

SAINT PAUL.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Diphtheria at 15 Viola street was reported at the health office yesterday.

"Why So Ostratane?" is the subject of Rabbi Hess' lecture at 7:30 this evening.

The internal revenue collections for February in the Minneapolis district amounted to $216,252.47.

A meeting of the Fourth Ward Democratic club will be held at 8 o'clock this evening in the New York Life building.

John H. Irish, a deputy sheriff, was yesterday presented with a gold watch by his family as a reminder of his forty-seventh birthday.

The date for the coming to this city of Hon. J. M. Rice, of New York, to deliver a lecture on an educational subject, has been fixed for March 19.

Mrs. W. H. Thurston and Mrs. E. K. Wedelstedt gave a progressive evening party to about fifty people at the Ryan last night, which proved an enjoyable affair.

The calico masquerade and benefit at the Ramsey skating rink, corner West Seventh and Friday streets, will be postponed to Friday evening on account of the weather.

Supervising Inspector of Steam Vessels John D. Sloane has returned from Washington, where he has been two months in the interest of business connected with his office.

At the residence of Mrs. D. S. B. Johnson, 5615 Holly street, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the First M. E. Church will hold its regular meeting.

The third of the lectures in the Sunday school training series will be given in the Central Presbyterian church this evening by Prof. Pearson. Subject: "The Teacher as an Instructor." Admission free. All invited.

The report of the clerk of the municipal court for February shows $1,957.50 collected for fines and fees. Of the amount $1,731 was from criminal and $226.50 from civil cases. During the corresponding month last year $2,517 was collected.

John Smith, proprietor of a saloon at 445 St. Peter street, was in the police court yesterday, charged with keeping his saloon open after midnight. The case was continued to Monday next, and the defendant released on his own recognizance.

The weather bureau predicts that the thaw will continue a day or two longer at least. Some of the goosebump-prophets are prolific with assertions that winter is over. However, experienced meteorologists are generally silent on the subject. Old Boreas may revive and stay with us a month or two longer.

The board of public works yesterday confirmed the assessment for grading Jenks street from Mississippi to Earl. The reassessment for grading Third street from Commercial to Maple was adjourned to March 22. The Phalen and Ridgewood park matters were also adjourned for one week.

Puff paste, oyster patties, Richmond mounds of honor, puffed with fruit soufflé and sorbet will form the topic of an interesting lesson given by Miss Thompson this morning at 10:30 at the rooms of the Women's Friendly association, corner Seventh and Jackson streets.

The trustees of the Seabury mission gathered at the Merchants' yesterday, and considered the disposition of certain bonds of the Fairbank institution. As this mission expects to erect new buildings the coming season, the plans for the same were examined. Further than this there was nothing of public importance.

Money deposited in our State Savings Bank, Germania Life Ins. Co., 414 Henn. Minn. st., or on before March 31, will be entitled to 4 mos. interest—July 1, 1934.

DISTRICT COURT.

Judge Otis and a jury are still engaged in trying the suit of John C. Battle against Alex. Leonard.

Louis C. Walsh has begun an action against Jesse R. Barton and others to foreclose a mortgage for $1,500.

The St. Paul Roofing and Corning company, insolvent, has been ordered showing assets to be $11,678.02, and liabilities $21,371.94.

The $24,000 personal injury case of J. P. Muntz against the St. Paul & Northern Railway Company is still on trial in Judge Brill's court.

Judge Egan's jury is still engaged with the appeal of Mary Walter et al. in the matter of the estate of John Schorff, deceased.

Auten Busch did not succeed in recovering on his $250 promissory note against Frank Gaertner. On the contrary Gaertner was given a verdict for $265.37.

The St. Paul Marine Insurance company has garnished the effects of the Columbia Insurance company in the hands of George K. Lewis & Co. to satisfy a demand for $315.78.

In the case of Annie Funk, as administratrix, against the St. Paul City Railway Company, the jury disagreed and was discharged. This was a suit for $5,000 for the negligent killing of Henry Funk by a cable car at the corner of Broadway and Seventh streets.

