A REPUBLICAN COMMISSIONER ANTICIPATES JOYCE'S RES-OLUTION

TO CUT COUNTY EXPENSES.

MORITZ MAKES A BLUFF AT NAMING SPECIFIC RE-DUCTIONS.

JOYCE WOULD INVESTIGATE,

But Mayor Smith Says Nothing Can Be Done, and His View Prevails.

The Globe was correct when it stated last week that an attempt would be made to reduce county salaries. When they learned through the Globe that Commissioner Joyce would introduce a resolution to reduce the Republicans determined to attempt to steal his

This was demonstrated at the meeting of the board yesterday, at which Commissioner Moritz offered a resolution that the salaries of all county officials be reduced to the following figures after July 1: District court judges, $3,500 a year county auditor, $3,500 a year over and above the amount expended for help; county assessor, $3,000 a year over the amount paid for help; county treasurer, $3,500 over and above the amount paid for help; county attorney, $3,500; assistant county attorney, $1,500; judge of probate court, $3,000; coroner, $1,500; city and county physician, $3,500; first assistant to county physician, $75 a month; second assistant, $50 a

The resolution was laid on the table by a vote of 4 to 3, McCarron, Ness, Wright and Smith voting in the affirmative, and Joyce, Kellerman and Moritz in the negative Chairman Smith told the board it had no power to fix salaries, but he entertained the motion to lay on the table, knowing that that would end the matter.

Another resolution of a similar nature, but much more conservative, was offered by Commissioner Joyce, and met with the same fate It reads as follows:

'That the chairman of the board appoint three members on a committee, who, with the county attorney, should examine into and report at an early date upon the feasibility of making reasonable reduction in salaries of all county officials and curtailing the ex penses of the county in any other re spect when the same could be done without injury to the public interests." Commissioner Joyce offered two other resolutions, neither of which was acted upon. The first reads:

"That the sheriff be instructed to ascertain where persons, firms, cororations and associations have gone into the hands of trustees, receivers or assignees, the name of such trustee, etc., and file such claim for taxes due with such trustee, etc.; no additional fee for filing to be paid the sheriff."

The other one is as follows: 'That the sheriff be instructed to look in the new city directory for addresses of all parties on delinquent tax list before making an endeavor to collect said taxes, and where addresses cannot be found no collection shall be attempted. No fee shall be paid th sheriff for cases returned when the party cannot be found and the names parties are not in the city directory. This shall not apply to districts out side the city limits."

The grand jury made a final report late last evening and adjourned. The report stated that the jury had been in session fifteen days, during which it had investigated fifty-six cases, ex-amined eighty-two witnesses and returned forty indictments. It had also visited the city and county jails, workhouse, city hospital, poorhouse and all the other public institutions of the city and county. They were all found lice station should have better means of ventilation and light. There should also be better protection for the lives of inmates in case of fire. The jury expressed surprise at finding that the new city hospital was still unoccupied. But Dr. Ancker stated to them that it would be ready for oc-cupancy in about three weeks. The report says that this new building reflects great credit upon the city. It is recommended that an ambulance serv be established in connection with the hospital. Another recommenda tion is that the city physician or on of his staff be required to visit the workhouse every day and save the $75 a month that goes to a special physician for performing this duty. The management of the workhouse is commented upon with much favor.

It is recommended that supplies for the different institutions be bought at the lowest possible price for the best quality of goods. The report says that

WASHINGTON, June 24 .- The postoffice department has entered upon a policy of detailing inspectors to watch etter carriers on their rounds, and report inattention to duties, delays, and any irregular conduct on their routes,

The operation of the system was began about six months ago, but the plan was not given any publicity, and t was conducted on a small scale only one or two officers being watched

