

BLAND IS HAPPY AT LAST.

PASSAGE OF HIS BILL TO COIN THE SILVER SEIGNIORAGE. DECIDED BY A MAJORITY OF 37.

The weary struggle in the House was ended by a silver quorum appearing as soon as the session opened—All amendments offered by opponents were defeated.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The long struggle in the house over the Bland bill for the coinage of the silver seigniorage and the silver bullion of the treasury was ended today by the passage of the bill by a vote of 167 to 130, a majority in favor of the bill of 37. The special order to bring the bill to a vote was adopted by a bare quorum immediately after the house convened. This broke the opposition of the filibusters and they were powerless to do anything further than to place an obstacle in the way of the bill.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The long struggle in the house over the Bland bill for the coinage of the silver seigniorage and the silver bullion of the treasury was ended today by the passage of the bill by a vote of 167 to 130, a majority in favor of the bill of 37. The special order to bring the bill to a vote was adopted by a bare quorum immediately after the house convened.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The long struggle in the house over the Bland bill for the coinage of the silver seigniorage and the silver bullion of the treasury was ended today by the passage of the bill by a vote of 167 to 130, a majority in favor of the bill of 37. The special order to bring the bill to a vote was adopted by a bare quorum immediately after the house convened.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The long struggle in the house over the Bland bill for the coinage of the silver seigniorage and the silver bullion of the treasury was ended today by the passage of the bill by a vote of 167 to 130, a majority in favor of the bill of 37. The special order to bring the bill to a vote was adopted by a bare quorum immediately after the house convened.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The long struggle in the house over the Bland bill for the coinage of the silver seigniorage and the silver bullion of the treasury was ended today by the passage of the bill by a vote of 167 to 130, a majority in favor of the bill of 37. The special order to bring the bill to a vote was adopted by a bare quorum immediately after the house convened.

The speaker sustained the point of order and ruled the amendment out. Mr. Cummings asked if the chair ruled that any amendment looking to the issue of bonds would be ruled out. The chair replied that the ruling was not so broad as that, and Mr. Cummings gave notice that he would offer a second amendment later.

Mr. Cannon (Ill.) then offered as an amendment in lieu of Mr. Strauss' amendment the so-called Windom proposition for bullion redemption at the current market rates of the silver bullion certificates, which was discussed in the Fifty-first congress. It also was ruled out on the ground that it was not germane.

Mr. Abbott offered another amendment to the amendment relating to the coinage of the silver in the treasury. Mr. Bland took the floor in support of his substitute. He explained the second section of his substitute, which was the coinage of the remainder of the bullion in the treasury begun after the coinage of the seigniorage, and a specific proviso was added to the effect that the measure in fact shall be deemed to change all existing law.

Mr. Outhwaite, of Ohio, arguing against the second section of the original bill and the substitute, said that its purpose was to retire the existing treasury notes. There was not gold enough in the treasury to redeem one-third of the outstanding treasury notes, and the coinage of the section would weaken the reserve and inevitably lead to an issue of bonds to replenish it.

Mr. Johnson, of North Dakota, in support of an amendment offered by him, announced that he had absolutely necessary if the declared policy of the government to maintain all classes of our currency at par were to be kept in force. Not to adopt this amendment would be to dishonor the national credit.

Mr. Johnson's amendment offered by him, announced that he had absolutely necessary if the declared policy of the government to maintain all classes of our currency at par were to be kept in force. Not to adopt this amendment would be to dishonor the national credit.

Mr. Johnson's amendment offered by him, announced that he had absolutely necessary if the declared policy of the government to maintain all classes of our currency at par were to be kept in force. Not to adopt this amendment would be to dishonor the national credit.

Mr. Johnson's amendment offered by him, announced that he had absolutely necessary if the declared policy of the government to maintain all classes of our currency at par were to be kept in force. Not to adopt this amendment would be to dishonor the national credit.

AN AWFUL TALE OF MURDER

A WOMAN AND HER CHILD BUTCHERED WITH AN AXE.

JERSEY THE TRAGEDY SCENE. Two Servants Enter the Happy Home of a Rich Farmer and Attempt to Steal His Money—His Wife and Child Killed by the Brutes, After Which He Makes Quick Work of Them.

FRANKLIN PARK, N. J., March 1.—This township of Franklin Park is a lumbering sort of a place, and has been for over a hundred years. In fact, there has been a record of Princeton and Trenton. Not since then has there been any excitement in this little place until this morning.

