

THE LIKE NEVER WAS SEEN

OF THE DEMOCRATIC ENTHUSIASM WHICH IS SWEEPING THE CITY.

FACTS GIVEN TO THE PEOPLE

At a Host of Meetings Last Night—Smith Appears at Several and Is Everywhere Royally Welcomed—Mass Meeting in Sixth Ward, and 1,000 Gather at One Meeting in the Second Ward—Arranging for the Great Auditorium Meeting Tonight.

Good, old-fashioned Democratic enthusiasm was let loose in the Sixth ward last night. The first grand onslaught on the enemy was made with a solid front and compact ranks. Headed by an excellent brass band, with banners flying and torches brightly glowing, nearly 600 men in line marched through the principal streets of the ward sounding the tocsin of success. Their music and merry shouts could be heard far and near, and made the enemy wonder what was up.

Lacerated hall had not enough strength to accommodate the gathering. The aisles were jammed with those compelled to stand, but they bore this inconvenience patiently, determined to hear the speakers and participate in the general gathering of the Sixth ward Democracy. It was a meeting to be proud of. Fully 800 people were crowded into the spacious building. A conspicuous emblem of the procession, and which was displayed from the stage, was a painted banner, bearing the legend, "Work and Not Charity," surrounded by the significant emblems, saws and sawbucks.

Alfred S. Hall, candidate for municipal judge, was the first speaker called upon. Mr. Hall made an address, setting forth the true issues of the present city campaign. The importance of the election should not be lost sight of, as upon its outcome hinged in a great measure the future prospects of the party in the city of St. Paul. The speaker did not fail to touch upon the "fine" (?) police protection afforded the city by the Republican administration and its imported police department, who brought upon St. Paul a perfect reign of terror.

"Let us see," Bob Smith across the river with a thousand majority" was his conclusion, which brought out long and loud cheers. Dr. Cornelius Williams followed with a few remarks. He urged the Democracy of the Sixth ward to show its strength in the so-called showing of the Republican administration, he thought it bad for the good of the town and the community at large. At this stage some colored men were introduced to sing some songs, and their appearance created uproarious enthusiasm.

William Rhodes, candidate for the comptrollership, was introduced to the meeting. He alluded to the banners carried in the procession, and said that if Robert Smith was elected by the Republicans no need for a display of the people's shame and poverty. Mr. A. Smith here entered the hall, and the uproar became so great that the speaker ceased. The band started to play while the gentlemen on the stage engaged in handshaking with the party's standard-bearer. Mr. Smith's reception by the enthused gathering left no doubt as to his hold on the people. Some one shouted: "Give us Smith—Bob Smith," and the hurrahs were again rendered and continued.

When order was finally restored Dr. Stone addressed the crowd. He said two years ago the people had elected some silk stockings into power. The people had come from silk to cotton, and finally had to go to burlap. The time had come to make an effort to return, at least, to the cotton. Mr. Smith's city administration was clean and good, and in power while the state was Republican, thus carrying out simply the obligations put upon him by the Republicans in power. No one could blame J. Ham Davidson for selling four lots near the Broadway bridge for $100,000 and getting out of debt. (Laughter.) Speaking of Doran, he said that any man who represented elements of bribery which restrains men from thinking as they chose, should be ostracized politically. The A. P. A.'s objective point was the Catholic church, and yet there was a citizen of St. Paul who had offered his life and property in the fields of this country, ministering to the wounded and dying, whose patriotic utterances during recent years have practically dismissed the accusations of that society—John Ireland. This statement was greeted with tremendous applause.

When you vote next Tuesday vote for three things: Your flag, R. A. Smith and liberty.

Robert A. Smith was called on and received with a renewal of the former cheers. He said thus far the Republican campaign had been one of falsehoods and slanders. Turning to their claim of reducing the public debt, Mr. Smith tore the quasi financial statements of McGee into shreds, and said: "Ponthan was one of the most expert accountants in St. Paul, and his statements might be taken as absolutely correct. 'If I am elected to the office of mayor,' said Mr. Smith in closing, 'I shall administer the affairs for the best interests of all the people of the city to the best of my ability and as my conscience dictates.'

