

MINNEAPOLIS.

WHERE ARE THEY?

NOTE AND COMMENT.

City Clerk Haney is like an astronomer. He is always discovering something new. He has discovered that the new election law does not provide for a recount of ballots, and will accordingly file a certificate of election.

Winn Brackett has bobbed up again. Of course it is for office. It is said he will make a hustle for the position of city clerk. There are a dozen or more candidates in the field, including the present incumbent, and the contest, which the new council is organized, may prove a lively one.

Weed Munro and F. C. Brooks received the highest number of votes on the Democratic judicial ticket.

The Republican landslide brought a lot of snow with it. Some of the newly elected aldermen, anxious to make a grand showing to their constituents on the day of their inauguration, are investigating the cause of the snow storm and will introduce snow ordinances just as soon as they take their seats.

It is said that several disappointed candidates are beginning to lay plans for the capture of the dog catcher's plum. Mr. Pratt is warned that his matter will be infested with aspirants for the position the minute he takes possession of it.

It remains to be seen if the Republicans keep their election promises, and make Kirkham chief of police and Aurbach chief of detectives.

Now that the battle is over, it is but justice to Aid. Loye to state publicly that Bob McMullen is not his brother-in-law.

It is said that Maj. P. W. Wildt, of this city, is to be made assistant secretary of state when Albert Berg assumes the duties of his office.

Was Napoleon or Wellington the better fighter? Dr. Price's commands the baking powder.

Pat Gibbons, the Democratic prodigy of the Fourth ward, who was made the victim of a practical joke several days ago and by mistake had the furniture at election headquarters carted away under the impression he was invited to it, stated last night that he had received his pay in full from the committee.

From all appearances the clergymen of Minneapolis have gone on a strike for higher salaries. In at least a half-dozen churches of the city the pastors have gone hunting for more pay. Some have found it and some have not.

The local seers account for the "snow storm" in two ways, either of which would meet there were not enough Democrats. Second—There were too many Republicans.

An analysis of the vote for judges in the Fourth judicial district gives some peculiar results. Robert Jamison received the highest vote, and yet he was not elected for any one of the Republican nominees, and he had the Prohibition endorsement.

Johnnie Home Again. Johnny Anderson, the boy musician who ran away from home about six weeks ago, has returned. He became tired of his musical studies and so concluded he would prefer tramping the country. But he got sick of remaining around in a printing office in Willmar and among the farmers of Spicer, and decided the best thing he could do was to return home and go to work. His musical studies will be resumed.

KNOWLEDGE. Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, are more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Like in Modern Melodramas the Papers Have Disappeared.

STOLEN FROM THE COURT.

The Streeter Case Proceeds Along Its Weary, Dreary Way.

FLOUR CITY NEWS BUDGET.

Bunker in a Fix—Central Market Franchise—Garber, the Grocer.

An exciting little episode occurred yesterday afternoon in the office of the clerk of the district court. A group of clerks gathered about his window and looked on with interest.

"I think it is your place to have this matter looked up," Mr. Willard was saying. "You are the custodian of these papers and you are responsible for them."

"That's very true," replied Clerk Dicker, "but I don't see how I can do anything in this case. I have so many papers stolen here every year by attorneys."

"I would be glad to go to the office of the clerk of the district court, which was in the files in the clerk's office, had been neatly stolen from the judgment room, made up when the case was appealed. The papers were all fastened together with the ordinary fasteners, but this paper had been torn out so close to them that it would not have been noticed in a cursory glance, and the top of the paper reading 'Bond on appeal from justice—' was still there.

The suit was one brought by W. A. Patten against A. J. Smith's suit. It came up in Justice A. J. Smith's court Oct. 27. At that time Mr. Dicker went to testify in the case and it was noticed that the receipt was offered in evidence, which was admitted as written by one William Gilman, which was a receipt given to Patten by the writing of the name Patten as it appeared in the bond which was found in the new case, and suspicion at once arose that the bond had been forged.

