IT WAS A BOOMERANG

Duluth Republicans Put Themselves in a Box AND SHUT THE LID DOWN HARD.

Seek to Have Democrats Denounce the Wilson Bill.

THEY FAIL IN IT MISERABLY, And Shame-Facedly Sneak Away to Another Hall.

RINGING DEMOCRATIC RESOLVES

Special to the Globe.

DULUTH, Minn., Dec. 28.—The very cleverly put up scheme of the Republican machine here, abetted by six or seven renegade Democrats, to get a mass meeting protest against free iron ore in the most ultra fashion today. The Democrats tonight on and turned the scheme into a veritable boomerang for the Republicans. Last week a call for a meeting to discuss the question of the removal of the duty on iron ore as proposed by the Wilson bill was prepared and circulated at the instance of some machine Republicans and a few Democrats who are engaged in what is by courtesy termed promoting iron projects, or boomerang and faking, as less elegantly called. Democrats generally caught on later to the fact that this was a Republican game. The call was signed largely or entirely by Democrats. When the time came for calling the meeting to order at the city hall this afternoon the Democrats were not in force. The council chamber and the corridors and stairs leading to it were crowded. T. T. Hudson called the meeting to order and nominated C. O. Baldwin for chairman. The motion being immediately seconded. Then E. C. Gridley attempted to gain the organization to call for a meeting, and here was where Mr. Gridley overestimated his personal popularity. He attempted to block the organization with his mouth, but while the mouth wagged the organization proceeded by the election of Mr. Baldwin as chairman by a great majority. Then Gridley was allowed to explain, and C. A. Towne, a Republican, was permitted to introduce in one of his customary flights of meaningless invective. Towne threatened to hold a separate meeting if the protectionists present, less than a quarter of the whole number, were not allowed to run things according to the Republican machine programme. C. P. Magnus said it ought to be conducted as a non-partisan meeting, but that the Republicans were attempting to ravish the Democrats of St. Louis county. Mayor d'Autremont said the Republicans were responsible for getting a dozen Democrats to call for a meeting after ten days of hard work, and none but Democrats were allowed to sign the call. It looked like an attempt to get the Democrats to STUTTLIFY THEMSELVES before the counter. As a Democrat, he certainly would not allow the attempt to go through without a strong protest. Then Towne moved to make Col. Harris, a Democrat, lately arrived from Kansas, chairman, but the colonel was not in on it. As J. Allan Bode just then got up on a desk to make a speech in answer to numerous calls. Before Bode could say anything the Republicans moved to make Gridley chairman. Gridley went up on the platform alone, and the protectionist man. By similar process Snively was made secretary for the protectionists, and W. R. Spencer for the regular Democrats. Gridley read resolutions endorsing the Wilson bill, which were decided by the protectionists, and Baldwin immediately read resolutions endorsing the administration's efforts to decrease the tariff, and recommended that there be no changes in the Wilson bill's free list. The protectionists withdrew to the Temple opera house. Bode made a characteristic speech in the council chamber for free ore, which was loudly applauded. The resolutions backing up the Wilson bill were read, and everybody could understand them, and were carried without a dissenting vote. Attorney Holmbeck made a strong speech on the necessity of supporting the Democratic party in carrying out Democratic policies. John Westcott, in his surprise at Gridley's new stand, and told instances of how Gridley had previously denounced to him that the CUBAN MINES could not compete in this country with the Mesaba ores. He also read from the News Tribune of September an article telling of the big profits to be made out of the Mesaba ores. He didn't believe the ore tariff cut any figure with the Mesaba range. Z. D. Scott, a prominent lumberman, supposed this question had been decided a year and a half ago. He didn't know why anybody should be nervous over it, when there was a corner here in ore. Although a lumberman, he was not afraid of free lumber. He thought on the whole it would be better. Prices couldn't be any worse than now. Judge Tripp spoke on the Judas-like attempt of certain people to betray the Democratic party, and explained how the meeting was worked up. He thought the results of the meeting would be ever, show up the scheme to the whole country and to Congressman Baldwin. John A. Keys, a low-tariff Republican, spoke next, and made a fine speech. He gave the history of the Minnesota Iron company, showing what it had done given, but the legislature, by the asking, released its property from taxation except the insignificant sum of one cent per ton on its output, which action was unconstitutional. He believed in retracting the steps taken in giving special privileges or our government would finally meet disaster. Mr. Bode wanted to know if "Ask and ye shall receive" was the