There was but a slim attendance of Democrats in the senate when that body met today. Among other petitions and resolutions presented was one by Mr. George, of Mississippi, asking for an amendment to the constitution, acknowledging the dependence of the country on Almighty God. Mr. Manderson, of Nebraska, from the committee on rules, introduced a resolution authorizing the secretary of war to investigate the feasibility of using the water power at Great Falls, or Little Falls, in the District of Columbia, for the generation of electricity for lighting the public buildings and the streets of Washington.

Mr. Johnson, of North Dakota, in support of an amendment offered by him, announced that he had absolutely necessary if the declared policy of the government to maintain all classes of our currency at par were to be kept in force. Not to adopt this amendment would be to dishonor the national credit.

Mr. Johnson's amendment offered by him, announced that he had absolutely necessary if the declared policy of the government to maintain all classes of our currency at par were to be kept in force. Not to adopt this amendment would be to dishonor the national credit.

Mr. Johnson's amendment offered by him, announced that he had absolutely necessary if the declared policy of the government to maintain all classes of our currency at par were to be kept in force. Not to adopt this amendment would be to dishonor the national credit.

Mr. Johnson's amendment offered by him, announced that he had absolutely necessary if the declared policy of the government to maintain all classes of our currency at par were to be kept in force. Not to adopt this amendment would be to dishonor the national credit.

GLADSTONE WILL RESIGN.

HE WILL OFFICIALLY NOTIFY THE QUEEN ON SATURDAY.

LORD ROSEBERRY OBJECTED TO. As the Premier of the British Empire—The Grand Old Man Makes a Vigorous Attack on the House of Lords and Receives a Great Ovation—Possibly His Last Speech.

LONDON, March 1.—The Pall Mall Gazette announced in big type that it was definitely settled that Mr. Gladstone would have an audience with the queen on Saturday next, and that he will then officially tender his resignation.

It is added that the public announcement of Mr. Gladstone's retirement from office will almost certainly be made on Monday and that Lord Rosebery will be summoned. In conclusion the Gazette says that there is no present intention of a dissolution of parliament.

Mr. Gladstone's resignation, according to the Pall Mall Gazette, was decided upon at the opening of the year, but the necessary arrangements demanded much consideration, and it has been decided that Mr. Gladstone will retain his seat in the house of commons, but he will not remain a member of the cabinet.

A deputation of extreme Radicals, headed by Mr. Labouchere, waited today upon the Liberal whip, Mr. Hon. Edward Majoribanks, and protested against the idea that Lord Rosebery should be selected to succeed Mr. Gladstone, saying that if the premier were not chosen from among the members of the house of commons they would leave the Liberal party.

Mr. Gladstone's resignation, according to the Pall Mall Gazette, was decided upon at the opening of the year, but the necessary arrangements demanded much consideration, and it has been decided that Mr. Gladstone will retain his seat in the house of commons, but he will not remain a member of the cabinet.

Mr. Gladstone's resignation, according to the Pall Mall Gazette, was decided upon at the opening of the year, but the necessary arrangements demanded much consideration, and it has been decided that Mr. Gladstone will retain his seat in the house of commons, but he will not remain a member of the cabinet.

BOSS M'KANE IN SING SING

HIS MUSTACHE AND FAMOUS IMPERIAL ARE QUICKLY REMOVED. HE DOES A CONVICT'S SUIE. His Gold Watch, Diamond Stud and Buttons Sent Home to His Family—He is Fifty-One Years Old, a Protestant, and Does Not Use Liquor or Tobacco—Some Impressive Scenes.

SING SING, N. Y., March 1.—A large crowd awaited the arrival of the train bearing John Y. McKane to prison. It arrived here at 3:13 p. m. Deputy Sheriff Davidson, of Kings county, was the first to greet the train, and was followed by McKane. Sheriff Butting and Stryker Williamson followed McKane. The crowd cried out: "Here he is!" McKane and his custodians walked to the prison gate, followed by reporters. The gate which was open, was guarded by one of the prison guards, stationed in a tower on the prison walls. McKane and his custodians were promptly admitted, but the reporters were not allowed to enter, and were thus compelled to hasten to the front door of the prison. McKane passed through the prison yard and walked to the office of Warden Durston, accompanied by Sheriff Butting and Stryker Williamson, who is friend of McKane's. Assistant Clerk Westley said: "Is this McKane?" The prisoner replied in a firm voice: "Yes."

