

SAINT PAUL.

HERE AND THERE.

The Thursday club will hold its regular meeting at the house of Hope church today.

The young people of St. John's church will give a musical and basket social tonight at their hall, corner of Franklin and First streets.

The regular meeting of the Theological society will be held this evening at 8:30 at the hall of the Y. M. C. A.

Articles of incorporation of the H. A. Lech company, of Minneapolis, were filed yesterday.

An educational school for the benefit of the Ann Arbor Bible church will be held at the Christian church, corner of Nelson and Farrington avenues, last night.

The ladies of Central W. C. T. U. will meet in Ford's Music hall this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The trustees of the police pension fund met yesterday and passed the pension pay roll for December.

The Bon-Ton Social club will give its second prize drawing this evening.

A special revival meeting of interest are continued at Atlantic Congregational church this week.

The insurance commission admitted the following companies to do business in this state yesterday.

A Company Lunch—What to Have and How to Serve It.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

County Surveyors Organize.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

HE MAKES ONE OF HIS TIMED BREAKS AT CHIEF CLARK.

AND IS CALLED DOWN HARD.

EX-PATROLMAN AHERN THREATENS AND GETS GAY WITH MR. STROUSE.

AND SUFFERS LIKEWISE.

A BREEZY SESSION OF THE ASSEMBLY POLICE COMMITTEE.

Timothy Reardon's mouth got him into trouble last night—trouble some.

He uttered one of his characteristic slurs against the police, this time in the presence of the chief of that department.

When Reardon had finished his tirade, Chief Clark gave him a tongue lashing that caused him to quail, and that he will remember for many a day to come.

All are hungry jobs.

HOUSING OF JUDGE TWOMBLY STILL CONTINUES.

Senators and Representatives Are Divided on the Candidates.

Hungry little Republicans are still crackling away at Judge Twombly, and are collecting their friends and sending them to say to the Democratic judge:

"Appoint a Republican clerk or we will abolish your office and take from you the means of a livelihood."

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

UNLESS A CRIMINAL NO CHILD SHOULD BE SENT TO THE STATE REFORM SCHOOL.

SAYS JUDGE CHAS. D. KERR.

IN A TALK ON THE STREET BOY FROM A LEGAL STANDPOINT.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE DAY OF THE CHARITIES AND CORRECTIONS CONVENTION AT THE CAPITOL.

The committee on time and place of the charities convention reported yesterday morning that the next convention would be held in October, 1895, in date of January, 1896.

The change of date was decided upon in order to enable the various smaller societies to put into operation the suggestions of the state conference.

Such suggestions can be acted upon to the greatest advantage during the fall and winter.

Bishop McGillicuddy, of Duluth, not being present, Secretary H. H. Hart read the first paper before the committee on juvenile reformatories.

His subject was "Juvenile Delinquents." He recommended a state agent to look after the boys discharged from the reform school at Red Wing.

As a separate reformer, he presided over a meeting of the committee on the subject of the "Prohibition system is much better than sending children indiscriminately to the reform school."

After some discussion the convention adopted the following report of the committee on reformatories:

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

ALL ABOUT A HORSE.

FRED FOSTER GUES A BIRD-VIDSON TO RECOVER $7,000.

Which Fred Claims He Was Forced to Pay to Avoid Prosecution.

In the suit of Fred W. Foster vs. A. Davidson, on trial before Judge Brill and David Foster, an interesting circumstance is being developed.

Fred is of course well remembered, this being his home in March, 1893, he sold to Davidson, of Smith & Davidson, in the saloon business here, a half-interest in a horse known as Turk for $600.

He claimed the horse was owned by one W. G. Postlewait, who had placed the animal in his stable to be sold. Foster told Davidson that he would buy the other half interest, the price being $1,200.

He furnished a bill of sale signed by Postlewait. Davidson claims the horse was no good, and he raised his interest for $10.

He further claims that Postlewait never owned the horse, and that Postlewait made affidavit to the fact that he never signed the bill of sale.

