

BALL PARK CHOSEN

It Will Occupy the Site Here-fore Used as Circus Grounds,

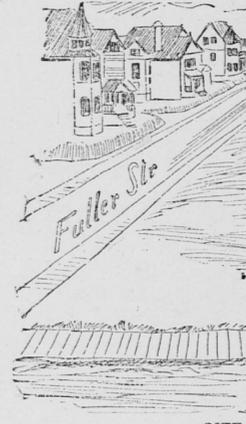

NEAR UNIVERSITY AND DALE

The Deal Closed and the Work Will Be Commenced at Once.

MR. COMISKEY IS ENERGETIC

And Will Be Ready to Begin Business at the Proper Time.

Capt. Comiskey has selected the site for the base ball park. The lot chosen includes a block 60x130 feet, and is bounded by Dale street, Aurora avenue, St. Albans and Fuller streets, the old circus grounds. The site is an excellent one. Capt. Comiskey was impressed with it at his first inspection, and after consulting weights, Jimmy Murphy and Jack Cooney, at the Fair Play Athletic club tonight, resulted in a draw in the tenth round. The fight was fast and furious from start to finish and very clever work was done on both sides.

SIDDONS OUTFOUGHT.

Tommy White Winner in the Featherweight Contest. CHICAGO, March 18.—At the Tri-Angle club tonight a large audience witnessed a six-round go between Tommy White and George Siddons, the latter of New York. This was the third meeting between these featherweights, the former contests being drawn. Tonight's battle ended in White's favor, Siddons being out-fought in every round. In the second White scored a clean knock-down, and Siddons was quite groggy at the end of the round. In the fifth he again received some awful punishment, and but for his good condition would have undoubtedly been out. White was given the fight.

RYAN AGAINST BURGE.

Parson Davies Puts in the Well-Weighted Foretell. NEW YORK, March 18.—Parson Davies' foretell of $500 to match Tommy Ryan against Dick Burge, of England, arrived here from Chicago today. In his explanatory letter Davies says: "I enclose $500 as a foretell to match Tommy Ryan against Dick Burge for the welterweight championship of the world and $50 a side, the men to weigh 142 pounds in ring costume, at 1 o'clock

DAZED O'DONNELL.

Big Battle in Boston Declared a Draw at the End of the Eighth Round.

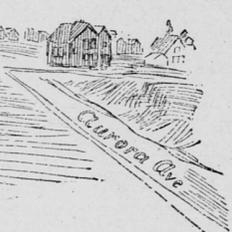

KILRAIN HAD BEST OF IT.

Rushing the Australian in the Last Round Almost to a Knock-Out.

SULLIVAN WAS EXCITED.

The Ex-Champion Much Disappointed, as He Wished to Challenge.

BOSTON, Mass., March 18.—In the presence of 2,000 people at the Suffolk Athletic club, tonight, Jake Kilrain, of Baltimore, and Steve O'Donnell, of Australia, Corbett's sparring partner, fought eight rounds, and at the close Referee Patsy Shepard, amid shouts of "Kilrain," declared the contest a draw. While the ref-

Portrait of Jake Kilrain.

ere was making up his mind, John L. Sullivan, who sat just outside the rope, close by Kilrain's corner, from which position he has been coaching the Baltimorean, mounted a chair and, waving his title, demanded a decision. He shouted: "What is the decision, Patsy?" and when a draw was announced he sprang into the arena and rushed towards O'Donnell's corner. Two of the seconds grabbed him by the arms and turned him aside. Then he clasped hands with Kilrain in apparent congratulation and, swinging his arms, showed the latter how the fight might have been won. He was ready, he declared, to challenge the winner, if the referee had only named one. The ex-champion was

HONORS FOR KILRAIN.

In the preliminary bouts Billy Hill, of Washington, D. C., and Sam Tompkins, of Astoria, N. Y., fought at 137 pounds. In the first round Hill did some terrific fighting and felled Tompkins twice. Tompkins improved somewhat until the fifth round, when the colored boy knocked him out with a right upper-cut.

LATHAM BALKS.