Mr. Westlake, another assistant, asked Sheriff Butting if he had the commitment. The sheriff produced it, and handed it to Mr. Westlake, who looked it over and said to McKane: "Your term is six years."

Mr. Westlake then wrote on the document: "The term of six years and ten months commutation." Under this he wrote: "Four years and three months," thus indicating the net limit of McKane's sentence, less the commutation for good conduct.

Mr. Westlake then asked McKane: "Have you any valuables?" He replied: "Yes, but I want to send them home to my family."

Turning around, he said: "Where is Stryker?" Stryker was at hand, and McKane said to him: "Stryker, take these home with you. He then removed his gold watch and diamond ring from his finger, his diamond stud from his shirt, as well as his Imperial and buttons, which he handed to Stryker Williamson, who asked him if he wore a gold collar button. McKane replied: "I wear a gold collar button, but I don't think it worth while to send them home."

Williamson then asked his friend if he had any more valuables. McKane said: "Yes, I have a little with me," and also said he would leave it here. McKane then drew from his pocket a small box, which he handed to the money clerk Westlake. The customary questions were then put to McKane as follows:

Q. What is your name? A. John Y. McKane. Q. How long have you been in Sing Sing? A. I was formerly a builder, but now supervisor of the town of Gravesend for the past ten years. Q. How long have you been in Sing Sing? A. Fifty-one years old. Q. What is your religion? A. Protestant. Q. Where were you born? A. Ireland. Q. Are you married or single? A. I do use liquor or tobacco? A. I use neither. Q. How long has McKane been conducted down stairs by Mr. Westlake, Chief Clerk Cronin locked up McKane's money in the safe, McKane was taken to his cell by Sheriff Butting, accompanied by Sheriff Butting, Deputy Sheriff Davidson and Stryker Williamson. McKane was placed in the barber's chair, and his mustache and imperial, that have formed so distinguished a part of his personal appearance, were quickly shaved. His head was not shaved. He was then given a convict's suit, which he put on himself. The statement that the Alvin Karpis company, with which Mr. McKane had been playing, had disbanded, is untrue. The management say the company is on the road and doing a good business.

JEALOUSY THE CAUSE.

Why McNabb Attempted to Murder an Actress. PITTSBURG, March 1.—Mrs. Louise Redwell, an actress, known as Louise Kellogg, who was shot by E. J. McNabb, the professional baseball pitcher, at the Hotel Eiffel in this city last night, will probably recover. Her condition is still critical, but the physicians are of the opinion that, if no complications set in, she will pull through. The cause of the tragedy was jealousy. It is said that Mrs. Redwell, who had been living with McNabb as his wife, was going to be married to Alvin Karpis, who had been playing, had disbanded, is untrue. The management say the company is on the road and doing a good business.

MOUNT VERNON, O., March 1.—It is believed here that Edward McNabb, the ball player, who shot his mistress and himself at Pittsburgh last night, premeditated the deed before leaving early this week. The day before he left he bought a revolver and had it loaded. He was very despondent over his health, and confessed it he became convinced that he had consummated he would kill himself.

Solomon Deutsch Dead. NEW YORK, March 1.—Solomon Deutsch dropped dead about 11 a. m. today. He was the father of "Billy" Deutsch, who died recently in Denver, Cal.

THE HOUSE OF LORDS. amendments to the local government bill be considered. Mr. Gladstone's bill addressed the house, speaking in a full, resonant voice, which was generally marked by the greatest earnestness. In spite of this slight hesitancy, Mr. Gladstone spoke throughout with the energy and vigor of a man who was determined to win. During the course of his speech, he reviewed the operations of the government since the last election, and reviewed the operations of the government since the last election, and reviewed the operations of the government since the last election.

Mr. Gladstone's resignation, according to the Pall Mall Gazette, was decided upon at the opening of the year, but the necessary arrangements demanded much consideration, and it has been decided that Mr. Gladstone will retain his seat in the house of commons, but he will not remain a member of the cabinet.

Mr. Gladstone's resignation, according to the Pall Mall Gazette, was decided upon at the opening of the year, but the necessary arrangements demanded much consideration, and it has been decided that Mr. Gladstone will retain his seat in the house of commons, but he will not remain a member of the cabinet.