Mr. Brown, who is interested in the outcome of the case, stated that he was positive that one of the four men on the paper, and gave the name of Gilman as the one who was suspected. The clerk who waited on the person asking for the files could not identify him positively, but another of the clerks in the department, who had been on duty at about 9 o'clock Thursday morning, and it was almost positive that the papers had been stolen from the files on which the name of the borrower from the files must be written.

The talk also developed the fact that the clerk who was on duty at the time of the disappearance of the files was at his disposal who can act in the capacity of a detective, and is entirely at the service of the court. The new detective work which is necessary to be done. In addition to the other bills which the court is called on to pay is the item of detective work, which has been footed up a pretty penny in the last year.

"The army and navy forever," and paid use Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

BUNKER A BUNCO.

Held to the Grand Jury for Forgery. Rhomine Bunker, the young man arrested Thursday night by Inspectors Hoy and Larson on charges of forging William Donaldson's name to a check for $9.15, which check was passed upon E. J. Jones, city passenger agent of the Great Northern road, was arraigned yesterday by A. F. Noble, one of the railroad detectives. Hollins is charged with forging the name of the companion sworn out against Hollins charged him with grand larceny in the second degree. He was arraigned in the police court yesterday afternoon, and is bound over to the grand jury in $1,000.

Furniture Exposition. The directors of the Northwestern Furniture exposition have decided to hold their exposition in February, from the 4th to the 16th inclusive. The exposition will be held in the rooms formerly occupied by Forman, Ford & Co. in the building. The building contains 50,000 square feet of space, and is very desirable. Only regular manufacturers of furniture will be entitled to space and some is left after all the suitable exhibits are placed.

Overruled the Demurrer. The state has commenced suit on the bond given by the Farmers' and Merchants' State Bank of Minneapolis, to secure the state for moneys deposited in said bank. The sureties on the bond given by the district court have overruled demurrer, thereby holding that complaint states cause of action against the bank and sureties.

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBULES. A meeting of the Minneapolis Press club will be held tomorrow afternoon at 8 o'clock. The annual election of the Commercial club occurs next Monday, and the polls will be open from 12 to 8 p. m. "The Coast Guard" will be represented.

scheduled to play the Illinois team in Madison on Nov. 15, but canceled the game. The Illinois team, therefore, says that they cannot come away up into the Northwest for only one game.

JUDGE SHAW'S EXCEPTIONS. He Makes Three of Them in the Streeter Case. Three exceptions by Judge Shaw formed the interesting nucleus of the Streeter case, which was taken up again yesterday morning, and at 5 o'clock p. m. was continued until next Monday morning.

FLOUR CITY NEWS BUDGET. Bunker in a Fix—Central Market Franchise—Garber, the Grocer.

AN EXCITING LITTLE EPISODE occurred yesterday afternoon in the office of the clerk of the district court. A group of clerks gathered about his window and looked on with interest.

"I think it is your place to have this matter looked up," Mr. Willard was saying. "You are the custodian of these papers and you are responsible for them."

"That's very true," replied Clerk Dicker, "but I don't see how I can do anything in this case. I have so many papers stolen here every year by attorneys."

"I would be glad to go to the office of the clerk of the district court, which was in the files in the clerk's office, had been neatly stolen from the judgment room, made up when the case was appealed. The papers were all fastened together with the ordinary fasteners, but this paper had been torn out so close to them that it would not have been noticed in a cursory glance, and the top of the paper reading 'Bond on appeal from justice—' was still there.

The suit was one brought by W. A. Patten against A. J. Smith's suit. It came up in Justice A. J. Smith's court Oct. 27. At that time Mr. Dicker went to testify in the case and it was noticed that the receipt was offered in evidence, which was admitted as written by one William Gilman, which was a receipt given to Patten by the writing of the name Patten as it appeared in the bond which was found in the new case, and suspicion at once arose that the bond had been forged.

Mr. Brown, who is interested in the outcome of the case, stated that he was positive that one of the four men on the paper, and gave the name of Gilman as the one who was suspected. The clerk who waited on the person asking for the files could not identify him positively, but another of the clerks in the department, who had been on duty at about 9 o'clock Thursday morning, and it was almost positive that the papers had been stolen from the files on which the name of the borrower from the files must be written.

