BISHOP POTTER TO CONDUCT CONSECRATION OF ST. CLEMENTS.

SMALL CHURCHES FAVORED.

Famous Preachers Will Occupy Pulpits in Every Part of the City.

Never before in the history of the Episcopal churches in this city have their congregations been afforded the opportunity of attending services at which so many distinguished bishops delivered discourses as there will be in these churches today. It is a rare thing for the congregations of the churches of any denomination in any city to be so largely favored, and the people of St. Paul, regardless of denomination, will doubtless show their appreciation by filling every Episcopal church in the city today and this evening. Such recognition is due as a proper mark of respect to the eminent divines, who thus honor the city as well as the church of which they are the head. Following is the programme for the different churches:

Christ Church—Morning, 11 a. m., Rt. Rev. E. G. Weed, bishop of Florida; evening, 7:30, Rt. Rev. William Parr, bishop of Maryland.

St. Paul's Church, Ninth and Olive Streets—Morning, 11 a. m., Rt. Rev. J. F. Spalding, bishop of Colorado; evening, 7:30, Rt. Rev. L. L. Nicholson, bishop of Milwaukee.

Good Shepherd, Twelfth and Cedar Streets—Morning, 11 a. m., Rt. Rev. A. C. Cox, bishop of Western New York; afternoon, 4 p. m., Rt. Rev. L. Coleman, bishop of Delaware; evening, 7:30 p. m., Rt. Rev. A. M. Thompson, bishop of Mississippi.

St. James' Church, Corner De Soto and Lawson Streets—Morning, 11 a. m., Rt. Rev. W. D. Walker, bishop of North Dakota; evening, 7:30 p. m., Rt. Rev. E. Talbot, bishop of Wyoming.

St. John the Evangelist—Morning, 11 a. m., Rt. Rev. J. H. White, bishop of Indiana; evening, 4 p. m., Rt. Rev. S. E. Erickson, bishop of Pennsylvania.

St. Peter's, Fourth and Maple, Dayton's Bluff—Evening, 7:30 p. m., Rt. Rev. L. Coleman, bishop of Delaware.

St. Mary's, Merriam Park—Morning, 10:30 a. m., Rt. Rev. H. M. Thompson, bishop of Mississippi; evening, 7:30 p. m., Rt. Rev. D. Sessums, bishop of Louisiana.

Messiah, Kent and Fuller Streets—Morning, 11 a. m., Rt. Rev. J. H. Erickson, bishop of Pennsylvania; evening, 7:30 p. m., Rt. Rev. N. S. Rullison, bishop of Central Pennsylvania.

St. Clement's Presbyterian Cathedral, Portland avenue and Milton Street—Consecration and dedication services 11 a. m. The Rt. Rev. H. C. Potter, the celebrated bishop of New York city, will be the consecrator and special preacher.

In addition to these there will be special preaching at Christ church, Trinity church, St. Mark's mission, and others of the chapels and missions included in the above list. There will be distinguished preachers present at the various churches on the two succeeding Sundays as well.

Extensive preparations have been made for the church club reception and dinner to be given at the Ryan tomorrow evening in honor of the bishops and delegates in attendance at the Episcopal convention at Minneapolis. The attendance is expected to be unusually large, as most of the bishops have accepted the invitation to be present, as have also a large number of the ministerial and lay delegates who are in attendance at the convention. Following is a list of the hosts and speakers:

"The Church in the East," Rt. Rev. H. C. Potter, D. D., LL. D., bishop of New York.

"The Church in the West," Rt. Rev. W. F. Nichols, D. D., bishop of California.

"The Church in the South," Rt. Rev. Davis Sessums, D. D., bishop of Louisiana.

"The Church in the Mississippi Valley," Rt. Rev. G. F. Seymour, S. T. D., LL. D., bishop of Springfield.

"The American Church in Foreign Lands," Rt. Rev. F. R. Graves, S. T. D., bishop of Shanghai, China.

Members of the church club of the city of Minnesota are requested to be present in person. Those who have expected to attend but have failed to signify their intention to E. H. Holbrook, treasurer, 630 Lumber Exchange, Minneapolis, must inform him not later than 10 a. m. Monday morning. Members of the club resident of St. Paul who wish to be present and have not given notice thereto, will have until 10 o'clock Monday morning, and may send notice to Frank O. Osborne, secretary, 610 Manhattan building, St. Paul.

E. V. Smalley, president of the chamber of commerce; W. J. Footner, president of the Commercial club; R. A. Kirk, president of the Jobbers' union; W. B. Merriam, of St. Paul's church; W. H. Lightner, of Christ church; and E. W. Peet, of St. John's church, the committee in charge of the arrangements for the reception of the convention at the Episcopal convention, have issued the following circular to the people of the city, especially those owning carriages:

"The bishops, clergy and lay members of the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church now in session in Minneapolis, have kindly invited by the citizens of St. Paul to visit and take a drive through our city. The date named for the drive is Thursday afternoon, Oct. 10. Our guests will leave Minneapolis by special interurban cars at 2:15, and take carriages at the Ryan hotel at 3 o'clock, and will take cars for returning at 5 o'clock.

