ABOUT WALES.

The Peculiarities and Charms of the Welsh Who Live and Love in a Rocky Land. The history of the great peninsula in the west of the island of Britain is so indissolubly bound up with that of England that each one is a part of the other. A mountainous country at the same time rugged and grand in its scenery, and, as i not unusual, the people share the physical characteristics of their country The language remained for many years intact and few persons not born to the tongue ever mastered the mysteries of a dialect principally nade up of consonants, with an occasional rowel cropping up like a stone ledge in a paslure. It has been pretty well demonstrated, however, that the Welsh language belongs to the Aryan or Indo-European family. The Welsh have not only their part in English history as turdy fighters, but they were and are devoted to their music and poetry, though neither of them, t need hardly be said, is either well known or properly appreciated beyond the borders of their own peninsula. The Welsh horses and eattle are small and hardy, but of extremely food quality. The peasantry retain their antient dress more accurately than the people in ther parts of Great Britain, and consequently ave a quaintness and charm which modern abiliments totally fail to give. ANARCHIST TRAGEDY.

Rather Than Stand Arrest Santo's Partner, Granier, Plunged a Knife into His Stomach and Disemboweled Himself in the Presence of Detectives - Paris Press Pieased With Pericr.

Paris, June 28.-A dispatch from Montpeller, capital of the department of Herault, announces an anarchist tragedy growing out of the efforts of the police to discover the accomplices of Cesario Santo, the assassin of President Carnot.

Cette and Montpelier, both in the same department, have been mentioned as places where Santo stopped while making his way to Lyons with the intention of taking the life of the chief magistrate of France. Consequently both of these towns have been scoured by detectives since Monday morning.

Santo has from the first claimed that he acted on his own initiative, and that he had no accomplices. The police soon formed a different opinion, and believed that he followed out a carefully laid plan, receiving instructions and advice at the different towns he visited.

The detectives who have been at work n Montpelier decided to surround and search the house of a man named Granier, supposed to be an anarchist and a ACCOMPLICE OF SANTO. Granier, it appears, during last Sunday afternoon, previous to the attack upon President Carnot, was heard to remark: "By this time Carnot must have received his quietus.' As the president was not stabbed until late the same evening, it was naturally concluded when the news of the outrage became public, and when it was shown that Santo had visited Montpelier, that Granier must have known that an attempt was to be made upon the life of the president.

When Granier's house was surrounded the detectives burst in the door and summoned the anarchist to surrender. Granier, who was seated at a table eating his supper, sprang to his feet, and for a moment stood motionless with surprise. Then, with surprising swiftness, and before the detectives could secure him, he picked up a long and sharp knife and plunged it into his abdomen, and, with a few swift turns of the wrist, disemboweled himself and fell to the floor, where he expired almost immediately. The police then commenced a thorough search of Granier's lodgings, and, according to report, a quantity of anarchistic literature was discovered, together with documents which connect Santo with Granier with

The Late Premier Will Deliver the Funeral Oration.

PARIS, June 28.-President Casimir-Perier presided at a council of the ministers today. It was decided to ask the chambers tomorrow for a credit of 50,000 francs to be applied to the expenses of the funeral of the late president.

Premier Dupuy will deliver the funeral oration. M. Dupuy, it is announced, has decided to resign the premiership, and proposes to go to Contreville, where he will take the mineral waters.

The moderate Republican and Conservative newspapers accord President Casimir-Perier a favorable reception, and say that they are convinced that the majority of the French nation and the real working people will do like-wise. They extol his firmness and integrity, and consider his election a reply to the anarchist challenge. The Gaulois urged that the "joyful event" should be celebrated by the proclamation of political amnesty and the repeal of the exile laws. La Justice also demands amnesty for political offenders. The radical organs regard the election

BRITON'S NEW BABY

London, June 28. - Lord Rosebery today in moving an address of congratulation to the queen on the birth of an heir to the Duke of York, said that there was no absolute guarantee in this world against evil. But the most important guarantee of the permanence of the actual form of government was the fact that the queen had no fewer than three direct heirs. The premier added that the monarchy by the lapse of centuries had assumed functions rather social than political.

The Pullman Strike Causes a Reactionary Movement in Prices -London Selling Swelled the Volume of Business-Trading Light in All but Three Stocks, viz: Sugar, St. Paul, Burlington.