The talk also developed the fact that the clerk who was on duty at the time of the disappearance of the files was at his disposal who can act in the capacity of a detective, and is entirely at the service of the court. The new detective work which is necessary to be done. In addition to the other bills which the court is called on to pay is the item of detective work, which has been footed up a pretty penny in the last year.

"The army and navy forever," and paid use Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

BUNKER A BUNCO. Held to the Grand Jury for Forgery. Rhomine Bunker, the young man arrested Thursday night by Inspectors Hoy and Larson on charges of forging William Donaldson's name to a check for $9.15, which check was passed upon E. J. Jones, city passenger agent of the Great Northern road, was arraigned yesterday by A. F. Noble, one of the railroad detectives. Hollins is charged with forging the name of the companion sworn out against Hollins charged him with grand larceny in the second degree. He was arraigned in the police court yesterday afternoon, and is bound over to the grand jury in $1,000.

Furniture Exposition. The directors of the Northwestern Furniture exposition have decided to hold their exposition in February, from the 4th to the 16th inclusive. The exposition will be held in the rooms formerly occupied by Forman, Ford & Co. in the building. The building contains 50,000 square feet of space, and is very desirable. Only regular manufacturers of furniture will be entitled to space and some is left after all the suitable exhibits are placed.

Overruled the Demurrer. The state has commenced suit on the bond given by the Farmers' and Merchants' State Bank of Minneapolis, to secure the state for moneys deposited in said bank. The sureties on the bond given by the district court have overruled demurrer, thereby holding that complaint states cause of action against the bank and sureties.

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBULES. A meeting of the Minneapolis Press club will be held tomorrow afternoon at 8 o'clock. The annual election of the Commercial club occurs next Monday, and the polls will be open from 12 to 8 p. m. "The Coast Guard" will be represented.

The Junior and sophomore classes of the high school yesterday held special exercises in memory of Daniel Webster. Mayor Eastus delivered a short address to the boys.

COOK GANG OF BANDITS PLUNDER THE VILLAGE OF LANIPAH, I. T. It has been decided by the Holy Trinity Episcopal church to extend a call to Rev. S. B. Purves, rector of St. Peter's church, St. Paul, as successor to Rev. A. J. Graham, who goes to Washington.

TWO CITIZENS SHOT DOWN. COFFEYVILLE, Kan., Nov. 9.—Two of the Cook gang plundered the town of Lanipah, I. T., and left a bloody trail behind them this afternoon. They entered the town in their character of bold bandits without any attempt at concealment, and terrorized the citizens.

ROBBERS LOOTED STORES AND RESIDENCES AT THEIR WILL. COFFEYVILLE, Kan., Nov. 9.—Two of the Cook gang plundered the town of Lanipah, I. T., and left a bloody trail behind them this afternoon.

HEADED FOR COFFEYVILLE. POLICE HERE PREPARED TO GIVE THE SAME RECEPTION AS TO THE DALTONS. COFFEYVILLE, Kan., Nov. 9.—Two of the Cook gang plundered the town of Lanipah, I. T., and left a bloody trail behind them this afternoon.

QUEER PEOPLE. Who and What They Are. Call with 10 cents or send 10 cents to the GLOBE counting room and you will receive one of the handsome books for juveniles that ever came from a printing press.

MORE CASH NEEDED. New York Press Says Another Loan Will Be Asked For. New York, Nov. 9.—The Press tomorrow will say: After the close of business today it was announced that the government will ask the bankers for a loan of $50,000,000.

HEALTH COMMISSIONER EDSON, OF NEW YORK, MAKES AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT SHOWING ITS HARMLESSNESS. (COPY.) City of New York, Oct. 12, 1904. Hon. Thomas F. Gilroy, Mayor, New York City.

TORE OUT HIS TONGUE. Drink-Crazed Negro Dies a Horrible Death. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 9.—While engaged in the act of a protracted fast, Peter Pepp, an inmate of the hospital, last night gnawed his tongue in his hands and tore it partially from his mouth.