The administrators of the estate of Anna Handseth Hansen have sued Therell, administrator of the estate of Christian H. Bergstrom, and also Peter Christopherson and Ingebrod B. Linstad, the trustees on his bond as administrator, to recover $28,272.02. It is claimed that Wilson converted to his own use part of the estate of Bergstrom.

The Modern Invalid
Has tastes medicinally, in keeping with other luxuries. A remedy must be pleasantly acceptable in form, purely wholesome in composition, and beneficial in effect and entirely free from every objectionable quality. If really ill he consults a physician. If constipated he uses the gentle family laxative Syrup of Figs.

P. T.

WAGNER
7 CORNERS GROCERY!
Things Nice to Eat at
LOW PRICES

5-lb. jar nice table butter,
$1.00.

XXX Soda Crackers, per lb.,
5 CENTS.

XXX Oyster Crackers, per lb.,
5 CENTS.

XXX Ginger Snaps, per lb.,
5 CENTS.

Nice Florida Oranges, per dozen,
15 CENTS.

Good Family Flour, per sack,
$1.50.

Wagner's Best Flour, per sack,
$1.90.

WAGNER'S, 7 Corners!

DEMOCRATS ORGANIZING.

SEVERAL ROUSING CLUB MEETINGS HELD LAST NIGHT.

BURNS WITHDRAWS HIS NAME.

And a Motion to Indorse Robert A. Smith for Mayor Carries With Enthusiasm—Eighth Ward Dems. Indorse O. O. Cullen—Hebrew Ninth Ward Club Indorses Pavior for Assembly, Smith for Mayor, Cory and Twoby for Judges, and Conly for Alderman—Fifth Ward Democrats Start a Big Club—Business All Along the Line.

The Ramsey County Democracy association held a regular meeting last night at Turner hall. The meeting was held in the large hall owing to the fact that the reception rooms were occupied by the Harmonia Singing society, and the larger hall was necessary to accommodate the members of the club and the visitors. There were nearly 300 present in all. C. J. Meilicke, the president, was in his chair, and Secretary C. G. Hinebaugh was at his table. The members of the club present embraced gentlemen from various wards of the city. Resolutions adopted by the club were: That the club should be organized to hold five primaries and keep the polls open between 5 and 8 o'clock p. m., were read and filed for future discussion. This was done after an extended debate, participated in by Henry Kuehne, H. C. McCarty, P. D. Scannell, William Johnson and others.

When the head of "new business" was reached James H. Burns made a speech in which he said that when the club was organized three months ago it was ridiculed by some people. During the corresponding month last year $2,517 was collected.

John Smith, proprietor of a saloon at 445 St. Peter street, was in the police court yesterday, charged with keeping his saloon open after midnight. The case was continued to Monday next, and the defendant released on his own recognizance.

The weather bureau predicts that the thaw will continue a day or two longer at least. Some of the goosebump-prophets are prolific with assertions that winter is over. However, experienced meteorologists are generally silent on the subject. Old Boreas may revive and stay with us a month or two longer.

The board of public works yesterday confirmed the assessment for grading Jenks street from Mississippi to Earl. The reassessment for grading Third street from Commercial to Maple was adjourned to March 22. The Phalen and Ridgewood park matters were also adjourned for one week.

Puff paste, oyster patties, Richmond mounds of honor, puffed with fruit soufflé and sorbet will form the topic of an interesting lesson given by Miss Thompson this morning at 10:30 at the rooms of the Women's Friendly association, corner Seventh and Jackson streets.

The trustees of the Seabury mission gathered at the Merchants' yesterday, and considered the disposition of certain bonds of the Fairbank institution. As this mission expects to erect new buildings the coming season, the plans for the same were examined. Further than this there was nothing of public importance.

Money deposited in our State Savings Bank, Germania Life Ins. Co., 414 Henn. Minn. st., or on before March 31, will be entitled to 4 mos. interest—July 1, 1934.

DISTRICT COURT.

Judge Otis and a jury are still engaged in trying the suit of John C. Battle against Alex. Leonard.

Louis C. Walsh has begun an action against Jesse R. Barton and others to foreclose a mortgage for $1,500.

