

SOCIETY

The only event of any note that has occurred during the past week was the marriage of Miss Nellie Postlethwaite and Thomas King Baker, which was solemnized on Wednesday evening at the First Presbyterian church. Rev. M. D. Edwards performed the ceremony, and the bridesmaids were the Misses McGill, McClung and Donaldson, of St. Paul, and Miss Carroll, of Stillwater. The best man was Henry Hemmingshouse, and the ushers were Messrs. Lewis, Theobald, Swan and Knauft. A small reception was given at the residence of the bride's parents on Summit avenue, which was attended only by the intimate friends.

Another wedding or two is promised for after Easter, and in the meantime society remains in a perfectly quiescent condition.

The engagement is announced of Miss Jackson, of Omaha, to Alvin W. Kirsch, of St. Paul.

The engagement of Miss Todd, of Cleveland, to Howard James, of Minneapolis, is announced. Miss Todd will be remembered as the guest of Mrs. Tarbox last fall, when she made many friends in St. Paul.

MUSIC.

Durward Lely will appear in one of his delightful recitals of Song and Story at Ford's Music hall Saturday evening, April 6. This will be a rare opportunity to hear Mr. Lely, as he has engagements ahead now for several years in Europe. His programme is a popular one, and as he has a wonderful faculty of dove-tailing anecdotes in his stories, his audience is always kept in the very best of humor. Mr. Lely is comparatively a young man, but though he has taken the leading roles in grand opera with Mme. Patti, and is known as Patti's favorite tenor. He has a magnificent tenor voice, pure, clear and resonant—and is, moreover, these popular songs.

The last of the popular Sunday afternoon concerts to be given by Mr. Seibert this season will take place at the Metropolitan opera house Sunday afternoon next at 2 o'clock. The orchestra will be assisted by three soloists, and the full military band of forty pieces. The object of this concert is to give to local musicians an opportunity to appear before a larger audience, and, besides, to assist the musicians financially, so that they may improve their concert for next season, and also to purchase some new uniforms. The Sunday afternoon concerts have come to be very popular affairs, and the concert at the opera house next Sunday is a very fitting closing for a very good season.

"Love's Return" is the name of a new song, the words of which are by Irwin Beaumont, and music by Westcott W. Price, that has just been received from W. W. Price company, of this city. The price of the composition is 40 cents.

EVENTS OF A WEEK.

A pleasant surprise was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. LeClair, 83 Le Fond street, Wednesday evening, by the company and friends of Division 12, of the grand international auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. Mrs. LeClair was presented with a beautiful silver fish in recognition of her faithfulness as a member of that division. Among

BRILLIANT OPENING
Of Spring and Summer
MILLINERY!

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, April 2d, 3d and 4th.

Our display on this occasion will be the finest we have ever made.

Madame Coe and a talented corps of assistants have gathered a magnificent collection of imported and domestic models, representing in myriad designs the smart, quaint conceits now so much in vogue.

We will also show many unique, picturesque and artistic styles of our own creation. Bonnets this season will be immensely popular for maidens as well as matrons, and Madame Coe has always had a very high reputation for the beauty of her bonnets.

We will endeavor to make the occasion a pleasant one to all who favor us with their presence.
