

OUTLINE OF SPORT.

PROGRAMME FOR THE WINTER CARNIVAL HAS BEEN DECIDED UPON.

THE EVENTS OF EACH DAY

ARE SET FORTH, BEGINNING WITH A GRAND RECEPTION AND PARADE.

INDIANS FROM DEVIL'S LAKE

Will Form Quite a Feature of the Promised Sport for This Winter.

The programme for the winter carnival has been made out. At a meeting of the carnival association, held in the Commercial club rooms yesterday afternoon, it was submitted to the association and is as follows:

- Wednesday, Jan. 21—Grand reception and club parades for prizes.
Thursday, Jan. 22—Arrival of Indians, Indian war dance.
Friday, Jan. 23—Sham battle and storming of stockade.
Saturday, Jan. 24—Military, civic and club parades.
Monday, Jan. 25—Equipage display, Indian war dance.
Tuesday, Jan. 27—Grand masquerade ball.
Wednesday, Jan. 28—Sham battle, storming and burning of stockade.
Thursday, Jan. 29—Indian war dance, Open air concert and street cake walk.
Friday, Jan. 30—Open air masquerade.
Saturday, Jan. 31—Good bye hill next year.

There are a number of other events talked of and doubtless many other features will be added. The programme above outlined is about as anything ever given in St. Paul in the carnival line. The Indians spoken of are from the reservation at Devil's Lake. They are about 100 in number and the war dances, parades and various other maneuvers, exhibiting different phases of aboriginal life, will be very interesting. The military, civic and club parades, to take place Saturday, Jan. 24, will be a grand affair and one of the best features of the carnival. The street cake walk is something entirely new and will be amusing.

The decision of the association at its meeting Friday afternoon to offer prizes to the carnival clubs presenting the best appearance in the parade, is a most commendable one. It has had the effect to stimulate public interest in this department. At the meeting yesterday, eleven clubs were reported and many more are being formed. So much interest manifested at so early a date is very encouraging. The next meeting of the association will be held at the Commercial club rooms tomorrow night, at 8 o'clock. Several matters of importance will come up, one of them being the announcement of the names of the various appointed of the various sub-committees.

MANCHESTER MARTYRS.

Anniversary of Their Death to Be Fittingly Commemorated.

The hearts of the Irish people are still warm with the love of their native land. They are anxious to see Ireland independent in no wise dependent by the centuries of oppression through which their unhappy country has passed. Of all the days of the year, held sacred by them, next to St. Patrick's day, is that on which they honor the memories of their martyred patriots who offered up their lives that Ireland might live a nation. The blood of their patriots is certainly the seed of their nation, for the death of their heroes inspires them to renewed courage. To them, liberty is dearer than their lives. They have kept up the old fight for nationhood from the days of Limerick to the present day. They have often been defeated, but never subdued. A people with such a record, it is claimed, have a right to look forward to a glorious future. On next Saturday evening, the 23rd, the patriotic Irish of the city will hold a meeting at the City hall, to commemorate the death of Allen, Larkin and O'Brien, the Manchester martyrs who offered up their lives in the cause of Ireland. The programme will consist of speeches and songs.

SHE WASN'T LOST.

But a Little Tom Says Her Mother Strayed Away.

Officer McEllistrom agrees thoroughly with Artemus Ward, who was "passionately fond of little girls, but liked to see them grow up." If small maidens become lost within half a mile of the market house, they are sure to throw themselves into McEllistrom's sympathetic arms. On Saturday evening last, a young girl, the daughter of a weeping maid of seven, who wandered down Wabasha street with a brown hand over each blue eye, exclaiming "many sad things, but chiefly 'deary me,'" "Are you lost, little girl?" inquired the officer.

"Course I'm not lost. Why, I'm right here. But my mamma's lost awfully, an' I never, never, can see how I just come to lose her. You see we was a shoppin'—" but the lucid explanation which followed did not recover the lost mamma.

Miss Lydia C. Erickson, of 218 Courtland street, therefore consented to take a ride in Grand Marier's big wagon with the pretty braided blonde and the Matron Cummings spent several hours trying to convince Lydia that other mamma's, to be equally "dreadful" and "never see where they're goin'."