The St. Paul Roofing and Corning company, insolvent, has been ordered showing assets to be $11,678.02, and liabilities $21,371.94.

The $24,000 personal injury case of J. P. Muntz against the St. Paul & Northern Railway Company is still on trial in Judge Brill's court.

Judge Egan's jury is still engaged with the appeal of Mary Walter et al. in the matter of the estate of John Schorff, deceased.

Auten Busch did not succeed in recovering on his $250 promissory note against Frank Gaertner. On the contrary Gaertner was given a verdict for $265.37.

The St. Paul Marine Insurance company has garnished the effects of the Columbia Insurance company in the hands of George K. Lewis & Co. to satisfy a demand for $315.78.

In the case of Annie Funk, as administratrix, against the St. Paul City Railway Company, the jury disagreed and was discharged. This was a suit for $5,000 for the negligent killing of Henry Funk by a cable car at the corner of Broadway and Seventh streets.

The administrators of the estate of Anna Handseth Hansen have sued Therell, administrator of the estate of Christian H. Bergstrom, and also Peter Christopherson and Ingebrod B. Linstad, the trustees on his bond as administrator, to recover $28,272.02. It is claimed that Wilson converted to his own use part of the estate of Bergstrom.

The Modern Invalid
Has tastes medicinally, in keeping with other luxuries. A remedy must be pleasantly acceptable in form, purely wholesome in composition, and beneficial in effect and entirely free from every objectionable quality. If really ill he consults a physician. If constipated he uses the gentle family laxative Syrup of Figs.

P. T.

WAGNER
7 CORNERS GROCERY!
Things Nice to Eat at
LOW PRICES

5-lb. jar nice table butter,
$1.00.

XXX Soda Crackers, per lb.,
5 CENTS.

XXX Oyster Crackers, per lb.,
5 CENTS.

XXX Ginger Snaps, per lb.,
5 CENTS.

Nice Florida Oranges, per dozen,
15 CENTS.

Good Family Flour, per sack,
$1.50.

Wagner's Best Flour, per sack,
$1.90.

WAGNER'S, 7 Corners!

DEMOCRATS ORGANIZING.

SEVERAL ROUSING CLUB MEETINGS HELD LAST NIGHT.

BURNS WITHDRAWS HIS NAME.

And a Motion to Indorse Robert A. Smith for Mayor Carries With Enthusiasm—Eighth Ward Dems. Indorse O. O. Cullen—Hebrew Ninth Ward Club Indorses Pavior for Assembly, Smith for Mayor, Cory and Twoby for Judges, and Conly for Alderman—Fifth Ward Democrats Start a Big Club—Business All Along the Line.

The Ramsey County Democracy association held a regular meeting last night at Turner hall. The meeting was held in the large hall owing to the fact that the reception rooms were occupied by the Harmonia Singing society, and the larger hall was necessary to accommodate the members of the club and the visitors. There were nearly 300 present in all. C. J. Meilicke, the president, was in his chair, and Secretary C. G. Hinebaugh was at his table. The members of the club present embraced gentlemen from various wards of the city. Resolutions adopted by the club were: That the club should be organized to hold five primaries and keep the polls open between 5 and 8 o'clock p. m., were read and filed for future discussion. This was done after an extended debate, participated in by Henry Kuehne, H. C. McCarty, P. D. Scannell, William Johnson and others.

When the head of "new business" was reached James H. Burns made a speech in which he said that when the club was organized three months ago it was ridiculed by some people. During the corresponding month last year $2,517 was collected.

John Smith, proprietor of a saloon at 445 St. Peter street, was in the police court yesterday, charged with keeping his saloon open after midnight. The case was continued to Monday next, and the defendant released on his own recognizance.

The weather bureau predicts that the thaw will continue a day or two longer at least. Some of the goosebump-prophets are prolific with assertions that winter is over. However, experienced meteorologists are generally silent on the subject. Old Boreas may revive and stay with us a month or two longer.

The board of public works yesterday confirmed the assessment for grading Jenks street from Mississippi to Earl. The reassessment for grading Third street from Commercial to Maple was adjourned to March 22. The Phalen and Ridgewood park matters were also adjourned for one week.

