

THE DAILY GLOBE

PUBLISHED EVERY DAY AT THE GLOBE BUILDING, CORNER FOURTH AND CEDAR STREETS. ST. PAUL, MINN.

ST. PAUL GLOBE SUBSCRIPTION RATE Daily (Not including postage) 10c per week in advance, 1.00 in advance, 3.00 in advance, 4.00 in advance, 1.00 per month, 10.00 per year.

WEEKLY ST. PAUL GLOBE For 12 months, 10.00 in advance, 12.00 in advance, 1.00 per month, 10.00 per year.

ADVERTISING OFFICE—Room 517 Temple Court Building, New York. WASHINGTON BUREAU, 143 F ST. N.W.

GOV. MCKINLEY is coming to Minnesota to boom his presidential boom. The Northwest is a coal place to start from.

PERHAPS, as alleged, Secretary Gresham was influenced by a desire for a little notoriety when he surrendered his pension to the government.

THE Behring sea agreement proves to be unsatisfactory both to Canada and the United States, and an effort is being made to secure a better one.

THE bakers' trust does not exist at Marengo, Ill. A dispute among the kneaders has resulted in a run on the market, and the price of bread has been reduced to two cents for a pound loaf.

STEELE MACKAYE, the dramatist and manager, who a few years ago was a millionaire, is lying dangerously ill at Chicago without means with which to procure medical attention.

IT is a gratifying fact that the Michigan returning board frauds find few defenders, even among the Republican newspapers.

THE Minneapolis man who offers for a monetary consideration to produce the man who drove Dr. Cronin to his death on the night of his murder is probably a fraud.

THE New York senate has put a veto upon the scheme of New York city to annex the adjoining cities within a radius of a dozen miles.

PATRICE is one of the prime ministers in a judge. It is probable that Mr. Peckham, if ultimately confirmed as a justice of the supreme court, will have had abundant opportunity to show his direction.

A MOVEMENT is on foot in Great Britain favorable to the payment of salaries to members of parliament.

THE present situation in the country is not a happy one. It is held that the next census will give Chicago a greater population than her seashore rival can boast.

THE Minnesota man who offers for a monetary consideration to produce the man who drove Dr. Cronin to his death on the night of his murder is probably a fraud.

THE New York senate has put a veto upon the scheme of New York city to annex the adjoining cities within a radius of a dozen miles.

PATRICE is one of the prime ministers in a judge. It is probable that Mr. Peckham, if ultimately confirmed as a justice of the supreme court, will have had abundant opportunity to show his direction.

A MOVEMENT is on foot in Great Britain favorable to the payment of salaries to members of parliament.

THE present situation in the country is not a happy one. It is held that the next census will give Chicago a greater population than her seashore rival can boast.

THE Minnesota man who offers for a monetary consideration to produce the man who drove Dr. Cronin to his death on the night of his murder is probably a fraud.

THE New York senate has put a veto upon the scheme of New York city to annex the adjoining cities within a radius of a dozen miles.

PATRICE is one of the prime ministers in a judge. It is probable that Mr. Peckham, if ultimately confirmed as a justice of the supreme court, will have had abundant opportunity to show his direction.

A MOVEMENT is on foot in Great Britain favorable to the payment of salaries to members of parliament.

THE present situation in the country is not a happy one. It is held that the next census will give Chicago a greater population than her seashore rival can boast.

THE Minnesota man who offers for a monetary consideration to produce the man who drove Dr. Cronin to his death on the night of his murder is probably a fraud.

THE New York senate has put a veto upon the scheme of New York city to annex the adjoining cities within a radius of a dozen miles.

PATRICE is one of the prime ministers in a judge. It is probable that Mr. Peckham, if ultimately confirmed as a justice of the supreme court, will have had abundant opportunity to show his direction.

A MOVEMENT is on foot in Great Britain favorable to the payment of salaries to members of parliament.

THE COAL TARIFF.

The provision of the tariff bill that seems likely to arouse the greatest opposition in the senate is that which places coal on the free list. The mining states of Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia declare that the provision will be ruinous to them, and there are also many protest from Indiana, Illinois and Alabama.

Almost every family in the country is a consumer of coal. The removal of the duty on that product means a saving to each household that will amount to six thousand dollars a year—probably about the same for the whole country. To manufacturers and business establishments the saving will be much greater.

It is very evident that the time has fully arrived when concert of action among European governments is necessary for the suppression of anarchy. The "reds" appear to be omnipresent. They make themselves known in places and at times when least expected, and by some wanton murder horrify the world.