Davidson refused to come here, and with this affidavit Foster, according to Davidson's own admission, to pay him $2,000 in full.

Foster claims Davidson forced him to pay $7,000, and that the reason he did it was because Davidson had a chance to make big money at the time and could not afford to lose the time and effort and subsequent proceedings would involve him.

He says that as a matter of fact he did make $20,000 in a short time thereafter, and now that he has time to attend to it, he brings suit to recover the $7,000 he alleges to have paid to the defendant.

Attorney Thomas D. O'Brien is representing the defense and Markham & Schmitt are conducting the case for the plaintiff, W. W. Erwin being associated with them, but not appearing in the trial.

Foster was on the stand for a long time yesterday and was subjected to a rigid cross-examination by Attorney O'Brien.

He is as sharp as a steel trap, and the attorney kept him on his feet quite lively. He testified that the bill of sale alleged to have been given by Postlewait to Davidson was a bona fide transaction.

He said the horse was injured in a race during the time Davidson had him, and that he bought him back for $10 from the man to whom Davidson sold him.

AN ELECTRIC SHOCK. The Cause of a Damage Suit Against the City Railway.

The suit of August Heidmann vs. The St. Paul City Railway Company, to recover $4,000 damages for personal injuries sustained in consequence of an electric shock alleged to have been received on one of the defendant's cars last September, is on trial before Judge Brill and a jury.

C. D. O'Brien is representing the plaintiff and M. D. Munn is representing the defendant. The plaintiff claims to have received a shock from the hand rail on the rear of the car while in the act of getting off at the corner of Groton street and University avenue.

He threw him to the ground and caused serious internal injuries. The defense maintains that the plaintiff attempted to get off the car while in motion and fell in consequence of his own action.

The following names appear on the list of those in attendance: A. F. Anderson, ex-sheriff of Goodhue; C. W. Odell, of Kandivoli; G. H. Munro, of Stevens; S. J. Davis, of Le Sueur; C. M. Stewart, of Rice; D. T. Bowen, of Blue Earth; J. C. Johnson, Jr., of Mower; J. Rogers, of McLeod; George Carpenter, of Wright; A. W. De Frait, of Douglas; C. L. Stewart, of Olmsted; W. C. Mitchell, of Freeborn; Aspar Blieden, of Redwood; George Carpenter, of Hennepin; A. G. Anderson, of Chisago; Konnet Mark, of Mill Lake; Ole Gustafson, of Hennepin; H. Block, of Nicollet; George W. Forsyth, of Watonwan; O. N. Maunster, of Aitkin; Neis Munson, of Traverse; E. Bean, ex-sheriff of Hennepin; Charles Chapin, present sheriff of Ramsey.

Everything Goes at Bargain Auction of Finch, Young & Co. Stock & Co. every day, 10 a. m., 381-3 Jackson street.

BANKERS WILL BANQUET. The Minnesota Bankers' Association are here today.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon, in the ordinary of the Ryan hotel, will be held the annual meeting of the Minnesota State Bankers' association, and tonight, in the same room, will be given the annual banquet.

The committee, consisting of F. E. Kenaston, of Breckenridge; Frank Seymour, of St. Paul, and W. B. Parsons, of Lodge Center, has completed all the arrangements, and it is expected that from 50 to 100 members of the association and invited guests will be present.

Addresses will be delivered by J. H. H. St. Paul, William Kittleson, of the National Bank of Minnesota; S. G. Pyle, associate editor of the Pioneer Press, and W. E. Cross, secretary of the association. They will speak on "Why Our Present Currency Has Proven So Ineffective." It will go into some of the causes of the present monetary situation.

The subjects of the other speakers have not been announced. In addition to these speeches there will be a number of informal addresses.