"As there undoubtedly will be 400 or more guests upon this occasion, all of the available carriages in the city will be required. You are earnestly requested to contribute to the use of your carriage for these purposes, and if possible act as host by driving your own carriage. Place having your name on the Sixth street side of the Ryan hotel, facing westward, promptly at 3 o'clock, and if possible to furnish a carriage, will you kindly send $2 or more to meet the expense of extra carriage. All replies must be received by Monday the 7th. Address A. S. Tallmadge, No. 205 Chamber of Commerce building.

The route of the ride, as laid out by the committee, is as follows: Starting from the Sixth street side of the Ryan hotel at 3 o'clock, on Sixth street to Summit square, on Dayton to Western, south on Western to Portland, west on Portland, passing the new Guild house of St. John's church, to Dale; thence on Summit west to Victoria, passing the new St. Clement's church on Leslie and Milton streets; then east on Summit to Victoria, south to Fairmont, the newly boulevard avenue, east on Fairmont to Crocus Hill; then on Summit from Dale street east, via Summit court to St. Peter street and Merriam Hill, Central park, Minnesota street, and through the jobbing district back rather, taking time by the forelock.

100 Cards and Engraved Plate (name only) for ONE DOLLAR

this week. We use our best cards and the engraving is done by the best man in town. Orders will be delivered in the order in which they are received.

This offer is made solely to induce our friends to leave their Christmas orders this week. Last year we had to refuse nearly 500 orders because we were overtaxed with work.

The Lowest Prices

in the United States. There's a good reason for these lowest prices. All of our Novelties are direct importations, and we can sell them for just about what merchants who buy from the New York importers pay for them.

We only invite you to examine styles and prices; then buy where you think best.

WOOL NOVELTIES.

New things received last week.

Zibeline Camel's Hair, blue, brown and green mixtures, the newest and most stylish fabric of the season, 46 inches wide, only $1.50 a yard. Gretna Plaids, for young ladies and misses, 46 inches wide, for $2.00 a yard. Novelty Snowflake mixtures, in new mixtures, 48 inches wide, for 59 Cents a yard. No question about the wear of these. And no question about the price being a bargain.

A new lot of purest wool Argyle Suitings, in charming checks and stripes, 40 inches wide, at 50 Cents a yard. The new church has become the home of the Emmanuel mission, and has been built through the generosity of Mrs. Theodore Eaton, of New York city, as a memorial to her deceased husband, a clergyman, who was rector of St. Clement's, New York. Her generous gift amounted to $30,000.

As the church is not yet organized and does not possess a choir of its own, the vested choir of St. Peter's church, on Dayton's bluff, has been secured for the singing under the direction of A. A. McKechnie. The procession will be formed in the guild house, adjoining the church, and will proceed along the side of the church to the front entrance of Milton street singing a processional hymn, with the recitation of a short psalm. There is in the prayer book an office for the consecration of a church, and this will, of course, be used.

The structure itself is built in the gothic style of the sixteenth century of native limestone, such as was used in the walls of old St. Paul's in lower town.

Case Gilbert is the architect and has ably displayed his talents in the planning and building of the church. The color and finish inside the building are the work of Mr. Gilbert, as well as the general plan. The walls of the interior are colored a dark green, while the arched roof is in natural light wood, offering a striking contrast.

In the chancel arch a daring novelty is to be seen, the brick being left exposed and in its natural color. The altar is a specimen and beautiful. The altar of Italian marble is perfect of its kind, and just above it is the Tiffany window, in beautiful subdued coloring, picturing St. John and Mary, the mother of Christ at the empty cross. The baptismal font is of Italian marble, worked with beautiful tracery.

The altar furniture was also the gift of Mrs. Eaton, and comprises a bookstand, vesper lights, cross, vases and ewer, all of shining brass. In the belfry hangs a swing-toned chime of bells. The church is complete and symmetrical, and will be the pride of the parish and of the bishop.

St. Clement's is a "bishop's church." That is to say, it is Bishop Gilbert's church, although it might be understood that it is not to be dignified with the title of cathedral, for the cathedral of the diocese is at Fairbank, and St. Clement's might be called a pro-cathedral, if we is to be particular in the matter of church nomenclature. Bishop Gilbert will have the honor of dedicating the church, and will cease to be a homeless bishop.

Rev. E. Dray, a young man who has been working quietly and effectively for Emmanuel mission, will be the minister in charge of the parish. He has commended himself to his bishop and to the people by his faithfulness, devotion and executive ability. There is a large group of church people resident in the district covered by the new church, and the new church home is much more than a mere paragon of ornament. It is not expected nor desired that the people who belong to the other parishes should attach themselves to St. Clement's, but there are a sufficient number living in that neighborhood to make a flourishing church society.

