The fact that the meeting has been running now nearly thirty days does not seem to lessen the attendance or show a falling off in interest, as shown by the attendance Saturday. The grand stand has not been crowded as it was Saturday since the meeting opened, with the exceptions of Derby day and the Fourth.

The programme for the races this week, while a good one for the horsemen themselves, is also attractive enough to please those who attend the races for the sport of seeing the horses run.

The entries for the six events on today's card are:

A GREAT SLUGGING MATCH. The contest was characterized by ter-rific batting. Parvin pitched the first four innings for the Millers, and al-though batted hard he did not re-ceive very good support. Blue, the star twirler for the visitors, was knocked out of the box. The Millers in the second innings made four home runs and six singles, which, together with two bases on balls, netted mine runs. The Millers played very ragged in the field, but their stick work was way above poor. Niland's fumble of a hot grounder was the only error the visitors made. The features of the game were the batting of Gitks, Hines, Werden, Burrell, Visner, and the fielding of Niland. The score: A GREAT SLUGGING MATCH.

A Strong Front Will Be Made With One.

NEW YORK. July 29 .- Delegates to Ane Central labor union meeting, held at Clarendon hall, today came to a unanimous agreement in favor of a solid fronted labor movement to down the Tammany ticket at the rolls in November. For a long time the labor organizations have been divided among themselves, chiefly owing to the dissensions among Central labor union men, who refused to unite in the interests of an independent labor ticket. On this account, it is claimed, no action to remedy the alleged wrongs of the union men has been successful. Today the question was forced to an issue. In pure desperation the delegates decided to drop internal discussions and make overtures to the other bodies. ooking to a united plan of campaign in the common interests.
