

MINNEAPOLIS.

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBULES.

The oleomargarine case has been postponed until Feb. 14. The state is desirous of putting in a little more evidence.

The formal opening of the North Side library will take tomorrow from 2 to 5 and from 7:30 to 10 p. m. An elaborate programme has been prepared.

In the matter of the assignment of John G. Swenson the schedules were filed with the clerk of the district court yesterday, showing the liabilities to be $4,836 and the assets $3,007.25.

Intelligence has been received from Lawrence, Mass., that the death, Monday, of the mother of Dr. Martha Ripley, the well-known physician, of this city, deceased was eighty-seven years of age.

The slender case of James B. Hennessey against William A. Mather, the Hennessey restaurant man, was settled yesterday by the jury returning a verdict for the defendant. The action was for $5,000 damages.

The case of the state against Fred Yore, charged with grand larceny, will come up before Judge Janison in the criminal court today. Yore is charged with stealing revolvers from the stock of T. M. Roberts, the hardware merchant.

Leo Jacobs, charged with forgery, the name of J. R. Purchase to a check for $10, was arraigned in the police court yesterday morning. While being examined, the prisoner broke down and confessed his guilt. He was bound over to grand jury.

John N. Brown has brought suit against E. F. Webster, Col. C. McC. Reeve, Thomas Lowry and others to recover by the forfeiture of a mortgage on some city real estate $6,821.60. He asks to have a receiver appointed to take charge of the property.

The mayor was visited by another delegation of saloonkeepers yesterday. The gentlemen were Thomas Lally, Peter S. Martin, M. H. McGuire and Matt H. Schuening. They presented to the mayor with some $2,000 to be used in the interests of the poor of the city. The saloonkeepers had collected nearly $3,000 for this charitable work.

The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lawrence, 721 Second street northeast, was last night the scene of a delightful social event. The program consisted of literary and musical features and recitations, refreshments being served during the evening. The proceeds are for the benefit of the poor of the parish of St. Anthony of Padua.

The Shop Lifters. Shop lifters have been making life a burden to the dry goods merchants of the city for some time past and the police are making strenuous efforts to locate them. So far they have been unable to arrest any person whose proclivities were in the direction of light-finger work. The other day a tough looking customer, named J. D. Ross, was sent to the workhouse to serve a ten-day's sentence for stealing a watch.

Wednesday this Ross informed Supt. Mejoy that he had a confession to make. He wanted to be revenged on a woman who had stolen from him money. This woman he said was the keeper of a house of ill-fame on Main street southeast. She acted as a fence for a gang of shop lifters and had about $1,000 worth of goods stored away in her house. Yesterday Court Officers Burke and Magruder searched the house but could find nothing. Ross will be subjected to a little pumping process and he may be able to give more accurate information concerning the busy thieves.

The Cases Were Settled. Two important suits were marked "settled and dismissed" on the calendar at the district court yesterday. One suit was that of the Minneapolis Trust company, receiver, vs. L. F. Menage; the other was the suit brought by the Farmers' and Mechanics' Savings bank against Menage. The first suit was brought by the trust company as receiver of the Guaranty Loan company against the assignee of Menage and the Victoria Land company, to recover $20,000 north of the amount that the company in payment for land at Bozeman, Mont., which had been transferred by Menage to this company. The suit was settled by the receipt of Menage curing three-fourths of the stock, the face value of which is $75,000. The suit with the bank involved a piece of property in Redwood county, Minnesota, which the bank had redeemed the land from the sheriff's sale with the understanding that the assignee, S. K. King were to take it. The amount due was $17,040.85.

Highwaymen Arrested. Highwaymen have created a reign of terror in the vicinity of Keegan lake recently, and a number of farmers have been held up and robbed on the highway. Inspectors Doyle and Howard have arrested John Kuskie, alias Muschick, and a number of his associates, and are now on their way to being implicated in the robberies. Four robberies have been traced to these men already, and the detectives are of the opinion that they will have no trouble in solving the men over the road. John Luby, of Long Lake; B. F. Browning, of Robbinsdale; Fred Kutz, of Wauzata; and James Murchie, of Long Lake, have been held up within the past week, and it is thought they will be able to identify the two men.

Ole's Bad Fall. Ole Olson, a twelve-year-old school-boy, attending the Holland school at the corner of Seventeenth avenue north and Washington, met with a terrible accident yesterday morning. He was leaning over the banisters on the second floor when he lost his balance and fell to the floor below. He was injured in his home at 1716 Polk street in an unusual serious condition. The boy's head was badly fractured.

