MOVEMENTS OF STEAMERS.

NEW YORK July 4.—Arrived: Trave, Bremen and Southampton. LIVERPOOL—Arrived: Germanic, New York. LONDON—Arrived: Malne, Philadelphia; Massachusetts, New York. ROTTERDAM—Arrived: Sparradam, New York.

The Declaration of Independence was read in red fire.

The nervous man may draw a full breath this morning.

And to think that St. Paul's lucky number yesterday morning was 13.

Did you ever stop to think how seldom it rains on Independence day?

It was hot enough for the fire cracker and the fire department yesterday.

The casualty report indicates that many people didn't know it was loaded.

The chief piece in the Tammany fireworks was President Cleveland's patriotic letter.

John Sherman is writing a book, but, thank heaven, it is not on the silver question.

John S. Johnson took a whirl at the world's bicycle record yesterday, and sent it up in smoke.

St. Paul's base ball team, by winning two games, marred Minneapolis' celebration of the ever glorious.

Meager reports from Minnesota towns indicate that the curfew ordinance was not enforced last night.

Business booms all along the line. The manufacturer sold his fireworks and now the doctor will sell his pills and plasters.

Minnesota grasshoppers are conducting themselves in a manner to be approved. They are eating nothing but grass.

No weather report was sent out from Washington for July 4, but we had no trouble in getting weather with enough caloric in it.

John Bull regarded yesterday's American hurrah as a useless expenditure of gold. John is still pointing over that episode in 1776.

Queen Lili was released on July 4. The dispatches are silent as to whether she had a pyrotechnic display in honor of regaining her liberty.

The sultan of Turkey and his wives, of whom no census has recently been taken, spend $30,000,000 annually for lingerie and other luxuries.

Hon. Robert Fitzsimmons, having been cleared of the charge of murdering his sparring partner, will now resume his talking match with Hon. James J. Corbett.

The presidential race is gradually narrowing down. Frances Willard writes from England that she is wholly out of politics and will not support John G. Woolley for president.

An Edinburgh professor has made some successful experiments with the serum treatment as a remedy for snake bites. Some people are unprogressive enough to prefer the old-fashioned cure—bug juice.

Had Thomas Jefferson and John Hancock heard the noise made in America the past twenty-four hours, they might have regretted that they signed the Declaration of Independence, but they probably wouldn't.

Michigan has come to the front with a new species of la grippe known as "Trilby." Among its symptoms are high temperature and difficulty in breathing. In Kentucky they call this disease love.

The Minneapolis Journal says: "It is remarkable what a lot of good stuff the Journal correspondents can dig up in advance of everybody else." And the Journal should have added: "And most of which afterwards proves to be untrue."

TAMMANY'S CELEBRATION.

IN INSIDIOUS APPEALS OF THE RECKLESS TO POPULAR PASSION LIES THE DANGER.

HERBERT PLEADS FOR UNITY.

Senator Hill Says the Spirit of Socialism is Abroad in the Land.

NEW YORK, July 4.—Independence day was celebrated by the Tammany society in a manner commensurate with former celebrations, since the founding of the Columbian order 119 years ago. There was no diminution in the enthusiasm manifested by those present, although the audience was smaller than in previous years.

Ex-Gov. Campbell, of Ohio, and ex-Gov. Thomas M. Waller were, in Tammany parlance, the "long talkers," while well known men from all parts of the country delivered "short talks."

One feature of the celebration was the reading of letters from President Cleveland, Senator Hill, ex-Gov. Flower, Frederic R. Coudert and other distinguished Democrats.

Grand Sachem Smyth presided. "We are not here," he said, "to celebrate a Democratic victory, but I believe you will realize with me that those responsible for Democratic defeat have been guilty of a great mistake."

Ex-Gov. Campbell, of Ohio, was introduced as the "great war-horse of the Democracy," who, Grand Sachem Smyth predicted, "would again lead the Democratic ticket in Ohio next fall."

