

BOB CLARK IS OUT

Fourth District Boiler Inspector Now an Ordinary Citizen.

IS SUCCEEDED BY SUTTON

The Stillwater Man Who Takes Every Office He Can Get.

CLARK NOT SORE AT SUTTON

But He Is Not Particularly Nor Specially Stung on D. Clough.

John B. Sutton, of Stillwater, was yesterday appointed state boiler inspector for the Fourth district to succeed Robert C. Clark.

It has long been an open secret that Mr. Sutton was an avowed candidate for the place Mr. Clark had held for six years. And among a certain few it has been equally well known that the Stillwater man would be appointed. The appointment has been held off this long only because the legislature was in session, and Gov. Clough had other matters demanding attention.

Mr. Sutton has resigned the office of representative from Washington in county, and will assume the duties of his new position Monday morning. His appointment was announced just before noon yesterday, and during the afternoon he was receiving pointers from Mr. Clark, who is giving his successor all the information he will need in conducting the office.

WHO HE IS.

John B. Sutton is forty-five years of age, and is a Pennsylvanian by birth. Early in life he mastered the trade of machinist, afterward perfecting himself in engineering and steam fitting. On coming to Minnesota, in 1881, he became a traveling salesman and expert for the Northwestern Car company. After four years he quit the road to take charge of the engine and boiler-making department of the Minnesota Thresher company's big plant, then located in the state prison. This position he held until the company moved to Minneapolis. In the years of his residence in Stillwater Mr. Sutton has served as alderman and president of the city council. Late fall he was elected to the state legislature as a Republican, and while he did not do much talking he was influential in some directions, and made a fair record. It is said, however, that Mr. Sutton has been a deputy boiler inspector for this district, and enters upon his new duties with a practical, as well as theoretical, knowledge of the work. To a GLOBE reporter the new inspector said he will feel satisfied if his administration of the office shall close with as good a record as Mr. Clark has made. During the six years of his incumbency not one explosion has occurred in the district.

Bob Clark was seen, and expressed himself as entering the thing with kindly feelings for his successor. He could say nothing as to his intentions for the immediate future, but he did intimate that in '96 he would be having some fun himself. The GLOBE received the impression that Bob intends to even up the score with the present state administration, if he can.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH CLUB.

To Meet in Minneapolis, Beginning Next Tuesday.

The Easterlike meeting of the Church Club of the Episcopal Church in the diocese of Minnesota will be held in the parish house of St. Mark's church, Minneapolis, on Tuesday evening, May 7. There will be a reception, beginning at 7 p. m., and dinner will be served promptly at 7:45 p. m.

Rev. Charles L. Hatch, D. D., secretary of the general convention, will be present as the guest of the club, and will be prepared to outline the work and make suggestions as to what is necessary to be done by the churches of Minnesota in the way of preparation for the triennial gathering, which will be in session for three weeks in October next in Minneapolis.

After dinner Hon. Charles H. Strobeck, of Littlefield, Minn., will read a fifteen-minute paper on "What Shall Be the Qualities of a Minister?" and "Our Parish" will be followed by ten-minute speeches thereon by Cornelius H. Paunier, of St. Paul, and Hector Baxter, of Minneapolis. The subject will thereafter be open for general discussion.

This subject opens up the entire matter of permitting women to vote at parish meetings, a privilege they do not now have, but which will be afforded them, if the proposed change relative to that subject passes in the diocesan council. The question of women's question will undoubtedly be animated, interesting and instructive.

The St. Paul members of the Church club are reminding that the interurban line passes directly in front of St. Mark's church.

time in getting to work on the Lakeview camp grounds, with the $5,000 appropriated by the legislature. Builders are now at work on a new mess house, a headquarters building and an hospital. These will all be ready when the Third regiment goes into camp on June 14, to remain nine days. The Second will follow on June 21, and the First goes on July 5, both for the same period as the Third. It will not be possible to do any grading this year until after the close of the encampments.

Important Sale of Real Estate.

The Sale of the Irvine Estate Property will take place at the 4th Street entrance of the Court House on May 11th.

DANGEROUSLY HURT.

Frank Hyland is seriously injured by a runaway horse. A runaway horse collided with a street car yesterday morning at the corner of Third and Robert streets, and Frank Hyland, an old man of sixty-five, who was a messenger on the car, was severely injured about the head. His recovery is uncertain. The horse started from the West side, and dashed into the horse, 27 Concord street, which was attended by Dr. C. M. Tobey.

