POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

The following open letter from an "anti-Republican voter" should be carefully read and digested by every Democrat in the state. It is a common sense letter, and if its suggestions are followed good results will follow:

To the Anti-Republican voters of Minnesota: In addressing this com-munication to all the voters of Minnesota who earnestly desire to see the Re publican party turned out of the state government, I am of the opinion that before the ballots are cast Tuesday, many people in this state will come to the conclusion I have reached. It is this: The best way to defeat Nelson is for the opposition to combine on Gen. Becker, the Democratic candidate, and not throw their votes away on Owen as in the past. Just as sure as the two great opposition parties continue each to try and defeat all other candidates. Nelson will again beat them both and be elected governor of the state. In 1892 the following vote was cast: 109,220

Opposition majority over Nelson. 25,243 Had 14,621 votes that went to Donnelly gone to Lawler he would have been elected governor, and the Republicans turned out to grass. The People's party, in order to have elected Donnelly, would have required 69,357 Democratic votes. How much harder to do than to have thrown 14,621 People's party votes to Lawler. It would have required 75 per cent of the Democrats, while it would have required only 35 per cent of the Populists. Both fighting the common enemy, and throwing away their ballots, 25,000 joint majority, and yet let the old fox walk off with the chickens.

Now see the result in 1890. It is almost incredible, yet true. In 1890 Merriam (Rep.) received Anti- Wilson (Dem)....85,844 Republican. Owen (Peo.)....58,513

Opposition majority ... It would have required only 2,300, or per cent of Owen votes to have elected Wilson and driven the Republicans out of power, yet they were not given. This, too, would have been easy To elect Owen it would have required

We should learn from history. It is a shame to fritter away our strength when victory could be so easily won. Consider for yourselves, Populists and Democrats, will you let history repeat itself, and then after the ballots are counted curse yourselves for your stu-pidity? I hope not. Throw all opposition votes to the party which in the past has shown the greatest strength and you will win; throw them to the weaker and you will not be able to turn enough to accomplish anything. All Democrats should stand by Becker, and Populists enough vote for him to secure his election, and then the arrogant governor of today will become, as he should, a private citizen on Jan. 1, 1895. Do not think for a moment that the old parties are not going to poll fairly well their usual number of votes, if you do you will be fooled ANTI-REPUBLICAN VOTER.

C. A. Pillsbury will leave for the East today, and next Wednesday he sails for England. He does not care to remain and cast his vote. He sold yesterday that he was of the opinion that the Republicans will elect a majority of the next congress, but that will not put them into power. The Democrats he said were not dangerous, but the Populists would be, and to quote him: "I think the rock upon which the Republican party stands is in the greatest danger of splitting because of the tremendous effort that will be made to

Mr. Pratt has evidently lost his voice. At any rate, he is painfully silent on all matters pertaining to the issues of the day, and to his "policy." Of course John Goodnow does enough talking for two men, but the Republicans are of the opinion their candidate should, at least once in a while, says a word or two, as a guarantee that he is alive.

County Auditor Cooley yesterday sent out the official ballots and supplies to the various polling places all over the Norway and France joined hands last

There was an incipient strike at the university yesterday. POLITICS OF ONE DAY.

Pratt's Unenviable Record--Nelson's Humiliation--Miscellaneous News.

The Democrats were out in force last night and packed Normanna hall. The meeting was somewhat important from he fact that O. T. Erickson, candidate for congress, appeared and made answer to the charges that have been made against him in a circular recently issued by the Populists. This circular claimed to give to the voters some pages from the record of Mr. Erickson, who said last night:

"Here is a circular issued in the interest of the People's party candidate for congress, purporting to be a record, and signed by Arthur Keep. Who is this man Keep? He is a slanderer, a falsifier and a deserter from the United States navy. A man who took an oath to support the American flag, and then sneaked from under its folds. An individual who coaxed a man into the People's party, as true a friend of labor as ever lived, a stranger to our politics and a conntryman of his own, kissed him like Judas Iscariot, then stepped aside while Tom Lucas spiked his convert to the cross, and his satellites drove spears into his body. Such is the man who vomits upon me and is Dr. Clark's chief-of-staff.