GRAND JURY WOULD'NT INDICT. JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 9.—The federal grand jury, which has been sitting two to one, refused to indict the governor, treasurer and auditor in the matter of the printing of the Mississippi state warrants, it being alleged by Chief Justice, supported by Secretary Carlisle and Attorney General Olney, that they violated the laws, which they took $200,000.

ACQUITTED THE CASHIER. OMAHA, Nov. 9.—A special to the Bee from Dakota City, Neb., says: I. H. Freese, ex-cashier of the Home State bank, was today acquitted of the charge of robbing the institution. Last year he claimed robbers entered the bank and compelled him to open the vault, from which they took $200,000. His money was found hidden near his home.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS. The portrait offer has been taken advantage of by so many of our subscribers that it is impossible to deliver some of the pictures at the time promised. We wish to say to those intending to order that pictures must reach us immediately if you desire them for the holidays.

RUSSSELL FOR COMMISSIONER. WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—William E. Russell, of Massachusetts, was today appointed by the president a member of the board of Indian commissioners.

THE BEST TRAINS TO DELUTH, THE BEST TRAINS TO CHICAGO, THE BEST TRAINS TO OMAHA, THE BEST TRAINS TO KANSAS CITY, Run Via The North-Western Line.

MOVEMENTS OF VESSELS. GENOA—A rived: Steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II, New York. QUEENSTOWN—Arrived: Steamer Lucania, New York, for Liverpool. LONDON—Arrived: Steamers Maine, Philadelphia; Maryland, Baltimore. ROTTERDAM—Arrived: Odiam, from New York. LIVERPOOL—Arrived: Ranic, from New York. HAVRE—Arrived: Edam, from New York. BRISTOL—Arrived: Francisco, from Hull. CHRISTIANSSAND—Arrived: Virginia, from New York. LIVERPOOL—Arrived: Lucania, from New York.

TO THE YOUNG FACE. Pozson's Complexion Powder gives better charms, to the old renewed youth, try it.

LEFT A BLOODY TRAIL BEHIND THEM. COOK GANG OF BANDITS PLUNDER THE VILLAGE OF LANIPAH, I. T. It has been decided by the Holy Trinity Episcopal church to extend a call to Rev. S. B. Purves, rector of St. Peter's church, St. Paul, as successor to Rev. A. J. Graham, who goes to Washington.

TWO CITIZENS SHOT DOWN. COFFEYVILLE, Kan., Nov. 9.—Two of the Cook gang plundered the town of Lanipah, I. T., and left a bloody trail behind them this afternoon.

ROBBERS LOOTED STORES AND RESIDENCES AT THEIR WILL. COFFEYVILLE, Kan., Nov. 9.—Two of the Cook gang plundered the town of Lanipah, I. T., and left a bloody trail behind them this afternoon.

HEADED FOR COFFEYVILLE. POLICE HERE PREPARED TO GIVE THE SAME RECEPTION AS TO THE DALTONS. COFFEYVILLE, Kan., Nov. 9.—Two of the Cook gang plundered the town of Lanipah, I. T., and left a bloody trail behind them this afternoon.

QUEER PEOPLE. Who and What They Are. Call with 10 cents or send 10 cents to the GLOBE counting room and you will receive one of the handsome books for juveniles that ever came from a printing press.

MORE CASH NEEDED. New York Press Says Another Loan Will Be Asked For. New York, Nov. 9.—The Press tomorrow will say: After the close of business today it was announced that the government will ask the bankers for a loan of $50,000,000.

HEALTH COMMISSIONER EDSON, OF NEW YORK, MAKES AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT SHOWING ITS HARMLESSNESS. (COPY.) City of New York, Oct. 12, 1904. Hon. Thomas F. Gilroy, Mayor, New York City.

TORE OUT HIS TONGUE. Drink-Crazed Negro Dies a Horrible Death. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 9.—While engaged in the act of a protracted fast, Peter Pepp, an inmate of the hospital, last night gnawed his tongue in his hands and tore it partially from his mouth.