It is not surprising that, with such enormous profits at stake, the coal barons are anxious to retain the tariff on bituminous coal. But the honest and patriotic citizen, who is not a devotee of the mine, will stand by the cause of the masses and insist that coal shall be placed upon the free list, there to remain forever.

John Y. McKane, superintendent of the Grand Jury, has been appointed chief of police force, supervisor of the town, manipulator of elections, palmer of registration lists, general political lord proprietor of his duchy, casting his votes as his sweet will listed; a Democrat who has made a name for himself in the jail and died in his bed, is lying in jail awaiting the sentence which will send him to Sing Sing for a period not less than two nor more than ten years.

This man was the typical boss. He has only done what other bosses have done in the cities of the West. He is imbued with the right sense of his duty would always do; and for doing which, each of them, every state in the Union would make a large contribution to the pension upon which every political party would furnish its equal share. He was the better or worse fortune of McKane that he was so situated that he could develop the blossom of bossism in the West.

THE first issue of the Northwestern Chronicle, the organ of the Catholic church in this diocese, under the new management is just out. The editor, John D. O'Brien, promises to live at his salutary to the patrons, but, judging by the character of his work, the promises will be more than fulfilled, and our Catholic citizens, as well as the general public, will be glad to have it.

THE present gubernatorial campaign in Georgia is not a contest between rival political parties as it is between rival religious denominations. The Republican candidate is a Methodist and the Democratic nominee is a Baptist, and the candidates are about equally strong, and the candidates are appearing more to their fellow religionists than to their political associates.

IN THE THEATERS.

Prinzros and West's minstrels are enjoying large patronage at the Metropolitan opera house this week. The excellent performance they are giving this season is one of the very best. They will give but three more performances at the Metropolitan, tonight, tomorrow night and Monday, which will be played at cheap prices.

Last night Robert G. Ingersoll appeared at the Lyceum theatre. His subject was "Abraham Lincoln." The house was packed from top to bottom, and 200 people occupied seats on the floor. Ingersoll's brilliant orator, Sunday night he will appear at the Metropolitan opera house and will present his famous lecture, "Some Mistakes of Moses." Seats and boxes are now on sale at the box office for Mr. Ingersoll's appearance here.

The two milk-wives Andalusians used to draw the diligence in "Panjandrum," which brings DeWolf Hopper and several others of the east in that opera upon the stage, are evidently dissatisfied with their lot. They think they ought to receive more prominence on the programmes, or perhaps they have decided to ask for an increase of salary, together with greater quantities of oats and other kinds of provender. At any rate, both milks struck last Monday in Chicago, and instead of making a triumphant entry to the center of the stage, the general public and his associates were compelled to tumble out of the stage-coach, and walk down to the footlights, after which the milks were led off the stage, wearing a curious and unpleasant look of self-satisfaction.

It is very evident that the time has fully arrived when concert of action among European governments is necessary for the suppression of anarchy. The "reds" appear to be omnipresent. They make themselves known in places and at times when least expected, and by some wanton murder horrify the world.

It is not surprising that, with such enormous profits at stake, the coal barons are anxious to retain the tariff on bituminous coal. But the honest and patriotic citizen, who is not a devotee of the mine, will stand by the cause of the masses and insist that coal shall be placed upon the free list, there to remain forever.

This man was the typical boss. He has only done what other bosses have done in the cities of the West. He is imbued with the right sense of his duty would always do; and for doing which, each of them, every state in the Union would make a large contribution to the pension upon which every political party would furnish its equal share. He was the better or worse fortune of McKane that he was so situated that he could develop the blossom of bossism in the West.

THE first issue of the Northwestern Chronicle, the organ of the Catholic church in this diocese, under the new management is just out. The editor, John D. O'Brien, promises to live at his salutary to the patrons, but, judging by the character of his work, the promises will be more than fulfilled, and our Catholic citizens, as well as the general public, will be glad to have it.

THE present gubernatorial campaign in Georgia is not a contest between rival political parties as it is between rival religious denominations. The Republican candidate is a Methodist and the Democratic nominee is a Baptist, and the candidates are about equally strong, and the candidates are appearing more to their fellow religionists than to their political associates.

BIRCH-BARK BEDE.

Bede's appointment knocks out Judge Nathaniel district attorney. There is no disposition to have the joke become too practical. Taylor's Falls Journal.

Editor J. Adam Bede has at last received his reward for all the mean things he has said about the Republican party. He has been appointed United States marshal in Minnesota. Superior (Wis.) Telegram.

The appointment of J. Adam Bede as United States marshal is the most ridiculous federal appointment ever made in this state. A party which will make such an appointment needs a boss in the worst way. It is safe to say that the Republican party is not responsible for this appointment.

