

MINNEAPOLIS.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

The patrons of the drama in Minneapolis will be pleased to learn of the change which has taken place in the management of the People's theater. It does not follow that they are pleased to note the retirement of Manager W. E. Sterling, but that they are to be treated to a round of new and higher class amusements. Jacob Litt is one of the most successful and wide-awake theatrical managers of the West, and he also ranks high with his Eastern contemporaries. He has accomplished what many another and perhaps more learned manager has not—furnished his patrons with the best of the theater. He has not been negligent in the outlay of his gains has been demonstrated time and time again. During the dull and heated summer season Minneapolisians have been diverted at the Bijou by the force-makers of the country, and that, too, at the expense of Mr. Litt, for none of his summer ventures were successful from a financial standpoint.

FOUR YEARS IN PRISON

That is the Sentence of the Ex-President of the State Bank.

KORTGAARD TAKES IT HARD.

His Lawyer Preparing an Appeal to the Supreme Court.

WOLF HUNTERS GET A FROST

But They Meet With a Scent That Made Them Honeymooners.

Kristian Kortgaard, ex-president of the defunct State bank, whose dissolution brought ruin upon many and many a man, must pass the next five years of his life in the prison at Stillwater. He will be obliged to work at the bench, for the sentence imposed upon him yesterday afternoon by Judge Smith, of the district court, was:

"It is the judgment of this court that you be confined in the state prison at Stillwater at hard labor, under the reformatory plan, until released by due process of law. Mr. Hart's unfortunate ex-banker's attorney, however, begged the court to make the term of years as small as possible. He said his client was a man who hitherto had borne an unblemished reputation, and that in the matter under discussion he had suffered everything it was possible for a man to suffer. Judge Smith responded by saying that he believed in that doctrine, and would impose the sentence accordingly. He then fixed upon the reformatory plan, the minimum of which is five years and the maximum ten years. The former, it is understood, will be the one given to Kortgaard.

In denying the motion for a new trial, Judge Smith stated that he had made no mistake in his charge to the jury. He would not, he said, were he to personally determine the case, have found Mr. Kortgaard guilty of the embezzlement of the $100,000, but the jury had decreed otherwise and there was nothing left for him to do but pass sentence. Apparently, Mr. Kortgaard, when the sentence was imposed, was uncomprehending. But his lips twitched nervously, and he set his teeth together, denouncing the sentence as being a hard measure. Mr. Hart will set about at once to draw up an appeal to the supreme court, and the hearing will come on Jan. 12. Until that time the convicted man will, under his bond, remain at liberty. The appeal, however, was accepted by the court, is signed by the following: James Dwyer, C. O. Peterson, J. F. Johnson, C. A. Peterson, T. G. Johnson and Mrs. Franziska Kortgaard.

ALAS, ALACKADAY!

Wolf Hunters Find No Wolves, Spill No Gore.

The wolf hunt came off yesterday morning according to arrangements. It was a grand success. Not a wolf was seen, not a wolf was heard, and, of course, no wolves were slaughtered. The whole affair was a good-natured farce. The hunters had a lot of fun. They shot their slings, which were loaded with mud, were chased by rabbits, and beset by polecats. The sport was exhilarating, and the brave fellows who risked their lives and clothes to go along to the hunt will never forget their adventures—no, sir, never.

The hunters left Bridge square under the guidance of the valiant Col. Hoekemeier at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. They loaded their guns, and the coal wagons and express carts. They had their trusty guns with them, and their faithful hounds trailed on behind. A bulging eye occupied the greater portion of one of the conveyances. "For my?" The hunters were afraid of the eye.

The party took the river route and proceeded to Rush Marsh via Fridley, Iron and several other little snags. The party reached the marsh they left loose the hounds and started them out on the scent. The hunt stirred up several of the aforementioned hounds, and the party became very strong indeed, so strong in fact that the hunters were, for the once, afraid of the hounds.

But there were no wolves. For the second time the party was disappointed. The hounds came back to town, and the hunters were disappointed because they had had no wolves to bay at.

WE STRUCK THE NAIL ON THE HEAD!

When some years ago Uncle Sam's Monogram was first introduced, it was a simple matter of giving the best value possible for the money. It was a simple matter of giving the best value possible for the money. It was a simple matter of giving the best value possible for the money.

Uncle Sam's Monogram Whiskey. Is the whiskey that all men prefer—those who know good whiskey and those who only know the taste of good. The guarantee of the oldest and largest established House in the Northwest, Geo. Benz & Sons is on every bottle, which means unvarying excellence.

to the position of his oldest artist in this line, who has been a heretofore any time. The engagement runs for the week with matinee Wednesday and Saturday.

DECEMBER TERM.

Large Number of Important Cases on the List.

The new calendar for the December term of the district court has been printed, and will be distributed at the opening of the term of court this morning. There are a large number of important cases on the criminal calendar, among them being those against Mary Blake, Jesse Sotini, Wasly Varian; Sanford and Briggs, charged with libel; Joseph M. Markham, charged with taking a bribe; and the initiation burial cases, and the East side boy burglars. Burt and William Gilman, charged on the last day of the term, will also come up for trial.

It is probable that the cases against Street will be nolleed as they are called today, County Attorney Nye being of the opinion that if after two trials the result, standing as it did, nothing has been accomplished, it will be useless to try further. In that case Houghton and Cole will also be released from the county. It is expected to try one of the Farmers and Merchants Bank cases this term, probably that of the Farmers and Merchants Bank.