GRAND JURY WOULD'NT INDICT. JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 9.—The federal grand jury, which has been sitting two to one, refused to indict the governor, treasurer and auditor in the matter of the printing of the Mississippi state warrants, it being alleged by Chief Justice, supported by Secretary Carlisle and Attorney General Olney, that they violated the laws, which they took $200,000.

ACQUITTED THE CASHIER. OMAHA, Nov. 9.—A special to the Bee from Dakota City, Neb., says: I. H. Freese, ex-cashier of the Home State bank, was today acquitted of the charge of robbing the institution. Last year he claimed robbers entered the bank and compelled him to open the vault, from which they took $200,000. His money was found hidden near his home.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS. The portrait offer has been taken advantage of by so many of our subscribers that it is impossible to deliver some of the pictures at the time promised. We wish to say to those intending to order that pictures must reach us immediately if you desire them for the holidays.

RUSSSELL FOR COMMISSIONER. WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—William E. Russell, of Massachusetts, was today appointed by the president a member of the board of Indian commissioners.

THE BEST TRAINS TO DELUTH, THE BEST TRAINS TO CHICAGO, THE BEST TRAINS TO OMAHA, THE BEST TRAINS TO KANSAS CITY, Run Via The North-Western Line.

MOVEMENTS OF VESSELS. GENOA—A rived: Steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II, New York. QUEENSTOWN—Arrived: Steamer Lucania, New York, for Liverpool. LONDON—Arrived: Steamers Maine, Philadelphia; Maryland, Baltimore. ROTTERDAM—Arrived: Odiam, from New York. LIVERPOOL—Arrived: Ranic, from New York. HAVRE—Arrived: Edam, from New York. BRISTOL—Arrived: Francisco, from Hull. CHRISTIANSSAND—Arrived: Virginia, from New York. LIVERPOOL—Arrived: Lucania, from New York.

TO THE YOUNG FACE. Pozson's Complexion Powder gives better charms, to the old renewed youth, try it.

WOMEN ALWAYS TIRED. Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher Says She Has Known But Half a Dozen Women Who Were Thoroughly Well.

THE ROUTINE OF DOMESTIC TASKS OVERDRAINS THEIR NERVOUS FORCE. "Among all my friends—and the number of my acquaintances has necessarily been rather large," says Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher, "I can recall but half a dozen thoroughly well women."

"What would the house look like," they ask, "if I were not constantly looking after it?" It would certainly look a good deal more homelike if the wife and mother kept her health and high spirits instead of growing old and careworn from the struggle with dust and the neglect of the three leading nerves, and the watery blood that daily becomes more and more badly nourished.

"What would the house look like," they ask, "if I were not constantly looking after it?" It would certainly look a good deal more homelike if the wife and mother kept her health and high spirits instead of growing old and careworn from the struggle with dust and the neglect of the three leading nerves, and the watery blood that daily becomes more and more badly nourished.

"What would the house look like," they ask, "if I were not constantly looking after it?" It would certainly look a good deal more homelike if the wife and mother kept her health and high spirits instead of growing old and careworn from the struggle with dust and the neglect of the three leading nerves, and the watery blood that daily becomes more and more badly nourished.

"What would the house look like," they ask, "if I were not constantly looking after it?" It would certainly look a good deal more homelike if the wife and mother kept her health and high spirits instead of growing old and careworn from the struggle with dust and the neglect of the three leading nerves, and the watery blood that daily becomes more and more badly nourished.

"What would the house look like," they ask, "if I were not constantly looking after it?" It would certainly look a good deal more homelike if the wife and mother kept her health and high spirits instead of growing old and careworn from the struggle with dust and the neglect of the three leading nerves, and the watery blood that daily becomes more and more badly nourished.

"What would the house look like," they ask, "if I were not constantly looking after it?" It would certainly look a good deal more homelike if the wife and mother kept her health and high spirits instead of growing old and careworn from the struggle with dust and the neglect of the three leading nerves, and the watery blood that daily becomes more and more badly nourished.

"What would the house look like," they ask, "if I were not constantly looking after it?" It would certainly look a good deal more homelike if the wife and mother kept her health and high spirits instead of growing old and careworn from the struggle with dust and the neglect of the three leading nerves, and the watery blood that daily becomes more and more badly nourished.

