

MINNEAPOLIS.

SNAP SHOTS. Herbert L. Flint, the professional hypnotist, will probably be given a chance to exercise his mysterious powers on Blix, the self-confessed murderer of Miss Catherine Gink.

Swan M. Klara, a member of the board of trade, has a scheme on foot, which he says will give the merchants of the Twin Cities telephone service at less than $1 a month.

Bishop James McFieckel, of Duluth, dropped in the West yesterday.

The Republicans of the Flour City are in anything but a pleasant frame of mind over Gov. Nelson's coup.

Some lively times are promised at the caucus of the Republican members of the council to be held at the city hall next Monday morning.

W. M. Berry is not going to have such an easy thing in succeeding himself as superintendent of the Board of Park Commissioners.

John J. Duncan is going to see if he can't have something to say about it.

The reorganization of the defunct Guaranty Loan company will come as welcome news to the many hundreds of creditors who have been wondering if they would ever see the color of their money.

"Hands that rock the cradle rule the world." Nursing mothers transmit all the bad habits of their parents, as many parents are aware of this.

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBULES. The last two performances of "The Passing Show" will be given at the Grand today.

William Hennerly has been appointed night watchman at the jail, and began his duties here yesterday.

August Weenell and J. C. Daly have been appointed to the police force, and will resume their duties next week.

Dr. C. N. Hewitt returned yesterday from Washington, where he has been investigating the work of the bureau on infectious diseases.

Daughters of Rebekah, gave a card party and pie social last night at its hall, 517 Fourteenth avenue southeast.

The state relief commission met yesterday in C. A. Pillsbury's office. The legislature will be asked to make an appropriation to take care of the relief.

Carrie Turner and her excellent company will open a short engagement at the Grand Monday evening, presenting "The Trust of Society" in its original form.

Morris Ginsberg is an applicant for deputy sheriff under Holmberg. Jacob Gould is also in the race, which will be a lively one, as both men have strong supporters.

The Lake Street Methodist church, corner of Tremont avenue and Lake street, was destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The loss is about $2,000, fully covered by insurance.

Richard T. Peckham, of this city, was recently married to Miss Louise Demers, of Providence, R. I. The wedding occurred at the city hall and was a prominent social event.

The Y. M. C. A. winter classes will begin next Monday evening. A strong effort will be made to make the classes exceptionally interesting during the season they are in session.

The North sliders will hold a mass meeting tonight to take action toward extending the Emerson avenue street railway line further south from Twentieth avenue. The meeting will take place at the North sliders rooms.

The school of agriculture began its second term Thursday. The total enrollment of the institution is 281, and the school is doing very well.

The Mississippi and Rum River boom company has been organized. J. B. Bassett, president; R. L. McCormick, vice president; J. B. Atwater, secretary; and R. H. Chute, treasurer and manager.

The lumber market was unusually dull during the past week, the shipments showing a falling off from 1,000,000 feet from the week previous.

Eranshaw Brothers & Co. filed articles of incorporation yesterday to establish a plant in Minneapolis.

Inspector Courtney arrested George Kelly at Meridian Park yesterday for stealing a valuable outfit from Dr. O'Brien, of Wahpeton, Minn.

A call has been sent out by President W. C. Bailey, of the Northwestern Hardware Lumbermen's association, for the annual meeting of the organization to be held in this city Tuesday, Feb. 5.

Following the meeting will occur the annual banquet. D. E. Clark and I. B. Lenton have been appointed to make arrangements for the banquet.

M. C. Colledge, Downing, Arthur Wilson, Wisconsin; R. B. Equette, J. S. Hickey, Minneapolis; and A. E. Peterson, St. Paul, are the committee on the revision of inspection rules.

Minnesota Horseman. The New Year's number of the Minnesota Horseman is gotten up in a very creditable manner.

The frontpiece is a dainty piece of engraving with cuts of the winners of last year's events in the Northwest.

THE GREATEST PURIFIER FOR THE BLOOD.

Why? Pearlina—the only Washing Compound ever imitated.

REPUBLICANS UNEASY

Nelson's Action Creates Much Anxiety in the Ranks.

OLD HENNEPIN MAY SPLIT.

Plenty of Talk About Pillsbury as a Dark Horse.

THE SITUATION UNCERTAIN.

Hard to Tell What the Next Few Hours Will Bring Forth.

While it is true that the more prominent Republicans claim they do not see how Senator Washburn can be defeated in the senatorial race, there is no denying the fact that there is a feeling of instability and uncertainty on all sides which seems to be the result of the action of the Pillsbury faction.