JUBILEE SINGERS COMING.

Will Appear at a Number of the Churches.

Glazier's Jubilee Singers and Colored Musicians will appear at a number of the churches in the near future. The combination contains some clever vocalists, a "plantation" quartette and instrumental specialists who undoubtedly give a performance worth listening to. The company will give its first performance at the Bethany Congregational church on the evening of Nov. 22, appearing at the several churches of the city in the following order: Atlantic Congregational church, Nov. 23; Arlington Hills Presbyterian, Nov. 27; Park Congregational, Nov. 28; Grace M. E. church, Nov. 29; Clinton Avenue M. E. church, Dec. 2; Hope chapel, Dec. 7; House of Hope, Dec. 10.

GOING AFTER ANDREWS.

Charged With Disposing of a Motorcar Bicycle.

Deputy Sheriff Kenny will leave this afternoon for Fargo with requisition papers upon F. M. Andrews, who is charged with selling motorcar property. Andrews is a man with no recognized occupation. Last June he purchased a firm in this city a bicycle, for which he paid $10 cash, giving a mortgage on a wheel to secure a balance due of $90. Shortly afterward he sold the machine to one Gordon for $50. A month ago Frank E. Hall, manager of the Minnesota Tea and Coffee company, who had purchased the mortgage on the bicycle, reported to Sheriff Chapin that he had been looking for Andrews, who was arrested Thursday at Fargo on telegraphic instructions from the sheriff.

CONCERT AT TURNER HALL.

Music by the Norwegian and Swedish Societies.

The Nordmandens Singing society gave a very successful concert and orchestra at Turner hall last night before a good-sized audience. The programme was largely made up of choruses singing by the three local Norwegian and Swedish singing societies, and the hit of the evening was the rendering of the famous Norwegian song, "Brudefarde," by a chorus of 100 voices, under the direction of Prof. John Dahle. The concert was a very successful one, and the programme of special merit was a baritone solo by A. Danielson, accompanied by Prof. G. H. Rydberg. The dancing commenced at 11 o'clock and a good time was reported by all attending.

ABERDEEN CURLING CLUB.

More Members Needed to Complete Organization.

The executive committee of the Aberdeen Curling club held a meeting yesterday afternoon, at A. D. S. Johnson's office in the Germania Life building. There were about twenty new members added to the list, but about fifty more names needed before the list is complete. Any gentleman wishing to join the club may send in his application at once to H. Snowdon, secretary, room 38, Court block.

SENATOR HILLS VISIT.

Possible a Demonstration Will Be Given in His Honor.

The coming of Senator Hill to the northwest, and his visit to St. Paul, for the purpose of delivering a lecture, has aroused a good deal of interest among local Democrats, and it is possible that there will be a reception tendered to the noted New Yorker during his stay here. There is nothing of political significance in the tour of Senator Hill. He is one of the best platform talkers in the country and will deliver a lecture at the People's church, Nov. 23, on "Landmarks." The talk that was heard yesterday, of a possible public demonstration may be depicted by the senator himself, and it is not likely that anything will be done until Senator Hill or his representative is heard from.

Wanted Upon Judge Kelly.

The committee appointed at the mass meeting called to take action against the "blind pig" in the Midway district a short time ago yesterday paid a visit to Judge Kelly's chambers and directed his attention to the necessity for instructing the grand jury with reference to the matter at its next session. The grand jury meets again the latter part of this month, and undoubtedly Judge Kelly will call its attention to the alleged infractions of the law.

Patriotic Course of Study.

The committee of principals appointed at a recent meeting of the school board to act with Supt. Gilbert in arranging a course of patriotic study in the schools, met at the office of the superintendent yesterday and decided that the course would include studies of the lives of leading men, as well as prominent events in the history of the country.

ENTITLED TO PAY

JUDGE KERR FILES A DECISION FAVORABLE TO THE POLICEMEN.

M'CARDY TURNED DOWN.

COURT HOLDS THE OFFICERS WORKED AND THE CITY MUST SETTLE.

ALLOWED INTEREST, TOO.