Nelson's Little Adventure. L. P. Nelson, a farmer from North Dakota, was robbed of $30 Wednesday night by a woman of the town named Tina Anderson. She accompanied the woman to a room on Second street south, where, with the aid of an accomplice named Benson, she robbed him of the money. The woman was held to the grand jury yesterday by Judge Magruder, and Benson was sent to the workhouse.

The A. P. A. Convention. The second day's session of the annual convention of the A. P. A. was resumed yesterday at the hall, 55 Fourth street south. As on the day preceding, the proceedings were conducted in strict secrecy, and nothing was given out for publication. The election of officers took place last night, and after the transaction of routine business the meeting adjourned.

JUDGE ATWATER'S BOOK.

THE "HISTORY OF MINNEAPOLIS" BOBS UP IN COURT.

MRS. J. B. CLOUGH COMPLAINS.

She Alleges That Solicitors for the History Secured Her Signature to a Note in a Fraudulent Manner—Thought She signed a Subscription Order, But Instead signed a Note.

The peculiar methods of certain advertising men came to light yesterday in the preliminary papers to an action brought by Mrs. J. B. Clough, an elderly lady, living at 1823 Hawthorne avenue, against H. C. Dean and W. L. Conley. The papers set forth that the defendants have come into the possession of a note for $250 signed by Mrs. Clough; that they secured it by fraudulent means and by taking the advantage of a lady too old to read. The lady is seventy-one years of age. She alleges that last March Mr. Dean and another gentleman called at her residence and solicited her subscription to Judge Atwater's "History of Minneapolis." They stated they were also seeking information to be used in the preparation of the book which she desired the biography and portrait of Col. J. B. Clough, the lady's deceased husband.

The solicitors stated that Judge Atwater and R. J. Baldwin were getting up the book, and that the cost of it would be either $10 or $12. Mrs. Clough alleges that she agreed to subscribe to one copy of the book and to furnish a biography and portrait of her dead husband. They gave her an "order" to sign, which she supposed was an ordinary subscription blank. Being unable, on account of old age, to read the printed matter on the blank, she concluded to rely on the representation of the two men and so affixed her signature. She learned later that the order, or subscription blank, purported to be a promise on her part to pay to the Munsell Publishing company $250 for the purchase of the portrait and biography, and that she was to be furnished twenty-five copies of the portrait.

The complaint alleges the Munsell Publishing company refused to accept and that Judge Atwater and Mr. Baldwin have nothing to do with the book except the writing of one or two articles for it. W. L. Conley, who has been threatened by Mrs. Clough, and the plaintiff asks that the note or order be canceled and that a restraining order be issued preventing the defendants from disposing of the paper pending the trial.

HOSKINS IS VERY HOT

At the Misrepresentations of a Fergus Correspondent.

Frank Hoskins, the Alliance editor, who was recently released from the Fergus Falls asylum for a writ of habeas corpus, and who is awaiting the decision of the supreme court on the insanity law, was very indignant yesterday at the dispatches from Fergus Falls concerning the case. He has written to the Tribune and Press, the correspondence charged that Mr. Hoskins had written the superintendent of the asylum at Fergus Falls to the effect that he knew what the decision of the supreme court would be. Mr. Hoskins was greatly worried over the account, which he claims was wholly false, and to say that he is hot in the collar is drawing it mild.

"I wrote to the superintendent a few days ago," said he, "and requested him to forward my purse and mileage ticket, as I did not expect to go back there. I gave no reason, nor did I express any opinion or protest to have any knowledge as to what the decision of the supreme court would be. I base my hopes that I will not go back as much on the fact that at my hearing before the court I did not have a fair trial, and that the decision would be in my favor. I do not even stop to comply with the law of 1893, as I believe that the supreme court will not sustain the law. I do not deny it. Heretofore, I have refrained from discussing my case in the papers while I am in the asylum, but I do deny it. I am stopping in Minneapolis all the time since his release, with the exception of one afternoon passed in St. Paul."

The decision of the supreme court yesterday at St. Paul will relieve Mr. Hoskins from returning to the asylum.

ASK FOR A RECEIVER.

A New Turn in the Children's Endowment Case.

In the district court yesterday, a bill in equity was filed for the appointment of a receiver of the Children's Endowment association. The title of the case is Orlando H. Freeman, Joseph M. Morton and John Hedman against the Children's Endowment association, and Leslie C. Lane, the former persons being policy holders and the latter the assignee of the association. This is an unexpected move and involves the ousting of Assistant Lane.