On Monday evening, Oct. 28, St. Paul Camp No. 1, Sons of Veterans, U. S. A., will give an invitation social at the camp headquarters, corner Seventh and Minnesota streets.

CAPEES AND JACKETS.

In reading the advertisements in this paper today you will notice that nobody sells a Cape or Jacket for what it's worth. Everybody sells $25.00 Jackets for $12.99; and $20.00 Capes for $9.99. What humbug you are asked to believe. Why don't they offer to give seven half dollars for a silver dollar. Just as easy to do it in print.

Our claims for your patronage rest on a stronger foundation. We offer you the largest stock in the Northwest to choose from.

We are receiving quantities of New Capes and Jackets every day, and we are showing nothing that was made last May or June.

And in spite of the fact that we don't advertise $20.00 garments for $9.99, our prices will surprise and please you by their littleness.

Velvet, Velour and Cloth Capes from Paris and Berlin, $25.00 to $100.00, and each worth its price. Cloth, Velvet and Push Capes of American manufacture, $7.00 to $45.00, and each worth its price.

A LEADER FOR MONDAY. Velour du Nord Capes, elaborately trimmed with hand cut Jet, and fully trimmed with Thibet Fur, silk-lined, for $15.00 each. The chances are they're better than capes advertised "worth $30.00."

JACKETS. All sorts of fashionable materials in proper shapes and latest styles and properly made by men tailors. There's not a new material that you can think of that's not represented in our stock. Prices? Every garment is marked in plain figures and every price speaks for itself.

ONLY ONE LEADER IS MENTIONED. 50 Jackets made of All-Wool, Fur-back Boucle, two-button box front, full three-piece sleeves, raised seams, ripple or coat back, with storm collar, lined throughout with satin Rhadame, only $8.50 tomorrow. Not worth $15.00, but might near it as Jackets go about town.

FOR CHILDREN. A full section of our handsome Cloak room—25 by 50 feet—is devoted to Reefers and Gretchens for Misses and Children. A handsome collection cannot be found anywhere East or West. In collecting this grand stock we have had in mind the fact that mothers do not like to buy high-priced garments for children who outgrow a garment every season. And most children do.

Our stock consists mainly of serviceable, warm, but at the same time stylish garments at the following low prices: $2.75 $3.75 $4.50 $5.00 $6.50 $7.50 $10.00 and $12.00

LADIES' UNDERWEAR.

"The Portage." That's the name of a new Union Suit that's better than anything heretofore produced in this country or in Europe. They are shaped by hand—narrowed and widened at the proper points—and, consequently, fit the form perfectly. They are made of finest combed yarns in navy blue mixtures, natural gray or black. Price, $5.00 a suit.

"Portage" Tights are made in the same way. The regular price is $2.50. But in order to introduce them we will sell them for $2.00 tomorrow. This price is positively for Monday only.

We will also sell tomorrow (one day only) a lot of Children's Heavy English "Himalaya" Cashmere, 2-1 rib Hose for 35 Cents a pair, or 3 pairs for $1.00. Any other day the price is 50 cents a pair, and they're cheap at that. These Stockings have double knees, double soles and toes, and high spliced heels.

RIBBONS AND LACES. 100 pieces of Persian Ribbons, the latest novelty, 3 inches wide, 35 cents a yard.

Ostrich Feather Boas, bright, brilliant and curly, 18 to 54 inches long, $2.85 to $25.00 each.

New Laces every day. Prices guaranteed.

Swiss and Hamburg Embroideries from 3 cents to 58 cents.

HANDKERCHIEFS. Two items that explain the big Handkerchief business done here. The first item was received last week but we saved them for a Grand Monday Special.

2400 Pure Linen Hand-Embroidered Handkerchiefs, scalloped edges or Hemstitched, laundered and unlaundered, sheer or heavy linen, choice for 25 Cents tomorrow. Lowest regular price 35 to 50 cents.

About 100 dozen of Pure Irish Linen Initial Handkerchiefs, for 69 Cents a box containing a half-dozen. It is true that some letters are missing (that's why they're marked down). But if you want an S or a B, what care you if there are no X's or Q's?

LACE CURTAINS. Several hundred pairs of Curtains at exact cost of importation tomorrow. Why? Just because there are not more than three pairs of a number. Only two pairs in some cases. We treat them same as we do remnants, and knock off all profits and sometimes even some of the cost.

Brussels Curtains, 3 1/2 yards long:

No. 323—$4.00 a pair; were $5.50. No. 7001—$4.50 a pair; were $6.50. No. 6010—$5.50 a pair; were $9.00. No. 3383—$10.00 a pair; were $15.50. No. 4782—$14.50 a pair; were $18.50.

Nottingham Curtains. All are 3 1/2 yards long except the first number, which is only 3 yards.

8301—60 cents a pair; were $1.00. 8406—$1.00 a pair; were $1.50. 8403—$1.60 a pair; were $2.25. 7230—$2.25 a pair; were $3.50. 8243—$2.70 a pair; were $3.75.

These are only sample prices. There are hundreds of others which will be shown for the asking.