He Refused to Go South with the Reds. BALTIMORE, March 18.—A special train to the Sun from Boston says: Arlo Latham, in an interview concerning statements published in Cincinnati, with the Cincinnati club, is making $20 a week and has plenty of time to devote to training each day, so he is not necessary. When April comes I will report for work in splendid condition. I received one letter from Manager Ewing asking me to report March 4, to which I replied, informing him of my advantages here, and that I preferred to receive the training with Kilrain, if possible. Before he received my letter, he sent another, and last Monday he came to place the training blow. I was ready, he declared, to challenge the winner, if the referee had only named one. The ex-champion was

NEGROES SENT BACK.

JUST A HINT OF FURTHER TROUBLE AT NEW ORLEANS.

STRIKERS MAKE A PROTEST

Against Blacks Displacing Screwmen Across the River—Quiet on the Levee.

AGITATOR IN UNIFORM.

Youngstown, O., Letter Carrier Discharged for Conspiracy.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Assistant Postmaster-General Jones today advised the railroad carriers that the carrier at Youngstown, O. An inspector had made a report on the case, and the carrier was charged with conspiring to obstruct the order of the postmaster general in preventing overtime charges. It was learned that the Youngstown carrier had taken advantage of leave of absence to go to Canton, and was about to perfect an organization of letter carriers so that they would be able to get out of the city without such other and prevent the discharge of any man for any cause whatever.

Mr. Jones says that combinations among employees of this kind will not be tolerated.

Fashionable People Are Already Asking Each Other

Where they will spend the summer. Assuming you are one of them and an Eastern resort is selected, you will be interested in knowing that the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railway is the most popular line for this class of travel between Chicago and the East. J. E. Hull, T. P. A., 154 East Third street, St. Paul, Minn. C. K. Wilber, W. P. A., Chicago.

BRANCH CONCERNS EXEMPT.

New Instructions to Collectors of Internal Revenue Tax.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The following instructions have been sent to collectors of internal revenue: "Corporations are required to make lists of all persons who are or may be a deputy collector of the district in which their principal office, from which all of their business is directed, and in which their books and records are kept, is located. Branch houses and sub-offices are therefore not required to make returns to collectors of that part of the business under their control."

Dynamiter Sent Up.

LIEGE, Belgium, March 18.—The soldier Baron von Sternberg, chief of the international band of anarchists, who is now imprisoned in St. Petersburg, has been found guilty of stealing dynamite and sentenced in his absence to imprisonment for life.

Work for a Thousand.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., March 18.—Work was started in the calendar room of the Hillville Rubber mills, which have been idle for weeks and will be ready to start on Monday of this week all of the 1,500 hands employed in the mills will be at work.

Fell Dead Without Warning.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Capt. William T. Brayton, a clerk in the pension office, who came here from Janesville, Wis., in 1882, dropped dead on the street today. He leaves a widow, two sons and one daughter.

Wholesale and Retail Jewelers.

Wholesale and Retail Jewelers, Fine Watches, Diamonds, Silverware, Cut Glass, Optical Goods, Clocks, etc.

Corbett's Crew to Go Abroad.

ITHACA, N. Y., March 18.—Commodore Hastings today mailed the entry papers for Corbett's variety crew to row in the annual Henly regatta on the Thames river, England.

Draw in Tenth.

CINCINNATI, O., March 18.—The sparring match between two light-

CARRIERS GO BLINE

Move of Postoffice Employees Not Relished by the Authorities.

LABOR UNION IN UNIFORM.

An Organization Formed to Secure an Increase in Salaries.

ONE AGITATOR DISMISSED.

Postmaster General Dealing With Dissatisfied Men as Conspirators.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The postoffice department has information of a powerful combination of postal employees, designed to bring pressure upon congress to overturn certain regulations and rules of the department. The employees have already succeeded in securing an attaching to the last postoffice appropriation bill an amendment which suspended an order of the department. This order was issued last June, and directed that by the 1st of May, 1895, all railway mail service employees should remove to some point along the line of the route on which he was employed. This was unsatisfactory to some of the clerks, and they obtained legislation overruling the order. The reason for issuing the order is explained at the department as necessary because at the time the order was issued there were about 1,300 of the 7,000 in the service who did not live on the lines where they worked. When there was an accident or anything else which caused an emergency, those who were on leave away from the line where they worked escaped the extra duty, and it fell upon those living on the route. Of the 1,300 who were living off the lines where they worked, all but about 300 have notified the department that they have or will remove their homes to where requested. Probably all of them will so remove, notwithstanding the legislation overruling the order. The department is now informed that since the failure of legislation in the last congress increasing the pay of employees, a combination has been formed to pass this legislation and also to overturn orders and rules of the department which are unsatisfactory to them. A high official of the department says that he has not heard of any such combination. "This combination includes some thousands of employees in the railway mail service, the letter carriers service, and in postoffices. They are all in the service and are protected from removal. The aggregate amount of the increase demanded is about $200,000. This is not of so much importance as the effect on the discipline of the department and the efficiency of the service.