"So far as his circular is concerned, the first paragraph contains a lie that destroys the whole document. It infers that I was a candidate for commissioner on a labor platform, and instructed to vote for certain measures, which is utterly false. I was made one of a number of men to appear before the old parties and ask for nominations. My name was placed on that list without my knowledge and without a single obligation. When I talked of declining the honor they besought me to accopt in order to help the others, and no conditions were prescribed. My place on the court house commission came in the same way. No man can can that I acknowledge to be a conditional say that I asked to be appointed. The only member of the legislature with whom I ever discussed the question was Capt. Snider, and that interview was at his solicitation. He probably remembers that instead of asking for a place I suggested some one else.
"Dr. Clark's deserter takes me to task for voting against paying $2 a day for labor, when the going price was $1.50. If the people of this county want a representative who will vote special privileges to labor or any one else, then they should vote against me.

"Next is my vote to give a franchise for a street railway from Anoka to Champlin, the best act of all. The people of Champlin, without a dissenting voice, asked the county board to grant the franchise. Should 1, a believer in home rule and local repeal the pooling clause of the inter-state commerce bill."

self-government, have refused to let the people of Champlin have a street flaunts the referendum as the acme of reform, brands me a traitor for putting it into practice. What an arrant demagogue! He quotes the Single Tax league's cardinal principle in opposition to the granting of franchises without compensation. If he understood the single tax, he would know that it never demands compensation for land or franchises until they have some value. Further than that, the petition asked for a twenty-year franchise, and I refused to support the resolution unless they cut the time down to ten years; so that, at the end of that period, the citizens of Champlin might protect their interests if the town grew. "I voted to reduce the taxes on the West hotel building, and did it conscientiously. It is an institution that is semi-public in its nature, an ornament to our city, and, through the generosity of Mr. West, has been put at the dis-posal ot the public, time and again, free of charge. My vote was not in Mr. West's interest, and he evidently does not consider it so; for, although a Democrat, he opposes me, and is going to vote against me. "Thore is nothing more in this circular than has been covered before. It might be well, in passing, to call your atten-tion to the fact that all the things raked up in this circular transpired six and seven years ago, when I was a novice in the reform movement. What about my work during the last six or seven years? Why not mention the time when, though not a member of any union, I resigned my place as superintendent of a building rather than hire a non-union crew. While working on one of our public buildings my head was cut off, and a position at $5 a day lost, for making speeches in behalf of the street car 2,966: strikers. That does not appear in this circular.

"In conclusion let me say, if any three of the leading labor organizations in this city will examine my whole record, subtract all the mistakes made from the work done, and then find that there is not more left than all the work that Mr. Fletcher and Dr. Clark put together have done for labor, I will resign from the court house commission and ask the Democrats to put a man in my place as candidate for congress."

ENTRUSIASTIC DEMOCRATS. Meetings Held in Various Parts of the City.

The Democrats held meetings last night in all parts of the city. In the Third ward there was a meeting in Hunt's hall, corner Plymouth avenue and Third street, which was well attended. The various candidates were resent and delivered addresses. Th ourth ward meeting was in the nature of a rally. It was held in Plummer Pos

There was a large and enthusiastic audience present. J. H. Nickeils acted as chairman during a portion of the exas charman during a portion of the ex-ercises, and then he gave way to Ber-nard Cloutier. The speakers were Mr. Thian, Henry Oswald, County Commis-sioner George F. Porter, Albert Chris-tello, Frank Larrabee and Max Robb. Mr. Thian referred during his speech to Mr. Pratt's record as a business man and city official. All the speakers were applauded for their efforts. Among the other meetings held last night were, at 602 Adams street north-east, where the Ninth ward Democrats enjoyed themselves and listened to ex cellent speeches; in the Second ward at 154 Fourth street southeast; Eleventh ward, Tollefson's hall, Fifteenth avenue south and Franklin, and in the Seventh ward at 2433 Bloomington av-

NELSON WAS HURT.