Resolved, That the voters of the Sixth congressional district, having supported and elected Maj. Baldwin to the office he now holds upon the platform of the Democratic party, and he having in good faith

ACCEPTED THE NOMINATION upon that platform, the Democrats and voters of said district have no more any right to request him to abandon that platform, nor to so stultify himself as to favor a policy contrary to the declared policy of the Democratic party, as announced in the Wilson bill.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting that the interests of the whole country demand that the Wilson bill should be, without unnecessary delay, passed and adopted by the congress of the United States, and that it is probably the duty of all Democrats to give a loyal support to the party in the present emergency, and that they should stand against the party, such as is clearly implied in the attempt to control the present legislative session, and to induce him to abandon his declared views upon the subject of the tariff, would be destructive of the organization of the Democracy.

Resolved, That this meeting does most cordially endorse the effort of the Democratic party in its honest endeavor to reduce the tariff on iron ore, and to induce him to abandon his declared views upon the subject of the tariff, would be destructive of the organization of the Democracy.

Resolved, That the natural advantages of St. Louis county, and the energy of her inhabitants, is sufficient for her to win and maintain her superiority without protection on iron ore.

POSTOFFICE SENSATION.

An Arrest for Arson in South Dakota.

Special to the Globe.

HOT SPRINGS, S. D., Dec. 28.—B. W. Soper, the newly appointed postmaster at Fairburn, was brought before United States Commissioner Anderson last night on a charge of burning the post-office building at that place. He was released on $2,500 bond to appear on Jan. 20. The office was burned last Sunday week while Sanderson, the Republican postmaster, was in charge, and Sanderson has come to the conclusion that Soper roasted him out as a last resort. If this is the case, he was unnecessarily jealous and impatient, as his commission arrived a few days later.

ROW IN THE POPULIST CAMP

GOV. LEWELLING TAKES THE OFFICIAL SCALP OF MRS. LEASE.

AND A PRETTY FIGHT IS ON.

The Governor Says It Is in the Interest of Harmony and Good Government, but the Lady Politician Says That It Was for an Entirely Different Reason, and There's Music in the Air.

TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 28.—The Populist camp here, after being thrown into the wildest excitement by the action of Gov. Lewelling in removing Mrs. Mary E. Lease from the state board of charities. This was done after long conference with his associate state officers and other leaders of the People's party, and was no doubt in anticipation of the war which Mrs. Lease was preparing to declare against the state administration.

To a reporter Gov. Lewelling said: "I don't want to say much about it, and I want you to be careful to quote me correctly. I have removed Mrs. Lease in the interest of harmony and good government. There seems to be some lack of harmony in the charitable institutions of this state and considerable disunity on the board, and I concluded Mrs. Lease's removal was the remedy, and accordingly removed her. That's all I have to say about it this afternoon."

"Don't you think you have stirred up a row?" "Maybe I have, but I guess there will be no great trouble out of it."

Mrs. Lease, who was up to 2 o'clock head of the state board of charities, was in the city today to confer with the Populist leaders about the recent election of George F. Faber to be steward of the deaf and dumb asylum at Olathe by the votes of M. A. Householder and W. S. Waite, the Republican members of the board.

"Either he goes, or I go," Mrs. Lease said to a reporter, and she stamped her foot to emphasize that fact. This was before her removal was announced.

"It is a question of principle with me. First, I am a Populist, and of the middle-class of bringing the money home in appointing Democrats to office. Next, Gov. Populists have been ignored, and lastly, I am opposed to Tauber, because he was appointed to secure the beer-drinking element of the state for the Populist party next year. I am not of that kind of a politician. I do not believe in compromising with wrong in any shape or form. It is certain Tauber will have to be retired or I shall quit the board."

