AMORT TOURNEY ROUND-UP.

The Summits are still at the head of the Foley bowling club, and have won seven straight games, with never a defeat. The Monitors and Vigilantes have "thrown up the sponge," which has necessitated some changes. The Summits are now divided into two teams, as are also the Gophers. During the week four tournament games were played, and so far as heard from, Tom Foley has lost any more hats. The Henriettas were thus defeated by the Gophers, the Summits No. 2 and Gophers No. 2 yielded to the Daytonians and the Broadways proved victors in their contest with the Lafayette team. In the badge games the following exceeded the 900 mark:

- Summits—Hastings, 246; Mugley, 258; Laddard, 292; Schafer, 293; Clayton, 294; Bowers, 295; Tubbing, 297; Whinney, 292; Frost, 292. St. Pauls—Mapple, 235; Newhart, 237; Heitzman, 237; H. The Amort tournament was brought to a close with Friday night's game, though the tie for first place is still unsettled. A week from next Wednesday night this matter will be decided. Some of the Amort bowlers have made exceptionally good scores individually. Among these were Hernes, Kegels, 267; Danier, North Stars, 265; A. Heck, Capito's, 254; Johnston, Owls, 238; Hartman, 235; Palmer, Columbus, 237; Danier scored the highest average—210.1. The standing of the several clubs is shown by the following table:

FOLEY GETS THERE.

Makes 200 to 150 Billiards for Glaskin. Again has T. P. Foley verified the expectations of his friends. In the tournament game last night at the Hotel Metropolitan billiard room there was an appreciative audience gathered to witness the contest between Foley and Glaskin. Foley entered at 200 and Glaskin at 150. It was a pretty game from start to finish, and developed some surprises. Glaskin took the lead, and when the game was more than half over it looked like a walkover for him. Here it was that Foley took a spurt. Glaskin at the time was 51 points ahead. Foley did some very efficient work, and made four doubles that decided which way the wind was blowing. The buttons bunched up on the wire with such runs as 24, 30, 14 and 10. Glaskin made one double of 21 also, and after 10 of the score at the finish showed Foley the winner in a score of 200 to 150, actual.

THE MAJOR AND GROVER.

CONGRESSMAN BALDWIN INTERVIEWS THE PRESIDENT

ON MINNESOTA APPOINTMENTS.

District Attorneyship to Be Settled Some Time During the Week—McCaffery's Chances Good—Field's Prospects for Revenue Collector Good—Gresham and Chinese Treaty.

Special to the Globe.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Maj. Baldwin visited the president today and introduced Mr. Warren, of Mankato, who desires to go as usual to Chihuahua, Mexico. It is learned that the president did not put the skies roseate with lines of hope for Mr. Warren. The president incidentally said to Mr. Baldwin that a pressure of matters had prevented him from considering the subject of the district attorneyship for Minnesota, but he hoped to get that subject finally off his mind and table some time next week. Those Minnesotans best informed claim that McCaffery's appointment has been determined upon, but Maj. Baldwin declined to say whether or not the president intended who would be the lucky man in the round-up. Mr. Field feels hurt at an item in the Minneapolis department of GLOBE last Thursday, claiming he has not been an active Democrat. He says he was a member of the Fifth district congressional committee during the last campaign, and for seven or eight years contributed both time and money to Democratic success in Minnesota. His friends here still claim that his chances of being internal revenue collector are excellent. Recommendations in his behalf from prominent Democrats in St. Paul and Minneapolis are now arriving in large numbers. Maj. Baldwin has not yet raised the embargo on the name of Emil O'Hara, collector of the port of Duluth. He will take action there next week.

Nobody quite understands why the St. Cloud land office is not filed. The appointment has long been conceded to Mr. Doran's man, but still the movement is not made.

GRESHAM IS ANXIOUS.

To Perfect the Chinese Treaty Before Retirement.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Touching the new treaty which has been negotiated between the government of this country and China, it is learned that for several years past the Chinese government has been earnestly pressing upon our government the desirability of such an agreement. It has represented that while the Chinese empire was desirous of maintaining friendly relations with the United States, it would be difficult to do so in the present spirit of the Chinese. If some concession was not made, it has also complained that the Scott and Geary laws were in contravention of the treaties heretofore negotiated.

The present treaty is generally considered the forerunner of a commercial treaty, the draft of which is believed to have been made and forwarded to China for inspection of the Chinese government. Secretary Gresham is known to be anxious to signalize his administration by the ratification of such a treaty.

Miss June Jenks is spending a few days in St. Paul with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buck. Mrs. W. C. Bronson Jr. entertained Mr. Lewis, of Minneapolis, the first part of the week. Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Tubbs have returned from Grand Rapids, Mich., where they spent the winter.

ONLY IN AMERICA.

Corbett Will Fight on No Other Soil.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 24.—James J. Corbett, the world's champion, appeared before one of the largest audiences which has ever filled the Auditorium tonight, and his reception was in the nature of an ovation. After the performance he was tendered a banquet by Fred Peffer, captain, and second baseman of the Louisville baseball club. To a representative of the Associated Press Corbett made the interesting statement that he would never fight for the championship anywhere but on American soil. He said: "There seems to be a mistaken idea in regard to where my fight with Jackson will take place. The articles of agreement state that it will be fought in the United States. This settles it. In this country it will be fought, nowhere. I won the championship on the wire with Tom American soil, and I propose to meet all comers after that honor on the same soil. It is not a matter of where the fight will not take place in England, or anywhere else except in the United States under any circumstances." Corbett left tonight for St. Louis, where he will fill one more engagement before sailing for Europe.

CHINESE TREATY.

Full Text of the Proposed Agreement.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—The following is a copy of the Chinese treaty which has been negotiated with China. It was sent to the senate on March 9 with a simple note of transmission, saying it had been concluded at Washington on the 17th of last month. It is accompanied by nothing in the way of communication from Secretary Gresham. The treaty is as follows: Whereas, on the 17th day of November, A. D. 1893, and of Kwangsi in the sixth year, the tenth moon after the first day, a treaty was concluded between the United States and China for the purpose of regulating, limiting or suspending the coming of Chinese laborers to and their residence in the United States; and Whereas, the government of China, in view of the antagonism and much-depreciated and serious disorders to which the presence of Chinese laborers has given rise in certain parts of the United States, desires to prohibit the emigration of such laborers from China to the United States; and Whereas, the two governments desire to co-operate in prohibiting such immigration and to strengthen in other ways the bonds of friendship between the two countries; and Whereas, the two governments are desirous of adopting reciprocal measures for the better protection of the citizens or subjects of each within the jurisdiction of the other; therefore, the president of the United States has appointed Walter Q. Gresham, secretary of state, as his plenipotentiary, and his imperial majesty the emperor of China has appointed Yang Yu, officer of the second rank, subordinate of the court of sacrificial worship and envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary, and the said plenipotentiaries having exhibited the respective full powers found to be in due form and good form, have agreed upon the following articles: Article 1. China agrees to prohibit immigration of laborers to the United States.

The choirs of the various churches of the city have prepared elaborate programs for the Easter services today, and the musical decorations in some of the churches are exceptionally fine. In some of the Protestant churches the Easter services will be held only in the forenoon, while in the evening pupils of the Sunday schools will participate in concerts.