He Was Not Permitted to Speak in Chamber of Commerce.

Gov. Nelson had a sad experience esterday morning. He was taken to the chamber of commerce by his body guard, Messrs. William Henry Eustis, John Goodnow and E. M. Johnson. President Martin, of the chamber, was sought out, and requested to allow the governor to deliver an address to the members. The request was not granted, the president stating that if he allowed the governor to speak he must give the same privilege to every other politica candidate who desired to do so.

The governor's body guard ruffled its feathers and looked dignified, demanding that the governor be given the privilege. But Mr. Martin was steadfast to his purpose. He said that he could not allow the privilege, and what was more, if he should do so, there were members who would hiss the worthy Knute off the floor.
The body guard were indignant.

Their faces flushed and their voices trembled. They took to pleading with President Martin and, finding all their efforts futile, took the governor by the arm and led him around the building, introducing him to every person who would stop and shake hands. The whole affair was very humiliating. Gov. Nelson, it is said, wept tears of indignation. Frost at the "U."

Among other places in Minneapolis where there was a possibility of a few votes being induced to come his way in this hour of dire necessity was the state university, and Mr. Nelson showed up there yesterday morning during chapel services. Feeling evidently that it was about time to square himself with the university boys who can vote for his work in knocking out the university appropriation some time ago. he made a half hour's talk that was received with a series of wild cat calls and yells. Altogether his reception was a good deal like a "frost," and his popularity at the "U" is not what he would like to have.

The Democrats also hold a raily this evening at 2401 Franklin avenue, another one at 83 Western avenue, where A. T. Ankeny, L. R. Thian, Dr. W. J. Byrnes, Mart Witcomb and James Moffett will speak; one at the Tenth ward wigwam, where L. R. Thian, Lars Rand, Judge Donahue and O. T. Erickson will speak; a Scandinavian meeting at 409 Twentieth avenue north, where L. R. Thian, Lars Rand, A. M. Hove, W. Petterson, Judge Donahue, J. L. Kiichli, George Blecker and others will speak; also one meeting at Richfield, where A. D. Smith rand S. A. Stockwell will speak.

ROBERT PRATT'S RECORD. Be Sure and Read the Circular

Containing It. The Democratic city committee last night issued a circular containing the official record, as alderman, of Robert Pratt, Republican candidate for mayor. The circular will be given the widest possible circulation. The Republicans have heretofore made claims that their candidate had a council record that could not be touched. The records of the city council show that he was anything but a friend of the laboring men while acting in the capacity of alderman, and that in almost every instance he voted in the interest of coporations.

The circular is adorned with the fol-

Nellie Bundy, a prepossessing young woman employed at Mrs. Kane's restaurant on Second avenue south, between Washington and Third street, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer John Long on a warrant charging grand larceny. The warrant was sworn out by Miss Agnes Parker, an inmate of Jennie Jones' resort, who claims that Nellie stole her diamond ring, valued at $35, while in the restaurant yesterday afternoon.

According to Nellie, Agnes owes her some money which she promised to pay yesterday and failed to do so. The Parker woman was in the restaurant during the afternoon, and Nellie claims to have asked to see her diamond ring and to have said she would keep it until the money was paid, the result being her arrest.

A Temple of Health Where vigor, good digestion, appetite

Mere vigor, good digestion, appetite and sound repose minister to physical comfort, is the bodily structure which, however much its foundations have been sapped by ill health, has been restored—rebuilt, as it were—by the great renovating tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Nothing intuses strength into a debilitated frame like this saving medicine, which, in the vigor and regularity it imparts to the system, endows it with the surest defense against disease, and the best guaranty of a long life and hale old age. Worn out men of business, tired mechanics, overworked mill hands, miners broken down by hardship and exposure to malaria, mariners and exposure to malaria, mariners and ourists all declare that it is the best safe-guard against the influences of fatigue, bodily or mental, and of climate and temperature. DEATH OF THE CZAR | THE CZAR IS NO MORE

The Descendant of Peter the Great Has Passed Away.