At a meeting of the committee on supplies of the park board yesterday afternoon the offer of W. P. Andrews, of the state game commission, to place a herd of young moose in Minneapolis for $850 was rejected.

The offer declined. At a meeting of the committee on supplies of the park board yesterday afternoon the offer of W. P. Andrews, of the state game commission, to place a herd of young moose in Minneapolis for $850 was rejected.

The Pillsbury faction has been breaking for these many weeks. While the Washburn men appear to be in a jubilant frame of mind, still there is no getting around the fact they are slightly worried, and this was plainly noticeable as the day wore on.

Gov. Nelson's action has come as a surprise to certain ones of the party, who claim they knew of his contemplated step long before election; and now that the bubble has burst there are all kinds of talk as to dark horses. C. A. Pillsbury was mentioned freely yesterday as being a possible choice, should there be a split in the Hennepin county delegation, but so far no one has come out for him openly.

A Globe reporter talked with several leaders of the Pillsbury delegation yesterday, and they would not discuss the situation further than that did not see how Washburn could lose. They are very bitter against Gov. Nelson for breaking faith with them.

There is a break in the Hennepin delegation, Pillsbury would beyond a doubt prove a dark horse. The Pillsbury faction is a dispirited feeling in the ranks, and it remains for the next few days to see just what that dissatisfaction will do. The impression among the city yesterday seemed to be that Washburn's chances were very poor.

IS MARRIAGE A FAILURE?

John Olson Says It Is in His Case.

The marital life of John Olson, a contractor residing at No. 9 Camden place, has been anything but pleasant for the past few years. In 1882 he met a pretty Swedish maiden at Medre Ullerud, Sweden, and after a brief courtship they were married.

For a time they lived happily in the old country, but, tiring of the life there, they decided to come to America, and located in Minneapolis. The environment of the old life gradually wore off, and when Mrs. Olson came to this country, she regretted that she had ever come to this country. He worked one morning not long ago to divorce from the little Anna through his attorney, C. A. Dalby.

Greets vouch for an inferior powder as "just as good" as Dr. Price's. There is none half so good—millions of coals know this.

CASE DISMISSED.

Woman Who Shot Viva Castle Not to Be Tried.

Judge Hicks presided at the criminal court yesterday morning for the last time. County Attorney Nye was present, appearing for the state in person. The indictment against Mrs. Blake, in the case made famous by its trial. This much I will say, I shall require the services of you or some one versed in mental philosophy.

Therefore, I wish to see you right in brief. Let me hear from you soon. I am yours very truly, R. K. ODDELL.

"It is probably the theory of the defense," said Mr. Flint this morning, "that I can so influence Blix by hypnotism that the condition of hysteria in which he has been since his confession will subside, and many of the details of Harry Hayward's alleged participation in the murder will be brought to light."

It is also stated that the defense is also anxious to have Blix compelled to commit the murder while under hypnotic influence.

It was through Prof. Flint's efforts that the story of the Mabel Briggs case at Eau Claire, Wis., was brought out, and that is probably the reason Mr. Odell is seeking his services. Prof. Flint has asked Mr. Odell for further particulars, and will probably go to Minneapolis in the close of his engagement in this city on Saturday next.

PARK BOARD CAUCUS.

Attendance Considered a Great Plume.

A caucus of all the members of the park board will soon be held, when the question of a ticket will be considered. The Democrats will be invited to sit in the game, and it will be decided that the Republicans should select the president, attorney and secretary, providing the vice president is given to them. It is probable that Jacob Stoff will be re-elected to the position which he has held with such success to himself and the Democratic party.

The attorneyship is interesting the members of the board to the greatest degree, and it is generally conceded that if any good Republican attorney made half effort for the office and secured the endorsement of the Republican leaders he would get the office with hands down. The fact that it has cost the park board $1,800 during the year for attorneys' fees, against $1,000 under ordinary conditions, has had something to do with the feeling against the present caucus.

Charged With Forgery.

Matt Collins alias R. M. Newman, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Inspectors Morrissey and Courtney, charged with forgery.

It is alleged that the prisoner has passed a number of small checks, amounting to over $20, made payable to P. J. Moran, he passed on Sutherland & Van Wort; another one for $5, made payable to himself, he passed on John Johnson, a feed man at 25th street, and another one for a similar sum he passed on Saloonkeepers Hartwick and Miller. Collins will be arraigned in the police court this morning.

The Populists Active.

