

MINNEAPOLIS.

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBULES.

The council committee on fire department met yesterday morning and discussed the extension of the fire limits.

James O'Neill, certainly the greatest romantic actor on the American stage, will appear at the Grand the last three nights of the week, presenting "Monte Cristo" on Thursday and Saturday nights, and "Virginia" Friday night.

Ducald C. Smith has brought suit for $10,000 damages against Everett F. Irwin, the contractor. He alleges that he fell from a poorly constructed scaffold which had been built around a church in Richfield and permanently injured himself.

The council committee on health and hospitals met yesterday afternoon and discussed the question of the aid.

It was asked a continuation of time to prepare his side of the case in the matter of his resolution, which has for its purpose the advocating of the McMillen contract. The continuation was granted.

The McMillen Opera company appeared at the Grand yesterday morning and gave the pretty comic opera, "The Princess of Trebizond," and made a very agreeable impression.

The organization is not very large, but all of the principals possess good voices, and the production is prettily staged and directed.

It is to run to-night, to-morrow night, with a popular-priced matinee Wednesday.

HUNTING CLUBS TO MEET.

Call for a Sportsmen's Convention to Be Held Next Month.

The Milwaukee Sportsmen's association has addressed a circular letter to similar organizations in Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa and Illinois, suggesting that a conference of representatives of hunting clubs be held at Minneapolis to discuss a plan to secure uniform game laws.

THE COMING SCRAMBLE.

FOR THE POLITICAL PLUMS OF THE FLOUR CITY.

The politicians of the city are beginning to test themselves. They are making up the slates of the coming local campaign, and already the dates for the various municipal elections are as plenty as chaff in a low wheat field.