UNEASINESS IN EUROPE.

His Death Is a Solemn Warning to Hundreds of Men and Women Who Are Alive Today.

The Czar is dead! He was born in St. Petersburg March 10, 1845, and ascended the throne March 13, 1881, three days after the assassination of his father. He leaves five children. The Czar was a lover of peace, and amiable in his private life, but tyrannical as a ruler. He was honest but narrow.stubborn, and would not take advice. For several years the Czar has been ailing. His appetite has been fickle; his sleep uncertain. He has felt peculiar pains throughout his body, especially about the lower portion of the limbs, and has been annoyed with frequent headaches and indigestion.

It is strange that with all the medical skill at his command so few people realized what was troubling him. More than two years ago, however, in America the meaning of these well-known symptoms was clearly understood, and the Czar was warned publicly and in print that he was the victim of Bright's disease of the kidneys. Since then the disease has increased and grown, until finally it has ended in death. Had he heeded the warning sounded in America two years ago, and taken promptly and according to directions the great and only known discovtrong the great and only known discovery for Bright's disease of the kidneys, the Czar would unquestionably be alive today. That remedy, which is known to all scientists and acknowledged as supreme in its power, is Warner's Safe Cure. It cannot be considered a proprietary medicine, but rather a discovery for men and women troubled with any kind of kidney, liver or urlnary weak-nesses, with depressed feelings, run down condition, or with uric acid poi-sonining, rheumatic or gout troubles.

There are thousands of men and women in America today who have the use of this great remedy. And if you, reader, are suffering from any trouble which you do not fully understand, you may be sure that it arises from discontinuous being the sure that it arises from disordered kidneys or liver. If so. heed the warning which the Czar neg-lected, and save yourself while you have the opportunity.

The City Departments. The report of Secretary Snyder, of the fire department, shows that there were 73 alarms turned in during the month, 50 of which were from boxes and 20 still. Estimated loss on buildings was $4,577.66; on contents, $8,412.73. The insurance paid on buildings amounted to $4,314.66, and on contents $8,412.73. Insurance involved upon buildings, $236,600, and upon contents, $146,475.

$146,475. The report of the building inspector's office for the month of October shows that 253 permits were issued, aggregating $382,359, as against 238 permits for the month of October, 1893, which aggregated $245,670, showing a gain in tayor of the present year of $136,650. Secretary Mallon, of the police de-partment, in his report for the month of October, shows that the total number of arrests was 29, classified as follows: Vagrancy, 6; grand larceny, 8; petit larceny, 4; obtaining money under false pretenses, 2; swindling, 2; highway robbery, 2; fugitives from justice, 2; bestardy, 1; assault, 1; embezzlement, 1. The report of Acting Superintendent Owre, of the poor department, shows that 424 applications for aid were received during the month of October, of which 221 were supplied with groceries. The total number of individuals assisted was 807. The number of inmates of the poorhouse Nov. 1 was 70. The number of burnals furnished during the month was 12, and the number of persons turnished with transportation to other points was 35.

A Costley Divorce. Judge Jamison yesterday afternoon granted Mrs. Jennie A. Costley a divorce from John M. Costley. It was evident, too, that the judgment met with the approbation of the spectators, who have filled the room ever since the be-ginning of the trial. When Mr. Noyes, of the firm of Harrison & Noyes, who were prosecuting the case, finished his argument before the court, there was hardly a dry eye in the room, and when the decree was granted there was a very happy woman there. The evidence showed a continued series of persecutions, arising from an insane jealousy on the part of the defendant.