Mr. Gladstone's resignation, according to the Pall Mall Gazette, was decided upon at the opening of the year, but the necessary arrangements demanded much consideration, and it has been decided that Mr. Gladstone will retain his seat in the house of commons, but he will not remain a member of the cabinet.

Mr. Gladstone's resignation, according to the Pall Mall Gazette, was decided upon at the opening of the year, but the necessary arrangements demanded much consideration, and it has been decided that Mr. Gladstone will retain his seat in the house of commons, but he will not remain a member of the cabinet.

COUPON FOR PART SEVENTEEN

Of the "Sights and Scenes of the World."

Every day this week a coupon for Part Seventeen of the Great Art Gallery which the Globe is supplying the public will be printed on this page. Any three of the coupons, with ten cents, secure you Part Seventeen.

If you want back numbers prior to Part Seventeen send one extra coupon for this week and fifteen cents, or twenty cents without any coupon.

Orders by mail are subject to delay of a week or ten days, as the parts are mailed by the Eastern publishers.

Sights and Scenes of the World. PART 17 MARCH 2, 1894. Date Changed Every Day.

Cut this Coupon out and keep it until three of different dates are accumulated, then forward them, together with

Ten cents in silver or a similar amount in one or two-cent postage stamps.

Address Coupon Department, St. Paul Globe, St. Paul, Minn., and you will receive the elegant portfolio of photographs as advertised. See our advertisement today on page 5. (CUT THIS OUT.)

LOCHREN WILL REDUCE IT.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Commissioner Lochren today sent Judge Loug, of the Michigan supreme court, a second and formal notice that unless within thirty days he establishes by additional evidence his right to his present pension, his pension will be reduced to $50 a month. This is in accordance with Judge Cox's decision yesterday.

NEW POSTMASTERS. Special to the Globe. WASHINGTON, March 1.—Postal appointments—Clyde, T. B. Clawson, vice H. D. Taylor, resigned; Hardwick, E. H. Aldrich, vice John Otterson, removed; Prairie Junction, Barbara Readle, vice G. C. Cooper, resigned; Tainton, E. H. Jersens, vice E. W. Smith, removed; J. B. Smith, appointed examining surgeon at Wabasha.

PENSIONS GRANTED. Special to the Globe. WASHINGTON, March 1.—Pensions Granted—Original, Augustus A. Sanford, Minn.; reissue, Henry G. Platt, Decatur, Ala.; reissue and new, Basil O. Donald, deceased, Marshall; original widow, Anjant L. Pratt, Austin; Isadore McCoy, Winona.

LOCHREN WILL REDUCE IT. WASHINGTON, March 1.—Commissioner Lochren today sent Judge Loug, of the Michigan supreme court, a second and formal notice that unless within thirty days he establishes by additional evidence his right to his present pension, his pension will be reduced to $50 a month. This is in accordance with Judge Cox's decision yesterday.

NEW POSTMASTERS. Special to the Globe. WASHINGTON, March 1.—Postal appointments—Clyde, T. B. Clawson, vice H. D. Taylor, resigned; Hardwick, E. H. Aldrich, vice John Otterson, removed; Prairie Junction, Barbara Readle, vice G. C. Cooper, resigned; Tainton, E. H. Jersens, vice E. W. Smith, removed; J. B. Smith, appointed examining surgeon at Wabasha.

PENSIONS GRANTED. Special to the Globe. WASHINGTON, March 1.—Pensions Granted—Original, Augustus A. Sanford, Minn.; reissue, Henry G. Platt, Decatur, Ala.; reissue and new, Basil O. Donald, deceased, Marshall; original widow, Anjant L. Pratt, Austin; Isadore McCoy, Winona.

LOCHREN WILL REDUCE IT. WASHINGTON, March 1.—Commissioner Lochren today sent Judge Loug, of the Michigan supreme court, a second and formal notice that unless within thirty days he establishes by additional evidence his right to his present pension, his pension will be reduced to $50 a month. This is in accordance with Judge Cox's decision yesterday.

NEW POSTMASTERS. Special to the Globe. WASHINGTON, March 1.—Postal appointments—Clyde, T. B. Clawson, vice H. D. Taylor, resigned; Hardwick, E. H. Aldrich, vice John Otterson, removed; Prairie Junction, Barbara Readle, vice G. C. Cooper, resigned; Tainton, E. H. Jersens, vice E. W. Smith, removed; J. B. Smith, appointed examining surgeon at Wabasha.