CLARKSON'S IDEAS

THE IOWA POLITICIAN AT HIS VIEWS AS TO CANDIDATES.

ALLISON HIS FIRST CHOICE FOR REPUBLICAN NOMINATION—THEN TOM REED, MCKINLEY AND HARRISON.

SOLID BOOM FOR DAVIS. Hawkeye Man Says It Will Demand Recognition—Favors Short Campaigns.

Special to the Globe. WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—"I am somewhat surprised," said Hon. James S. Clarkson during a recent informal personal conversation; "I am somewhat surprised to note the desire and anxiety manifested by a number of leading newspapers of both parties for what they term a 'short campaign' for 1896. As a matter of fact all of our presidential campaigns are very short, none of them lasting more than a month or six weeks. There are about 90,000 polling places in the country, and organization is necessary in order to give proper attention to the entire country. But all preliminary work is done without ostentation, and the business world has practically no knowledge of the existence of the executive committee until the campaign begins about the first of October, and then the political pot boils continually until the fight is over."

"It is generally understood that my first choice for the presidency would be Senator Allison of Iowa, but no effort appears to be authorized by the senator or by friends who would gladly serve his interests."

"In the matter of candidates for the presidency, I believe that few men are more fit for public office than Tom Reed. Gov. McKinley is well known to the entire country as an aggressive and long-enduring honest man. The administration of President Harrison is his highest recommendation. Senator Davis, of Minnesota, is also a man whose friends have good reason to demand recognition of his abilities and capabilities for the chief magistracy."

ATTACKED BY PARALYSIS. Gen. Mahone, of Virginia, Stricken in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Senator Mahone, of Virginia, suffered a stroke of paralysis at an early hour this morning at the Chamberlain Hotel. His physicians, Dr. Walter and Baker, have been in consultation throughout the afternoon and think his chances are very doubtful, and the relatives of the senator have been summoned by telegraph. The entire right side of the senator's face, including the right arm and leg, is unable to speak, except a few inarticulate sounds. He has maintained consciousness, however, and is able to assist those who are ministering to his comfort.

The exact time when Gen. Mahone was stricken is in doubt, but it is believed to have occurred at 12 o'clock last night and up to that time was in excellent health and was in the habit of going out for a walk. He was in the habit of feeling unwell, and had been heard from his room after he retired. At 10 o'clock this morning Mr. Long, manager of the hotel, went to the general's room to call him. He found the senator in bed, unable to get up, and unable to speak. This last feature was attributed to a stroke of paralysis, and the senator's condition was very serious.

Edmund Waddill, the senator's secretary, was with him, and at the senator's request notified the members of his family to come.

Ex-Senator Mahone was very low at midnight and his physicians feared that he might not survive the night. His wife and daughter arrived at 11 o'clock.

"CUBA SHOULD BE OURS." Strong Denunciation of Spain's Cruel Campaign.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—The city council, after transacting considerable routine business tonight, adjourned so that its members might attend in the morning the meeting of the Spanish-American League. A message sent to the meeting by Gov. Altgeld was as follows: "It is time that Spanish misrule, Spanish brutality and the heinous and unchristianlike drive from the American continent. The nations have long asserted the right to interfere for the purpose of suppressing any practice that shocks the moral sense of the civilized world, such as cannibalism and the slave trade; yet the heinous and unchristianlike drive from the American continent, their victims and do not indulge in wholesale slaughter, while in Cuba the torture is flesh and the butchery continues. We must and these horrors, or else talk less about our Christian civilization. Besides, when viewed from geographical or military standpoint, Cuba should be ours. Let our country first extend recognition, then a helping hand, and lastly a place in the Union. The people of the United States and of the world will soon become the saviors of the sea."

Senator Altgeld wired: "The people of the United States strongly sympathize with the Cubans struggling to be free from Spanish domination. Our government should do everything in its power to assist them. I am in constant touch with national honor in their behalf."

Senator Alger in a message said: "It seems to me that what had been done previously by our government, so clearly defined by President Monroe, concerning the inherent rights of these countries, should now be done to Cuba. She has made a magnificent struggle for liberty; she has formed a provisional government; she has won many hard-fought battles, with every advantage against her save that she is right. I trust and feel sure she will win her independence."