Some lively times are promised at the Populist convention to be held next Monday night. The convention was called for the purpose of electing eleven delegates to the state convention, C. B. Maben says that A. C. Haugan

Don't

Don't imagine for a moment that happiness depends upon surroundings. It is more often the result of disposition.

Don't deceive yourself by thinking you can succeed or be happy with a bad disposition. You cannot.

Don't make the mistake of thinking you can have an amiable disposition if you have bad health, or if there is anything deranged about your system.

Don't misunderstand the cause of bad feelings, irregular pains, weaknesses and depressions. They all have a common cause.

Don't doubt what so many eminent persons have declared, that there is one great cause for most of the troubles of men and women—deranged kidneys.

Don't deceive yourself by allowing these things to run along. Take them in time and by the best and most scientific manner possible.

Don't let anyone deceive you. There is only one great remedy known to the world for the cure of kidney and liver troubles. That remedy is Warner's Safe Cure.

Don't hesitate to use it promptly and constantly, so long as you feel any of the troubles above described. It is certain to keep you and prove "a friend in need."

paid $500 to Sead, Stevens and others to give up the agitation of their faction.

K. P. Installation. The installation of the officers of Hermon Lodge No. 18, K. P., will take place next Monday night at the Masonic temple. Following the installation an excellent literary and musical program will be given.

COURT ITEMS. The case of Christine Miller, indicted for attempting to blackmail George Brackett, was postponed until Jan. 15. The defense promises some startling testimony.

George Morgan, charged with larceny, was dismissed, and an order signed releasing him from jail.

Carl Kobs, aged 83, has brought suit against Lena Proehl et al., his niece and nephew, asking for an injunction to restrain the defendants from disposing of the notes now in their possession, which were given as the purchase price of a place in Bottineau's addition to St. Anthony. Kobs claims that he was induced through misrepresentation to purchase the property for $5,000, and that it was worth about $3,500, and had a $1,000 mortgage on it beside, of which he knew nothing.

Judge Pond yesterday took the case brought by Peter Zeyen against Wenzel Rottmeyer away from the jury. It having been found that the defendant was a lawyer, the arguments in the case will be made a week from today.

The Northwestern National Bank has brought suit against E. H. Turner to collect $2,500 alleged to be due on a 90-days promissory note given last August.

Good wine needs no bush, and good baking powder requires no gift to help sell it. Use Price's Baking Powder and get purity and strength.

SOUGHT TO KILL FOUR. Tragedy the Result of a Husband's Jealous Rage.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 4.—In a jealous rage this afternoon George Jordan shot and killed his ten-year-old son, shot his wife in the forehead, shot his ten-year-old daughter in the arm, and shot himself twice in the breast. On the way to the hospital he begged for poison that he might be relieved of his pain. His confession was that he was a jealous man, and his wife will die. The little girl has a chance to recover, but it is probable the entire family of four will be wiped out.

Mr. Lathrop has of Scotch-Irish ancestry and Presbyterian training, but became an honored preacher of the Christian church, and was an evangelist having held meetings in the leading churches East and West.

It was through Prof. Flint's efforts that the story of the Mabel Briggs case at Eau Claire, Wis., was brought out, and that is probably the reason Mr. Odell is seeking his services. Prof. Flint has asked Mr. Odell for further particulars, and will probably go to Minneapolis in the close of his engagement in this city on Saturday next.

Moonshiners Showed Fight. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 4.—A battle between a posse of revenue officers and a gang of moonshiners occurred in Van Buren county Wednesday. The officers discovered the still hidden in the mountains in an out-of-the-way place. It was run by a man, five or six men being at work on it. The posse crept up to within a short distance of it before their presence was discovered, and the moonshiners made a fight. Putnam, the leader of the moonshiners, was shot through the head and fell dead, and his nephew and several others were mortally wounded. Two moonshiners were captured. None of the posse were injured.

Sparks Held for Trial. CINCINNATI, Jan. 4.—Frank L. Sparks, assistant cashier of the post-office, who created a sensation yesterday by republishing a laylight robbery, and last night confessed his own guilt was today bound over in $2,000 by the United States commissioner. He gave bail.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

To Straighten Out the Owl. YANKTON, S. D., Jan. 4.—M. P. Ohlman, of this city, was today appointed a receiver of the defunct firm of Pierce, Wright & Co., bankers, whose winding-up affairs are being handled by the senior member, J. T. M. Pierce, who was made public a short time ago. Mr. Ohlman was formerly a partner in the firm, and the bank in which he was interested with Pierce probably escaped being victimized through his becoming acquainted with Pierce's scheme. It is also announced that E. Leaden Hough, of London, Eng., has been appointed receiver of the English assets of John T. M. Pierce.

