He has kept up his perve to the last, and will put up a vigorous defense. He made a statement at a meeting of independent politicians a few months ago to the effect that he had run through five indictments and had two more to go through. It was made in his usual braggadocio manner. On one of his former trials the jury staid out all night because one of the jurors was in favor of convicting him, while the other eleven voted for acquittal. The man who hung out against him is Charles £. Leonard, who is under indictment for the murder of Charles J. Luth, during the strike of last summer. Leonard's case is also set for trial this week. Court House Commission Allows the Expert Bills,

The joint court house and city hall committee held a special meeting yesterday, at which it made an additional appropriation to pay the bills of George Lenhart, William Robinson, John Kilshaw and George McGarry for examining the heating plant under an order by Mayor Wright. There was $25 appropriated for the purpose, but the men put in bills of $60 each, or $15 per day, for each of the four men. The men refused to accept the $25, claiming they should be paid as experts. The matter has been discussed at various meetings for about a year. It was asserted that the men as experts had not given any information further than was furnished by the engineer in the employ of the joint committee. They were inexorable, however, in their claims, and threatened to sue for them. The board discussed the matter at length yesters day, but finally decided to pay the bill of $60 to each of the gentlemen named rather than defend a law suit. The circumstances under which they were employed to do the inspection left it doubtful as to there being a good detense to the claims.

GUNS LAID ASIDE.

Meeting of the Columbus Shooting Club.

The Columbus Shooting club met last night at the Windsor. This is a very exclusive affair, having the limited membership of fifteen. There are always a number of applications on hand for membership, but as none resign and few die it is seldom that new members are admitted. At the meeting last night it was decided to lay the guns aside for the winter and to meet again in the spring to renew the sports, such as target shooting and hunting. The president of the club is William E. Noyes: vice president, Jacob Danz; secretary and treasurer, P. J. Kavanagh; Fred Campbell and E. J. Heimbach are directors, and, with the officers, make up the executive committee.