The removal of Mrs. Lease was a thought which has been in the mind of no talk of it in the state house or in Populist circles anywhere. It is not believed the removal was wholly caused by the row in the board, for that has been going on for some time, and was not so notorious. That somebody had to go has been known for three months, for Mrs. Lease on the one side and Mr. Householder and Mr. Waite on the other.

Officers started for Olathe this afternoon to bring the boy to his mother, who is almost distracted, and a creditor's child as security for a board which Mrs. Lease on the one side and Mr. Householder and Mr. Waite on the other.

St. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 28.—The marriage of Miss Mildred Mary Myers, second daughter of George S. Myers, the millionaire tobaccoist, to John S. Craves, of Kansas City, took place at high noon today at the home of Mr. Myers at Glendale. A special train was brought to the governor that Mrs. Lease was not intended to let it be. Mrs. Lease was getting ready to make another assault through the newspapers upon the administration of Governor Tauber.

When this reached the governor's ears, it decided the question of removal in his mind, and instead of letting out Householder and Waite, he let out Mrs. Lease. The Populist editor of the Wilson county, he announced, "I know that Mrs. Kennedy on the board we could run the institutions in a business-like manner, and I have never seen a Populist who has not tolerated the corruption of the present administration, an administration more corrupt than any Republican administration that ever there has been in this state."

Gov. Lewelling seems to make appointments to further his own political ends, regardless of consequences. When he appoints an appointee he can't see he does it.

DISRUPT THE PARTY.

Friends of Mrs. Lease Say It Will Cause Party Defeat.

BOYCOTT A NEWSPAPER.

The Federation of Labor Strikes at Deadwood Times.

Special to the Globe.

DEADWOOD, S. D., Dec. 28.—The Federation of Labor has declared a boycott against the Deadwood Daily Times. The action grew out of editorials on the subject of labor and wages. Committees began circulating this evening petitions throughout the Hills asking the friends of labor to withdraw their patronage from the paper. At the mining camps the boycott works all right, but the people as a whole are loyal to the paper. The Times will publish tomorrow a red-hot editorial, and from now on will fight the union bitterly. It is not expected that the boycott will cripple the paper. The conflict between labor and capital, which has long been pending, will, it is feared, be brought to a crisis by the action of the federation. A forerunner of this conflict is now in progress at Deadwood, where 1,500 men are on a strike and holding their company's buildings against the company's wishes. The union is now being organized in their actions by the unions. The labor outlook here is not particularly bright.

Boerhaave Is Insane.

Special to the Globe.

ST. CLOUD, Dec. 28.—The physicians who were appointed by the court to examine Gustav Boerhaave, recently acquitted of the charge of murdering his father and about to be tried upon a minor offense, today testified that he was insane. Boerhaave is well known, having made an order committing the defendant to the insane asylum at Ferguson Falls where is another indictment hanging over his head, which will be continued until he recovers.

Staffed a Bailot Box.

WINNIPEG, Man., Dec. 28.—An important aftereffect of the recent election in Winnipeg was the commitment for trial today of Jake Holman, a deputy returning officer, against whom a clear case of ballot box stuffing was established. Holman is well known, having long been engaged as a commercial traveler in this country. The evidence was so strong that the magistrate committed him for trial without hearing argument.

Child's Narrow Escape.

HELAND, S. D., Dec. 28.—A nine-year-old child belonging to G. Burso, living south of town, was sent to a neighbor on an errand, and was lost in the storm. Help was called, and a crowd of men searched the prairie to no avail. The search was given up at dark. At 2 o'clock in the morning the girl returned whole and hearty, and told her story. She had traveled for many miles, and at last as she got sleepy she buried herself in a straw pile, and a neighbor from her own home. When she awoke she could see her home, and to the great rejoicing of her wonder of her parents walked in on them.

How He Paid Gambling Debts.

FARMINGTON, Minn., Dec. 28.—Deputy Sheriff E. E. Ward has arrived from St. James with Charles Nelson in custody, arrested for paying his gambling debts with grain buyers' checks of the Farmers' Warehouse association, of which he is a buyer. Startling developments in the case are being made, and our prominent citizens are involved as accessories or victims.