Puff paste, oyster patties, Richmond mounds of honor, puffed with fruit soufflé and sorbet will form the topic of an interesting lesson given by Miss Thompson this morning at 10:30 at the rooms of the Women's Friendly association, corner Seventh and Jackson streets.

The trustees of the Seabury mission gathered at the Merchants' yesterday, and considered the disposition of certain bonds of the Fairbank institution. As this mission expects to erect new buildings the coming season, the plans for the same were examined. Further than this there was nothing of public importance.

Money deposited in our State Savings Bank, Germania Life Ins. Co., 414 Henn. Minn. st., or on before March 31, will be entitled to 4 mos. interest—July 1, 1934.

DISTRICT COURT.

Judge Otis and a jury are still engaged in trying the suit of John C. Battle against Alex. Leonard.

Louis C. Walsh has begun an action against Jesse R. Barton and others to foreclose a mortgage for $1,500.

The St. Paul Roofing and Corning company, insolvent, has been ordered showing assets to be $11,678.02, and liabilities $21,371.94.

The $24,000 personal injury case of J. P. Muntz against the St. Paul & Northern Railway Company is still on trial in Judge Brill's court.

Judge Egan's jury is still engaged with the appeal of Mary Walter et al. in the matter of the estate of John Schorff, deceased.

Auten Busch did not succeed in recovering on his $250 promissory note against Frank Gaertner. On the contrary Gaertner was given a verdict for $265.37.

The St. Paul Marine Insurance company has garnished the effects of the Columbia Insurance company in the hands of George K. Lewis & Co. to satisfy a demand for $315.78.

In the case of Annie Funk, as administratrix, against the St. Paul City Railway Company, the jury disagreed and was discharged. This was a suit for $5,000 for the negligent killing of Henry Funk by a cable car at the corner of Broadway and Seventh streets.

The administrators of the estate of Anna Handseth Hansen have sued Therell, administrator of the estate of Christian H. Bergstrom, and also Peter Christopherson and Ingebrod B. Linstad, the trustees on his bond as administrator, to recover $28,272.02. It is claimed that Wilson converted to his own use part of the estate of Bergstrom.

The Modern Invalid
Has tastes medicinally, in keeping with other luxuries. A remedy must be pleasantly acceptable in form, purely wholesome in composition, and beneficial in effect and entirely free from every objectionable quality. If really ill he consults a physician. If constipated he uses the gentle family laxative Syrup of Figs.

P. T.

WAGNER
7 CORNERS GROCERY!
Things Nice to Eat at
LOW PRICES

5-lb. jar nice table butter,
$1.00.

XXX Soda Crackers, per lb.,
5 CENTS.

XXX Oyster Crackers, per lb.,
5 CENTS.

XXX Ginger Snaps, per lb.,
5 CENTS.

Nice Florida Oranges, per dozen,
15 CENTS.

Good Family Flour, per sack,
$1.50.

Wagner's Best Flour, per sack,
$1.90.

WAGNER'S, 7 Corners!

DEMOCRATS ORGANIZING.

SEVERAL ROUSING CLUB MEETINGS HELD LAST NIGHT.

BURNS WITHDRAWS HIS NAME.

And a Motion to Indorse Robert A. Smith for Mayor Carries With Enthusiasm—Eighth Ward Dems. Indorse O. O. Cullen—Hebrew Ninth Ward Club Indorses Pavior for Assembly, Smith for Mayor, Cory and Twoby for Judges, and Conly for Alderman—Fifth Ward Democrats Start a Big Club—Business All Along the Line.

The Ramsey County Democracy association held a regular meeting last night at Turner hall. The meeting was held in the large hall owing to the fact that the reception rooms were occupied by the Harmonia Singing society, and the larger hall was necessary to accommodate the members of the club and the visitors. There were nearly 300 present in all. C. J. Meilicke, the president, was in his chair, and Secretary C. G. Hinebaugh was at his table. The members of the club present embraced gentlemen from various wards of the city. Resolutions adopted by the club were: That the club should be organized to hold five primaries and keep the polls open between 5 and 8 o'clock p. m., were read and filed for future discussion. This was done after an extended debate, participated in by Henry Kuehne, H. C. McCarty, P. D. Scannell, William Johnson and others.