Ex-Gov. Campbell said: "Tammany has always been a protector of the people, and if I mistake not the city of New York needs some such protection at the present time. However, I will leave that to my friend Gov. Waller, who, if I mistake not, will have the scalps of some of the renegades dangling at his belt before he is through."

POPULAR MONROE DOCTRINE.

Gov. Campbell said he would confine his remarks to the Monroe doctrine, that which there is no more popular subject in the American heart.

The meaning of the Monroe doctrine, he said, meant that we should extend our territory in the Western hemisphere whenever the opportunity was presented, and continue to adhere to those vital principles that have made the Democracy a living force, whether in or out of power, since the days of Jefferson.

"With the sincere hope that your great organization, which has rendered so many memorable services to the Democratic party in the past, and all other Democratic bodies in the empire, state of the union, seeing and appreciating the necessities of the hour and recognizing the opportunities before us, will in the near future act as an example of co-faternity that will inspire and give courage and confidence to brother Democrats throughout the land, I am, faithfully yours,

"HILARY A. HERBERT."

THE SPIRIT OF SOCIALISM.

Senator Hill wrote as follows: "Wolfer's Root, Renassance Boulevard, New York, N. Y., July 1, 1895.

"Hon. Frederic R. Coudert, Dear Sir: I regret that I shall be unable to participate with you in your celebration of the Fourth of July. You have, however, my best wishes for the occasion which will be one of the most useful of all your time-honored demonstrations.

"The present is indeed a fitting time for the revival of revolutionary patriotism, and the renewal of patriotic pledges for the renewal of patriotic interests of our common country. It is useless to disguise the fact that the socialists are not only abroad in the land, demanding other things a more liberal construction of the federal constitution than our fathers were ever willing to accord; insisting upon odious schemes of taxation, foreign to the genius of our free institutions; proposing to ignore or belittle the reserved rights of the states; seeking an extension of the functions or jurisdictions of the federal government by the gradual and insidious absorption or exercise of powers heretofore invoked, in violation of the spirit if not the letter of the constitution; persistently insisting upon special legislation for the benefit of private interests and classes, rather than for the general welfare and for public purposes; clamoring for a fiat of depreciated currency in the place of the coined money of the constitution; urging the assumption on the part of the state of the actual management of nearly all corporate interests of a semi-public character, rather than a reasonable control and regulation by law; and desiring to inflict upon the people the enactment or arbitrary enforcement of unjust, vexatious and Puritanical sumptuary laws which needlessly interfere with the harmless habits and customs of large portions of our people.

"In other directions there are indications of efforts to change the nature and false sentiment, and for the substitution of a despotic government from a simple republic of states to a strong centralized government, with vastly augmented powers; of endeavoring to maintain an immense standing army and a powerful sea-going navy, not for the purpose of defense, but in order to conquer; in furtherance of schemes for international aggression or legitimate uses of intimidation; of tendency towards plutocracy, and for the substitution of the rule of the plutocrats, and for attempts to proscribe citizens from political preference on account of their nationality, religion, occupation or social status.

"These are some of the evils, or dangers, which threaten the people, and which patriot and statesman alike should be ever on the watch to guard against. It is the duty of every citizen to earnestly resist. In all your efforts in opposition to vicious tendencies and false sentiment, and for the promotion of right principles of government, patience, perseverance, courage and confidence will eventually and surely insure success. I am, most respectfully,

"DAVID B. HILL."

GREAT DAY AT STILLWATER.

Thousands of Visitors at Fair-bault—Usual Number of Fires and Disasters.

Special to the Globe. STILLWATER, Minn., July 4.—Stillwater put on its holiday to-day and enjoyed a celebration of independence day second to none in the history of this beautiful city.

Business houses and public buildings were appropriately decorated with flags and bunting and from early in the morning until late at night a dense crowd of people thronged the principal streets.