Roehm Unconcerned. DICKINSON, N. D., Jan. 4.—By order of the court Fred Roehm, the sixteen-year-old murderer of Ed Severson, of Meador, was taken to Mandan this morning. Frederick Roehm, of this place, was charged with the shooting, and was passing through, for the first time since the terrible deed of two weeks ago. He was seemingly unconcerned and said he would get along all right if they would only hang old Wadsworth, who he says planned the murder.

SAINT PAUL'S SUPREMACY

In All Matters Pertaining to Control of the Church in America.

ENCYCLICAL FROM THE POPE

Conferring Almost Plenary Powers Soon to Be Issued.

ECCLESIASTIC HOME RULE, Showing the Liberal Attitude of the Vatican Towards the United States.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—A special telegram to the Post from Rome says: The expected encyclical from Pope Leo addressed to the archbishops and bishops of the United States is now ready and will be transmitted through the usual channels in a few days. It treats principally with the authority and the powers of the apostolic delegate, Mgr. Satolli, who is confirmed and strengthened in his position.

The letter is certain to cause a profound sensation in ecclesiastical circles in the United States, similar to that which excited in France last year by Leo's recommendation to the Catholic leaders of that country, in which he urged them to accept the republic and to renounce their efforts and their efforts by standing aloof and striving for the impossible—i. e., the return and the restoration of the royalists to power.

In the present important encyclical Pope Leo's friendly disposition toward the republic was manifestly toward a republican form of government, demonstrating anew that the church is free to accept and sympathize with popular institutions not inherently hostile to Christian principles.

This is a further and more important recognition of home rule in the church, and will go far to do away with the jealousy of Rome and Roman influence which has hitherto prevailed in certain quarters within and without the church.

The encyclical, in language and spirit, breathes an ardent affection of the people of the United States, and is not sparing in expressions of respect and admiration for the popular form and democratic spirit of our government.

From this forecast of the encyclical it is easy to see that it will be received with gladness and interest for courage by all classes, adding a new and important testimony to the justly earned title of Leo XIII.—the pope of the people.

The encyclical, in language and spirit, breathes an ardent affection of the people of the United States, and is not sparing in expressions of respect and admiration for the popular form and democratic spirit of our government.

From this forecast of the encyclical it is easy to see that it will be received with gladness and interest for courage by all classes, adding a new and important testimony to the justly earned title of Leo XIII.—the pope of the people.

The encyclical, in language and spirit, breathes an ardent affection of the people of the United States, and is not sparing in expressions of respect and admiration for the popular form and democratic spirit of our government.

From this forecast of the encyclical it is easy to see that it will be received with gladness and interest for courage by all classes, adding a new and important testimony to the justly earned title of Leo XIII.—the pope of the people.

The encyclical, in language and spirit, breathes an ardent affection of the people of the United States, and is not sparing in expressions of respect and admiration for the popular form and democratic spirit of our government.

From this forecast of the encyclical it is easy to see that it will be received with gladness and interest for courage by all classes, adding a new and important testimony to the justly earned title of Leo XIII.—the pope of the people.

The encyclical, in language and spirit, breathes an ardent affection of the people of the United States, and is not sparing in expressions of respect and admiration for the popular form and democratic spirit of our government.

From this forecast of the encyclical it is easy to see that it will be received with gladness and interest for courage by all classes, adding a new and important testimony to the justly earned title of Leo XIII.—the pope of the people.

The encyclical, in language and spirit, breathes an ardent affection of the people of the United States, and is not sparing in expressions of respect and admiration for the popular form and democratic spirit of our government.

From this forecast of the encyclical it is easy to see that it will be received with gladness and interest for courage by all classes, adding a new and important testimony to the justly earned title of Leo XIII.—the pope of the people.

The encyclical, in language and spirit, breathes an ardent affection of the people of the United States, and is not sparing in expressions of respect and admiration for the popular form and democratic spirit of our government.

From this forecast of the encyclical it is easy to see that it will be received with gladness and interest for courage by all classes, adding a new and important testimony to the justly earned title of Leo XIII.—the pope of the people.

The encyclical, in language and spirit, breathes an ardent affection of the people of the United States, and is not sparing in expressions of respect and admiration for the popular form and democratic spirit of our government.

From this forecast of the encyclical it is easy to see that it will be received with gladness and interest for courage by all classes, adding a new and important testimony to the justly earned title of Leo XIII.—the pope of the people.

