remanded the child to the custody of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hoffman. Several policemen and neighbors were called before his honor to testify in the case, and it was deemed better not to give the boy over ordered that the judgment of the court below be affirmed.

LADY MANAGERS OF THE WORLD'S FAIR!

HOW INDORSED.

More than 130 of the m have contributed directly to the Recipe de partment, these contractions having been secured for this book from every State and Territory in the Union, Alaska not excepted.

More Than 200 Contributors.

Many of the wives of Governors of the different States, and more than sixty other ladies of position and influence have also sent in their contributions of choice and well-tried recipes. Coming as these have from every part of the country, from Alaska to Florida and from Maine to California, they represent every style and phase of cookery of every locality and section of America. We claim without fear of contradiction that we present in the "Home Queen" the grandest aggregation and variety of tried recipes introduced into any cook book extant.

AUTOGRAPH SIGNATURES.

The autograph signatures of the contributors, with their address and official position, will, in nearly every instance, be found attached to the recipes, which not only attest their genuineness, but add immensely to the taking features of the book. These signatures have been procured, engraved and introduced into the book at considerable labor and

PORTRAITS.

Fine half-tone portraits of nearly one hundred of the Lady Managers of the World's Fair, together with portraits of the wives of the Governors and others occupying leading positions, have been secured, and will add no little to the interest and intrinsic value of the "Home Queen."

MISS JULIET CORSON,

the founder of the Cooking Schools of America, and who has been appointed, by the advice of Mrs. Potter Palmer, to take charge of the Cookin g School and Department of Cookery in the New York Exhibit at the World's Fair, has also consented to contribute to our Recipe department, and her portrait will also appear in this book. Miss Corson was formerly connected with the Minnesota State University.