"What would the house look like," they ask, "if I were not constantly looking after it?" It would certainly look a good deal more homelike if the wife and mother kept her health and high spirits instead of growing old and careworn from the struggle with dust and the neglect of the three leading nerves, and the watery blood that daily becomes more and more badly nourished.

"What would the house look like," they ask, "if I were not constantly looking after it?" It would certainly look a good deal more homelike if the wife and mother kept her health and high spirits instead of growing old and careworn from the struggle with dust and the neglect of the three leading nerves, and the watery blood that daily becomes more and more badly nourished.

"What would the house look like," they ask, "if I were not constantly looking after it?" It would certainly look a good deal more homelike if the wife and mother kept her health and high spirits instead of growing old and careworn from the struggle with dust and the neglect of the three leading nerves, and the watery blood that daily becomes more and more badly nourished.

"What would the house look like," they ask, "if I were not constantly looking after it?" It would certainly look a good deal more homelike if the wife and mother kept her health and high spirits instead of growing old and careworn from the struggle with dust and the neglect of the three leading nerves, and the watery blood that daily becomes more and more badly nourished.

"What would the house look like," they ask, "if I were not constantly looking after it?" It would certainly look a good deal more homelike if the wife and mother kept her health and high spirits instead of growing old and careworn from the struggle with dust and the neglect of the three leading nerves, and the watery blood that daily becomes more and more badly nourished.

"What would the house look like," they ask, "if I were not constantly looking after it?" It would certainly look a good deal more homelike if the wife and mother kept her health and high spirits instead of growing old and careworn from the struggle with dust and the neglect of the three leading nerves, and the watery blood that daily becomes more and more badly nourished.

"What would the house look like," they ask, "if I were not constantly looking after it?" It would certainly look a good deal more homelike if the wife and mother kept her health and high spirits instead of growing old and careworn from the struggle with dust and the neglect of the three leading nerves, and the watery blood that daily becomes more and more badly nourished.

FLOORS CRASHED DOWN. FATAL DISASTER IN A MOUNTAIN OFFICE BUILDING. Two Workmen Killed, One Fatally Injured and Others Maimed.

MONTREAL, Nov. 9.—At half-past 3 this afternoon the top floor of the new and magnificent offices of the city passenger railway, on the corner of Place d'Armes Hill and Craig street, caved in, killing two men instantly, injuring three fatally and maiming a dozen others.

THE DEAD ARE: JOSEPH MARQUEZ, LOUIS FAUVE, both French-Canadians. Pierre Monette, whose injuries will prove fatal, had his skull crushed and bones fractured in many places. While the men were working on the different floors, a heavy beam, which suddenly came a deafening crash, when down came iron beams, planking, brick, mortar and the like, falling as soon as the terrible calamity dawned upon the people an alarm was sounded, and the fire and patrol departments responded immediately with ambulances. A ringing cheer went up when the firemen hauled the extension ladder and reached the sixth story. There in a window sill, clinging to the wall, was energy, was Francis Houle, a bricklayer, who was about exhausted. He was rescued by the firemen.

THE DEAD ARE: JOSEPH MARQUEZ, LOUIS FAUVE, both French-Canadians. Pierre Monette, whose injuries will prove fatal, had his skull crushed and bones fractured in many places. While the men were working on the different floors, a heavy beam, which suddenly came a deafening crash, when down came iron beams, planking, brick, mortar and the like, falling as soon as the terrible calamity dawned upon the people an alarm was sounded, and the fire and patrol departments responded immediately with ambulances. A ringing cheer went up when the firemen hauled the extension ladder and reached the sixth story. There in a window sill, clinging to the wall, was energy, was Francis Houle, a bricklayer, who was about exhausted. He was rescued by the firemen.

