

MUSIC ON CHRISTMAS

Churches Will Celebrate the Day With Elaborate Programmes.

THE EVENT AT ST. MARY'S.

Other Catholic Churches Also Will Have Masses and Fine Music.

AT EPISCOPAL CHURCHES.

Presbyterian, Congregational and Other Churches Will Have Music.

The practice of rendering a programme of music on Christmas morning in churches began in the early history of St. Paul. At first only Catholic and Episcopal churches gave this beautiful observance of the divine holiday.

Following are some of the programmes for the coming Christmas: At St. Mary's Church. Extraordinary preparations have been going on the past several weeks for the Christmas services at St. Mary's church.

At St. John's Church. At St. John's church Christmas day the choir of twenty-five voices will render Flynn's mass under the direction of the organist, Miss Mae Broderick.

CRUSADE ANNIVERSARY. Today is the twenty-first anniversary of the Ohio Crusade. Beginning in Hillsboro, O., Christian women formed themselves into praying bands and entered the saloons to plead with the saloonkeeper to give up the business. The crusade spread from state to state until the nation felt its influence. The outgrowth of this movement was the women's Christian Temperance Union. This twenty-first anniversary of the crusade was celebrated at the recent national convention at Cleveland by 300 original Crusaders, with Mother Thompson, the leader of the first praying band, among them.

The W. C. T. U. of the world over will observe this Crusade day and review the work of the women of the Ohio Crusade. Ramsey county unions will hold a Crusade meeting Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. in the parlors of Central Park M. E. church. The following is the programme: Praise Service Conducted by Mrs. George H. Hazzard. Reading of Crusade Pledge. Mrs. E. L. Farnsworth Solo.

WEAK, NERVOUS, TIRED This is the condition of thousands of women who have the care of households with all their exacting duties and great responsibilities. They are worried by trifles. They suffer from headache. They are burdened, exhausted, discouraged. What is the reason for this condition? It is found in impoverished blood, which causes weak nerves and KID GLOVES. A storekeeper's reputation for truth-telling must be very uncertain when the customer has to depend on the maker's stamp in buying Kid Gloves. No such uncertainty here. We sell "Jouvin" Kid Gloves—the best in the world. And while the name of "Jouvin" appears in several qualities, the poorest "Jouvin" Glove is better than the best of other kinds. Our price will tell you what grade you're getting.

Real French Glove $1.00 a pair. Genuine "Jouvin" Suede and Glace Gloves, black and all staple shades and even-