Everyone was dressed in his or her best, and many had exquisite costumes in the national colors. At a little after 9 o'clock the parade started from the ball grounds and marched down Third street to the North hill, back on Fourth street, thence to Main and up Main to the close of the parade.

The parade was the best ever seen here. In the afternoon several foot races were run on Main, Myrtle and Second streets, and the festivities closed with a magnificent display of fire works.

Rev. B. R. Heffron, of St. Paul, delivered an interesting address at the prison yesterday. The speaker enjoyed a few hours of liberty in the yard.

Special to the Globe. FAIRBAULT, Minn., July 4.—At midnight the celebration of the Fourth here. Cannon roared forth and salutes were fired from the towers of Fairbault citizens ever witnessed.

Between 15,000 and 20,000 people were out seeing the amusements, circus of Walden and the races at the fair grounds. At 10 a. m. in the bicycle road race, George J. Briggs, of St. Paul, made the best time, 18 miles, 55-45, paid $100 diamond medal.

Short wheel race, 25 miles, diamond medal, 57-4, paid $25 diamond medal. S. D. Warren was first to finish, time 58-45, paid $100 diamond medal; Jacob Erickson second, time 1-00-00, paid $50 diamond medal. In street sports Harry Johnson won the wheelbarrow race. Short and Johnson won the three-legged race.

Both were excellent. A fire destroyed by fire. The fire company did good work.

Special to the Globe. ELATON, Minn., July 4.—About 3,000 people attended the celebration here today. Congressman McCleary delivered the address. Nicholson's ice house and butcher shop were destroyed by fire. The fire company did good work.

Special to the Globe. SANDSTONE, Minn., July 4.—The Fourth of July was duly observed by a grand celebration. The orator of the day was James J. Hanson, second marshal, F. J. Barrows. This afternoon a game of ball between the Hinckley Monarchs and Sandstone resulted in a draw. The usual excitement and bonfire wound up with a grand ball in the evening.

Special to the Globe. DULUTH, Minn., July 4.—For the first time in many years Duluth to-day celebrated the Fourth of July in old-fashioned style. There was a big crowd present at the hall where the exercises were held. The bicycle race, gun club shoots and other sports were well attended. The usual number of accidents to persons and property occurred.

Special to the Globe. NEW ULM, Minn., July 4.—The Fourth of July was celebrated here grandly, with a procession of military, naval and civil organizations, and a cavalry company, all the civic societies and children of the public schools. The parade was in five divisions, with floats, bands and a large number of spectators. The Declaration of Independence was read in the park, and orations were delivered by Gov. Clough in English and Prof. Schaller in German. Both were excellent. At least 10,000 people, largely from the surrounding country, twenty-five miles distant, were in the city, which was gayly decorated with bunting.

Special to the Globe. HASTINGS, Minn., July 4.—Hastings celebrated the glorious Fourth of July, but not in so big a way as in past years, the exercises, with dancing, etc., taking place at Pleasant Hill park, the music being furnished by the Central band of St. Paul. A game of baseball, in which there was considerable interest, was played at North Side park between the St. Paul reserves and the home nine, the former winning by a score of 8 to 2.

Special to the Globe. LAKE CITY, Minn., July 4.—The Fourth was appropriately celebrated in this city today, and the festivities were participated in by residents of all the neighboring towns. A prominent feature of the parade this morning was the marching of the Third U. S. Infantry, headed by their excellent band. The programme consisted of field and land sports, for which prizes were given to the successful contestants, and speaking by prominent local orators. In the afternoon two ball games were played between the Maize and Oak Centre teams and the First and Second nines of this city for respective purses of $50 and $75. Both games resulted in favor of Lake City, the score standing, with Maize, 9 to 0; Oak Centre, 8 to 7. A brother of Manager Conkey, of St. Paul, pitched for the latter team. MOBS ATTACK THE PARADERS.

Refusal to Prevent the Appearance of an Objectionable Float Causes the Tragedy.