THE DEAD ARE: JOSEPH MARQUEZ, LOUIS FAUVE, both French-Canadians. Pierre Monette, whose injuries will prove fatal, had his skull crushed and bones fractured in many places. While the men were working on the different floors, a heavy beam, which suddenly came a deafening crash, when down came iron beams, planking, brick, mortar and the like, falling as soon as the terrible calamity dawned upon the people an alarm was sounded, and the fire and patrol departments responded immediately with ambulances. A ringing cheer went up when the firemen hauled the extension ladder and reached the sixth story. There in a window sill, clinging to the wall, was energy, was Francis Houle, a bricklayer, who was about exhausted. He was rescued by the firemen.

THE DEAD ARE: JOSEPH MARQUEZ, LOUIS FAUVE, both French-Canadians. Pierre Monette, whose injuries will prove fatal, had his skull crushed and bones fractured in many places. While the men were working on the different floors, a heavy beam, which suddenly came a deafening crash, when down came iron beams, planking, brick, mortar and the like, falling as soon as the terrible calamity dawned upon the people an alarm was sounded, and the fire and patrol departments responded immediately with ambulances. A ringing cheer went up when the firemen hauled the extension ladder and reached the sixth story. There in a window sill, clinging to the wall, was energy, was Francis Houle, a bricklayer, who was about exhausted. He was rescued by the firemen.

THE DEAD ARE: JOSEPH MARQUEZ, LOUIS FAUVE, both French-Canadians. Pierre Monette, whose injuries will prove fatal, had his skull crushed and bones fractured in many places. While the men were working on the different floors, a heavy beam, which suddenly came a deafening crash, when down came iron beams, planking, brick, mortar and the like, falling as soon as the terrible calamity dawned upon the people an alarm was sounded, and the fire and patrol departments responded immediately with ambulances. A ringing cheer went up when the firemen hauled the extension ladder and reached the sixth story. There in a window sill, clinging to the wall, was energy, was Francis Houle, a bricklayer, who was about exhausted. He was rescued by the firemen.

THE DEAD ARE: JOSEPH MARQUEZ, LOUIS FAUVE, both French-Canadians. Pierre Monette, whose injuries will prove fatal, had his skull crushed and bones fractured in many places. While the men were working on the different floors, a heavy beam, which suddenly came a deafening crash, when down came iron beams, planking, brick, mortar and the like, falling as soon as the terrible calamity dawned upon the people an alarm was sounded, and the fire and patrol departments responded immediately with ambulances. A ringing cheer went up when the firemen hauled the extension ladder and reached the sixth story. There in a window sill, clinging to the wall, was energy, was Francis Houle, a bricklayer, who was about exhausted. He was rescued by the firemen.

THE DEAD ARE: JOSEPH MARQUEZ, LOUIS FAUVE, both French-Canadians. Pierre Monette, whose injuries will prove fatal, had his skull crushed and bones fractured in many places. While the men were working on the different floors, a heavy beam, which suddenly came a deafening crash, when down came iron beams, planking, brick, mortar and the like, falling as soon as the terrible calamity dawned upon the people an alarm was sounded, and the fire and patrol departments responded immediately with ambulances. A ringing cheer went up when the firemen hauled the extension ladder and reached the sixth story. There in a window sill, clinging to the wall, was energy, was Francis Houle, a bricklayer, who was about exhausted. He was rescued by the firemen.

THE DEAD ARE: JOSEPH MARQUEZ, LOUIS FAUVE, both French-Canadians. Pierre Monette, whose injuries will prove fatal, had his skull crushed and bones fractured in many places. While the men were working on the different floors, a heavy beam, which suddenly came a deafening crash, when down came iron beams, planking, brick, mortar and the like, falling as soon as the terrible calamity dawned upon the people an alarm was sounded, and the fire and patrol departments responded immediately with ambulances. A ringing cheer went up when the firemen hauled the extension ladder and reached the sixth story. There in a window sill, clinging to the wall, was energy, was Francis Houle, a bricklayer, who was about exhausted. He was rescued by the firemen.