The check was found to have been severely bruised, and the bone was broken, and there were some minor contusions upon the scalp, resulting from the fall. Although Hyland is not suffering from concussion of the brain, he has received a dangerous nervous shock. His advanced age and comparatively feeble health combine against his recovery. He was but partially conscious during yesterday afternoon and evening, and seemed to grow rather worse than better. He is one of the oldest residents upon the West side, and has lived in St. Paul for thirty years.

NOW THIS IS TOUCH.

WILLIAM AND MARY CULLANE LOSE ALL THEIR PROPERTY

BY MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE

After Paying a Good Rate of Interest for Several Years—A Peculiar Case.

Judge Otis, in a decision filed yesterday, gave judgment for the defendant and ordered the mortgage foreclosed in the case of William and Mary Cullane against the North Star Building society. The case seems a little peculiar in some respects. It was an action to have declared paid a mortgage for $900 given in 1884, on which it is claimed there is still some $800 due after payments at the rate of $14.40 a month had been kept up for a period of ten years, making an aggregate of $1,728 that has been paid. Yet the rate of interest was only 6 per cent.

While the rate of interest is very low, there were other ingredients thrown into the opposite scale that more than made up for this apparent advantage in favor of the borrower. There was a premium of 60 per cent and the borrower had to subscribe for eighteen shares of the society's stock. Then, on the 14th of a month paid by him was applied as follows: Toward paying the premium, $4.00; interest, $4.50, and on stock, $4.50. The $4.50 a month was to be applied on the principal after the first 100 payments. But it took eight and one-third years to pay the premium, so that only a little over $100 of the amount paid in the ten years was applied on the principal.

The court holds that the contract is valid and now the plaintiffs, after all they have paid, must lose their property or continue to pay $14.40 a month for years to come, and all they will have in return is the $900 borrowed and the eighteen shares of stock, which it was admitted in the trial, were only worth some $600.

BAKERS ARE THANKFUL

To Those Who Aided in Securing Bakery Sanitation Law.

The bakers' union of St. Paul has addressed the following letter of thanks to Senator Dunham, Representative Easton and Labor Commissioner Powers, for the part they took in securing the passage of the law relating to the enforcement of proper sanitation in bakeries:

"The International Journeymen Bakers' Union No. 21, of St. Paul, always active in work concerning the health of its members and the cleanliness and excellence of the important articles of food which they manufacture, returns thanks to you, gentlemen, for the services you have given to secure the passage of the bill for the sanitary inspection of bakeries—a law for the benefit of the city of St. Paul and the state of Minnesota may justly credit among the practical and practical actions worthy of universal commendation."

Equal to the Limited.

The Pacific train of the Great Northern equals the finest Eastern limited service in point of equipment.

Three Against One.

John Doe, Richard Roe and William Kicker were arraigned in the police court yesterday morning, charged with a savage assault upon John Dieler. Their trial was postponed until next Thursday. Dieler is a railroad man, having formerly worked for the Northern Pacific. The other three likewise claimed to be railroad men, but the police do not believe that three genuine railroad men would combine to annihilate a weaker brother. Under the pretext that Dieler was a "scab," it is said, the three cowardly assailants bent him brutally about the head and kicked him in the stomach.

Walters' Union Meeting.

The St. Paul Walters' union will hold an important meeting at Labor hall Tuesday evening, when officers for the ensuing six months will be installed. The national secretary's report to the convention held in Boston April 8 shows a wonderful growth of the organization during the past year in the United States. Minneapolis now has a union over 100 strong, which was recently organized, and St. Paul local union intends to invite the Minneapolis members over to celebrate the fifth anniversary of the St. Paul organization on June 3.

MAYOR STORMED.

The Selfish Delegation Which Is Opposed to Sunday Ball

AGAIN WAITS ON HIS HONOR.

They Become a Nuisance in Their Efforts to Abate

A LEGITIMATE AMUSEMENT.

Assistant Corporation Attorney Oppenheim Explains the Law.