This was finally broadened, and now involves offices in a number of important cities. Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago and Columbus are known to be among these. Special reports were made to the department by the inspectors. Delays in delivering mail at the houses, unnecessary conversation, stops on meeting acquaintances, and waste of time, were generally reported, and complaints entered against the postoffice in the department files. The system is not yet general, but the inspection has resulted during the past five or six months in a reduction of letter carrier forces of about 100 carriers. Postmasters at a number of these places have made requests for an ad-ditional force of carriers, but in many instances the requests have been fruits With Reference to the Value of the Terminals in the Twin

The hearing of the Great Northern appeal in the grain rate case was esumed before Judge Kerr yesterday. The appellant rested, and the respondents began the introduction of testimony for the state. Only three witnesses were examined-E. C. Davis, M. T. Thomas and H. H. Teisberg, secretary of the railroad commission. The first two have had some experience in railroad work, Davis having been at one time connected with the construction department, and Thomas being an engineer who has been in the service of various roads at different times. The substance of their testimony was that the Great Northern could be replaced at $22,500 a mile, assuming that the terminals at St. Paul and Minneapolis are not worth over $1,000,000. They estimat-

500,000 Col. Clough says that these witnesses failed to take into account certain items of expenditure, and, dropping these same items out of the estimate submitted by the officials of his company, there was only about $4,000,000 difference between the two estimates-that is, the estimate of the officials was that much higher than that of the state's wit-

ed that the entire system in this state could be reproduced for $31,-

R. Lathrop, of Hastings.

The services today will be in charge of the Woman's Home Missionary society. Mrs. R. K. Evans, of Hamline, will preside. At 9:30 there will be a devotional meeting. At 10:30 papers will be read by Mrs. Matt S. Hughes, Mrs. J. Wesley Hill and Mrs. Sikes, of Minneapolis. Mrs. Hathaway, of New York, will talk on "Deaconess Work." THE PRINCIPAL DIFFERENCE being with reference to the value of the terminals, which the state's witnesses estimated at only $1,000,-000 in the Twin Cities, while real estate experts placed the value at over three times that figure. The state's witnesses admitted that they were not experts on the question of property values in the Twin Cities. The testimony of Secretary Teisberg was directed to the question of the reasonableness of the rates fixed by the commission. He submitted a com-parative schedule of the rates fixed by the Illinois commission and those of the Minnesota commission, the former being considerably lower, but he could not answer as to the relative volume of traffic in the two states. "Suppose the commission were fixing a rate from Crookston to Duluth, without regard to any other line, what, in your judgment, would be a reasonable rate?" asked Judge Kerr.

An objection on the part of Attorney Clapp drew from the court the remark that he was not going to in vestigate the question of rates for the entire state, but just for this one line. "We took all the facts into consider-ation—the financial condition of the company, its earnings, the volume of traffic and everything-and made what swered the witness.

endeavored to explain again.

The witness said he was not yet clear as to what the court desired to know, and then Col. Clough came to the front with the suggestion that he thought the court desired to get at the fact as to whether there had been any discrimination against Crookston or other places on the line. Judge Kerr said that was in part what he wanted to

The witness replied that there had been no discrimination.

Court then adjourned until this morning.

CHICAGO FEVER.

Strange Malady That Puzzles the Naval Doctors.

NEW YORK, June 24.—The surgeons at the navy hospital in Brooklyn are puzzled by a peculiar malady preva-lent among the sailors who arrived on the Chicago during her last cruise. There are at present about twenty laid up at the hospital, and half-adozen more are at the Norfolk hospital where they were taken from the Amphitrite, to which many of the Chicago's crew were transferred after the latter vessel went out of commission. Although some of the men in Brooklyn have been under treatment for six or seven weeks, their condition has been but little changed. Dr. Bogert said that the disease from which the sailors are suffering is well known in the countries bordering on the Mediterranean sea, and that there is no mystery about it. He admitted, however, that they had not as yet made a satisfactory diagnosis of the dis-ease, and the patients did not seem to sult of a private watch, that afforded evidence of slow work on the routes of these men. improve. The sailors take a different view of the case. They say the doc-tors are puzzled, and that they have