It is very evident that the time has fully arrived when concert of action among European governments is necessary for the suppression of anarchy. The "reds" appear to be omnipresent. They make themselves known in places and at times when least expected, and by some wanton murder horrify the world.

It is not surprising that, with such enormous profits at stake, the coal barons are anxious to retain the tariff on bituminous coal. But the honest and patriotic citizen, who is not a devotee of the mine, will stand by the cause of the masses and insist that coal shall be placed upon the free list, there to remain forever.

This man was the typical boss. He has only done what other bosses have done in the cities of the West. He is imbued with the right sense of his duty would always do; and for doing which, each of them, every state in the Union would make a large contribution to the pension upon which every political party would furnish its equal share. He was the better or worse fortune of McKane that he was so situated that he could develop the blossom of bossism in the West.

THE first issue of the Northwestern Chronicle, the organ of the Catholic church in this diocese, under the new management is just out. The editor, John D. O'Brien, promises to live at his salutary to the patrons, but, judging by the character of his work, the promises will be more than fulfilled, and our Catholic citizens, as well as the general public, will be glad to have it.

THE present gubernatorial campaign in Georgia is not a contest between rival political parties as it is between rival religious denominations. The Republican candidate is a Methodist and the Democratic nominee is a Baptist, and the candidates are about equally strong, and the candidates are appearing more to their fellow religionists than to their political associates.

SILVER MANIA SET-BACK.

DEMOCRATIC SPEECHES IN THE HOUSE AGAINST THE MEASURE. BLAND WANTS DEBATE CLOSED. He Hopes to Secure a Quorum Favorable to His Seigniorage Bill—Hall of Minnesota Opposes It, but Acknowledges That the Treasury Bullion Will Eventually Be Coined.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The debate on the Bland seigniorage bill in the house today was characterized by several Democratic speeches against the measure. Mr. Bland has given up hope of reaching an agreement to close debate by unanimous consent, and tomorrow he will move to close debate. As the opponents of the bill will decline to vote, it will require a quorum of the advocates of the measure to carry it to a vote. Mr. Bland does not expect to secure a quorum tomorrow, but as soon as this lack of a quorum is demonstrated steps will be taken to compel the attendance of absentees, and the measure will be brought to a vote.

There is but little doubt that Mr. Bland will succeed in carrying his bill through the house in a satisfactory and creditable manner. He is a bright, energetic, and he believes, honorable man. He has done his duty, and in every reasonable probability will do it.—Mankato Record.

The appointment of J. Adam Bede as United States marshal is the most ridiculous federal appointment ever made in this state. A party which will make such an appointment needs a boss in the worst way. It is safe to say that the Republican party is not responsible for this appointment.

It is very evident that the time has fully arrived when concert of action among European governments is necessary for the suppression of anarchy. The "reds" appear to be omnipresent. They make themselves known in places and at times when least expected, and by some wanton murder horrify the world.

It is not surprising that, with such enormous profits at stake, the coal barons are anxious to retain the tariff on bituminous coal. But the honest and patriotic citizen, who is not a devotee of the mine, will stand by the cause of the masses and insist that coal shall be placed upon the free list, there to remain forever.

This man was the typical boss. He has only done what other bosses have done in the cities of the West. He is imbued with the right sense of his duty would always do; and for doing which, each of them, every state in the Union would make a large contribution to the pension upon which every political party would furnish its equal share. He was the better or worse fortune of McKane that he was so situated that he could develop the blossom of bossism in the West.

THE first issue of the Northwestern Chronicle, the organ of the Catholic church in this diocese, under the new management is just out. The editor, John D. O'Brien, promises to live at his salutary to the patrons, but, judging by the character of his work, the promises will be more than fulfilled, and our Catholic citizens, as well as the general public, will be glad to have it.

POINTS ABOUT PECKHAM.

Ant-Peckhamites More Confident of the Result than His Friends—They Claim They Have Votes Enough to Put the Brilliant New York Attorney on the Shelf.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—There was some surprise when the senate, after being in executive session for three hours, adjourned at 5:50 this afternoon without taking any action on the Peckham nomination. It had been supposed that one sitting would suffice for the thorough consideration of the subject, and it was not considered probable that either side would ask for an adjournment, or that if it should the other would grant it without vigorous protest. The adjournment appears, however, to have been the result of general agreement, and so little importance was attached to it that not one of half a dozen questioned upon the subject could estimate the vote giving forty-four to the Peckham nomination.

There is but little doubt that Mr. Bland will succeed in carrying his bill through the house in a satisfactory and creditable manner. He is a bright, energetic, and he believes, honorable man. He has done his duty, and in every reasonable probability will do it.—Mankato Record.