When the head of "new business" was reached James H. Burns made a speech in which he said that when the club was organized three months ago it was ridiculed by some people. During the corresponding month last year $2,517 was collected.

John Smith, proprietor of a saloon at 445 St. Peter street, was in the police court yesterday, charged with keeping his saloon open after midnight. The case was continued to Monday next, and the defendant released on his own recognizance.

The weather bureau predicts that the thaw will continue a day or two longer at least. Some of the goosebump-prophets are prolific with assertions that winter is over. However, experienced meteorologists are generally silent on the subject. Old Boreas may revive and stay with us a month or two longer.

The board of public works yesterday confirmed the assessment for grading Jenks street from Mississippi to Earl. The reassessment for grading Third street from Commercial to Maple was adjourned to March 22. The Phalen and Ridgewood park matters were also adjourned for one week.

Puff paste, oyster patties, Richmond mounds of honor, puffed with fruit soufflé and sorbet will form the topic of an interesting lesson given by Miss Thompson this morning at 10:30 at the rooms of the Women's Friendly association, corner Seventh and Jackson streets.

The trustees of the Seabury mission gathered at the Merchants' yesterday, and considered the disposition of certain bonds of the Fairbank institution. As this mission expects to erect new buildings the coming season, the plans for the same were examined. Further than this there was nothing of public importance.

Money deposited in our State Savings Bank, Germania Life Ins. Co., 414 Henn. Minn. st., or on before March 31, will be entitled to 4 mos. interest—July 1, 1934.

DISTRICT COURT.

Judge Otis and a jury are still engaged in trying the suit of John C. Battle against Alex. Leonard.

Louis C. Walsh has begun an action against Jesse R. Barton and others to foreclose a mortgage for $1,500.

The St. Paul Roofing and Corning company, insolvent, has been ordered showing assets to be $11,678.02, and liabilities $21,371.94.

The $24,000 personal injury case of J. P. Muntz against the St. Paul & Northern Railway Company is still on trial in Judge Brill's court.

Judge Egan's jury is still engaged with the appeal of Mary Walter et al. in the matter of the estate of John Schorff, deceased.

Auten Busch did not succeed in recovering on his $250 promissory note against Frank Gaertner. On the contrary Gaertner was given a verdict for $265.37.

The St. Paul Marine Insurance company has garnished the effects of the Columbia Insurance company in the hands of George K. Lewis & Co. to satisfy a demand for $315.78.

In the case of Annie Funk, as administratrix, against the St. Paul City Railway Company, the jury disagreed and was discharged. This was a suit for $5,000 for the negligent killing of Henry Funk by a cable car at the corner of Broadway and Seventh streets.

The administrators of the estate of Anna Handseth Hansen have sued Therell, administrator of the estate of Christian H. Bergstrom, and also Peter Christopherson and Ingebrod B. Linstad, the trustees on his bond as administrator, to recover $28,272.02. It is claimed that Wilson converted to his own use part of the estate of Bergstrom.

The Modern Invalid
Has tastes medicinally, in keeping with other luxuries. A remedy must be pleasantly acceptable in form, purely wholesome in composition, and beneficial in effect and entirely free from every objectionable quality. If really ill he consults a physician. If constipated he uses the gentle family laxative Syrup of Figs.

P. T.

WAGNER
7 CORNERS GROCERY!
Things Nice to Eat at
LOW PRICES

5-lb. jar nice table butter,
$1.00.

XXX Soda Crackers, per lb.,
5 CENTS.

XXX Oyster Crackers, per lb.,
5 CENTS.

XXX Ginger Snaps, per lb.,
5 CENTS.

Nice Florida Oranges, per dozen,
15 CENTS.

Good Family Flour, per sack,
$1.50.

Wagner's Best Flour, per sack,
$1.90.

WAGNER'S, 7 Corners!

DEMOCRATS ORGANIZING.

SEVERAL ROUSING CLUB MEETINGS HELD LAST NIGHT.

BURNS WITHDRAWS HIS NAME.

