The board of education has awarded the contracts for supplying the Minneapolis schools with tablets to J. S. Todd, the Graham Paper company and Leslie & McFarlane.

A verdict for the defendant was directed by Judge Belden yesterday in the case of A. Belden against the Northern Railway Company, in which personal damages to the amount of $25.00 were asked.

A real live baby will be used by Miss Jones today in demonstrating to the mothers' class of the Minneapolis Kindergarten association the proper way to wash a child. The baby will receive its bath in St. Mark's Guild hall.

"Faust," with Rosalind Morrison as Marguerite, is attracting large audiences to the Bijou this week. The play has been seen in Minneapolis a number of times, but the interest in Goethe's immortal story appears to be as strong as ever.

The postoffice department has issued an order for the redemption and return of all box keys. The amount of deposits to be refunded on keys furnished at twenty cents each, instead of 25. The order applies to all postoffices in the country.

The new billiard room of the Commercial club, which are now ready for use, fill the entire floor of the Kasota block addition, under the apartments formerly occupied by the club. The room contains eight fine tables and pleasant card rooms at either end.

The Minneapolis Cycle club, limited, has decided upon orange and maroon for the club colors. A try-out has also been arranged for next Sunday, to occur at Minnehaha track or on the macadamized extension of Center avenue. The club officials expect 150 wheelmen from St. Paul to be in attendance.

The city hall and court house commissioners yesterday gave the directors of Asbury hospital permission to use the city side of the main floor in the new court house for a charitable entertainment to last two weeks in May. The entertainment will be a reproduction of "The World's Fair," according to the programme.

United States Commissioner Humphrey, of Chicago, called on Inspector Walsh, of the government service, yesterday with samples of counterfeit postage stamps, 40,000 of which were seized at Chicago recently. When the bogus stamps were compared with the genuine ones they were found to be shades lighter and of a very inferior quality.

John Stevens was locked up yesterday on a charge of having assisted in the burglary of H. C. Alton's shoe store, 507 Thirteenth avenue south. The detective told Stevens, as the young man calls himself, is none other than "Boots" Corman, who was sentenced to the penitentiary seven years for burglarizing the same store.

The proposition to turn the old court house into a joint hospital for the use of the city and county, has brought up the legality of such a transfer. It is claimed that the city could not enter into any such agreement, but would be obliged to secure complete possession of the premises before it could have any proprietary rights.

The exposition stockholders will meet at 10 o'clock this morning at room 404, Kasota block, for a final discussion of the reorganization scheme. The indebtedness amounts to $83,000.

Clean as a whistle—everything that is cleaned with Pearlina. It takes away all that you want taken, and leaves fresh and pure all that you want left. It cleans house with half the work; it does your washing while you wait. Pearlina is a harmless powder. It is hard to waste it, easy to use it, but difficult to do without it.

PEIGER'S SLAYER

Was Yesterday Found Guilty of Manslaughter in the First Degree.

DROP IN TELEPHONE RATES

The Company Will Make Generous Reductions for "Party" Service.

THE EXPO'S FINAL AGONY.

Today's Meeting Will Settle Its Fate—Flour City Budget.

Paul Kleinschmidt was yesterday found guilty of manslaughter in the first degree and sentenced to the penitentiary for five years. The case was given to the jury shortly after 5 o'clock, and in making his charge, Judge Pond stated that the verdict must be either guilty of manslaughter in the first degree or not guilty. The jury retired and within an hour reached an agreement. In presenting its verdict, the jury asked that judicial clemency be exercised in sentencing Kleinschmidt as it appeared that the trouble occurred during a drunken brawl, in which defendant had engaged to prevent an assault upon his uncle Gall by Peiger and others. The prisoner was remanded to jail and will be sentenced until Friday, when it is believed he will receive the minimum sentence of five years.

BANKS SHOULD HELP.

Potato Farmers Want the Big Fellows to Chip In for Seeds.

Mayor Pratt and his colleagues have addressed the following communication to the banks: In carrying out in our city what is known as the Detroit plan for giving employment to the unemployed, we have applied for loans to the banks of families, by cultivating unoccupied land in various parts of the city. Money will be needed to prepare the land, buy seeds and tools, and pay for practical supervision. The use of sufficient land has already been donated, and about 400 heads of families have applied for loans, and are doing so. The commission, of which Hon. Robert Pratt (mayor) is chairman, has asked its finance committee to raise the necessary funds. Feeling that large numbers of unemployed are not healthful to the moral, social or business interests of our city, we believe that our banks will feel it their duty to do their share towards helping these unemployed to help themselves. Funds are needed at once. May we not ask you to donate liberally as you can, and send to William Powell, treasurer, who will send receipt for same. Respectfully, HON. ROBERT PRATT, CHAIRMAN, FINANCE COMMITTEE.