These employees, numbering about 30,000, are asking for an increase of $200,000. The effect of this combination would be to create a serious financial difficulty for the government. How formidable the combination may become is a matter of conjecture, but the department is not at all sanguine as to the result of any legislation to overturn the rules and regulations of the department as affecting its employees.

Complaint has been made about the order of the postmaster general in directing the recall of passes to railway mail clerks who did not live on the line where they worked, but it is said that the order was issued while congress was in session in order that the clerks and their friends might secure legislation on that subject if they could, and as an intimation of the congress that the department resented interference with its legitimate affairs.

Trunk Lines Committee Rests.

CHICAGO, March 18.—The Western lines are taking a vacation from the labor of putting their passenger cars into operation. Everything seems to hinge on the row between the Alton and Wabash, and these two roads are apparently making no progress toward a settlement of their troubles. Chairman Caldwell will probably, however, call a meeting of the committee within a week.

Jucky Aosta Entertained.

CHANTILLY, France, March 18.—The Duke of Aumale gave a luncheon today to the Duke of Aosta, nephew of King Humbert of Italy (who is understood to be betrothed to Princess Helen of Orleans) and other members of the Orleans family. The Countess of Paris and the Princess Helen will go to England in a few days, in which country it is reported the marriage of the Duke of Aosta and the Princess Helen will take place privately.

Ward Heelers Come High.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 18.—Alton Bradbury, the negro politician who has recently been indicted for participating in the Second ward election frauds, arrived here today from Portland, Or., and was at once taken before the grand jury. It cost Bradbury's friends $400 to get him beyond the reach of the grand jury, and the committee of safety expended $300 in bringing him back to this city.

Powder Mills Go Up.

OAKLAND, N. J., March 18.—A building used as a store house in connection with the M. Money's powder mill here was blown to atoms this morning by the explosion of a quantity of white powder. Three workmen were injured by the flying wood from the building and badly burned. Two of them died soon afterwards.

Substitutes Jailed.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 18.—As a result of the crusade begun by the Sabbath association for the closing of saloons and stores Sunday, four saloon-keepers and a haberdasher were arrested today for violation of the Sunday closing law. It is understood that warrants against other offenders will also be asked for.

Dynamiter Sent Up.

LIEGE, Belgium, March 18.—The soldier Baron von Sternberg, chief of the international band of anarchists, who is now imprisoned in St. Petersburg, has been found guilty of stealing dynamite and sentenced in his absence to imprisonment for life.

Work for a Thousand.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., March 18.—Work was started in the calendar room of the Hillville Rubber mills, which have been idle for weeks and will be ready to start on Monday of this week all of the 1,500 hands employed in the mills will be at work.

Fell Dead Without Warning.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Capt. William T. Brayton, a clerk in the pension office, who came here from Janesville, Wis., in 1882, dropped dead on the street today. He leaves a widow, two sons and one daughter.

Wholesale and Retail Jewelers.

Wholesale and Retail Jewelers, Fine Watches, Diamonds, Silverware, Cut Glass, Optical Goods, Clocks, etc.

Corbett's Crew to Go Abroad.

ITHACA, N. Y., March 18.—Commodore Hastings today mailed the entry papers for Corbett's variety crew to row in the annual Henly regatta on the Thames river, England.

Draw in Tenth.

CINCINNATI, O., March 18.—The sparring match between two light-

THE SAINT PAUL DAILY GLOBE

trouble until the close, when Kilrain swung his left and

MET O'DONNELL'S JAW.