The application goes to the point of litigation up to date, and the point at issue is whether or not the policy holders can pay their assessments within the requisite time without lapses, and for that reason that it is their duty to pay them. The bill is on with the business, as all holders of policies must lapse if the matter is left open, and therefore a receiver and a winding up of the affairs of the concern are the only ways in which justice can be done to the various claimants under policies, others aside from the petitioners being asked to come in and join in the action.

It is further set forth that the society has collected $178,537.75, which belongs actually to each policy holder, who is a part of this association. The directors elected at the last meeting are Herman L. Pratt, H. W. Jones, Francis P. French, F. H. Densmore, C. A. Cummings, M. N. Price, and C. W. Gray. It is charged that these directors have been derelict in their duty, and that thereby more than $200,000 has been lost to the society through bad investments. The allegations of bad investments are shown by a recapitulation of the items of assets in the hands of the society.

Judge Janison signed the order for a hearing, and the matter will come up Saturday. The petitioners assert that there are shareholders to the amount of $40,000, who have only a few days left in which to pay assessments.

Old Soldier's Adventure.

A battle-scarred veteran from the Soldiers' home, who gave the name of John Smith, filled up on Washington avenue bug juice Wednesday night, and while under the influence of the rosy liquid fell into a basement. The strange charm that is supposed to hedge the divinities of a drunken man saves him from serious injury, and he was lifted to the street a bit the worse for his adventure. Yesterday morning he was given the customary $10 or ten days, and as he is shy on sinocines he will doubtless work it out on the stone pile.

A Liberal Donation.

The delegation of saloonkeepers who have been soliciting donations for the poor called on the mayor yesterday and turned over the sum of $2,000. The gentlemen who made the collection were, in charge are Thomas Lally, Peter S.

Martin, M. H. Maguire and Matt H. Schuening.

MR. LOWRY RETURNS.

The Street Railway Magnate Back From the East.

Tom Lowry is home. He arrived in Minneapolis yesterday morning after a visit to New York and Washington, where he conferred with Loren Fletcher and some of the more prominent Republican politicians in the capital city. A GLOBE reporter found Mr. Lowry busily engaged at his home, 1000 Street railway magnate received him cordially, and admitted that he had accomplished much in his Eastern trip. Mr. Lowry succeeded in interesting a large amount of Eastern capital in Columbia Heights. He completed arrangements for the roller mills there, and stated that they would be in operation by May 15. At least 400 men will be employed at the outset, and the number will be increased from time to time.

Speaking of the Eastern money market, Mr. Lowry stated that one-fourth of the banks and many outside of the metropolis have large sums of money on deposit, but as yet they are timid about sending it West for investment, and would only do so on the best security. Speaking of the Wilson bill, he said: "I am of the opinion that it will be passed, or at least, a modified form of it, and I think it will be a good thing for this country to have the tariff placed on a definite basis for a time, at least. Of course the laboring people may suffer some by reason of the law, but it will put the tariff on a basis of some earnest and business men will know what to expect."

BILLIARD TOURNAMENT.

How Sampson Made His Great Run.

H. J. Sampson, the billiardist, who made the famous anchor nurse run of 842, was in the city yesterday, to confer with Charles Capen, of the West hotel, concerning the forthcoming tournament. In speaking of the tournament both gentlemen expressed themselves as confident of a good showing. The West hotel and it is expected that the tournament will be a success. The billiardist, the well-known expert of the Saintry city will be present. The latter has been a little shy about entering the lists, but it is regarded that in justice to both himself and the profession, he cannot afford to absent himself.

In speaking of his famous win Mr. Sampson said yesterday that he secured the anchor nurse by playing a light mass. When the balls stopped rolling the red ball was secure against the cushion, with the second object ball or spot on a tangent about one-fourth of an inch distant. Carrom after carrom was counted from the object balls until the unprecedented score of 842 points was reached.

THE POET'S ANNIVERSARY.

Scotch People Celebrate in Honor of Robert Burns.

The Scotch people of the city celebrated yesterday the anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns, the poet. Entertainments were given in various parts of the city, the most notable of which was the one held at the university hall under the auspices of the society Clan Gordon No. 33. There was a large number of people present, and that they all enjoyed themselves was demonstrated by the enthusiastic manner in which each number of the programme was received and by the zeal displayed in the dancing which followed later in the evening. The entertainment opened with a burst of music from the pipes. Al. Sinclair played on the pipes, and he did so artistically and with great vim and vigor.