Those Eighth ward protesters against Sunday base ball evidently do not read the newspapers. Notwithstanding the fact that the city publications announced that the mayor would grant rendering his decision until next week, as there is no ball game here today, yet they stormed his honor again yesterday forenoon. Rev. Mr. Haupt and Mr. Doty led the delegation. The mayor informed them that he had announced through the daily papers that he would make no decision until next week in any event. He also told them that he doubted whether he had any right to interfere with Sunday base ball.

Assistant City Attorney Oppenheim, who was present, then explained the legal aspect of the matter. Mr. Oppenheim said that the law prohibiting public sports on Sunday was a state law, not a municipal ordinance. Mr. Poupey, who was in hand to see that the great American game should not be suppressed or "called" at any time except on account of rain or darkness, contended that "them fellers" in the Eighth ward could not show that base ball was a nuisance. The mayor assured Mr. Poupey that they did declare it a nuisance, inasmuch as some of the patrons of the games trespassed on their property and from the rain under their porches. But Mr. Poupey regarded it as only common hospitality for the residents of the neighborhood to extend to the spectators to the anglers and supporters of the national game. Even a dog was entitled to shelter. Then the assistant city attorney and the mayor discussed the right of the protesters to the anglers and supporters of the national game. The mayor thought that they had a right to a remedy, but Mr. Oppenheim was of the opinion that they could not, as a remedy at law existed, inasmuch as the statute declares Sunday base ball a misdemeanor, and provides for a minimum fine of $1, and $10 as a maximum. Mr. Oppenheim cited the Debs case as a precedent, illustrating the principle of law that where a remedy at law exists an injunction, which is a proceeding in equity, would not be issued.

It is possible that a compromise may be effected by playing the Sunday game at Kittsondale, in preference to White Bear.

Mr. Oppenheim said to a GLOBE reporter last evening:

"There is a law against playing base ball on Sunday, and if these people who are the Twin Cities, Fargo and Grand Forks two fast daily trains, morning and evening. Passengers for Grand Forks and Winnipeg will leave St. Paul at 7:45 p. m. instead of 6:30 as heretofore."

Best Service to the Red River Valley.

The new time cards on the Great Northern effective on May 5th give the Twin Cities, Fargo and Grand Forks two fast daily trains, morning and evening. Passengers for Grand Forks and Winnipeg will leave St. Paul at 7:45 p. m. instead of 6:30 as heretofore."

THEY KEPT IT QUIET.

HOW THE SCHEME TO MAKE A PLACE FOR TOM CONROY

DID NOT MAKE THE PLACE.

Democrats Learn for the First Time the Inside Facts of the Failure.

A story has just come to the surface in regard to the bill recently introduced in the state senate which was intended to repeal the act of 1889, which reorganized the municipal court of this city.

When the bill designed to procure a position for Thomas Conroy, an ex-Democrat, was prepared, it was submitted to Hon. E. F. Lane, who was at the time acting in the capacity of assistant clerk of the senate's judiciary committee. Mr. Lane, who is considered one of the ablest constitutional lawyers in the state, after careful consideration of the bill, reported to the Ramsey delegation that the bill was clearly unconstitutional and would not stand the test of supreme court criticism. Two of the senators thereupon refused to proceed further in the matter. But so with the others. It was agreed to keep the report of Mr. Lane secret with the hope that the "hippers" might, by continued threats, force Judge Twoby to a compliance with their demands.

The scheme did not work. Conroy was not appointed. The bill did not pass. The session is over. The Democrats are proud of Judge Twoby.

Rice Park Concert.

The free concert which was to have taken place last evening at Rice park by the Great Western band, with compliments to the public by the members of the organization, in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of playing at the park, was postponed for one week on account of the threatening weather. The band at the concert will be under the direction of George Selbert Jr., tonight for an absence of several weeks, to attend the convention of the National League of Musicians of the United States, and for the interest of music in general.

Important Sale of Real Estate.

ANOTHER SILK RECORD.

Tomorrow morning we shall place on sale 300 pieces of

Novelty Silks,

the choicest and handsomest fabrics imported this season.

Worth $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 and $2.25.

It's good enough to repeat:

Worth $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 and $2.25.

And we will sell them at $1.00

a yard—the lowest price ever made in Minnesota.

This means that you can buy a Silk Dress for $16.00 worth from $24.00 to $36.00.

Or a Silk Waist for $5.00, worth from $7.50 to $11.25.

It means that you can save enough to pay for making by the best dressmakers in the city.

These are the kinds:

70 pieces of Finest Changeable Taffeta