MINNIES EXPO.

Her Officers Would Like to Secure It for Keeps.

It is understood that the city will take a hand in the exposition dilemma at the meeting this morning, which is to decide the fate of that noble pile, Mayor Pratt, with A. M. Miner, Dickinson, Harvey and Elliot, yesterday had a conference as to the advisability of the city securing the property. There is no doubt in the minds of the officials as to the importance of getting control of the institution, as it is conceded that it has been the means of doing the city hundreds of thousands of dollars in the past. The city has not enough money to buy the big building outright, however desirable such a project might be, but if arrangements can be made by subleasing half of its stock, and others contributing part of their stock, the splendid hall may yet be saved to the city.

HELLO-YELLO.

The Telephone Exchange Will Reduce Party Line Rates.

Manager Christy, of the telephone exchange, has given out the welcome news that a new schedule of rates that has been under consideration for some time will soon be made public. The investigation has been made by the exchange, which will make sweeping reductions on all "party" line service. The reduction is to be made sufficiently large to induce a larger number to use the party line service. This action is in line with that taken by other cities in an endeavor to offset all competition rendered possible by the recent patent decision ending the Bell telephone monopoly. Those who can be content with "party" service are to be offered generous reductions in the hope of greatly increasing the number of subscribers.

He Used to Loan It.

E. S. Case, a well-known man about town, advanced $25,000 to one time a wealthy banker in North Dakota in different cities along the Northern Pacific, and at present engaged in the grain business in this city, was locked up at the central station Monday night by inspectors Hoy and Lawrence, and is held there pending the investigation of a charge of alleged forgery. It is alleged that he secured some $20 or $40 upon a forged check, signed with the name of W. J. Jones & Co., and passed upon a well-known saloonkeeper. Mr. Case was brought into the police court yesterday, but as the complaining witness was not present to swear out a complaint, the case was continued until this morning, by which time Mr. Case's friends think the matter will have been settled satisfactorily to all parties. He was arraigned in the police court and dismissed.

All on Arbor Day.

The park board's plan for superintending the planting of trees in the school yards Arbor day has fallen through, owing to the tardiness of the school authorities in answering the propositions. Mr. Berry did not receive the answers until late last evening, which leaves insufficient time to dig holes for planting. Several of the schools are making extensive preparations for observing Arbor day. C. M. Loring will deliver the address at the South side high school, and Mr. Folwell at the East side. Each school will, as usual, be supplied with one tree for planting, but President Folwell has authorized Shaker, Shaker, Shaker, etc. to set out additional trees in the near buildings which are standing on the bare prairie with little or no shade in the playgrounds.

REDS HOLD THE FORT.

Judge Dundy Refuses to Hear Flouring Suits Out of Their Order.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 23.—It is considered rather indecisive now when the Flouring Mills company and other flouring suits relating to leasehold settlers on the Winnebago agency will come up in the federal court, or whether they will be heard in Lincoln or in Omaha. This afternoon District Attorney Sawyer appeared before Judge Dundy and Rieker, sitting together, and asked that they be taken up and disposed of. He argued that the situation on the reservation is serious, and that his opinion some thing should be done at once in regard to it. Judge Dundy said the cases were on the calendar and would not be taken up until reached in their regular order. When it was suggested that they were now down below every other case, Judge Dundy, with some warmth, assured him that so far as he was concerned personally, no one who had a case in court at this time should be discriminated against on account of the government, or threats of Indian trouble. When the cases were reached, if any one was there to represent the two sides, they would be tried, and not before. If attorneys wished to go up among the Indians instead of attending to their cases they must take chances on delay. The judge said he would take up the call of the calendar when it was reached, and so soon as the injunction cases were reached, they would be tried. The matter was left with the understanding. Attorney Sawyer was leaving some 225 tenants on the land were in the court and were anxious for a trial. The cases were not to be tried immediately. The case may not be tried for some time. In the meantime the Indians are restless, but no outbreak is probable.