At the meeting of the association in the afternoon new officers will be elected, and the newly-elected president will preside at the banquet in the evening. The reception committee consists of E. H. Dalley and D. A. Montfort, St. Paul; William Kittleson, of Minneapolis; Dr. F. H. Wellwood, of Granite Falls, and F. E. Kenaston, of Breckenridge. Ryder's orchestra will furnish music.

Cross is Hoped. The matter of electing a new secretary of the state agricultural society has been postponed for one month.

This action was taken at a meeting of the board of directors held yesterday afternoon. Thus the present secretary, W. E. Cross, gets a thirty-day lease of life and is proportionately happy.

Rheumatism IS A FOE. Which gives no quarter. It torments its victims day and night. It forbids work or pleasure. It banishes sleep, destroys peace and makes happiness impossible.

Rheumatism IS RUTED. By Hood's Sarsaparilla, which neutralizes the acid in the blood, cures the aches and pains, and releases the tortured victim. Thousands who were formerly afflicted with rheumatism have found that Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures. "My husband was troubled with rheumatism and severe head aches. He commenced taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and before he had finished one bottle his rheumatism had left him, and he was better in every respect." EDITOR BOSTON HERALD.

Acted harmoniously with Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c. Hood's Pills.

Field, Mahler & Co. HOTEL IMPERIAL, COR. MICHIGAN AND 14TH STS., ST. PAUL, MINN.

Field, Mahler & Co. HOTEL IMPERIAL, COR. MICHIGAN AND 14TH STS., ST. PAUL, MINN.

Field, Mahler & Co. HOTEL IMPERIAL, COR. MICHIGAN AND 14TH STS., ST. PAUL, MINN.

Field, Mahler & Co. HOTEL IMPERIAL, COR. MICHIGAN AND 14TH STS., ST. PAUL, MINN.

Field, Mahler & Co. HOTEL IMPERIAL, COR. MICHIGAN AND 14TH STS., ST. PAUL, MINN.

CHILD SHOULD BE SENT TO THE STATE REFORM SCHOOL.

SAYS JUDGE CHAS. D. KERR.

IN A TALK ON THE STREET BOY FROM A LEGAL STANDPOINT.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE DAY OF THE CHARITIES AND CORRECTIONS CONVENTION AT THE CAPITOL.

The committee on time and place of the charities convention reported yesterday morning that the next convention would be held in October, 1895, in date of January, 1896.

The change of date was decided upon in order to enable the various smaller societies to put into operation the suggestions of the state conference.

Such suggestions can be acted upon to the greatest advantage during the fall and winter.

Bishop McGillicuddy, of Duluth, not being present, Secretary H. H. Hart read the first paper before the committee on juvenile reformatories.

His subject was "Juvenile Delinquents." He recommended a state agent to look after the boys discharged from the reform school at Red Wing.

As a separate reformer, he presided over a meeting of the committee on the subject of the "Prohibition system is much better than sending children indiscriminately to the reform school."

After some discussion the convention adopted the following report of the committee on reformatories:

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

Resolved, that we, as a state conference of charities and corrections, hereby respectfully call the attention of our fellow citizens to the following resolutions as being worthy of their consideration.

ALL ABOUT A HORSE.

FRED FOSTER GUES A BIRD-VIDSON TO RECOVER $7,000.

Which Fred Claims He Was Forced to Pay to Avoid Prosecution.

In the suit of Fred W. Foster vs. A. Davidson, on trial before Judge Brill and David Foster, an interesting circumstance is being developed.

Fred is of course well remembered, this being his home in March, 1893, he sold to Davidson, of Smith & Davidson, in the saloon business here, a half-interest in a horse known as Turk for $600.

He claimed the horse was owned by one W. G. Postlewait, who had placed the animal in his stable to be sold. Foster told Davidson that he would buy the other half interest, the price being $1,200.

He furnished a bill of sale signed by Postlewait. Davidson claims the horse was no good, and he raised his interest for $10.

He further claims that Postlewait never owned the horse, and that Postlewait made affidavit to the fact that he never signed the bill of sale.

Davidson refused to