FIGHT WON BY A FOUL. Jim Daly Defeats Jack Slavin at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Nov. 1 .- Jim Daly, of Buffalo, and Jack Slavin, of Australia, fought seven rounds before about 1,000 people in the rooms of the Buffalo Athletic club in this city tonight. Daly was given the fight on a foul in the seventh round. The fight was very unsatisfactory. The men were to fight fifteen rounds, Marquis of Queensberry rules. Slavin was finely trained, while Daly was manifestly out of condition. Before the bout began the referee, after consulting with both fighters, said that it had been agreed not to strike any blows in a break-away after-a clinch. This was contrary to the rules which the men were supposed to fight under, and created some comment. In the first round Daly landed fully a dozen times and Slavin did not land once. It was evident, though, that Daly's blows lack-ed strength. In the following three rounds Daly again did most of the leading and landing. Several times in breaking away Slavin landed a blow, and the referee cautioned him he was fighting foul. In the seventh round, when Slavin's stock was looking up, the referee gave the fight to Daly on an alleged foul committed while the men were breaking away after a clinch.

BAYARD IS HOPEFUL.

He Believes the New Czar's Policy Will Be for Peace.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 1 .- Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, when informed of the czar's death, expressed his deep regret at the occurrence. When asked what effect the czar's death would have upon European politics, he said:

"Forewarned has been forearmed with the countries of Europe in this case, I think. They knew that this great friend of peace was dying, and were prepared for it. A cartoon recently published in London Punch made great impression on me and minmade great impression on me, and mirrors the situation well. It represented Bellona, the goddess of war, in a troubled sleep and just reaching out for her sword that laid beside her bed. Her three dogs of war, fire, pes-tilence and famine, were just wak-ing up. Still, I have reason to believe and hope that the doctrine of peace, which the czar has striven so hard to establish, will be followed out by his successor. 1 do not think his death will affect the relations now existing between France and Russia, or Russia and Germany. Nor will the sad occurrence result in any change in the Triple Alliance, in my opinion. Russia has suffered a tremendous loss in the death of the czar. In regard to his suc-cessor, the devolution of power will, in my opinion, be carried out strictly in accordance with his policy."

THE NEWS SUPPRESSED. Berlin Papers Containing New of Czar's Death Confiscated. LONDON, Nov. 2.-A dispatch to the Daily News from Berlin says that the Grand Duke of Hesse, brother of Princess Alix, the czarewitch's betrothed, and Prince Henry of Prussia, the brother of Emperor William, will attend the funeral of the czar, Prince Henry representing the German emperor.

The special editions of papers announcing the death of the czar were confiscated outside the Russian em-bassy, first because the news was not entirely confirmed and second to pre vent the shouting of news vendors. appears certain that the embassy tried to conceal the news. Placards were fixed on the royal opera houses at 8 o'clock announcing that there would be no performance tomorrow on account of the death of the czar. He was for many years the close personal friend and companion of the emperor, but was never a persona grata with the outer court circle and educated classes. He is credited with having wielded over the czar an influence detrimental to his majesty's more liberal instincts. He is imbued with many of the retro conservative ideas which dislinguished the late Count Tolstoi Whether the report that he will retire is true or not, it is quite unlikely that he will retain his post long.

THE LAST FAREWELL.

Relatives View the Dead-Troops Swear Allegiance. LIVADIA, Nov. 1.-When all was over the czarewitch, Grand Duchess Xenia, and the other imperial relatives approached the bedside in turn to take a last farewell. The court officials and members of his majesty's suite were afterwards admitted. The flag over the palace was placed at half mast, and a salute was fired by the vessels in the port. Shortly after 4 o'clock the members of the palace guard were marshaled in the square in front of the palace chapel for the ceremony of swearing allegiance to the new czar. They wer the first to take the oath. The grand dukes were the next to swear allegiance, and they were followed in the order of precedence by the high court functionaries, court officials, military officers and civil officials.