J. J. Parker followed Mr. Smith. He said that there were a number of bright and beautiful cities in the Northwest, and if the people desired to have St. Paul head the list they should vote for Robert A. Smith and a Democratic administration.

ward will meet at Turgeon's hall, on Payne avenue, near York street, and headed by the Arlington band they will march to the Auditorium to attend the mass meeting. Fully 1,000 men will be in line.

A FULL REGIMENT Turns Out in the Second Ward—A Bunco Game.

A full regiment of Democratic voters, a thousand strong, were present last night at Lucker's hall, 943 Margaret street. Martin Hannigan, the proprietor, says he has never seen so many people in his hall to a political rally. The Second ward club had expected Robert A. Smith, but he was detained at other meetings and failed to arrive. However, a noted galaxy of good speakers and candidates filled the platform. Matt Egan was the first speaker, and he was followed by George R. O'Reilly, W. H. McDonald, J. C. Michaels, P. D. Scannell, Dr. A. J. Stone, William Rhodes and Dr. J. Parker.

While McDonald was speaking Judge Twoby came in, and the most enthusiastic applause greeted him and the few remarks he made. Mr. Michaels said, in referring to the lack of police protection under the Republican administration, that only today a man came in saying he had been swindled out of $250 in a snide poker game on East Seventh street.

Dr. Stone was called for as soon as he entered the room, and captured his audience, as usual, by his happy hits and arguments. He and Messrs. Rhodes and Parker were made honorary members of the club by unanimous vote. The indications, as shown by this meeting in the Second ward, are that the Democratic ticket will receive the largest majority ever given it in that ward.

The clubs of this ward are all to meet at 7:30 tonight at the corner of Seventh and Dates streets, from whence they will march to Seventh and Bradley, southeast address, setting forth the true issues of the present city campaign. The importance of the election should not be lost sight of, as upon its outcome hinged in a great measure the future prospects of the party in the city of St. Paul. The speaker did not fail to touch upon the "fine" (?) police protection afforded the city by the Republican administration and its imported police department, who brought upon St. Paul a perfect reign of terror.

N. Nelson, the present county treasurer. Mr. Nelson made a very complete and exhaustive review of the city finances, showing the falsity of the pretended reduction of the debt by the Republicans. Mr. Oederberg, editor of the Posten, spoke in Scandinavian language. Other speakers were Judge Frank Ford and J. T. Avery.

THE GERMAN ANIMATED.

A Meeting in Eighth Ward Last Night Which Means Business. The German-American citizens of the Eighth ward held one of the largest meetings of the campaign last evening, the call being issued by Messrs. Gerlach, Pothner and Geo. Lendway, who was elected president and George Lendway secretary. The president made the first address of the evening and compared the past administrations of Democratic and Republican, and said all the German-Americans of the Eighth ward looked to see the old party again in harness.

The second speaker was Matt Bantz, of the Sixth ward, and his advice was to select the best men on the ticket, and if all voters did this they must certainly select the Democratic candidates. J. H. Beyer called attention to the fact that Hon. Geo. McGee had at the election 935 votes were lost owing to improper marking of the ballots. He cautioned all to be careful of a repetition of this foolish mistake. The alderman candidate of the ward, Mr. Wolff, made a neat speech, and called upon the German-Americans to give him their unanimous support and in return he would endeavor to give a party to the council that he hoped would repay them.

Papa Jarschelschek made the humorous effort of the meeting. He asked all to vote for his old friend Bob Smith. Fritz Ranan, an old veteran of the Franco-Prussian war, asked all Germans to meet the Democratic ticket in campaign as well as those in the fatherland in the great continental war, and to elect the Democratic ticket, and to register Wednesday, and gave a general invitation to all Germans to attend the meeting Tuesday evening at the Auditorium.