Mr. McCreary said he was more hopeful now than ever before for such international action as would settle the ratio between the metals. He not only regards Lord Salisbury as friendly to an international monetary agreement, but a very great statesman who will be more liberal in his general policy than Rosebery. There were active friends in England of bimetallism, and Lord Salisbury would recognize them. Mr. Mc-Creary referred to Sir William Houldsworth, Balfour, Chapin and others who were friendly to bimetallism, and who were close to Salisbury. While England had maintained a gold standard since 1816, Mr. McCreary had no doubt that bimetallism had many friends among the manufacturers, agriculturists and business men in England, and that this sentiment was growing Coal Combine in Colorado. DENVER, Col., June 24 .- Northern olorado coal mine operators are jubilant over the new combination they have formed, which will commence operations July 1. The combination will be known as the Northern Colorado Coal company, and it has already signed contracts with all of the northern mines to buy all of the output at a stated price per ton, and it will have a complete monopoly of all the coal produced in Northern Colorado. All mine operators of the lignite field are interested in the new com-pany, either as officers or stockholders, and contracts have also been made with the wholesale dealers, who will, after the first of the month, buy their coal through the Northern Colorado company instead of the mine direct, as at present. This plan, it is expected, will insure a uniform price for all lignite coal coming into Denver, or being sold elsewhere in the state.

CHICAGO, June 24.-In the bill for BALTIMORE, June 24.—The body of injunction filed today, five stockholders Jacob S. The bill asked for an inton last week, and which was buried here Friday, has been disinterred and sent to the morgue, where an autopsy will probably be made. It is said that win probably be made. It is said that this action is taken at the instance of an insurance company's adjuster, who is not satisfied that the badly decom-posed corpse is that of Kerngood, notjunction restraining the company from purchasing the plant of the Michigan Railway Supply company at Detroit for $50,000. The injunction was issued withstanding the evidence to that effect. Relatives here claim that Kerngood was insured for only $15,000, and James Brooks, of Massachusets, and Ransom Gillis and William F. McCorkle, of Chicago. The defendants are the company and Henry D. Heavy Cinncinnati Failure.

CINCINNATI, O., June 24.—John B. Specker, doing business as Specker Bros. & Co., wholesale dry goods, Elm street, assigned today to Adam Kramer. The assignment is a direct result of injury to his credit because of his relations with the recently suspended Commercial National bank. Suits have been brought against him on that account, and they have precipitated this course. His assets are said to be $750,000, with liabilities less, though not definitely ascertained.

Preferences amounting to $100,000 were given. The largest is to the First National bank, $47,500; the next to the Little Sisters of the Poor, $2,000, and another of $10,000 to Conrad Oberschmidt. Mr. Specker was a director of the Commercial National bank and was indorser for Hellebush, a heavy borrower from the Commercial National. He was sued on this account for $45,000. Other suits were filed, one of which was to assess stockholders, which would have made a heavy draft on Mr. Specker. Mr. Specker proposes to meet his creditors and make an effort to continue his business.

FOR WELL PEOPLE

Medicines are for the sick. Some can be used with good effects by persons apparently well. Occasional resort to Ripans Tabules prevents attacks that result from disorders of the stomach and liver. To preserve is better and cheaper than to repair.

ROYAL RUBY PORT WINE

ADULTERATED WINE is injurious, but nothing gives strength and tones up the stomach like a pure old port wine. "Royal Ruby Port." so called for its royal taste and ruby color, is, on account of its purity, age and strength, particularly adapted for invalids, convalescents and the aged. Sold only in bottles (never in bulk), while cheap wine is sold by the gallon, and gives a larger profit to the seller but less to the user. This wine is absolutely pure, and has the age, without which no wine is fit to use. Be sure you get "Royal Ruby."