The Comptroller's Action Will Cost the City Quite a Neat Sum.

In spite of Comptroller McCarty, the St. Paul policemen will now draw their back salaries for the month of November, 1895, and 1894, amounting to nearly $100 apiece. Judge Kerr has decided that they are entitled to it, and it is doubtful if an appeal will be taken. This decision was filed yesterday in the suit of Henry J. Pothan against the city to recover $75,000 due him as back salary for services as patrolman. Judge Kerr gives judgment for this amount in full, and in the memorandum attached to his decision he uses the following language:

"The only question presented to the court in this case was whether or not the plaintiff had been employed by the city as patrolman for November, 1893, and November, 1894, at a fixed salary amounting to $75 a month. The question of unds whereof to pay was not raised or discussed. It was contended by the defendant that the decision in the case of York vs. The City was conclusive in this case. I do not so consider it. In the York case the service for which pay was claimed had not been performed. The plaintiff simply alleged readiness to perform it. In the case at bar it is admitted that the services were actually rendered to the satisfaction of the city.

"It is moreover shown in this case, as it was not in that of York, that for years prior to the month in question, during all of which time the plaintiff served as a patrolman, monthly pay rolls passed the council, accompanied by a resolution stating in effect that the salary of patrolmen was $900 a year, payable in monthly installments of $75. This was sufficient to constitute an employment of plaintiff for the months named at that salary.

BATCH OF DAMAGE SUITS.

The City is Defendant in One of Them.

Annie L. Wheeler began an action to recover from the city of St. Paul and the Chicago City Railway company $15,000 damages for personal injuries alleged to have been sustained by falling over a manhole at the corner of Third and Grand streets, on the evening of Nov. 13 last. In her complaint she alleges that under the city ordinance granting its franchise the street railway company was to pave with granite blocks the tracks of the street, and the manhole, but that it failed to do this and the curbing of the manhole projected six inches above the ground, causing her to trip over it. She alleges that in falling she dislocated her shoulder, bruised her face and one of her eyes, sprained, bruised and lamed her hand, arm, side and back, and otherwise damaged herself so that she was laid up for a long time and suffered greatly in body and mind, so that the amount named will no more than compensate her.

CHIEF PALMER ISSUES A CALL FOR A MEETING.

T. R. Palmer, chairman of the committee appointed by the Ramsey County Bar association to investigate the charge that a system of jury "plugging" prevails in the courts of this county, has issued the following call for a meeting of that committee and the presence of all persons having any information in the premises:

"The committee—consisting of T. R. Palmer, W. H. Lightner, James E. Markham, S. S. Durmont, E. A. Jagan, Pierce Butler, R. Fauntleroy, Samuel Morrison and Edward B. Graves, appointed by Chairman E. O. Ozman, of the St. Paul Bar association, to investigate the charge that a system of jury 'plugging' prevails in the courts of this county, has issued the following call for a meeting of that committee and the presence of all persons having any information in the premises:

EVIDENCE WAS LACKING.

Men Charged With Getting a Farmer's Coin Discharged.

In the municipal court yesterday were arraigned the four Swedes charged with having swindled Farmer Riggs out of $70 by a card trick in a University avenue saloon. John Carlson, John Johnson and Hans Olson were charged with larceny. Owing to the minor part taken in the transaction by Sam Quammen, the charge against him was changed from larceny to vagrancy. Johnson forfeited his bail of $50 by failing to appear in court. The proof of fraud against Carlson and Olson was by no means conclusive, and they were discharged. Quammen, also, was declared vagrant. Then the three prisoners were tried for gambling, but were again dismissed. The only direct evidence was furnished by the prisoners themselves, whose unopposed testimony could not be used against each other.

ing an action in the municipal court for the ejection of Heimback from his homestead came up before Judge Brill yesterday, and has been taken under consideration by Judge Heimback claims Martin Bruggeman, claiming to be the owner of the property, failed to pay off a certain mortgage according to agreement, but allowed the property to be sold, John Bruggeman, his son, buying the certificate of sale later on and demanding possession.

JURY INVESTIGATION.

Chairman Palmer Issues a Call for a Meeting.

T. R.