BOSTON, Mass., July 4.—The Fourth of July parade of the patriotic societies of Boston and vicinity, at East Boston this afternoon, ended in a pitched battle between some of the paraders and the spectators, in which sticks, stones and revolvers were used with fatal effect. John W. Willis, a laborer of East Boston, one of the spectators, was shot and instantly killed; Michael Boyle, of East Boston, had his head split open by a club and now lies dying in a city hospital. A young man named Stewart had his nose cut off with a sabre in the hands of one of the paraders; Patrick Kelley sustained a severe scalp wound, whether from a bullet or a club is not known, and Officer A. S. Bates was hit in the mouth by a brick thrown by an unknown person and lost several teeth, besides suffering from severe lacerations.

It is claimed that the trouble all resulted from the persistence of those who managed the parade, in introducing a feature in the procession, the "Little Red School House," which from its association as the emblem of the American Protective association has become objectionable to many persons, especially those who do not sympathize with the A. P. A. movement. The Fourth of July committee decided to permit this feature to appear in the parade, and those desiring to prevent it tried to have an order passed by the board of aldermen, but failed.

AN ARMY OF POLICE.

So great was the interest excited by this controversy, and the expressed determination of the paraders to display the school house, that fully 30,000 visitors gathered at East Boston. The police officials, in anticipation of any hostile demonstration, had a special squad of 350 men, in addition to the East Boston police, on duty to guard the parade.

The parade was the largest ever seen in the city and the fire works were the most elaborate ever seen west of the Hudson. It was a grand success, with but few accidents.

ABERDEEN, July 4.—The Fourth was not celebrated to any extent. Large crowds went from here to Mellette to participate in the celebration there and view the celebrated irrigated race of the Hon. H. P. Turner, which is attracting widespread attention.

BADGERS CELEBRATE.

Base Ball and Athletic Sports at Many Points.

Special to the Globe. CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., July 4.—Chippewa defeated the Nationals of St. Paul in both morning and afternoon games. Morning game, Chippewa 13, Nationals 11; afternoon game, Chippewa 2, Nationals 2.

LA CROSSE, Wis., July 4.—In the ten-mile road race today Otto Gudenschwager won the handicap race, and won both first and time prizes. Time, 32:14. Fourteen started and thirteen finished. Jacobers was second and Mickisch third. The usual excitement and bonfire wound up with a grand ball in the evening.

Special to the Globe. HENDERSON, Minn., July 4.—In the game of ball at Henderson between St. Paul and Chaska for a purse of $75, St. Paul defeated the Chaskas by a score of 12 to 0. St. Paul was invincible and struck out twelve men.

ATWATER, Minn., July 4.—Although we have no public celebration many people from other parts of the state are spending the day with friends here. The usual excitement and bonfire wound up with a grand ball in the evening.

REDWOOD FALLS, Minn., July 4.—The Fourth was appropriately celebrated at Redwood Falls. Aside from the usual morning doings a ball game was played between the Redwood team and the St. Anthony Browns. A tremendous crowd was present. George W. Somerville, of Sleepy Eye, delivered the Fourth of July oration.

FERGUS FALLS, Minn., July 4.—The Fourth of July was observed and celebrated in nearly all of the populous centers of Otter Tail county. Lemen Bros' circus was in the city and attracted an enormous crowd. At Pelican Rapids the day was observed in a more patriotic manner. C. C. Houghton delivered an address and the usual literary exercises were held. At Lake Park the day was in the hands of the A. P. U. W. and lodges from various points attended. Dan Leese and Master Workman Lloyd spoke. At Perham the exercises consisted of races and contests. An oration was delivered by Edward L. Kelly. New York Mills there were games and sport.

Special to the Globe. LA CROSSE, Wis., July 4.—The bicycle races attracted an attendance of 5,000. The ten-mile road race was won by Gudenschwager, of La Crosse, in 32:14. The half-mile in 1:16; and the three-mile handicap in 22:10. Gudenschwager also won the mile race in 2:38. The mile open in 2:38 and the mile open in 2:38.