THE DEAD ARE: JOSEPH MARQUEZ, LOUIS FAUVE, both French-Canadians. Pierre Monette, whose injuries will prove fatal, had his skull crushed and bones fractured in many places. While the men were working on the different floors, a heavy beam, which suddenly came a deafening crash, when down came iron beams, planking, brick, mortar and the like, falling as soon as the terrible calamity dawned upon the people an alarm was sounded, and the fire and patrol departments responded immediately with ambulances. A ringing cheer went up when the firemen hauled the extension ladder and reached the sixth story. There in a window sill, clinging to the wall, was energy, was Francis Houle, a bricklayer, who was about exhausted. He was rescued by the firemen.

THE DEAD ARE: JOSEPH MARQUEZ, LOUIS FAUVE, both French-Canadians. Pierre Monette, whose injuries will prove fatal, had his skull crushed and bones fractured in many places. While the men were working on the different floors, a heavy beam, which suddenly came a deafening crash, when down came iron beams, planking, brick, mortar and the like, falling as soon as the terrible calamity dawned upon the people an alarm was sounded, and the fire and patrol departments responded immediately with ambulances. A ringing cheer went up when the firemen hauled the extension ladder and reached the sixth story. There in a window sill, clinging to the wall, was energy, was Francis Houle, a bricklayer, who was about exhausted. He was rescued by the firemen.

THE DEAD ARE: JOSEPH MARQUEZ, LOUIS FAUVE, both French-Canadians. Pierre Monette, whose injuries will prove fatal, had his skull crushed and bones fractured in many places. While the men were working on the different floors, a heavy beam, which suddenly came a deafening crash, when down came iron beams, planking, brick, mortar and the like, falling as soon as the terrible calamity dawned upon the people an alarm was sounded, and the fire and patrol departments responded immediately with ambulances. A ringing cheer went up when the firemen hauled the extension ladder and reached the sixth story. There in a window sill, clinging to the wall, was energy, was Francis Houle, a bricklayer, who was about exhausted. He was rescued by the firemen.

THE DEAD ARE: JOSEPH MARQUEZ, LOUIS FAUVE, both French-Canadians. Pierre Monette, whose injuries will prove fatal, had his skull crushed and bones fractured in many places. While the men were working on the different floors, a heavy beam, which suddenly came a deafening crash, when down came iron beams, planking, brick, mortar and the like, falling as soon as the terrible calamity dawned upon the people an alarm was sounded, and the fire and patrol departments responded immediately with ambulances. A ringing cheer went up when the firemen hauled the extension ladder and reached the sixth story. There in a window sill, clinging to the wall, was energy, was Francis Houle, a bricklayer, who was about exhausted. He was rescued by the firemen.

THE DEAD ARE: JOSEPH MARQUEZ, LOUIS FAUVE, both French-Canadians. Pierre Monette, whose injuries will prove fatal, had his skull crushed and bones fractured in many places. While the men were working on the different floors, a heavy beam, which suddenly came a deafening crash, when down came iron beams, planking, brick, mortar and the like, falling as soon as the terrible calamity dawned upon the people an alarm was sounded, and the fire and patrol departments responded immediately with ambulances. A ringing cheer went up when the firemen hauled the extension ladder and reached the sixth story. There in a window sill, clinging to the wall, was energy, was Francis Houle, a bricklayer, who was about exhausted. He was rescued by the firemen.

THE DEAD ARE: JOSEPH MARQUEZ, LOUIS FAUVE, both French-Canadians. Pierre Monette, whose injuries will prove fatal, had his skull crushed and bones fractured in many places. While the men were working on the different floors, a heavy beam, which suddenly came a deafening crash, when down came iron beams, planking, brick, mortar and the like, falling as soon as the terrible calamity dawned upon the people an alarm was sounded, and the fire and patrol departments responded immediately with ambulances. A ringing cheer went up when the firemen hauled the extension ladder and reached the sixth story. There in a window sill, clinging to the wall, was energy, was Francis Houle, a bricklayer, who was about exhausted. He was rescued by the firemen.

FOR lack of a nail the shoe was lost; For lack of a shoe the horse was lost; For lack of the horse the rider was lost; For lack of care the health was lost; For lack of health the life was lost, through Bright's disease.

Headaches, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, despondency, peculiar pains—all these things were the warnings of this great modern disease, which should not have been