The society girl has not had such a dull week of it as one might imagine, for there have been quite a few little gatherings on grand lawns and broad verandahs located conveniently to town where the people who are not going to leave town until a little later in the season, or perhaps all, are entertained by the friends who have pretty lakeside homes.

If the women devotees of the bicycle are bound to ride, an expedition to the lake is not a bad thing, it seems eminently proper that they should invent for themselves something more becoming in the way of costume than the garb of motor woman rider that is to be seen on the streets of St. Paul today.

WEDDING BELLS.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season was that which occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Watson at 2837 Grand avenue, south, Minneapolis, at 4 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, the bride being the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Watson, Miss Mabel Irene Lewis, and the groom being Floyd De Vinney, of the department of the Chicago Great Western railway, St. Paul. The bride wore a gown of white crepe, and carried a bouquet of white and pink flowers.

EVENTS OF A WEEK.

An event that will be remembered for some time by those present at church on Thursday evening at Remer's hall, Fillmore was the occasion being a delightful surprise party given to honor the bride, by her friends in honor of her birthday. The evening was devoted to dancing. Among those who were present were: Bertha Remer, Clara Ross, Lottie F. Remer, Mary M. Beckman, Clara Roberts, Mary M. Beckman, Clara Roberts, Anna Schmitt, Sophia Bruns, Minnie Drossel, Bertha Dine, Anna Freese, Kate Powell, Lizzie Remer, Messrs. George W. Strand, Charles Umis, Charles Pottgeiser, George A. Francis, H. P. Barlow, H. Erickson, John T. Schwarz, J. Frost, Elton Phelps, W. Meicher, Charles H. Thedera, Holstein, Albert Weis, Robert Barr, and Henry Schack, of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Remer.

MUSICAL NOTES.

The new excursion steamer Flora Clark has been chartered by the Young People's Society of the First Methodist church for their excursion to Stillwater on July 1. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the orchestra. A concert program to consist of vocal and instrumental music.