Chief Niven Scott delivered himself of a few remarks. He referred to the occasion of the gathering, and to the poet whose memory was being honored, especially by people of Scotland. The clan chorus sang a song entitled "There Was a Lad," and Miss Alma Norton Johnson, the contralto, rendered De Koven's "Past and Future" in a very effective manner. Miss Josephine Jennings sang the old and familiar "Mary of Argye," and was loudly applauded. The remainder of the programme was as follows:

"Where the Flower of Dunblane," W. B. Heath; dance, "Shawn Drows," Miss Katie Miller; quartette, "The Lassie from Glasgow," Miss Alma Norton Johnson and Messrs. Heath and Fisher; song, "A Man's Man," Jas. Sincer; song, "Selected," Miss Agnes Byrnes; "Where the Highland Fling," Miss Fisher; part song, "Great Grow the Lashes O' the Clan Chorus," "Auld Lang Syne," chorus and audience.

The last of the entertainment was a let-entertainment was a pleasant affair. Thirteen numbers were danced and over a hundred couples participated.

The Formal Opening.

The Twin City Athletic club was formally opened yesterday. During the day reports were received from the seat of the club in Florida, and the members regaled themselves with reading an account of the Corbett-Mitchell fight. In the evening several glove contests occurred in the gymnasium. The most notable contest was between Bobby Dobs and George Jackson, commonly known as the Detroit Cyclone. It took only three rounds for the Cyclone to find out he was not in it with a Western hurricane. At the conclusion of the performance at the Grand Hotel, the male members of the companies playing there put in an appearance at the club and a pleasant time was enjoyed.

The Smoke Nuisance.

The council committee on ordinances met yesterday afternoon and discussed various matters, among the most important being the smoke nuisance. A number of lumbermen and manufacturers were present at the meeting, and entered a vigorous protest against the passage of an ordinance making it compulsory to adopt smoke consumers. Mayor Rustis did not appear, though it was expected he would be present and deliver a dissertation on corn exchange soot. No action was taken. The aldermen were in too much of a hurry to get away from the city hall where they could learn more about the prize fight in Florida. The matter was laid over to the next meeting of the committee.

A Narrow Escape.

F. H. Peterson's furniture store at 73 Sixth street south had a narrow escape last night. Fire caught somewhere in the basement at 11 o'clock and the firemen had a hard time to locate it. Holes were cut in the floor and the water forced through.

It could not be learned what the loss will be, owing to the lateness of the hour, and the fact that Mr. Peterson was not in the store. The basement was stored with considerable furniture.

The Hawaiian Question.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The resolution on the Hawaiian question introduced by Representative McCrery (Dem., Ky.) Monday was considered by the house committee on foreign affairs today. By a strict party vote of 10 to 8 it was agreed that Chairman McCrery should report the resolution favorably to the house without change. The report of the minority will be prepared by Mr. Pitt, of Illinois. While the Republican substitute will undoubtedly condemn the policy of President Cleveland and his ministers, Blount and Willis, it has not yet decided how it will handle the question of annexation.

Flour Mill Burned.

ALGONA, Ia., Jan. 25.—J. J. Wilson's steam flouring mill burned to the ground last night, with a large quantity of grain. The loss is estimated at $10,000, with $5,000 insurance.

Killed by a Tree.

LIDGERWOOD, N. D., Jan. 25.—Birdsell Oliver was killed yesterday while attempting to cut a tree in a woods south-west of Bosko, S. D. The falling tree lodged against another and a limb broke off, knocking Oliver in the head.

DEMOCRATS OF DULUTH FOR JENSWOLD FOR MAJOR.

TOBOWEN MAKES A PROTEST.

But the Populist Leader Gets Twenty-Five Votes Out of Thirty-Nine. Nevertheless—The Trial of Attorney Madigan Seems to Be Going in His Favor—Other Northwest News.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE. DULUTH, Minn., Jan. 25.—John Jenswold, the Populist candidate for mayor, was endorsed by the Democratic city convention today. The first ballot stood: Jenswold, 25; M. J. Davis, 13; Henry E. Harris, 3. Harris protested against endorsing a Populist, and also E. H. Hall and T. E. Bowen, but the motion to make the ballot formal prevailed. Mr. Jenswold addressed the convention in acceptance, saying that he elected, he would administer the office purely on municipal issues, assuring a clean and honest regime. The platform renews devotion to Democratic principles and opposition to Republican tariff principles; demands a fair, economical and honest city government on a basis of some attempt to discriminate between citizens seeking public or private employment on account of race or creed. Before the nomination was made J. M. Martin, who was asked for a speech, asked that he be not nominated. The opposition to the action taken, however, seemed to come from his camp. The following aldermanic candidates were named: First ward, W. P. Heinbach; Second ward, A. S. Wilson, P. M. Gaff; Third ward, W. A. Foster; Fourth ward, Henry Steiner, Frankstrom; Fifth ward, C. O. Flynn; Sixth ward, W. M. Thompson, D. R. Bakke; Seventh ward, P. L. Johnson, L. J. Matthews; Eighth ward, Dr. Burnside, John Peterson.