The hardest fought civil cases on the next calendar will probably be the suit to determine the liability of the stockholders of the State Bank. A large number of the creditors of the bank have joined in with the stockholders, Hans H. Olson, and as each stockholder is represented by a separate attorney there are at least twenty different attorneys now acting for the defense.

To strike the shackles of dyspepsia from a suffering people is a part of the mission of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

ALL RIGHT SO FAR.

RAILROAD MEN SETTLE EVERYTHING CONSIDERED.

Representative of the Soo Line Returns and Talks About the Meeting.

The Soo line's representative at the Chicago conference of passenger lines returned to Minneapolis to spend Sunday, and was seen yesterday by a Globe reporter.

The meeting will result in an agreement, he said. "I was amused at the newspaper dispatches from Chicago in the Sunday papers. The statement that the Soo line had not come to any agreement, and that the trouble was with the Canadian Pacific over the question of differentials. Now, as a matter of fact, the question of differentials has not yet come up for discussion, and all points thus far handled have been in line with the route could have been equalized, and through rates for Montana and Colorado. The one-sided rate is not being formally considered, but there seems to be no prospect of any troublesome difference over that point.

"The lines will convene again at 10 o'clock tomorrow, and will probably be kept conferring the rest of the week, if not longer. If a settlement is reached, as I believe it will be, the transcontinental lines and the Western Passenger association will be merged into one organization, and the Soo line will be a part of that organization. The material difference here in Minneapolis, except that all the lines will be included, and that the same local committee here. There will be local committees in each section of the West, with headquarters in some city; one to handle the lines, another for the California lines, and so on. Unless something unforeseen comes up, I think the meeting will be satisfactorily arranged in a short time.

The Public Health.

Prof. Maria L. Sanford addressed the members of the board of public health this morning on the subject of city sanitation and health. She spoke of the filthy condition of the streets, and the consequent detriment to the public health. She advised the board to employ more unemployed in cleaning the streets. She deprecated the absence of good material for the city, and said that the condition of certain parts of the city was too foul for description.

Minneapolis Curriers.

The Minneapolis curriers held a meeting last night in the office of Goodnow & Lawler. The following officers were elected: President, J. C. Harper; vice president, W. A. Kerr; secretary and treasurer, George Anderson; executive committee, E. P. Goodnow, J. C. McChesney and the others. Several propositions were submitted to the club, among them one from John Barnes. A committee was appointed to consider the various propositions and to report some time during the next meeting. It is likely that a large representation will be at Milwaukee on Jan. 14, when the great business takes place, for the curriers are enthusiastic.

Enthusiasm is Aroused.

The proposition to hold a grand ball to secure the silver service for the new cruiser has aroused a great deal of enthusiasm. The executive committee, which is arranging for this magnificent social event, met yesterday morning at J. F. Conklin's office, and the chairman of the various committees reported that the members of the committees approved the proposition to serve the silver service, and that the ladies who have been selected to consider the various propositions, and to report some time during the next meeting. It is likely that a large representation will be at Milwaukee on Jan. 14, when the great business takes place, for the curriers are enthusiastic.

A Fine Record.

The four mills of the Pillsbury-Washburn Flouring Mills company last week turned out a total of 122,483 barrels, which exceeds the best previous week's record. The Pillsbury & Washburn mills made a world-beating record of 9,325 barrels daily average, proving it to be beyond peradventure the greatest flour mill in the world.

Pops Meet Again.

The People's Party Lincoln league held an interesting meeting last night at the new headquarters, third floor of 36 Sixth street south. There were a number of speakers, among them Col. J. B. Hirsch. There was also a discussion of the question of the Women's Suffrage Party. The latter question was discussed generally.

assistants, were hurled through a crashing scaffold and fell forty feet to the floor of the new Lyceum theater this afternoon. All were severely injured. The theater is a new one, and was opened tonight with Leo Skinner, in "His Grace de Grammont" as the attraction, to the largest and most distinguished audience that ever assembled in a Southern theater.

HALF IS NOT TOLD.

More Horrible Details of the Armenian Massacres.

REFUGEES REACH ATHENS

After Journeys of Terrible Hardships and Suffering.

SASSOUN LAID WASTE.

Thirty-Two Villages Devastated—Outrages Beyond Belief.

(Copyrighted, 1918, by the Associated Press.) ATHENS, Greece, Dec. 3.—The Association exclusively has been able to give to the world the facts of the terrible atrocities perpetrated upon Armenian Christians in Asia Minor, and today a representative of the Associated Press succeeded in obtaining additional details concerning the statements previously made. The representative today met twenty Armenian refugees who arrived here from Armenia, after a journey full of hardships and suffering. Securing the services of a first-class interpreter, he gathered the Armenians together at a convenient place, and after having relieved their pressing necessities, the interpreter questioned them concerning the terrible events of which they had been witnesses. This party of Armenians is the first that has escaped from the districts where the massacres occurred, and it is believed that even worse remains to be told, as the horrors recorded are understood to have lasted for a long time after this party fled.

WORKINGMEN ENTERTAIN

English Labor Leader John Burns in New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., the two English delegates to the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor, which will be held in Denver on Dec. 10, arrived in New York today, as companions is John William Benn, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on the two English delegates, and they were accompanied by the Bowers and viewed the apartment houses on the East side. A mass meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held in New York and Brooklyn was held in Cooper Union. The hall was crowded, and the speaker was John Burns, M. P., and David Holmes, M. P., who is on a trip through the United States for his health. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and William J. O'Brien, president of the board of walking delegates, called on