COL. JAM AT HIS BEST. He Promises to Cut Down His Own Salary When Elected Mayor. The Col. Jam Davidson movement had a typical meeting last night at Labor hall, and the enthusiasts climbed over each other in their efforts to hear and be heard. It was well on to 11 o'clock when Col. Davidson reached the meeting from St. Anthony Park, where he had previously spoken. He read several pointed sections of his new noted speech and sent them rippling through the crowd. He admitted that he has a few tears for "De Bow" and "De Coal Baron," and declared that he would not give reforms that are demanded. He promised that when elected mayor he would begin to reform by cutting down his own salary and that of his private secretary, and then demand that the boards follow the example. He spoke of how his friends treat him when they think he will hurt his old party and declared that the old party was a treat him as a scab, but if the working people stand by him he would teach them a lesson. The audience was exhorted to do missionary work, and to believe that he is out of the race in case false reports to that effect should be published by the Republican party. Previous to the arrival of Col. Davidson speeches were delivered by Francis H. Clark, Judge J. L. MacDonald, J. H. Crowmeyer, Thomas Y. Emil, Ed. Murray, M. R. Prendergast and M. E. Murray, the presiding officer.

Register Tomorrow—Last Day—12 to 9.

Another Big Meeting. Among the big Democratic meetings last night that at St. Francis de Sales hall was one of the best. Robert A. Smith was present, and said he would give the people his best services and show no fear of favoritism if the people chose to put him in charge again. Mr. C. Ives, John Grode and J. H. O'Neill also spoke. The club will meet at the hall tonight and march to the auditorium.

friends that he has again been nominated by the Democratic party for that office, and that he would appreciate their support the coming city election.

No register—no vote. Tomorrow last day—12 to 9 p. m. POLITICAL STRAWS. The Seven Corners Young Men's Democratic club will meet at its hall in Forepaugh block (Seven corners), at 7 p. m. sharp Tuesday evening, and in a body to the ratification meeting at the Auditorium. All Democrats living in the vicinity of Seven corners are invited to attend. The club will hold a meeting every evening from Tuesday evening until election.

The Eighth Ward Banner Democratic club of the German-American citizens of the Eighth Ward will meet this evening at 7 o'clock at the corner of Western and University streets, and will march to the auditorium. The column will meet the German and Polish Democratic clubs of the north part of the ward at University street and Rice, and all will proceed to the Auditorium with a full band of music.

There will be a grand mass meeting of the People's party at Market hall Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. The meeting will be addressed by Col. James H. Davidson, Hon. Geo. McGee and Francis H. Clark on "Municipal Reform." The ladies are especially invited to attend this meeting, and seats will be reserved for them.

Saved Her Life Surgical Operations and Best Medical Treatment Failed

An Almost Miraculous Cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'Beginning in February, '92 I was very sick for two months. Slowly I got better, but was confined to my bed. A physician said I had a Pelvic Abscess in My Side.

After an operation I did not improve, the abscess continuing to discharge even more freely than before. In two months' time three operations were performed, and tubes inserted to carry off the impurities, but all in vain. Finally it was decided that my life depended upon another operation, and that I must be removed to the hospital. About three weeks previous to this I had noticed some weakness in the Daily News of a case where Hood's Sarsaparilla cured a woman somewhat similarly afflicted in Trenton, N. J., and I decided to give it a trial. When the time decided upon for me to go to the hospital arrived I had been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla about two weeks.

I Was Getting Better and the abscess had already begun to discharge less freely. I felt stronger and had a terrible appetite. Previous to this I had given up to die. When I had taken the second bottle I was able to sit up, and accordingly I was not taken to the hospital and the abscess was cured. I had taken six bottles and the abscess has entirely disappeared. I am now well, and my friends think it is a miracle to have me restored to them again so healthy and even stronger than before.

I Feel Better Than Ever I did in my life, and weigh over 130 pounds, the heaviest in my life. I do a big day's work, and feel as strong as ever. My mother worried and worked herself almost sick in caring for me. She has since taken Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it has cured her much good. We praise Hood's Sarsaparilla.

I Know It Saved My Life. I am 27 years old, and a stranger to look at me now would not think I ever had a day's sickness. Even the doctors are surprised at the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla in my case. Mother and myself continue to take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla CURES the medicine regularly, and we earnestly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. Mrs. Chicago, Illinois.

Corroborates the Above. "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'Dear Sirs—I am a drug clerk and have sold Mrs. Mollie Wendt many bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and can certify that she was cured by the use of it.' P. C. DILLER, 579 West Eighteenth Street, Chicago, Illinois. Hood's Pills cure liver, bilious, indigestion, sick headache and constipation, etc.