BETTER FOR MADIGAN.

The Attorney May Yet Come Out on Top.

NEW ULM, Jan. 25.—The defense in the case of Madigan, county attorney of Redwood county, had its innings this morning, and gave evidence very favorable to Madigan. The defendant himself was first called and testified directly opposite to the prosecution, saying that Mr. Ramnes authorized the suit on the $500 note, and was paid 44 per cent of the amount on the insolvent estate. Ramnes was in Redwood, he said, on both April 5 and July 12. The most sensational evidence was given by Mrs. Schorzege Schneider, formerly Madigan's stenographer. She swore that Ramnes called on April 5 last, and in her presence she read the proceedings. Ramnes called again three weeks later, when Madigan was out. Asked by the state whether she could now identify Ramnes, she stepped from the witness box, circled around the crowd of 200 men, and pointing to one said: "I think that's he." "You've got your call," was Judge Peck's triumphant exclamation. The witness was called, confirming Madigan's story later, he paid Ramnes $190 out of the insolvent estate. There seems to be very little doubt that the defendant will be acquitted on this indictment. The case will go to the jury tomorrow morning.

WILL LIVE IN ST. PAUL.

Prominent Young People Married in Michigan.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE. HASTINGS, Minn., Jan. 25.—George W. Gardner, president of the First National bank of this city, and Miss Charlotte Hannah, of Traverse City, Mich., were married at Hastings today. The bride's father is one of the prominent business men of that town, and reported worth $8,000,000 to $10,000,000. They will make St. Paul their future home. The groom is a son of the late John C. Gardner, a millionaire, and his many friends here extend to him and his favored helpmeet hearty congratulations.

Twenty-Eight Years on the Way.

ALEXANDRIA, Minn., Jan. 25.—Fred von Braunbach, executive secretary of state, was prevented from leaving for St. Paul by mail Sunday morning. The letter written to him by his wife in 1866, and which he had not received until now, twenty-eight years later. It is enclosed in an old-fashioned yellow envelope which bears the cancelling stamp of the mailing office, Eau Claire, Wis., Jan. 2, 1868, clearly impressed on its face in faded blue ink. Over this is stamped St. Peter, Minn., Jan. 19, 1894, and it was received at Alexandria last Saturday morning. The original address was altered to read Alexandria instead of St. Peter, and the two-cent postage stamp affixed by a one-cent stamp of the Columbian issue.

Suits Brought by Sage.

MONTEVIDEO, Minn., Jan. 25.—Suits of $100,000 each have been commenced by Russell Sage against numerous farmers in the northern part of Chippewa county to recover possession of lands that have been occupied for years by farmers who have hoped that the day would come when they could either buy these lands or get them back from the government. The dispute between the Hastings & Dakota Railway company and the United States government has prevented the suits from going either. Now it is proposed to either make a lease with these settlers or eject them. Many actions are pending among those interested, and it is difficult to say what will be the outcome.

A Lake City Wedding.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE. LAKE CITY, Minn., Jan. 25.—William J. INDORSED BY LADY MANAGERS OF THE WORLD'S FAIR!

HOW INDORSED.

More than 150 of them have contributed directly to the Recipe department, these contributions having been secured for this book from every State and Territory in the Union, Alaska not excepted.

More Than 200 Contributors.

Many of the wives of Governors of the different States, and more than sixty other ladies of position and influence have also sent in their contributions of choice and well-tried recipes. Coming as these have from every part of the country, from Alaska to Florida and from Maine to California, they represent every style and phase of cookery of every locality and section of America. We claim without fear of contradiction that we present in the "Home Queen" the grandest aggregation and variety of tried recipes introduced into any cook book extant.

AUTOGRAPH SIGNATURES.

The original signatures of the contributors, with their address and official position, will, in nearly every instance, be found attached to the recipes, which not only attest their genuineness, but add immensely to the taking features of the book. These signatures have been procured, engraved and introduced into the book at considerable labor and expense.

PORTRAITS.

Fine half-tone portraits of nearly one hundred of the Lady Managers of the World's Fair, together with portraits of the wives of the Governors and others occupying leading positions, have been secured, and will add no little to the interest and intrinsic value of the "Home Queen."
