

MINNEAPOLIS.

GOSSIP OF THE CURB.

The Democratic judicial committee was announced last night. It is made up of the following well-known gentlemen: A. Cristofa, D. B. Johnson, J. H. Nickell, M. Whelan, Phil Hartman, Frank Corriston and J. C. Nugent.

The owners of the various large meeting halls in the city vied with each other last night to secure the Democratic convention. The halls were offered free of charge, and there was a vigorous contest over the selection.

The Populists met yesterday, and, in spite of all that has been said and written by the Republicans, they did not spoil their judicial ticket by taking off the names of the Democratic nominees. They realized that the gentlemen from the very best timber in the market will probably stick to them.

Pat Gibbons, formerly of this city, but now of Chicago, is in the city. He struck the town yesterday and yesterday very near being torn limb from limb by his many friends, who were rather rough in showing their affection for his visit.

Ald. Luckey is making a vigorous campaign in the Eleventh ward, and the indications are he will be renominated. Tonight there will be an open meeting of the Eleventh ward Independent Luckey club at Tolson's hall, corner Frank and Fifteenth avenues south.

J. U. Barnes was nominated for city treasurer by the prohibitionists. He was out of the city when the nomination was made, and now that he has returned he looks with horror at the terrible prospect of being elected to that office.

A. J. Boardman says he will make a statement in a day or so of exactly what stand he will take in the majority. He craves a little on what he said about Robert Pratt, but sticks to everything remarked on Mr. Corser and his "methods." Taking it all in all, there is every prospect of a pretty fight, and Boardman does not propose to be the under dog.

The Republican papers appear to be very much concerned as to who will be nominated for mayor by the Democrats. They have reason to be worried for the man who is nominated will beat Pratt, with time to spare.

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBULES.

Directors of the Homeopathic hospital met yesterday afternoon and listened to reports of the plans for the new building. The board of the Maternity hospital also met to consider ways and means.

Rev. Thomas McClary was his lecture on "Unit Preaching" at the church of First M. E. church, for the benefit of the fire sufferers and Asbury hospital. There will be a matinee this afternoon at the Grand, Dan'l Sully presenting "The Millionaire." At the Bijou the bill for the Grand opera matinee performance will be Yale's "Devil's Auction." Popular prices will be the card at both theaters.

At a meeting of the board of corrections and charities yesterday afternoon Acting Superintendent Owsie reported that during August 200 applications for aid were made at the office and 708 individuals were assisted in various ways. The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. West Mares will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Church of the Redeemer. Rev. M. D. Shutter will officiate, assisted by Rev. J. H. Tuttle and Rev. C. R. Kesewick. Interment will occur at Lakewood.

Chief of Police Smith has issued an order to his patrolmen to arrest any and all women of a low character soliciting "business" on the street nights. The order will probably abate the nuisance of these women, parade every night.

Eddie Moffitt, the young boy who was killed Monday afternoon by a Northern Pacific train at Grand Rapids junction, in Southeast Minneapolis, was a foster child of Mrs. M. J. Moffitt, of 101 Seventh street northeast, by his right name was Edwin Albee, and his mother lives at Chester, Mass., where the body will be taken for burial.

An assignment of 20,000 red stamp cards was received at the internal revenue office yesterday morning, and in less than two hours all were remaining. Inspector Stetson says he has orders for over 100,000 stamps on hand, but it is not probable that the run will continue after these are disposed of, as all cards manufactured in the future will be stamped at the factories.

The "Up Is Open." The university opened yesterday for business. Up to noon the enrollment in the academic department had reached 500, and President Norton says he is of the opinion the attendance for the year will be about 2,000. Yesterday afternoon Dean Patten delivered an address at the opening of the law college.

Pearline. This is the way we spell it. It's necessary to mention it, because some women don't seem to know. We find so many who say they use Pearline, and then, upon examination, find that what they are using is only some imitation of it. See if your package is marked as above. There is only one Pearline. It makes white things brighter—economical and saves at every point. For washing and cleaning, nothing under any other name can equal it.

Beware. Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "This is good as or better than Pearline," and if you grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, do the honest thing and stick to it. JAMES PYLE, New York.

AT LEAST, THE DATE.

The Democratic City Convention Will Be Held on Sept. 19.

PRIMARIES NIGHT PREVIOUS.

Two Men Employed on the Tribune Hulk Met With a Terrible Accident.

The Democratic city primaries will be held on the evening of Sept. 18 (Tuesday), and the convention will occur at Harmonia hall at 11 o'clock the following day.

The city committee held its meeting last night in the rooms of the Homeopne Democratic league and decided on the above. B. F. Nelson acted as chairman of the meeting, and H. E. Fryberger as secretary. After considerable discussion it was decided to hold the aidermanic conventions on the same day, and separate from the city convention, two sets of delegates being elected at the primaries. The aidermanic conventions will be held in the various wards, beginning at 9 o'clock. The primaries will be called at 8 o'clock p. m., and the precinct committees will have the say as to whether a voter is legally qualified to cast a ballot or not.

On the matter of holding both the city and aidermanic conventions on the same day, there was more or less argument, several of the gentlemen present being in favor of having the aidermanic convention held on the day following the primaries and the city convention on the second day. It was considered, however, that this would be poor policy, for the reason that it gave opportunity of "dickering," as one of the gentlemen who spoke to the question termed it.