And a Motion to Indorse Robert A. Smith for Mayor Carries With Enthusiasm—Eighth Ward Dems. Indorse O. O. Cullen—Hebrew Ninth Ward Club Indorses Pavior for Assembly, Smith for Mayor, Cory and Twoby for Judges, and Conly for Alderman—Fifth Ward Democrats Start a Big Club—Business All Along the Line.

The Ramsey County Democracy association held a regular meeting last night at Turner hall. The meeting was held in the large hall owing to the fact that the reception rooms were occupied by the Harmonia Singing society, and the larger hall was necessary to accommodate the members of the club and the visitors. There were nearly 300 present in all. C. J. Meilicke, the president, was in his chair, and Secretary C. G. Hinebaugh was at his table. The members of the club present embraced gentlemen from various wards of the city. Resolutions adopted by the club were: That the club should be organized to hold five primaries and keep the polls open between 5 and 8 o'clock p. m., were read and filed for future discussion. This was done after an extended debate, participated in by Henry Kuehne, H. C. McCarty, P. D. Scannell, William Johnson and others.

When the head of "new business" was reached James H. Burns made a speech in which he said that when the club was organized three months ago it was ridiculed by some people. During the corresponding month last year $2,517 was collected.

John Smith, proprietor of a saloon at 445 St. Peter street, was in the police court yesterday, charged with keeping his saloon open after midnight. The case was continued to Monday next, and the defendant released on his own recognizance.

The weather bureau predicts that the thaw will continue a day or two longer at least. Some of the goosebump-prophets are prolific with assertions that winter is over. However, experienced meteorologists are generally silent on the subject. Old Boreas may revive and stay with us a month or two longer.

The board of public works yesterday confirmed the assessment for grading Jenks street from Mississippi to Earl. The reassessment for grading Third street from Commercial to Maple was adjourned to March 22. The Phalen and Ridgewood park matters were also adjourned for one week.

Puff paste, oyster patties, Richmond mounds of honor, puffed with fruit soufflé and sorbet will form the topic of an interesting lesson given by Miss Thompson this morning at 10:30 at the rooms of the Women's Friendly association, corner Seventh and Jackson streets.

The trustees of the Seabury mission gathered at the Merchants' yesterday, and considered the disposition of certain bonds of the Fairbank institution. As this mission expects to erect new buildings the coming season, the plans for the same were examined. Further than this there was nothing of public importance.

Money deposited in our State Savings Bank, Germania Life Ins. Co., 414 Henn. Minn. st., or on before March 31, will be entitled to 4 mos. interest—July 1, 1934.

DISTRICT COURT.

Judge Otis and a jury are still engaged in trying the suit of John C. Battle against Alex. Leonard.

Louis C. Walsh has begun an action against Jesse R. Barton and others to foreclose a mortgage for $1,500.

The St. Paul Roofing and Corning company, insolvent, has been ordered showing assets to be $11,678.02, and liabilities $21,371.94.

The $24,000 personal injury case of J. P. Muntz against the St. Paul & Northern Railway Company is still on trial in Judge Brill's court.

Judge Egan's jury is still engaged with the appeal of Mary Walter et al. in the matter of the estate of John Schorff, deceased.

Auten Busch did not succeed in recovering on his $250 promissory note against Frank Gaertner. On the contrary Gaertner was given a verdict for $265.37.

The St. Paul Marine Insurance company has garnished the effects of the Columbia Insurance company in the hands of George K. Lewis & Co. to satisfy a demand for $315.78.

In the case of Annie Funk, as administratrix, against the St. Paul City Railway Company, the jury disagreed and was discharged. This was a suit for $5,000 for the negligent killing of Henry Funk by a cable car at the corner of Broadway and Seventh streets.

The administrators of the estate of Anna Handseth Hansen have sued Therell, administrator of the estate of Christian H. Bergstrom, and also Peter Christopherson and Ingebrod B. Linstad, the trustees on his bond as administrator, to recover $28,272.02. It is claimed that Wilson converted to his own use part of the estate of Bergstrom.

The Modern Invalid
Has tastes medicinally, in keeping with other luxuries. A remedy must be pleasantly acceptable