The encyclical, in language and spirit, breathes an ardent affection of the people of the United States, and is not sparing in expressions of respect and admiration for the popular form and democratic spirit of our government.

From this forecast of the encyclical it is easy to see that it will be received with gladness and interest for courage by all classes, adding a new and important testimony to the justly earned title of Leo XIII.—the pope of the people.

The encyclical, in language and spirit, breathes an ardent affection of the people of the United States, and is not sparing in expressions of respect and admiration for the popular form and democratic spirit of our government.

From this forecast of the encyclical it is easy to see that it will be received with gladness and interest for courage by all classes, adding a new and important testimony to the justly earned title of Leo XIII.—the pope of the people.

The encyclical, in language and spirit, breathes an ardent affection of the people of the United States, and is not sparing in expressions of respect and admiration for the popular form and democratic spirit of our government.

From this forecast of the encyclical it is easy to see that it will be received with gladness and interest for courage by all classes, adding a new and important testimony to the justly earned title of Leo XIII.—the pope of the people.

The encyclical, in language and spirit, breathes an ardent affection of the people of the United States, and is not sparing in expressions of respect and admiration for the popular form and democratic spirit of our government.

From this forecast of the encyclical it is easy to see that it will be received with gladness and interest for courage by all classes, adding a new and important testimony to the justly earned title of Leo XIII.—the pope of the people.

The encyclical, in language and spirit, breathes an ardent affection of the people of the United States, and is not sparing in expressions of respect and admiration for the popular form and democratic spirit of our government.

From this forecast of the encyclical it is easy to see that it will be received with gladness and interest for courage by all classes, adding a new and important testimony to the justly earned title of Leo XIII.—the pope of the people.

The encyclical, in language and spirit, breathes an ardent affection of the people of the United States, and is not sparing in expressions of respect and admiration for the popular form and democratic spirit of our government.

From this forecast of the encyclical it is easy to see that it will be received with gladness and interest for courage by all classes, adding a new and important testimony to the justly earned title of Leo XIII.—the pope of the people.

The encyclical, in language and spirit, breathes an ardent affection of the people of the United States, and is not sparing in expressions of respect and admiration for the popular form and democratic spirit of our government.

From this forecast of the encyclical it is easy to see that it will be received with gladness and interest for courage by all classes, adding a new and important testimony to the justly earned title of Leo XIII.—the pope of the people.

The encyclical, in language and spirit, breathes an ardent affection of the people of the United States, and is not sparing in expressions of respect and admiration for the popular form and democratic spirit of our government.

From this forecast of the encyclical it is easy to see that it will be received with gladness and interest for courage by all classes, adding a new and important testimony to the justly earned title of Leo XIII.—the pope of the people.

The encyclical, in language and spirit, breathes an ardent affection of the people of the United States, and is not sparing in expressions of respect and admiration for the popular form and democratic spirit of our government.

From this forecast of the encyclical it is easy to see that it will be received with gladness and interest for courage by all classes, adding a new and important testimony to the justly earned title of Leo XIII.—the pope of the people.

The encyclical, in language and spirit, breathes an ardent affection of the people of the United States, and is not sparing in expressions of respect and admiration for the popular form and democratic spirit of our government.

From this forecast of the encyclical it is easy to see that it will be received with gladness and interest for courage by all classes, adding a new and important testimony to the justly earned title of Leo XIII.—the pope of the people.

FREE

Price List Groceries

FREE Carpets, Wall Paper, Dry Goods, Paints, ALSO

GROCERY PRICE LIST.

FREE to any one who will return THIS advertisement and send us 17 farmers' names and postoffice addresses. Send us 15 cents and we will send you by express (we pay express) our 575-page Catalogue, containing over 100,000 cuts and prices of Hardware, Stoves, Furniture, Farm Implements, Guns, Dry Goods and Everything needed. Address

T. M. ROBERTS' SUPPLY HOUSE, Minneapolis, Minn.

Killed in a Collision. BALDWIN, Wis., Jan. 4.—James Carr, aged fifty, an old and respected citizen of this county, was thrown from his wagon Wednesday night south of town by colliding with another vehicle and severely injured about the head. He died several hours later.

A wholesome mince pie is a marvel of culinary skill. Dr. Price's Baking Powder makes the crust deliciously wholesome.

They Indorse Clark. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 4.—The Democratic state executive committee at its meeting today adopted resolutions expressing their full and unabated confidence in the clean and unspiced character of Hon. C. D. Clark, and deploring the unwarranted attacks upon him.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

He has a long record of public service, and his name is a guarantee of high character and high ability. He