Tegner Family's Close Call.

ST. PETER, Minn., Dec. 28.—J. G. Tegner and wife were found this morning unconscious in bed, having been overcome by gas from a coal stove. A brother boiling with them, coming to breakfast, found them. The doctor says they are still unconscious but breathing, and strong hopes are entertained of their recovery. Tegner is assistant cashier at the Nicollet County bank, in St. Peter, and is a member of the Swedish-American bank, at Minneapolis, a short time ago.

Pittsburg's Unemployed.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 28.—The city has over 2,500 men employed in the two parks, yet that number does not seem to make any great difference in the ranks of the unemployed. On Monday day at least 1,500 idle men were at Senneky park and 300 more were at Highland park, all anxious to go to work at $1 per day.

Carnegie Mills to Start Up.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 28.—The Lower Union mills, of the Carnegie plant in this city, paid off today, and the men were taken individually into the office, where the new scale was presented to them. The details of the scale were not made public, but without doubt the men will accept whatever reduction it may bring. A resumption in all the Carnegie plants will take place on Tuesday next.

WORSER THAN MELLO.

Rio Afflicted With a More Dreaded Enemy

THAN THE CRAFTY ADMIRAL.

Yellow Fever, in Its Worst Form, Attacks the People.

SEVERAL PEOPLE ARE KILLED

In the Streets of Rio by the Insurgent Shots.

NAVAL BATTLE EXPECTED SOON.

Buenos Ayres, Dec. 28.—Very little news has reached here from Rio de Janeiro. It is announced that the unfortunate city which has for months been suffering from the ravages of war, is now a victim of the ravages of the worst and most dreaded of diseases—yellow fever, and five deaths from this disease are already reported. The news that yellow fever has added its burden and horrors to the sufferings already endured by the people of Rio has caused widespread attention here, and much sympathy is expressed for the plague and war-stricken inhabitants. It is added, however, that the government is taking every precaution possible under the circumstances to prevent a spread of the disease, but the work of the officials at Rio de Janeiro is greatly hampered by the condition to which the city has been reduced by the horrors of war. It is added that yellow fever, which has broken out in Rio de Janeiro, is not the mild form of that fever, but is the worst form of black vomit.

Following the news that the black vomit has broken out at Rio de Janeiro the additional information that the bombardment of the city and forts continues, and that the forces of both parties, the government and the insurgents, seem determined to continue to a termination in one way or the other. The fire of the rebel war ships upon the forts is said to have been unusually severe, and to have resulted in killing a number of the defenders of President Peisoto's fortifications. It is also said that several people have been killed in the streets of Rio de Janeiro, and that the people of that city are so panic-stricken that all the stores have been closed, and that business is practically at a standstill. The forts have been replying fiercely to the heavy fire of the ships, and have so far succeeded in holding their own. It is reported that a battle at sea between the rebel ships and the cruisers fitted out for President Peisoto's fortifications, soon be expected, and that upon this engagement will depend the fate of the rebellion.

The Miantonomah's Destination.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—Senator Hearst has ordered the monitor Miantonomah from New York to Fort Monroe, there to await further orders. It is believed that unless some alliance should meanwhile occur in the Brazilian situation the vessel will be ordered to Rio. The making ready of the Miantonomah for sea was, without doubt, with the idea of sending her to Rio. But there is reason to doubt whether she will go beyond Norfolk now, unless a future development in Rio should call for a still further increase of the force there. It was considered advisable to have her on the coast, and to have her ready to away from shore duty for a time, and she will probably practice some maneuvering in Hampton Roads and there await further orders.

Confirmed the Sale.

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—Judge Grosbeck, of the federal court, entered an order today confirming the sale of the property and assets of the National Cordage company, which was made in the United States courts in New Jersey a week ago. The sale was made on the petition of the receivers, Edward F. C. Young and G. Weaver Soper, and the purchasers were George C. Mazoun, Ernest Thalman and Custer H. Gassier. The purchasers paid $1,500,000 in cash and $3,500,000 in mortgage bonds of the reorganized cordage company.