Round Four—Kilrain was again on the defense. He was fighting against great odds, and received great punishment in the face and ribs. In the last minute of the round Kilrain, obeying instructions from John A., which could be heard all over the hall, forced the Australian boy to the ropes and punched for the wind with effect. The spectators stood up in their chairs and shouted for the Baltimorean as he punched O'Donnell.

Round Five—John L. Sullivan disarmed his five and passed Kilrain over the back as he was pushed from his chair. O'Donnell, who clinched, then rushed and got punished in the wind. The two were exchanged, and a break Kilrain's side, and Kilrain and O'Donnell planted two stinging blows upon Kilrain's nose.

Round Six—Kilrain landed his right with effect and got a right hand from O'Donnell in his ear and a right on the heart. Kilrain's nose was now being crumpled, and O'Donnell followed up with a right hander on the forehead. Kilrain's side was again punched three straight rights upon his opponent's face. Kilrain clenched to save himself, and at the clanging of the gong got in a telling right-handers on O'Donnell's ribs.

Round Seven—O'Donnell was again the aggressor, and was forced to the ropes with a stout right hander from Kilrain. O'Donnell got in a left swing with his right for a knock-out, but Kilrain parried and clinched. O'Donnell's right hander was a quick repetition upon Kilrain's face and he was decidedly groggy. Jake was again in and dodging received severe punishment. As Kilrain's side, Kilrain rose and shouted to Jake to let out his right and left straight. Jake obeyed and forced Steve by making his corner when the gong sounded.

Round Eight—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Nine—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Ten—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Eleven—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Twelve—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Thirteen—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Fourteen—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Fifteen—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Sixteen—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Seventeen—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Eighteen—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Nineteen—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Twentieth—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Twenty-One—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Twenty-Two—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Twenty-Three—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Twenty-Four—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Twenty-Five—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Twenty-Six—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Twenty-Seven—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Twenty-Eight—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Twenty-Nine—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Thirty—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Thirty-One—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Thirty-Two—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Thirty-Three—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Thirty-Four—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Thirty-Five—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Thirty-Six—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Thirty-Seven—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Thirty-Eight—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Thirty-Nine—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round Forty—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

THE SAINT PAUL DAILY GLOBE

trouble until the close, when Kilrain swung his left and

MET O'DONNELL'S JAW.

Round Four—Kilrain was again on the defense. He was fighting against great odds, and received great punishment in the face and ribs. In the last minute of the round Kilrain, obeying instructions from John A., which could be heard all over the hall, forced the Australian boy to the ropes and punched for the wind with effect. The spectators stood up in their chairs and shouted for the Baltimorean as he punched O'Donnell.

Round Five—John L. Sullivan disarmed his five and passed Kilrain over the back as he was pushed from his chair. O'Donnell, who clinched, then rushed and got punished in the wind. The two were exchanged, and a break Kilrain's side, and Kilrain and O'Donnell planted two stinging blows upon Kilrain's nose.

Round Six—Kilrain landed his right with effect and got a right hand from O'Donnell in his ear and a right on the heart. Kilrain's nose was now being crumpled, and O'Donnell followed up with a right hander on the forehead. Kilrain's side was again punched three straight rights upon his opponent's face. Kilrain clenched to save himself, and at the clanging of the gong got in a telling right-handers on O'Donnell's ribs.

Round Seven—O'Donnell was again the aggressor, and was forced to the ropes with a stout right hander from Kilrain. O'Donnell got in a left swing with his right for a knock-out, but Kilrain parried and clinched. O'Donnell's right hander was a quick repetition upon Kilrain's face and he was decidedly groggy. Jake was again in and dodging received severe punishment. As Kilrain's side, Kilrain rose and shouted to Jake to let out his right and left straight. Jake obeyed and forced Steve by making his corner when the gong sounded.

Round Eight—This was Kilrain's round from start to finish. His old-time pluck returned, and he showed bull-dog tenacity and thought that his reputation hung in the balance, rushed at O'Donnell like a bull and surprised his antagonist. Kilrain landed a dozen punches on his neck and face. Twice he had O'Donnell at his mercy, but lacked the strength to place the telling blow. O'Donnell acted as though dazed and the spectators shouted to Jake to put him out, but the latter could not respond.

Round