The matter of apportionment was not settled without a hot discussion. Some wanted the same apportionment as was used in the county convention, but it was finally agreed that a reapportionment of Matt Walsh it was decided to have the apportionment based on the vote cast by Daniel W. Lawler two years ago for governor. The apportionment will be one delegate for every fifty votes or major fraction thereof cast for him. There will also be one delegate at large from each precinct, which will swell the number of delegates to nearly 500. Two years ago the apportionment was based on the vote cast for Jim Wilson for governor two years previous. The city convention will be held in Normanna hall.

ERICKSON'S CAMPAIGN.

The Congressional Committee Decries His Line of Work.

The Democratic congressional committee met last night and discussed the matter. It was decided that the most part it would believe the committee to act separately and individually from the other committees. The resolution was adopted, and the work could be handled in better shape. The committee will meet again next Saturday night and decide upon its headquarters in the city and city headquarters. The following standing committees were appointed: Finance Committee—Edwin Barber, Titus Maresk, Robert Reed, J. H. Slob. Literature—James McDaniel, Grant Strigheim, Harry Lund, Frank Woodcock. Speakers at Public Meetings—D. B. Johnson, Theodore Schmidt, Charles R. Setgatz, Edwin Barber. Organization—James F. Williamson, Joseph McCarlin, R. W. Scott. Printing—H. Williams, Charles Setgatz, Edwin Barber. At Large—Titus Maresk, Alex Stewart, H. W. De Grot.

The store is located at the corner of Tenth street and Harmonia place. He drove it to Anoka and tried to sell it. He waived examination and was bound over to the grand jury. St. Paul Is Still Hustling to Secure the Next Encampment.

400,000 VETERANS PARADED

And a Half Million People Witnessed Yesterday's Big Demonstration.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 11.—The G. A. R. political situation is very hot. The friends of the candidates for commander-in-chief are working like beavers for their friends.

Indications late tonight point to the election of I. N. Walker, of Indiana, as commander-in-chief, and to Louisville as the place of meeting for the next encampment.

Judge Long, of Michigan, tonight formally withdrew from the race for commander, thus leaving the contest practically between the Indiana and Illinois candidates.

The present commander-in-chief, Adams, favors Walker, of Indiana and so expresses himself privately; but Walker's friends are hopeful of success and will not admit that there is any such thing as defeat.

"As Pennsylvania goes so goes the encampment," has come to have considerable significance, and as Pennsylvania favors Walker and Louisville her votes are being eagerly sought. Ohio has the line for Walker, but insists on the city that secures the encampment getting a uniform railroad rate of one cent within ninety days after selection, and should it fail the executive committee shall have the right to select any other city that can provide for the 1-cent rate. Indiana is in favor of Louisville, and, of course, is for Walker also. St. Paul hustlers are still in line, and working assiduously for their city. It is intimated that the convention tomorrow will take a short recess to allow Henry Waterston to present the claims of Louisville. It is said he will make the effort of his life.

The national convention of Union prisoners of war met this evening and re-elected the old officers for another year. No other business of general interest was done. Most of the delegates are Charles D. Davis, of Boston; vice president, George W. Grant, Minneapolis; secretary-treasurer, J. L. Kligore and Douglas, of New York; D. M. Munger, Brooklyn; W. W. O'Neill, Pittsburg; J. H. Hanraet, I. M. Mason, St. Louis; F. A. Rothair, F. A. Laidley, Cincinnati; L. T. Bell, Robert Wilcox, New York; W. W. Dickley, Dubuque, Iowa; W. W. Hill, Louisville, Ky.

Having completed all its business, the convention adjourned to meet in New York city on the 15th inst. The delegates went home tonight. Those who remained will be the guests of Commodore Laidley at the Bonanza.

The ex-prosecutors will parade tomorrow.

WHY LONG WITHDRAWS.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 11.—Judge Charles J. Long, of Michigan, has withdrawn from the race for commander-in-chief of the Grand Army. A letter will be submitted to the meeting of the delegates tomorrow, explaining his reasons for withdrawing. In the letter Judge Long refers to the successful outcome of the campaign in Washington, one result of which was the receipt of hundreds of letters urging the selection of a commander-in-chief. He finds, however, that the candidacy has been construed as bringing partisan politics into the ranks of the Grand Army. His support as a well directed blow against the present administration. While this is not the policy of the Grand Army, Long is unwilling to jeopardize the first claims of those more or less dependent upon pensions for their support or to bring the Grand Army into disrepute with the Republic. Hence his withdrawal.

40,000 VETS MARCHED.

NERVY TODD COUNTY HERO.

Thrilling Story of His Capture of a Man Who Stole His Horse.

Special to the Globe. MANXATO, Minn., Sept. 11.—E. C. Hatch, agent for the Metropolitan Fire Insurance company, met with a terrible accident about 10:30 o'clock today. While trying to board a moving train on the Omaha road at a up-town crossing to ride down to the depot he fell under the wheels and both legs were cut off at the knees. He was conscious when picked up and begged to be taken to the hospital. Although his daughter, Mrs. Charles Allen, whom he left a few minutes before, resided but a few rods away, his request was granted, but he died a few minutes after the shock and was buried in Duluth, where he leaves a family. He was forty-five years old and has been in the city about three months. Before his death he said no one was to blame but himself.

HERMAN HONSMAN, Minn., Sept. 11.—Herman Honsman, a young farmer on Round Prairie, found his horse, buggy and harness missing at an early hour this morning, and, mounting another horse, went out in search of the thief, overtaking him nearly fifteen miles away. With a riding whip and a cocked revolver, he made him turn about and return to the first farm house, where he bound him with ropes and took him to a granary, guarded for the night by a man. Young Honsman tomorrow will take a short recess to allow Henry Waterston to present the claims of Louisville. It is said he will make the effort of his life.