CHICAGO, June 28 .- The labor troules and aggregation of over-bearish news sent wheat down today, July closing %c lower and September 10 lower. July corn closed 4c higher, July oats 21/4c lower, and provisions at a slight advance. Trading in wheat was moderate, the range for the day being %c, with operations in the main of a local character. Opening trades were at 1/01/20 loss, and, under fair offerings and general lack of support, declined %c more, re acted a little, changed some and closed steady. The news was almost exclusively "bearish." The lower cables, strike situation, rains in the Northwest, where it was much needed, the fine weather for harvesting in the winter wheat belt, and July liquidation, all combined to depress values and create a weak market. Outside markets were all also correspondingly weak. The Price Current's summary was a little bearlsh on winter wheat, and reported spring wheat benefited by the late rains. The strike situation was a prominent factor, and induced liberal selling. Corn was generally firm within 1/2 range. Covering by shorts caused the firmness. Oats were weak, in sympathy with wheat and on improved crop reports and free offerings. The range for July was 2½c. Provisions were steady at the start on the steady live hog market. Good buying held prices up. Compared with last night, September pork is 7½c higher. September lard 2½c higher, and September ribs 2½c higher. The demand for vessel room was light at 1%c for wheat and 1c for corn to Bufalo. Estimated receipts for tomorrow

14, advanced % and then on brisk selling for the Washington as well as for the local account broke 2%, rallying % and closing at a reaction of 36 at a decline of % on the day. The de- Grain, Provisions and Stocks bought and pression in the stock was due to cold for eash or on margins. Out-of-town reports that the majority counted on business a specialty. Write for our price reports that the majority counted on passing the sugar schedule in the senate, is rather small. Senator Sherman was quoted in the Washington dispatches as making a statement to this effect. There was some selling of St. Paul at the opening on the strike on the road, but there were some good supporting orders in the shares and the decline was resisted. The depreciation however, continued steadily, and about 2 o'clock a decline of 1 per cent from last night was recorded. A subsequent recovery of % was made, and a final reaction of %, the last sale being at a loss of % on the day. Burlington was sympathetically depressed, ton was sympathetically depressed, declining 1/4 and selling up 1/4 during the morning, and declining gradually in the afternoon, closing 1% below the highest point touched, and scoring a loss of % from yesterday. Northwest declined 1 on sales of 400 shares. Rock Island was moderately active, losing 1/8 at the opening and quickly gaining 1/4; then, with the others of the group, it then, with the others of the group, declined 1%, closing 1/2 above the lowest figures made. Arrangements, it is said, are nearly completed between the receivers of the At-chison road and the New York, London and Amsterdam committee by which all three of the committees shall jointly purchase the January coupons of the general mortgage bondholders, thereby avoiding an issue of receiver's certificates. J. Pierrepont Morgan has been conterring with his associates regarding the Union Pacific reorganization since his return from Europe, and a move-ment toward getting affairs into shape is likely to occur soon.

The bond market was steady early in the day, but became irregular in the afternoon and closed easier. The action of the governing committee of the stock stock list to place the Northern Pacific consolidated fives certificates on the list when the reorganization committee has received assent of a majority of the bonds has caused some activity in the shares, 2,000 of which sold today at 251/2 to 25. The reorganization committee lacks assents of about $4,000,000 to have a majority and until it obtains them the certificates cannot be sold at 60, against 68 on May 14. WELL. WHAT'S FLIP?

"Plip" is a game that's On the Square.

"Plip" is the unniest Puzzl Going.

"FLIP" comes in a box with spots and rings. The spots consist of nine different colors, with a corre-sponding number of rings to match. spenting number of rings to match.
seen through a glass top, outside of box being covered with a vallety of handsomely embossed colored paper, making a most attractive and elegant display.

"FLIP" is the funniest puzzle ever devised. Is better than "Tiddledewinks" or the "15 Puzzle," and is only one of the score of entertaining and instructive features we have in prospect for the thousands of children for whom we specially print the Children's Globs.

"FLIP" is unquestionably the most popular hit of the season, as it delights both young and old, affording a source of amusement by the hour. The continued interest after succeeding in tossing the rings on the proper colors as to do so in the shortest time possible, and requires patience and a steady hand, which will make it a lasting amusement.

"FLIP" as a game is played as in Progressive Euchre. The number who can participate is unlimited, the only difference being that it should be played by individuals, and not in pairs. The game starting at a given signal, the one who succeeds in getting all rings on correctly first goes to the head table and all commence over again.