It is very evident that the time has fully arrived when concert of action among European governments is necessary for the suppression of anarchy. The "reds" appear to be omnipresent. They make themselves known in places and at times when least expected, and by some wanton murder horrify the world.

It is not surprising that, with such enormous profits at stake, the coal barons are anxious to retain the tariff on bituminous coal. But the honest and patriotic citizen, who is not a devotee of the mine, will stand by the cause of the masses and insist that coal shall be placed upon the free list, there to remain forever.

This man was the typical boss. He has only done what other bosses have done in the cities of the West. He is imbued with the right sense of his duty would always do; and for doing which, each of them, every state in the Union would make a large contribution to the pension upon which every political party would furnish its equal share. He was the better or worse fortune of McKane that he was so situated that he could develop the blossom of bossism in the West.

THE first issue of the Northwestern Chronicle, the organ of the Catholic church in this diocese, under the new management is just out. The editor, John D. O'Brien, promises to live at his salutary to the patrons, but, judging by the character of his work, the promises will be more than fulfilled, and our Catholic citizens, as well as the general public, will be glad to have it.

THE present gubernatorial campaign in Georgia is not a contest between rival political parties as it is between rival religious denominations. The Republican candidate is a Methodist and the Democratic nominee is a Baptist, and the candidates are about equally strong, and the candidates are appearing more to their fellow religionists than to their political associates.

DISPATCH RINK WON.

Two Curling Games in the Allan Black Contest. The curling contest for the Allan Black medal last night, four rinks participated. The make-up of these rinks and their several scores were as follows:

THE curling contest for the Allan Black medal last night, four rinks participated. The make-up of these rinks and their several scores were as follows:

It is very evident that the time has fully arrived when concert of action among European governments is necessary for the suppression of anarchy. The "reds" appear to be omnipresent. They make themselves known in places and at times when least expected, and by some wanton murder horrify the world.

It is not surprising that, with such enormous profits at stake, the coal barons are anxious to retain the tariff on bituminous coal. But the honest and patriotic citizen, who is not a devotee of the mine, will stand by the cause of the masses and insist that coal shall be placed upon the free list, there to remain forever.

This man was the typical boss. He has only done what other bosses have done in the cities of the West. He is imbued with the right sense of his duty would always do; and for doing which, each of them, every state in the Union would make a large contribution to the pension upon which every political party would furnish its equal share. He was the better or worse fortune of McKane that he was so situated that he could develop the blossom of bossism in the West.

THE first issue of the Northwestern Chronicle, the organ of the Catholic church in this diocese, under the new management is just out. The editor, John D. O'Brien, promises to live at his salutary to the patrons, but, judging by the character of his work, the promises will be more than fulfilled, and our Catholic citizens, as well as the general public, will be glad to have it.

THE present gubernatorial campaign in Georgia is not a contest between rival political parties as it is between rival religious denominations. The Republican candidate is a Methodist and the Democratic nominee is a Baptist, and the candidates are about equally strong, and the candidates are appearing more to their fellow religionists than to their political associates.

THE present gubernatorial campaign in Georgia is not a contest between rival political parties as it is between rival religious denominations. The Republican candidate is a Methodist and the Democratic nominee is a Baptist, and the candidates are about equally strong, and the candidates are appearing more to their fellow religionists than to their political associates.

THE SONS TAKE NO ACTION.

THE SONS TAKE NO ACTION. THE SONS TAKE NO ACTION.

THE SONS TAKE NO ACTION. THE SONS TAKE NO ACTION.

THE SONS TAKE NO ACTION. THE SONS TAKE NO ACTION.

THE SONS TAKE NO ACTION. THE SONS TAKE NO ACTION.

THE SONS TAKE NO ACTION. THE SONS TAKE NO ACTION.

THE SONS TAKE NO ACTION. THE SONS TAKE NO ACTION.

THE SONS TAKE NO ACTION. THE SONS TAKE NO ACTION.

THE SONS TAKE NO ACTION. THE SONS TAKE NO ACTION.

COUPON FOR PART FIFTEEN. Of the "Sights and Scenes of the World." Every day this week a coupon for Part Fifteen of the Great Art Gallery which the GLOBE is supplying the public will be printed on this page.

DOES YOUR HUSBAND Use Tobacco? IF SO, HAVE HIM USE CHEW. SMOKE. ANTI-NEUROUS; ANTI-DYSPEPTIC. ONE COUPON AND TEN CENTS. MAGIC CITY! Coupon for Part One. Feb. 16, 1894.